Noted English Journalist to Address Final Session of Local Community Forum

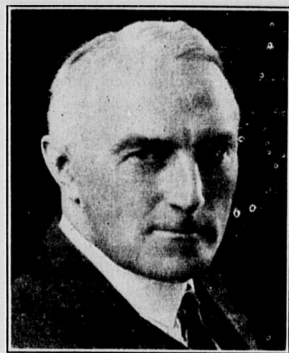

S. K. Ratcliffe Was Once Editor of English Daily Newspaper in Calcutta; Topic Will Be "The New Map of the World"

The eighth and final lecture of the Newton Community Forum will be held on Sunday March 5, 1939, at 3:30 p. m. in the Newton High School Auditorium, Newtonville. Mr. S. K. Ratcliffe, well known English journalist and world traveler will speak on the subject, "The New Map of the World." He will complete a quarter of a century on the American platform this year, a record unique in public speaking.

Since his last American tour, Mr. Ratcliffe has been travelling continually through Australasia and the Orient. Beginning in the spring of 1938 with Hawaii, where he lectured at the University in Honolulu, he spent one month in New Zealand, and three months in Australia, going on by Manila to the China coast and Japan. He was in New Zealand while the new Social Security legislation was being shaped, and in Australia as the Commonwealth was preparing to launch the Health and Old Age Insurance plan embodied in the Act of 1938. His journey through the Far East coincided with the momentous events during the fall of 1938—the advance of the invading armies in the south and centre of China, the fall of Canton and Hankow, and the Japanese domination of the eastern Yangtze region.

In his journalistic capacity he travels as a representative of the famous London Weekly, "The Spectator." After editing an evening paper, Mr. Ratcliffe spent five years in India as editor of "The Statesman," the leading English daily paper of Calcutta. On his return to England, he was for ten years a lecturer in the Extension department of the University of London. During recent years he has been an editorial writer for the London "Daily News," and the "New Statesman and Nation," and a constant contributor to important magazines in England and America. He is a frequent radio speaker and is a member of the Spoken English Committee of the English Broadcasting Corporation. At Yale University he has lectured on the Bromley and Block foundations, and at Cornell on the Messenger and Schiff foundations. Every winter since its establishment he has delivered a series of addresses at the Town Hall, New York City.

Seven Injured in Auto Accident

Sunday noon at 12:30 a car driven by Laura House, 19, of 72 Taft ave., West Newton, collided at Crafts and North sts., Newtonville with a car driven by John Harrington, 57, of 409 Trapelo rd., Waverley. The car driven by Miss House was badly damaged and the Harrington car was wrecked. Mrs. Irving House, who was riding with her daughter, received a severe head injury and was taken to the Newton Hospital. Laura House and her 12 year old sister, Hazel, were slightly injured. The four occupants of the Harrington car were also injured. Besides the driver, they were Mrs. Alice Harrington, Anna Deehan of 142 Warren st., Watertown; and William Deehan, 75, of 142 Warren st., Harrington reported that she slowed down as he reached the intersection, looked both ways before emerging from North st., and saw no car. Miss House reported that she was operating at a speed of 30 miles, and thought the other car was going to stop.

Mayor To Again Recommend Two Platoon System

Mayor Childs stated on Monday that in his coming budget message he will recommend appropriations so that the two platoon system can be established in the Newton Fire Department and that members of the Newton Police Department will receive one day off in 7, instead of one day off in 7 as at present. Newton is the only city in this State where the two platoon system is not in effect, and the Mayor in past inaugural addresses has recommended its establishment, but did not subsequently ask for any appropriation to put it into effect. The day in six for the police has been agitated for the past few years, but did not become an actuality because provision was not made for the additional policemen such a change will require.

C. F. Eddy Company Wins Trophy In Safety Contest

The C. F. Eddy Company of West Newton was the winner of a trophy in the "1938 Commercial Vehicle Accident Reduction Contest" conducted by the Massachusetts Safety Council. The trophy was presented at noon on February 28 at a luncheon meeting of the Safety Council held in the dining room at the Boston Chamber of Commerce. The awards were made by Frank A. Goodwin, Registrar of Motor Vehicles, Prof. Dean Fales of M. I. T. gave an address on "Are We Sacrificing Safety to Style in Building Automobiles?" Clifford R. Eddy received the trophy in behalf of the C. F. Eddy Company. It is the third time that the company has been awarded a trophy by the Safety Council because its fleet of motor vehicles went through a whole year without an accident. The company operates fifteen motor vehicles. In former years when the company used horse drawn vehicles instead of motor vehicles, the horses it owned won many prizes yearly at the Work Horse Parades in Boston.

Searching For Body, Fall Into River

A Metropolitan District policeman and two M. D. C. employees were hurried into the cold water of the Charles River on Monday afternoon when the boat they were using in the search for the body of 8 year old Helen Orrok capsized near the Wales street bridge at Lower Falls. Patrolman William Cronin, Ray Penegar of Roxbury and Robert Howard of Watertown reached the shore of the river safely and were taken to the M. D. C. station at Norumbega to have their clothing dried. The boat tipped over when it hit the wire net that had been placed at the bridge in an effort to recover the body of the child who was drowned on January 17.

Sue Gas Company For $60,000

The Boston Consolidated Gas Company is the defendant in suits totalling $60,000 which have been filed by James P. Gallagher as attorney for 31 persons who claim to have received injuries when a leak from a gas main caused an explosion on Hawthorn st., Nonantum early on the morning of October 29, 1937. The house at 60 Hawthorn st., owned by Joseph Del Grosso and occupied by him and members of his family, was destroyed by the explosion and resultant fire, and several other houses were damaged.

New Pope Visited Newton in 1936

Cardinal Eugenio Pacelli who was elected Pope yesterday at Rome and who assumed the name of Pope Pius XII visited Newton in October of 1936 as the guest of Bishop Francis Spellman at Sacred Heart Rectory in Newton Centre. The new Pope and Bishop Spellman had long been close friends and the then Cardinal Pacelli was met by the Bishop when he arrived in New York. He came to Newton Centre on Tuesday evening, October 16, 1936 and spent the night at the rectory. The following morning he celebrated mass at 7:45 at Sacred Heart Church and then visited Cardinal O'Connell at the latter's residence. That night he again spent at Sacred Heart rectory and after celebrating mass the following morning, he was tendered a reception by the pupils of Sacred Heart School. He later paid visits to Boston College and Sacred Heart Convent, and then departed on his tour to other parts of the United States, much of which was traveled by airplane. He was accompanied on the tour by Bishop Spellman.

Experience Record of New Appointee

The following outline of professional experience of Francis L. Searway of 119 Dickerman rd., Newton Highlands, was received, upon request, from the office of Mayor Childs. At the last meeting of the Board of Aldermen, Mayor Childs submitted the name of Mr. Searway as Street Commissioner of the City of Newton. The late Street Commissioner, Charles Mahoney, died in July, 1938 and the position has since been filled by Division Foreman Charles J. McCarthy as Acting Street Commissioner. Student Concert This Evening At High School

Newton High School Auditorium on Friday evening, March 3, will house a large audience of music lovers, assembled to hear the Mid-Winter Instrumental and Vocal Concert of Newton High School. The program which is under the direction of Messrs. Haydn M. Morgan and J. Collins Lingo, begins at 8:15. Many pupils take part. There are 35 in the orchestra, 60 in the band, 64 in the boys' chorus, 190 in the girls' choir, and 64 in the mixed glee club. Hannah Sherman, cellist, and Alda Puccarelli, violinist, have solo roles. Accompanists include Dorothy Kovitz, Jeanne Louise Morgan, Mary Louise Shadman, Henry Richardson, and Richard Warren.

Newton Taxpayers Asso. Announces Stand on Budget

In view of the prevailing economic conditions which involve lack of employment by many, a seriously reduced income by others of our citizens, the loss of homes because of mortgage foreclosures, sales because of unpaid taxes, while at the same time, increasing demands for support of the unfortunate are a drain upon both the public and the private purse—it is imperative that the greatest possible economy should prevail in the management of our civic business affairs. In order to lower the present heavy burden of taxation, this association stands foursquare upon certain cardinal principles of business management:

1. A "pay as you go" basis of conducting city finance.
2. A budget which includes all known items and amounts, necessary to conduct the city's business on an economical basis.
3. Insistence that every department of the city keeps its expenditures within the sum of its budget appropriation.
4. That the yardstick in spending (Continued on Page 2)

Hearing on $20,000 McGuinness Award

On Tuesday at Middlesex Superior Court Judge Walter Collins heard arguments presented by Attorney Edward Mullenwey representing the City of Newton and Joseph Abrams of Boston, representing Mrs. Esther McGuinness of Parper pl., Newton Centre. Mrs. McGuinness was recently awarded $20,000 for land seized by the city a few years ago for public purposes. The city contended that the actual value of the land was $650, and its attorney petitioned that the verdict be set aside and a new trial ordered. Judge Collins reserved his decision.

Planning Board Seeks Greater Control Over Property Developments

Now Have No Control When Original Lot Plans Are Changed and Smaller Lots Substituted By Speculative Builders

The Newton Planning Board has presented to Mayor Childs and the Board of Aldermen a request that it be granted increased authority so that it can control real estate developments in this city. For a number of years large estates have been subdivided in the Newtons and in the past few years there has been a trend toward the splitting of large house lots into smaller lots. Speculative builders and real estate promoters from outside Newton, who do not have the interest of the city at heart, have been building dwellings on small lots to the detriment of surrounding properties and the city as a whole. The Planning Board calls attention to a number of cases where lot plans were submitted by real estate developers or builders, and then the plans were changed and smaller lots substituted. Because of its present limited powers, the Planning Board could not prevent these undesirable developments. The Board states that at present its duties are limited to making careful studies of the resources, possibilities and needs of the city, particularly with reference to conditions injurious to the public health or otherwise in and about rented dwellings; and to making plans for the development of the municipality, with special reference to proper housing of its inhabitants. "The Planning Board is limited to making studies for the development of the city. The duties of the Board of Survey are confined to public and private ways. In other words, the powers are very limited and should be increased," the resolution states. "For instance, the Board of Survey has no power to regulate the size of the lots in a proposed real estate development. . . . "Until recently, agreements entered into between owners of real estate and the Board of Survey regarding the size of the lots have been scrupulously observed by the owners. During the year 1938, however, there were instances in which plans were submitted to the board showing the size of the proposed lots, and after the board had approved the plans the owners deliberately reduced the size of the lots to the detriment of the neighborhood.

Newton Educators Attend Convention

The annual winter convention of the Department of Secondary-School Principals of the National Educational Association was held at the Hotel Cleveland, Cleveland, Ohio, February 25 to March 1. In attendance from Newton were Superintendent Julius E. Warren, Principal Paul E. Ellicker, Miss Laura Hooper, Mr. Elwood C. Drake, and George Kellar. Mr. Paul E. Ellicker, President of the Department of Secondary-School Principals, presided at the first general session, the Saturday banquet, and introduced the speakers who included Lord Bertrand Russell. Lord Russell spoke on "Education for Democracy," urging the schools to expose American children to the "most vehement and terrific argumentation on all sides of every question" so that they may (Continued on Page 10)

1938 Act Gives Powers

"Should the mayor and the Board of Aldermen decide to adopt the aforesaid sections of Chapter 211 of the Acts of 1936, we believe it will greatly increase the powers of the Board of Survey. As we interpret said sections, the board will then pass upon all plans of subdivisions of real estate, with full power to approve, modify and approve, or disapprove such plans. It is provided that every person making a subdivision shall submit to the Board of Survey for approval a plan of such subdivision and the board shall receive and pass upon such plan. "Before approving the plan the board shall hold a public hearing, after due notice to all owners of the property abutting upon the land included in the plan. "The board may thereupon approve, modify and approve, or disapprove such plan, and shall file a certificate of such action with the city clerk. "The board may require such provision of street development and utility (Continued on Page 10)

Central Club Will Hear Talk on Tax Problems

The Central Club of Newtonville will hold its next meeting on Monday, March 6, 1939, at The Central Church, in Newtonville.

Following the usual dinner Mr.
George E. Pellissier, Director of Organization for the Mass. Federation of Taxpayers Association, will speak on "Problems Confronting the Taxpayer." Mr. Pellissier, who was formerly Lt. Governor of the Kiwanis Society in Mass. and a past president of the Holyoke Kiwanis Club, has been engaged recently in helping neighboring states to organize federations of taxpayers similar to the Mass. Association. He is thoroughly familiar with the problems of the taxpayers and will highlight recent appropriations in Massachusetts. The meeting will be opened for discussion at the conclusion of the speaker's presentation.

Archers Hold Annual Meeting February 25

The Newton Archers held their 26th annual meeting Saturday, Feb.
25, at the Newton Centre Playground House. New officers unanimously elected were: President, Reginald C. Garner, Newton Centre;
vice president, Henry S. C. Cummings, Newton Centre; secretary-treasurer, Vera G. Andrews, Newton Centre; executive committee, Adrian Matthews, Newton Highlands; Mrs.
Carl Spofford, Arlington; Burton Howarth, Waban.

In connection with the meeting was held the 5th annual exhibition of articles of interest to archers, unusual equipment was exhibited, also many types of bows and arrows, including a Turkish bow. An unusual collection of photographs was shown by the Photograph Committee of The National Archery Association of which
Mr. Henry S. C. Cummings and Mrs.
David Goldich are members. Other persons exhibiting were: Mr. Ernest Herman, superintendent of the Newton Playgrounds, Mrs. John C. Winget, Miss Vera Andrews, Louis C. Smith and Adrian Matthews.

The meeting was well attended;
among those present were five of the charter members: Miss Ruth Brewer,
Miss Stella M. Ives, Mrs. B. P. Gray,
Edw. W. Frent and Louis C. Smith.
A committee was appointed to attend a meeting in the State House this week and urge the passing of a bill now pending that would permit Archers to hunt with bows and arrows, one week in advance of the regular season. The committee appointed were: President, R. C. Garner, Walter Kimber, G. S. Skinner Jr. and Carl Spofford.

Other committee chairmen appointed were: Handicap, Mrs. Carl Spof-ford; Rules, Bertram M. Harrison; Social, Miss Mildred Bourdon; Trophy, Mrs. Adrian Matthews; Novelty, Bob Goldich; Weekly Tournaments,
Carl Spofford; Instruction, Mrs. B. M.
Harrison; Jr. Instruction and Jr.
Membership, Bob Goldich; Membership, Burton Howarth; Target, Fess, Mrs. Leroy A. Schall; Publicity, Mrs.
David E. Goldich.

Archery is gaining in popularity and the club looks forward to a very busy year—the municipal Archery range at the Newton Centre Playground is one of the best in the country and fine shooting conditions probably account for the many National champions the Newton Archers have had in their membership.

PLAYOFF SERIES IN SUBURBAN LEAGUE

Triple Tie To Be Dissolved on Newton Floor

The Suburban League basketball title will be played off in a series to be opened at 7:30 Saturday evening on the Newton High court between the Newton and Arlington High quintets. The Waltham five, also deadlocked with the other two schools for honors at the end of the regular season, drew a bye and will meet the winner of tomorrow night's affair.
The eventual winner of the Suburban title will probably be invited to the annual M. I. T. tournament although no definite assurance has been forthcoming. In previous years Director Henry McCarthy has usually included the Suburban champion among those invited.

The play-off series was arranged at a meeting of Suburban League officials early in the week when athletic directors of the schools involved met at Arlington. Their action establishes a precedent in view of the fact that previous ties have been allowed to stand and official play-offs have been frowned upon. In 1937 Waltham and Rindge Tech staged a special postseason game.

Fortune favored Waltham High in a blind draw which saw Newton and Arlington matched against each other for the first game. Arrangements were then made for Saturday's game with the winner to meet Waltham on a neutral floor next Tuesday night.
Waltham, with a game scheduled for tonight against Waltham Trade, was not over anxious to play again tomorrow and had they not drawn a bye the series might have been put off for several days. Definite arrangements for next week's game have not yet been completed with Watertown or M. I. T. having been mentioned as likely scenes for the title game.

In addition to the Newton-Arlington game another game will be played between two teams from the Newton intermediate squads. It was first suggested that Rindge and Cambridge Latin might play the halves of the playoff game but as interest in the sport is mainly local the later arrangement was made. Carl MacPherson

OUR LADY'S HIGH FIVE IN CATHOLIC TOURNAMENT

Win Play-Off From St. Charles To Get Bid

Our Lady High's basketball team defeated the St. Charles High five in a playoff for second place in the Greater Boston Catholic High School basketball league last Saturday 27 to 18. The game was staged at the Working Boys Home at Newton Highlands and the winner was to qualify for the Catholic High School New England tournament which gets under way today at the Boston Arena.

Our Lady High is definitely a factor in this tournament and although not regarded as the favorite it is given a chance at upsetting things and becoming a contender. Mission High five of Roxbury and the Claremont, N. H. School were seeded in the draw as probable opponents in the final round. Our Lady High five should dispose of its early round opponents to meet the Claremont five in the semifinal. If able to hurdle this obstacle it would then meet Mission High, defending champions.

The local entrant in the Catholic
League started off slowly with Coach Charlie Gallagher, filling in due to the illness of Coach Fr. Russell Haley, striving to mold a team out of a squad of more or less inexperienced players. Melio Carderelli, who is the 1939 league season high scorer, was the only member of last year's quintet. Coach Gallagher, who is an alumni of Our Lady High and a prominent athlete while there and at Providence college, built slowly but surely. Winning four out of the first seven games was but slightly better than average basketball but from then on the locals came with a rush. Closing the season with seven straight league triumphs, the climax coming with a 33 to 28 defeat of Mission High, Coach Gallagher's lads found themselves in the thick of the league race and drew up to a tie with St. Charles.

In the game with St. Charles last Saturday the Newton team saw their Waltham rivals draw away to a 7 to 1 lead in the first quarter and were forced to battle all the way to pull up to a 9 to 8 counter at the end of the half with St. Charles just holding a one-point margin. In the third quarter St. Charles again staged an offensive that left the Newton team dazzled and when the teams went into the final period the Waltham five enjoyed an 18 to 12 lead and the
Our Lady High chances looked slim indeed. With Carderelli and Grella in the forward positions, and Cronin and Dan Carderelli in the guard positions the Our Lady High team went to town.
Holding St. Charles scoreless they tallied 15 points to stun the invaders.
Muse and the two J. Murphys divided the time at the center berth. Cronin collected 10 points as high scorer with Muse getting 5, and the two Carderellis 4 each.

NEWTON WINS STATE MEET FOR SECOND SLAM

For the second consecutive year the Newton high school track team scored a grand slam of all major indoor interscholastic titles by annexing the Class
A state title at the Boston Garden last Saturday. The orange and black crew tallied 28½ points, scoring in all but three events—the dash, 300-yard run, and shotput—to lead Boston English in second place with 15 3/4 points and Malden third with 13 points.

The only two defending state champions competing in the meet, Don Mac-Kinnon and Bill Pescosolido, both of Newton, retained their crowns in their respective events, the hurdles and high jump. In addition Pesky annexed the only new record, moving the high jump ceiling to 6 ft. 2 in., to replace that set by Ralph Ryan, Pesky's Nemesia from Boston English in 1937, at 6 ft. 4 in.

Another pair of Coach Enoch's lads shared titular honors in the 600. Art Hughes of Newton, running in the second heat, stepped along at a fast pace to break the tape in 1m. 20.2s. In the fourth and final heat Fred Hall of Newton, LaForrest Hall of English and Don Reid of Medford raced along in close order with the Northeastern University meet winner, Reid, slightly in front. On the bell lap Newton's Hall made a bid to pass but Reid fought him off on the first bank. Down the back stretch, however, Newton's star stepped out in front as Reid began to fade under the withering pressure. English's Hall came up fast to snatch second place five yards behind the Newton runner at the tape. Fred Hall's time of 1m. 20.2s was identical with that of Hughes, his teammate and the two local youths divided an honor which would have been disappointing for either to have lost.

In winning the hurdles, Don Mac-Kinnon was clocked in record-equaling figures of 5.6. The champion, however, had to come like lightning over the last barrier at which point he was led by his mate and co-captain of the Newton team, Pescosolido. With the Newton pairing taking first and second, the locals were off to a good start with eight points added to 3½ digits in the broad jump.

George Hutchins, Newton's best
1,000 yarder, won the second trial heat in this event, at 2m. 29.2s, good enough for a fourth place. The three first places went to the first three runners in the final heat which was paced by Blair of Medford.

Figured as a potential winner of the broad jump was Billy Alpert who had not done less than 10 feet for Newton in competition this season. Alpert's best leap of 9 ft. 11 5/8 in. was only good for a second place tie with Young of Lawrence after Perillo of Lawrence had taken first with a leap only one quarter of an inch further. Stewart MacNeil of Newton earned the fourth place point with a jump a half inch behind that of his teammate.

The relay race was a heartbreaker for Newton fans. Coach Enoch's fastest quartet, Pescosolido, Hughes, Hall and MacKinnon were sent to the starting line against Malden in the final race of the afternoon. The first three Newton runners literally flew around the saucer to build up a lead of nearly fifteen yards when the picture suddenly changed. Apparently MacKinnon did not get a firm grasp on the baton as he took it from Hall as he juggled it momentarily and then batted it to the edge of the track as he tried to hold it. Retrieving it he found himself ten yards behind the Malden anchor and although he strove gamely to catch up the added efforts had taken too much out of him and he could not match the Malden anchor's final burst to the tape. Newton's time, instead of having come close to a new record, was barely good enough for fourth in the

Trucks on Dedham St., Drivers Fined

In the Newton court last Friday three truck drivers were fined $5 each for operating trucks on Dedham st., Oak Hill in violation of the traffic ordinances. Patrolman Lupien was the complainant. Milton Emerson of Vine st., Cambridge had to pay his fine, but the fines imposed on Salvatore Petrillo of West Roxbury and Frank Gaetone of West Roxbury were suspended.

Fires at C. Hill And Auburndale

A fire, the cause of which is unknown, occurred in the cellar of the Park Lake Drug Store at 21 Commonwealth ave., Chestnut Hill shortly after midnight on Monday. It was accompanied by a hot air explosion which caused several clerks and customers to make a hasty exit from the store. The damage was estimated at about $500.

Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock a fire in the kitchen of the first floor apartment of the two family house at 30 Groveland st., Auburndale, caused damage estimated at several hundreds of dollars. The house is occupied by Albert Puffer and Walter Lewis.

Imagination Main Factor

In All American History

"The whole history of America must include a history of the American imagination. The settlers came because they imagined a new world better for them than the one they left. For a long time their imagination kept them colonists. That is, they could not imagine themselves as citizens of a new and separate nation. The movement toward independence was, among other things, the triumph of a growing imagination over a conventional one. Transplanted Europeans became conscious Americans. Dr. Carl van Doren declared in a lecture at Columbia University.

"Once independent, Americans had to learn to imagine the United States. Heretofore they had been inhabitants of one colony or another. Now they had somehow to pool their conceptions of themselves as Americans and establish in their minds the image of a general country. The history of the United States from the Revolution through the Civil war is a history of the process by which the American imagination triumphed over conflicting sectional imaginations.

"Imagination is a controlling influence in literature produced throughout the world. Although books are written by actual writers, the literary process takes place among the people, everybody. In other words, people make up the ideas and whoever has the knack expresses them. The ideas of a writer are never listened to or read unless they are already in the people themselves."

Indians Not Sentimental,

But Have Sense of Humor

Although Indians as a rule are fond of animals, they are not sentimental. As we all know, the red man prides himself on keeping his feelings "inside." He possesses a queer sense of humor. Something which would strike a white man as very funny might be witnessed by the Indian with an expressionless face, while something in the way of a "surprise" would likely convulse the latter with as much merriment as he is capable of showing.

Said a westerner, "When in Dakota I was inspecting a barn where some Indian boys were milking. There were 25 stables. One of the cows kicked over a milk-pail, nearly full of milk. The Indian boy who was milking was covered and dripping with milk and froth. Most of the Indian boys along the line of stables jumped up laughing as hard as they were capable of laughing, gathering around him, as if some great joke were in progress.

"The victim, instead of revenging the accident on the cow, by hitting back, lay down and rolled over with mirth, as though the joke had been on the cow, instead of himself. This was surely a fine example of good nature for the white man to emulate."

The Sunset Light

"Such matters do not seem of so much consequence as they did years ago, and I do not let them trouble me as they did once," said an elderly lady, speaking of some hurts and disappointments that had come to her. "You know," she added, with a little laugh, "a good many things wear a different look in the light of the westward slope." Life's later years bring a change in many estimates of values; the light in the west is often clearer in its revelations than that of the morning. There are early ambitions that later are shown to be not worth the struggle they cost, possessions feverishly sought are now revealed as holding no permanent satisfaction, and especially do injuries, resentments and jealousies shrink into nothingness in the calm light of a descending sun. There is many an interest looming largely now, concerning which we might well ask what it will be worth a little farther on.

Sit-Down Strikes Old

In the twenty-ninth year of King Rameses III (1179 B. C.) workers in the royal cemetery of Thebes sat down behind the temple of Thutmose III and refused to work until given their food allowance for the month Tubi (October). "We came here," they said, "because of hunger and thirst; we have no clothes; we have no slaves; we have no fish; we have no cabbage." Given some food after three days of argument they resumed work. But in Phamenoth (December) they again "stepped over the wall" and "sat down by the city of the dead" and controversies continued until the second day of Pachon (February), when the workers finally received all the food due them.

Europe Part of Continent

Great Britain, although an island, is so close to the continent of Europe that it is generally regarded as being a part of it. Scientists are of the opinion that the British Isles, which are on what is known as the continental shelf, were formerly joined to the mainland and were not separated from it until comparatively recent times, geologically speaking. The rest of the world regards Great Britain as a European nation, although the British people themselves refer to continental Europe as "the continent" to distinguish it from the British Isles. Europe itself, strictly speaking, is not a continent, but merely part of the continent of Eurasia.

Selfish Man Is Conscious

Of Little Else but Self

The truly wise man will measure himself by the universe, rather than the universe by himself—if he must devote any considerable time or thought to the business of measuring, which may be very decidedly overdone. One of the greatest of virtues is found in the lack of self-consciousness, and it is a virtue that it is not easy to acquire. Nor can it exist in association with selfishness, for the selfish man is conscious of little else but self. So the question is at bottom moral, spiritual and religious. Taking the broader, and also the kindlier and more tolerant view, it ought to be possible for a man to see that it does not greatly matter what happens to him, as long as he keeps his soul clean and his honor unstained. By referring everything to self, and judging everything by its effect on self, one finds it very easy—indeed, one can not help doing it—to condemn the world and the general life of man and other men as wholly evil. The trouble is with the point of view, which is far too narrow and altogether wrong. No men have preached the truth more eloquently and powerfully than those who failed in the most pitiful way to apply it to their own lives.

Mineral Resources Make

Spain Real Treasure Chest

Spain is a treasure vault for many minerals, some with a long and sanguinary history.

More than 2,000 years ago, silver mines of Iberia (as Spain was then known) regularly employed 40,000 men.

It was the lure of precious metals then that drew explorers and generals to foreign shores. Spain, rich in silver and gold, was to the ancients what Peru and Mexico in the New World later became to the Conquistadores. Phoenicians, Carthaginians and Romans, in turn, swarmed to this peninsula, stripping it of fortunes in metal. One of the dramatic scenes of history was that triumphant procession in Rome when Scipio, home from victorious campaigns on the Iberian peninsula, paraded the streets with chariots heaped with silver from ravaged Spain.

The treasure chest of them all, of course, is the Almaden district, in Ciudad Real, with nearly half of the world's supply of mercury. More than 20 of Spain's 50 provinces contain among other deposits copper, lead, zinc, iron, coal and potash.

The Homely Octopus

Of all the ugly creatures found in the sea, the octopus must surely take first prize. Its appearance strikes terror into the minds of bathers, but it is only in looks that it is so offensive. It is harmless, and never has been capable of killing and devouring men, a feat described by Victor Hugo. It belongs to that class of animals known as the mollusca in which we find snails, oysters and other shellfish. Its food consists entirely of members of its own class, for, although some writers have stated that it feeds on fish, those who have made a study of this strange creature find that it feeds only on crabs, lobsters, oysters and other shellfish.

The Useful Bat

Bats frequently invade attics of houses. Although undesirable in houses, these creatures are really beneficial as they eat many destructive insects. They are nocturnal in habit, hiding during the day in secluded places. The first thing to control them is to find any opening by which they may be entering the house; and to close this up with either boards or wire netting. Recent experiments have indicated that bats do not like the fumes of naphthalene. It is suggested therefore that from 2 to 5 pounds of naphthalene flakes be scattered in the attic. If this remedy is tried, it should be carried out before the openings are closed up.

Threads of Life

It's odd. A man thinks his own will guides his own life. But the world is full of human lives; a man is bound to blunder into some of them, weave his own with them in dissolubly, or touch and drift away and touch again, or narrowly miss touching and maybe never know. The pattern is on the loom. And sometimes, looking back, you see a part of it. A thread weaves in and out and disappears; it is not broken but still weaving somewhere. Is it incidence when it appears again? Unknown or unconscious forces.

Solomonic Advice on Pay

Peter the Great of Russia when asked what pay to give foreigners in Russia's service gave this Solomonic judgment: "To a Frenchman, good pay, for he is a man of pleasure who does not amass wealth, but spends what he earns. To Dutchmen and to Italians, since they are very economical, less pay, for they live on little."

That Sheepish Feeling

"Why, pa, this is roast beef!" exclaimed little Willie at dinner one evening when a guest of honor was present. "Of course," said the father. "What of that?" "Why, you told me this morning that you were going to bring an old mutton-head home for dinner this evening."

Red or Black Hair Does

Not Mark Man's Ability

Hair doesn't seem to afford any index to genius or character. It is true that among the important personages history has turned up there have been a good many red-heads, but the number does not appear to be greater, proportionately, than the number of red-haired persons among the less important, declares a writer in the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

John Bunyan had red hair, for one. And Peter the Great's was red, and Swinburne's hair is described as having been ruddy or auburn, and Andrew Jackson's was "reddish sandy." Savanarola had reddish eyelashes, according to accounts of him, while Thomas Hobbes had reddish whiskers. The hair of U. S. Grant was a reddish brown, and that of William the Silent was auburn. And Calvin Coolidge's hair was not far from red when he was a young man.

To show that red-haired persons have no monopoly of talent, here are the names of a few outstanding figures whose hair was black: Matthew Arnold, Samuel Taylor Coleridge, Stephen A. Douglas, William Hazlitt, Charles Lamb, John Marshall, Daniel Webster, John Greenleaf Whittier, John Paul Jones, Sir Arthur Sullivan.

Among those whose hair was classified as "dark" were Browning, Alexandre Dumas, Robert Louis Stevenson, Rossetti, and Mendelssohn. William Cullen Bryant's, Defoe's, Cromwell's, Longfellow's and Faragut's heads were brown. And the downright blondes have included (among many others) Keats and Thackeray.

Human Body Only Machine

That Can Do Own Repairs

Your body is the most marvelous piece of mechanism on earth. It is the only machine capable of doing its own repairs. Not only does the body repair itself, but it also manufactures the various materials necessary for repair.

Can you imagine a broken brick mending itself without the aid of human hands? Yet that is what your body does when something goes wrong. All you have to do is give it the necessary fuel—food and air—and your body will give you long and perfect service, observes a writer in Pearson's London Weekly.

As you know, the object of breathing fresh air is to maintain life. The oxygen we breathe mingles with the red corpuscles of the blood, purifies it, promotes energy, and builds up a natural resistance to germ infection.

When your body is not getting enough oxygen nature gives you a warning. Do you know what that warning is? A yawn!

You do not yawn because you are sleepy or bored. If you were living in the open air you would go to sleep without yawning. And you become bored with company because the room is stuffy, and so you yawn. The yawn is simply an SOS call from the body for more oxygen, and it is a subconscious call.

Difference Between Ale, Beer

Ale is a kind of beer. All ale is beer, but all beer is not ale. Originally the terms were synonymous. Now beer is a general name for all malt liquors, while ale is applied specifically to the paler kinds, the malt of which has not been roasted or burnt. Ale differs from ordinary beer in having a lighter color, a smaller proportion of hops and a higher alcoholic content. It is generally sweeter than beer because it contains more or less unfermented saccharine matter. The application of "ale" and "beer" varies considerably in different countries and localities. Before the adoption of prohibition, American ale was a malt liquor made by "top fermentation," in which the newly formed yeast went to the top and was removed.

How Gold Is Refined

Placer gold deposits are worked by washing the gravel to remove the greater part of the lighter barren rock, followed by treatment of the concentrate by the cyanide process. Sodium cyanide is used to dissolve the gold; the clear solution is drawn off into another vessel where the gold is precipitated by adding zinc. In the chlorination process, the gold-bearing quartz is treated with chlorine, producing gold chloride which dissolves. From the clear solution the gold is precipitated by adding ferrous sulphate solution. The gold bullion obtained by either process contains traces of silver, copper, iron and other metals. These are separated by treatment with sulphuric acid and by an electrolytic process.

Blood in Four Categories

The blood of human beings is typed in four different categories generally represented by the first four Roman numerals. Experimentation in blood transfusion years ago brought out that bloods of different species of animals were incompatible and that a similar incompatibility existed in all races of men between bloods of different individuals. Of the four main types of blood, often referred to as blood groups, so far as is definitely known, no one type is any better than another, says the United States Public Health Service.

Used N. H. Plates, Fined $160

Phillip Jeffrey, 20, of 266 Cabot st., Newtonville, was fined $160 by Judge Mayberry in the Newton court on Tuesday; $100 for operating an uninsured car, $50 for operating after his right to do so had been suspended, and $10 for operating an unregistered car. He was given a month to pay the fines. Inspector Edward Shea of the Registry of Motor Vehicles testified that young Jeffrey had been warned against using New Hampshire number plates on his car.

NEWTON AGAIN WINS STATE MEET

division of relay points for three more counters.

The dash field was too fast for Beloit and Hurley, Newton entrants who failed to survive the preliminary heats. Don Ashley and Joe Paglia each finished second in their heats in the 300 in which the four fastest runners qualified for the finals, but not in figures necessary to qualify.

Tomorrow Coach Enoch will take a half dozen of his squad to Bowdoin where the annual interscholastics of that college will be held. In 1938 the Newton team came home with the most title and with MacKinnon, Pescosolido, Hughes, Hall, Hutchings and one or two others another win may be added to the long Newton string.

Meadowlark Well-Known Bird

The eastern meadowlark is a common and well-known bird occurring from the Atlantic coast to the Great plains, where it gives way to the closely related western species, which extends thence westward to the Pacific. It winters from our southern border as far north as the District of Columbia, southern Illinois, and occasionally Iowa. The western form winters somewhat farther north. Although it is a bird of the plains, and finds its most congenial haunts in the prairies of the West, it is at home wherever there is level or undulating land covered with grass or weeds, with plenty of water at hand.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Man" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world, on Sunday, March 5.

The Golden Text is: "God giveth to a man that is good in his sight wisdom and knowledge, and joy" (Ecclesiastes 2:26).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And, behold, there was a man which had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath days? that they might accuse him. And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you, that shall have an ox or an ass fallen into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out? How much then is a man better than a sheep? Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other" (Matthew 12:10-13).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Jesus walked on the waves, fed the multitude, healed the sick, and raised the dead in direct opposition to material laws. His acts were the demonstration of Science, overcoming the false claims of material sense or law" (p. 273).

Wrs in April

April has been referred to as the "battle month" because the four major wars that the United States has participated in have all begun in the month of April. The first battle of the Revolutionary war at Lexington and Concord, took place in April, 1775; Fort Sumter, starting the Civil war, was fired on April 12, 1861. A state of war was declared with Spain April 25, 1898, and the United States entered the World war April 6, 1917.

Meaning of Name Blanche

The name Blanche, of Latin origin, while not entirely inappropriate for a very white-skinned brunette, should as a rule be given only to blonde girls, for it means "white, or fair." It is a beautiful name, suggestive of refinement and daintiness, according to a writer in the Cleveland Plain Dealer. Blanche of Castile (1187-1252), daughter of a king of Castile and granddaughter of a king of England, married Louis VIII of France and was regent after his death. She also acted as regent while her son, Louis IX, was away on a crusade. She was a strong ruler, curbing revolts and limiting encroaching powers of the church.

Anniversary Sales
Days At Edison

The local Edison Shops, 289 Washington st., Newton Corner, and 95 Union st., Newton Centre celebrate the company's 53rd anniversary week beginning Monday, March 6, and continuing daily through Saturday, March 11. Special demonstrations of the complete line of modern electric home appliances will be given daily by members of the Edison domestic science staff. All merchandise items featured at popular prices during the anniversary week have been chosen for their special appeal with the approach of the Spring season.

Vacuum cleaners for the annual Spring cleaning task, washers, ironers, electric water heaters and similar electric conveniences for keeping the house in spot-and-span order are the banner items recommended with the change of season. Portable table and floor lamps will be shown to interest those imbued with the spirit of redecoration. The newest electric ranges, to beautify the kitchen and keep it cool in the summer, will also share the more-for-your-money celebration.

Since the Edison Company's golden jubilee three years ago, the annual "anniversary days" week has become firmly fixed in the public mind. New features are added every year and the local management has made preparations for a record attendance between the hours of 8:30 a. m. and 5:15 p. m. daily throughout the coming week.

Powers' Paragraphs

Among the news items of the past week was one in a certain paper which quoted Mayor Childs as saying that he intends to issue an order to Chief Hughes of the Newton police to establish the proposed "traffic bureau" at Newton police headquarters, and also that he intends to order changes in the personnel of the inspectors' division of the Newton police. The "traffic bureau" has been a matter of controversy between the Mayor and the Board of Aldermen, going on two years. It started when the then newly organized Newton Safety Council suggested to Mayor Childs that a Traffic Bureau be established, and Mayor Childs accepted the suggestion. Frankly we believe that the first mistake was made when the Safety Council made the suggestion for the establishment of the Traffic Bureau. So far as the writer can observe, and we are in rather close touch with every-day affairs in Newton, Inspectors Burke and Hamill have been doing a good job in handling accident cases in Newton and in prosecuting violators of traffic laws. Newton has had a very appreciable diminution in fatal automobile accidents the past 18 months, and we can't see where a change in the personnel of those engaged in the work is necessary, or called for. Just because there has been—and is a quarrel between the Mayor and the Aldermen over other matters affecting the police department is no reason why the Mayor should make the inspectors handling accident and traffic cases the goats.

In this column a couple of weeks ago we commented on remarks made at a meeting of the Newton Safety Council by a traffic engineer of the State Department of Public Works. He referred to the traffic signals on Washington st., West Newton. In reply to our comments the GRAPHIC received a letter from William H. Callahan, Commissioner of Public Works, which will be printed in next week's GRAPHIC.

Prior to becoming auxiliary bishop of the Boston archdiocese, Bishop Francis J. Spellman was for many years stationed in Rome and served in important capacities at the Vatican. He was held in high esteem by the late Pope Pius XI and was a close friend of the newly elected Pope Pius XII. When the present Pope, then Cardinal Pacelli, came to this country in October, 1936, Bishop Spellman met him at the pier in New York and was his host for a couple of days at the Sacred Heart rectory in Newton Centre. The then Cardinal Pacelli officiated at two masses in Sacred Heart Church, and was the guest of honor at a reception tendered by the pupils of Sacred Heart Parish School. Accordingly many Catholics of this city and vicinity had the privilege of personally meeting the man who now is the head of the Roman Catholic Church.

Wants City to Pay
For Damaged Car

Norman Shipley of 10 Weldon rd., Newton, has presented a claim to the City of Newton for damages to his automobile caused by its colliding with a city owned truck on steep Summit st., Newton, on February 17. Shipley claims the city was at fault for not having Summit st. sanded when it became covered with sleet, and calls attention that the street was sanded about an hour after his car collided with the truck. In his communication he wrote:

"It really should not be necessary for a citizen to wreck his car to have the roads made safe for driving," he stated. "I feel that for the taxes we pay the city, state and U. S. government, we are entitled to safe roads to drive on. And that road was not safe until you sanded it. You knew the remedy, but were late in using it." The communication was addressed to the "City of Newton."

Unless the Board of Aldermen act differently from what it has on similar claims in the past, Mr. Shipley's claim will be "Given leave to withdraw."

Rush Treaty With Canada

Richard Rush, in 1818, while minister to Great Britain, in association with Albert Gallatin, concluded with British plenipotentiaries the treaty which determined the boundary line between the United States and Canada from the Lake of the Woods to the Rocky mountains. It also provided for the joint occupation of Oregon for 10 years.

Monaghans Again
Seek Gas Station

Once again a petition has been presented to the Newton Board of Aldermen by J. V. Monaghan's Sons of West Newton asking for a permit to establish a gasoline filling station at 1-5 Auburn st., West Newton. They have been turned down several times in petitions asking for a permit to have a public gasoline station at this locus. Twice during the past couple of years they have been opposed among others, by Rev. John Crane, pastor of St. Bernard's Church, and by the manager of a gasoline station on the opposite corner of Washington and Auburn sts., which was formerly conducted by the Monaghans, but which they leased a couple of years ago to an oil company shortly before they renewed their attempts to obtain a permit for the station at 1-5 Auburn st. Many years ago the Monaghans had a gasoline station on the side of the street where they now seek the permit, but they agreed to relinquish the permit for the public filling station on that side when they received a permit for another filling station on the opposite corner of Washington and Auburn sts.

Newton Motorist
Loses Appeal

David Aisner of 89 Jewett st., Newton, was fined $50 by Judge Connolly in the Superior Court at Cambridge on February 23 after a jury had found him guilty of driving to endanger. On January 7 a car driven by Aisner hit two boys on Washington st. near Jewett st., Newton, breaking the right leg of each boy. The victims were Martin Nagle, 16, of 239 Washington st., Newton and Edward Kelly, 15, of 21 Thornton st., Newton. Aisner was fined $50 by Judge Nagle in the Newton court and took an appeal.

Tree-Climbing Fish in Borneo

In northern Borneo is found the mudskipper or tree-climbing fish—one of the most remarkable of nature's freaks. The fish spends most of its time skipping about the mud flats in search of food or basking in the sun perched on a mangrove root or a stone on the edge of a pool.

Auburndale Review Club

At 8 o'clock on Tuesday evening, March 7, the Auburndale Review Club will hold its Annual Guest Night at the Congregational Church, corner of Woodland rd. and Hancock st. Miss Marjorie Shepherd, impersonator, will entertain the Club with readings, and Mr. and Mrs. Wycliffe J. Spaulding with music.

Dramatic Contest of Junior Clubs

The plays of four Junior Woman's Clubs will be presented on Monday evening, March 13, at 8 o'clock, at the Newton Centre Woman's Club House, for the consideration of the contest judges in the state-wide Junior Woman's Club Dramatic Contest. The four clubs include Waban, Framingham, Sharon, and the Hostess Club, the Newton Centre Junior Woman's Club. The Newton Centre group has selected "Lady Luck" as their play. Miss Barbara Mitchell is chairman of Dramatics for the Club; and Mrs. Donald E. Walsh is directing the production. The cast includes Miss Ida Kellaway, Miss Jean Merrill, Miss Elaine Coyne, Miss Carolyn Kenney, Miss Helena Dalrymple, Miss Elsie Cook, and Miss Barbara McCabe. Others working on the production are Miss Frances Whittlesey, Miss Audrey Gray, Miss Jean Clark, Miss Patricia Taylor, and Miss Frances Hamilton.

Club members and friends are invited to see the presentation of these four one-act plays.

Other Programs And Events

American Home Lecture

The American Home Group of the Auburndale Woman's Club is sponsoring a lecture at the Club House the evening of Monday, March 6, at 8 o'clock. Miss June Rogers will speak on "Design in Interior Decorating." She comes from the Elsie Chamberlain School of Interior Decoration, and is a graduate of Lasell.

The lecture will be followed by a social hour and refreshments.

Reception to New Members

Mrs. George H. Tracy, president of the Newtonville Woman's Club, tenders an informal Reception on Monday, March 6, from 3 to 5 p. m., to the New Members of the last two years, which will be held at the home of Mrs. Raymond Tucker, vice-president, 479 Walnut st. Members of the Executive Board will pour and serve for the occasion.

Talks on Fashions

The Waban Junior Woman's Clubs will meet on Monday, March 6, at 8 o'clock, at the Waban Library, Miss Jessie Stuart of The Prince School, will speak on "Fashions."

Newton Upper Falls Woman's Club

The Newton Upper Falls Woman's Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Harold T. Sprague, 24 Indiana ter., on Monday, March 6. Mrs. Walter J. Billings, chairman of Public Health, will introduce the speaker, Dr. David Lewis, A.B., A.M., who will speak upon "Health With a Smile."

At the meeting of February 20th of the Club held at the home of Mrs. Robert B. McLaughlin, 69 Waldorf rd., Mrs. Priscilla Fortescue, of Auburndale, spoke on "Highlights of Hollywood." She interested her listeners with many personal accounts of daily incidents in the lives of the "stars"; also an account of the shooting of a picture describing many of the famous movie actors and actresses during work and after their working hours.

Mrs. Donald H. Flinchbaugh, chairman, and members of the Hospitality committee, served refreshments.

Lecture of Inspirational Viewpoint

Dr. Russell Stafford will be the speaker for the Woman's Club of Newton Highlands on March 7, at 2:30 p. m., in the Congregational Parish House. Dr. Stafford is the well-known pastor of Old South Church in Boston, and the subject of his lecture will be "Windows on Life." He has recently returned from India where he attended the World Religious Conference at Madras.

Antique Study Group

The new Antique Study Group, under the direction of Mrs. Carlton Perkins, offers to all Newton Highlands Woman's Club members a series of free lectures at the Museum of Fine Arts, on March 8 at 2 p. m. "The English Rooms" will be the subject of the lecture, and "The American Rooms" on March 15.

Social Science Club

Mrs. F. S. Bacon will give a paper on "Drama: Maxwell Anderson" at the meeting of the Social Science Club on Wednesday, March 8, at 10 a. m., in Channing Church. This is the fifth in a series of papers on the topic "Contemporary Leaders" given by members of the Club. The hostesses will be Mrs. Philip Nichols and Mrs. J. LeRoy Covel.

Newton Centre Junior Club

The March meeting of the Newton Centre Junior Woman's Club will be held at the Newton Centre Woman's Club House at 7:30 p. m., on Tuesday, March 7. Miss Jane Hutchison, president, will conduct the business meeting and the speaker for the evening will be Dr. Helen McGillicuddy. The members of the Thompsonville Girls' Club, of which Miss Ella di Matteo is president, will be the guests of the evening. Miss Grace Joyce is in charge of the plans for the meeting.

Annual Musicale

The Newton Community Club will have its Annual Musicale on Thursday, March 9, at 2 p. m., in the Underwood School Auditorium. Mrs. Arthur J. Mansfield, chairman of the Music committee, has been fortunate in securing Nicolas Slonimsky, a Russian-born composer, conductor, critic, and essayist, as the pianist who will also comment on the program; and Gerard Haft, a talented young Dutchman, as soloist.

Mr. Slonimsky founded the Chamber Orchestra of Boston, and he has appeared as guest conductor in Paris, Berlin, Budapest, and Havana, as well as in the larger cities of America.

Mr. Haft started his musical study at an early age. He has played in an orchestra for Pavarotti and appeared in many royal courts of Europe. There will be an informal Reception to New Members.

Miss Edith Winifred Fisher gave the members of the Newton Community Club a treat when she told, most entertainingly, of the "Art and Romance of Antique Valentine," at the meeting of February 23rd. Her personality and keen sense of humor awakened in her audience a strong desire to hear about her experiences as "The Valentine Lady," in collecting her rare and beautiful old valentines.

She explained the differences and styles of valentines from year to year; how lace paper is made; and the art of valentine-making.

The Arlington Fellowship Chorus of the Arlington Woman's Club, under the direction of Mrs. Arthur J. Mansfield, of the Community Club, rendered several selections, adding to the enjoyment of the program.

The table was attractively decorated, appropriately to Valentine Day, by Miss M. Elizabeth Garrison. Tea, cakes, and mints were served. Mrs. Kenneth B. Backman, Mrs. D. Fletcher Barber, Miss Beatrice E. Clegg, and Mrs. Roger S. Hodges, poured.

There was an Exhibition of Old-fashioned dolls by Mrs. Harry A. Sawyer, and one of Old China by Mrs. Edwin R. Jump, which were in the spirit of the day.

West Newton Women's Educational Club

Dr. Bancroft Beatley, president of Simmons College, will speak on "Education" at the West Newton Women's Educational Club on Friday, March 10, at 2 o'clock, in the Unitarian Church. Mrs. Francis L. Kinney will entertain with soprano solos. The usual spring Food Sale will take place before and after the meeting. Mrs. Henry D. Stone, chairman.

The next meeting of the Hobby Class of the Educational Club will be on Tuesday, March 7, at the home of Mrs. Francis H. McCrudden, 19 Stoneleigh rd.

Community Day at the Educational Club on February 24 included on the program several speakers. Dr. Harold D. Choate, director of Public Health in Newton, spoke on the care of the pre-school child, the child in school, and the child in the home, citing many of the benefits the children of Newton receive free. He expressed his sincere thanks to the clubwomen of Newton for their interest and support toward better health for their city. Other speakers were Miss Harriet L. Parsons, general secretary of the Newton Family Service Bureau; Miss Annis Sturgis, psychologist of the Newton Schools; and a young Italian mother who told of her experiences in learning the American language and how she became an American Citizen through the American Citizenship department of the Newton Federation. Music was rendered by Miss Dorothy Kovitz, Miss Aida Puciere, Miss Mary Ruggles, and Miss Norma Olson, pupils of the All-Newton Music School. Poursers at the coffee table were Mrs. Herman R. Place and Mrs. Frank L. Ogilvie. Hostesses were Mrs. E. M. Martines and Mrs. George E. Den-nett.

Newton Centre Woman's Club

Antoinette Inglis, of Gloucester, will open an Exhibition of her well-known Portrait Studies of Children Friday, March 10, in the Art Gallery of the Newton Centre Woman's Clubhouse. The artist's talent lies in her ability to paint children in natural attitudes. There is no feeling of set poses in her delightful young figures. Mrs. Inglis, a member of the Boston Art Club, has exhibited in many galleries. The exhibition is open to the public every afternoon through the 24th.

Representative Douglas B. Francis will be the speaker at the fourth of a series of five Thursday morning coffees sponsored by the Civic and Legislative committee of the Newton Centre Woman's Club, on March 9th, at 10 o'clock, in the Club House. Under the subject of "Pertinent State Legislation," changes in State affairs taking place under Governor Leavitt Salton-stall, the biennial session, and tax-ation laws recently passed by the legislature, and new bills that are being discussed by Mr. Francis. Club and non-club members are cordially invited without charge to attend this meeting. Mrs. Walter Hartstone will be hostess.

Through the courtesy of the Newton Trust Company, whose Women's Advisory Committee sponsors such addresses, Mr. Basil Mathews will be presented as the speaker for Friday afternoon, March 10, at 3 o'clock, at the regular meeting of the Newton Centre Woman's Club. Mr. Mathews, who has just returned from Madras, India, where he was a delegate to a World Missionary Conference, will speak on "An Appreciation of Affairs in the Far East." Hostesses for the coffee and social hour at 1:30 o'clock will be Mrs. A. M. Paddon and Mrs. Harry E. Moore.

The Literature Group of the Club will meet on Wednesday afternoon, March 8, at 2:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Clyde Walsworth, 130 Ridge ave., Newton Centre. Three of the late novels will be reviewed. Tea will be served. Those wishing to attend are asked to notify the hostess.

Display of Old Glass and China

A fascinating and colorful display of old glass and china contributed by members of the Newtonville Woman's Club Friday, February 24, showed the keen interest in this branch of the Education committee's activities. The chairman, Mrs. Edwin C. Fales, introduced the speaker for the afternoon, Mr. William O. Hewitt, who described in detail each piece of glass and china, telling its make, period and design. Of particular interest was a large collection of sugar shakers of every conceivable color and pattern. After this complete explanation of the glass and china ware, the chairman, Mrs. Fales, invited Club members and guests to examine the display at their leisure and to enjoy a cup of tea with their neighbors.

Address on "Democracy Besieged"

A timely address, "Democracy Besieged and the American Future," by Dr. Basil Mathews, of London, England interested an appreciative audience at the February 21st meeting of the Newtonville Woman's Club. The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Irving O. Palmer, a member of the Women's Advisory Committee of the Newton Trust Company, who invited the audience to participate in the short question period after the address. While Dr. Mathews did not minimize the evils and dangers of the totalitarian countries over those of the democracies, he left the constructive thought that, whereas the dictators ruled their people by fear and force, the democracies, because of the very freedom they enjoyed, inspired in their people a deeper sense of loyalty towards their governments. The people of the democracies, should, he thought, realize their duties as well as their rights, and work together for peace and prosperity.

Club members were informed that now they might obtain the 25 per cent discount on new books purchased through the Education committee, Mrs. Edwin C. Fales chairman. Mrs. George H. Tracy, the president, then asked the guests to enjoy an informal tea in Social Hall.

Newton Zonta Club

On Monday, March 6, the Zonta Club will meet at the Walker Missionary Home, 144 Hancock st., Auburndale. The subject of the program will be "China," and the speaker, Mrs. Arthur G. Robinson.

Miss Mary Barbour opened her home on Prince st., West Newton, February 20, to the Newton Zontians, Miss Doris Lovell, president, presided. Two delegates were appointed to attend the assembly of the "Council of Social Agencies," Mrs. Miriam Clark and Dr. Deborah Fawcett.

The Club was fortunate in procuring Miss Geraldine Gordon, manager of the "Hathaway House Bookshop" in Wellesley, to present a "Book Review." Particularly illuminating was her choice of material giving facts concerning the condition of both national and international affairs at the present time. Education and propaganda from the radical and the liberal viewpoints of eminent authors were touched upon.

The need to be ready to cope with all forms of government promoted by extremists was stressed, in order to improve and enforce the principles of Democracy.

Miss Gordon concluded her remarks with suggestions concerning the latest and best fiction. "When the outlook is poor, try the uplook" through the "open door" of the finest literature to which all have access, she advised.

Refreshments were arranged and served by Miss Hilga Nelson.

Auburndale Woman's Club

Over two hundred and fifty members and their guests of the Auburndale Woman's Club filled the Auditorium of the Auburndale Club House on Tuesday afternoon, February 28.

During the business session, Mrs. Arthur Desoe gave a report of the recent Legislative meeting of the State Federation held at the Hotel Bradford, and stated the arguments for and against the Veterans' Preference Bill, the limitation of Bank Insurance, and the proposed bill for Uniform Divorce Laws.

Mrs. James Dunlop, the president of the Club, then turned the program over to the American Home committee, Mrs. William Edson, chairman. Mrs. Edson expressed her appreciation of the splendid co-operation which

Day Jr. High School

Friday before the vacation brought a prolonged assembly time for pupils of the Frank A. Day School. The first fifteen minutes were spent in the home rooms while the school Radio Club put on the opening current broadcast of Newton School Days over W.A.B. It proved to be a well-knit, well-timed presentation showing the school's influence on parents and featuring two new students from foreign lands, Denise Adam formerly of France and Hector Garcia from Cuba. Later the student body were given the opportunity of hearing the Newton WPA Orchestra under the direction of Mr. Robert Kelly.

This is a period of changing student staffs. Paul Waldron and Rose Forte were elected captain and assistant captain respectively of the Public Relations Staff. The Girls' Cafeteria Staff elected the following officers for the second half year: Captain June Hildreth, Assistant Captains Caroline Gentile, Jane Cary, and Mary Skene. June and Caroline were re-elected. On the Boys' Cafeteria Staff we find the following officers: Captain, Valentino Toci; Assistant Captains, John Pauletti, Wayne Underhill, Harold McKusick and Joe Antonellis. At a meeting of the Girls' Playground Staff Janice Ball was elected captain and Kay Hill assistant captain.

On Friday before the winter vacation the boys journeyed to the Weeks School for the variety and junior varsity tilt. The final scores: Day Varsity 42, Weeks 22—Day Junior Varsity 56, Weeks 7.

Bigelow Junior H. S.

Division 3E, under the direction of Mrs. Gillespie, presented a very interesting play, "The Ayes Have It," at the assembly February 17th. The play brought out many interesting anecdotes about Washington and Lincoln. The following boys took part: Lloyd Howard, Calvin Booth, Edward Maynes, Paule Dunne, James Allen, Harold O'Toole, Arthur Whitcomb, William Foley, Louis Cook, Arnold Whynt, Vincent Higgins, Richard Hill, Joseph Regan and Vincent Clark.

The seventh grade elected the following officers: President, Paul Doherty; vice president, Patsy Bibbo; secretary, Claire Haller; treasurer, Jacqueline Delaney.

COOLIDGE CORNER THEATRE, BROOKLINE

If you want an evening of superb entertainment, then visit the Coolidge Corner Theatre, Brookline, where "The Lady Vanishes" is opening for a week's run on Friday, March 3rd. "The Lady Vanishes" features Paul Lukas, Margaret Lockwood, Dame May Whitty and Michael Redgrave. It is one of the most exciting, thrilling and suspenseful films to be shown on any screen since "The 39 Steps."

The story concerns itself with a motley group of characters all passengers on a continental express train travelling through a Balkan country. There is a murder, a kidnapping, a coming home to London to be married; Michael Redgrave, a young expert on folk music who is gathering data for a book; Paul Lukas, a famous specialist; and Dame May Whitty a harmless English governess, going home after many years of service abroad. There are a couple on a honeymoon, a pair of Englishmen to whom nothing is so important as cricket, and many others, some sinister, some innocent, but all superb. "The Lady Vanishes" was voted by the New York newspaper critics as one of the ten "best pictures" of the year. It is definitely, a "not-to-be-missed" feature.

The co-feature is a screw-ball comedy called "Up the River," and is just about the funniest combination of music, broad comic situations and razzle-dazzle football in many a season. The story focuses on a group of happy inmates of a mythical state prison which boasts a radio in every cell, gates that are practically revolving doors, and the best football team in the "Big Pen Conference." Preston Foster is completely at home in his first light comedy role and the elongated Arthur P. Prosser, as Foster's partner in crime and football, gives his most polished performance. Tony Martin and Phyllis Brooks are excellent in the romantic leads and the other featured players include Slim Summerville, Bill Robinson, Alan Dinehart, Eddie Collins, Jane Darwell and Sidney Toler.

In addition to the two big features, there will be a new travelogue, other interesting short subjects, and of course the latest issue of the Coolidge Corner Theatre Newsreel.

Vandalism at Mothers' Rest

Even a building used for a charitable purpose is not immune from the mean-spiritedness of irresponsible, young hoodlums. This was proved when a report was made to Newton police several days ago that the "Mothers' Rest" building off Vine st., Oak Hill, had been broken into and an electric range and an electric ironer there ruined. The vandals tore shutters off windows to gain entrance. They then turned the current on the range and ironer, left it turned on, causing the motors in both devices to short circuit and become burned out. "Mothers' Rest" is a benevolent activity founded some years ago by Newton women and maintained by them, to afford a couple of weeks' vacation each year to groups of poor mothers and their children from Boston.

PLAY EARNS 4th MILLION

Coinciding with the announcement that the Waltham Theatre will be showing Frank Capra's "You Can't Take It With You" during the week of March 8, is the report that the theatregoers have already paid over $3,000,000 to see the original Pulitzer prize-winning stage play in key cities throughout the country. The New York company is in the select class with such long-run plays as "Tobacco Road," "Abe's Irish Rose," "The First Year" and "The Ladder." Featured in the picture version of the play are Jean Arthur, Lionel Barrymore, James Stewart and Edward Arnold. Robert Riskin is credited with the screen play.

ARTISTIC BRICK HOUSE IN WABAN SOLD

Alvord Bros. report the following sale: In one of the most attractive portions of Waban, a part of the City of Newton, there is a large acreage of open land sloping to the south and west toward the winding Charles River. On the upper portion of this land there is a nice lot containing approximately 12,500 square feet located at 81 Annawan rd., Waban, Mass. On this lot there has been erected and recently completed a charming Colonial house of brick exterior, slate roof, and attached two-car garage. The rear of the land rises giving space for an open fireplace and summer's fun. This home contains eight rooms and three baths, and an open porch commanding a view over the nearby countryside. This property has been carefully constructed with attention to detail by Nardone Bros. of Newton, Mass., who were the sellers. The property is valued at $14,000.

REAL ESTATE

The Carley Realty office has found homes for the following satisfied customers:
Property located at 37 Chapin rd., Newton Centre, leased for Street & Co. to Mrs. Bertha A. Crump of Washington, D. C.; property located at 9 Bertrand rd., Auburndale, leased for Mr. Paul Livoli to Mr. Lawrence W. Miles of Long Island, New York; property located at 1119 Walnut st., Newton Highlands, leased for Mr. Peter A. Caporale to Mr. Gordon Grieves of Syracuse, New York.

Guaranteed Aid for Minister Oftentimes in the early days, says the Cleveland Plain Dealer, the settlers in a community or in several townships would sign a pledge guaranteeing that they would provide sustenance for a minister if he lived among them and administered to their spiritual needs. Here's one of those pledges: "We do by these presents bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, and administrators to pay the sums annexed to each of our names, without fraud or delay, for the term of three years, to Reverend Giles Cowles, the pay to be made in wheat, rye, corn, oats, potatoes, messpork, whisky, etc., the produce of farms, as shall be needed by the said Mr. Cowles and family, together with chopping, logging, fencing, etc. We agree, likewise, should any contribute anything without in said term of three years toward the support of the said Mr. Cowles, it shall be deducted according to the sum annexed to each man's name. We likewise agree that the preaching in each town shall be in proportion to what each town subscribes for said preaching."

Mt. Alvernia Club Meeting

The Mount Alvernia Club of Chestnut Hill will have Hon. Joseph F. O'Connell of Brighton as their guest speaker on Monday evening, March 6, at 8 p. m., at the University Club in Boston.

Mr. O'Connell has chosen for his title "America's Debt to the Irish," a subject very dear to him, and we are sure will prove interesting to the gentlemen as well as the ladies.

An added attraction will be a solo dance by Marguerite Brink of Newton. The club president, Mrs. Joseph F. O'Connell, has appointed the following to be members of her reception committee: Mr. and Mrs. John C. Brink, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blackwell, Mr. and Mrs. James Connors, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. O'Donnell, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Connolly, Hon. and Mrs. John J. Burns, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Lyne, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Gibbons, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Thurmond, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad B. Shevlin, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Buckley, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Watts, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur O'Keefe.

CAPITOL THEATRE, ALLSTON

"They Made Me a Criminal," which will be presented at the Capitol Theatre, Allston for the entire week starting Friday, March 3rd, is a tense and exciting drama with a prize ring background that co-stars John Garfield and the "Dead End" kids in a cast that also includes Claude Rains, Gloria Dickson, May Robson and Ann Sheridan.

Aside from its merits as entertainment, "They Made Me a Criminal," is noteworthy because it is the follow-up of John Garfield, young newcomer from the New York stage, to his sensational screen debut in "Four Daughters." It is the answer to the brilliant young actor he raised to stardom immediately.

A father's love for his children, an ingenious political scheme, a school boy feud, a family quarrel and the youngsters' plot to make their father important man, all are prominent threads in the theme of "The Great Man Votes," new screen vehicle for John Barrymore which will be the companion feature on the same program with "They Made Me a Criminal."

Peter Holden, a newcomer from the New York stage, and Virginia Weidner, aged respectively seven and eleven play the roles of Barrymore's two youngsters. Donald MacBride is the political boss in constant conflict with them all; Katharine Alexander, Granville Bates, Luis Alberni, J. M. Keegan and other noted players head the supporting cast of this human quality picture.

WABAN HOME SOLD

John T. Burns & Sons Inc. report that final papers have been passed conveying the single frame residence located at 1533 Beacon st., Waban, to Mr. Charles R. Cazeale, who purchased for occupancy. This seven room house, has with it a one-car garage and 14,130 square feet of land and is assessed for $10,000. The Workingmen's Cooperative Bank was the grantor.

North and South Poles of Sun

The North and South poles of the sun are not like the poles on the earth, with their low temperatures; on the sun all parts of the surface have virtually the same temperature. There are, therefore, no such circulation in the sun's atmosphere as on the earth. The temperature gradients are all along vertical lines, and the sun spots are caused by differences in temperature differences between the inner and outer layers of the sun's atmosphere. They are outward bursts from the body of the sun; in moving outward the gasses cool. While they are still incandescent their relative coolness gives the area in which they occur a darker appearance.

Low Bid on Fire Escapes For Schools

Bids were opened at City Hall last Friday afternoon by Building Commissioner Campbell for fire escapes to be placed on the Mason School, Newton Centre; Horace Mann School, Newtonville; and old Hyde School, Newton Highlands. The American Architectural Iron Company of East Boston submitted the lowest bid—$4140, which was considerably below the estimated cost. The Hub Steel & Iron Works of Somerville was second lowest with $4639; West End Iron Works of Cambridge was third lowest with $4846. The highest of the 15 bids was $6609.

Injured When Car Hits Parked Auto

Leslie Mayer, 35, of 38 Henshaw st., West Newton, received severe injuries when his car hit a parked automobile opposite 464 Lowell ave., Newtonville at 12:15 a. m. last Saturday. He was taken to Newton Hospital where it was found that he had a possible skull fracture and cuts on his face. The car struck was owned by Marion Goldenberg of 1151 Commonwealth ave. She told police that when she parked the car, she left the parking lights on.

"It is true that nowhere in said sections of the Chapter 211 of the Acts of 1936 is the Board of Survey specifically given the right to regulate the size of lots; but we are of the opinion that such power is to be properly inferred from the authority given by Section 81f to approve, modify and approve, or disapprove plans of subdivisions. In the absence of any court decision interpreting such sections of Chapter 211, we believe we would be justified in acting upon our interpretation of the statute. Our actions would, of course, be controlled by the accepted rule that in every case such actions must be reasonable and not arbitrary.

"In this connection we beg to point out that section 81j provides that anyone who is aggrieved by the decision of the Board of Survey concerning a plan of subdivision may appeal to the Superior Court sitting in equity for county in which the land is situated. In other words, real estate owners are amply protected against arbitrary action on the part of the Board of Survey."

become immune to eloquence, a requisite in education for democracy. In addition to the active part taken in the convention's proceedings by President Elicker, the fourth general session on Wednesday heard an address by Mr. Drake, Newton's Director of Research and Guidance. His subject was "Reading and Remedial Reading in a Junior High School." Close to 12,000 persons are in Cleveland for the meetings of the American Association of School Administrators.

Charged With Stealing Pigeons

Alfred Chamberlain, 17, of 141 Webster st., West Newton, was arrested Saturday afternoon by Serg. Sullivan and Patrolmen Elliot and Powers, after the police had raided his home and recovered seven out of thirty homing pigeons which were stolen from flocks owned by Francis Sampson at 7 Clark ter., Newtonville, and George Vedic of 30 Riverdale ave., Nonantum. The latter is a son of Captain Vedic of the Newton police. Chamberlain told the police that he sold 9 of the valuable racing pigeons to a Chinese laundryman at West Newton for 75 cents. He also claimed that his car killed some of the stolen birds. Chamberlain was arraigned in the Newton court on Monday and his case was continued until March 3.

Newton Hlds Fire Loss is $3500

A fire started by an overheated furnace at the home of S. Paul Townsend, 50 Lakewood rd., Newton Highlands last Friday afternoon caused damages estimated at $3500. The fire spread from the cellar to the first floor and along the chimney to the second floor. Among the articles destroyed were a number of pieces of antique furniture which were stored in the cellar.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

had been given by many of the leading firms in Newton whose goods were displayed in the gaily-trimmed booths which lined the sides of the room.

The afternoon's program was a demonstration of a number of useful appliances, particularly those used in preparing a meal, and this was done by two young women from the Boston Edison Company. A dinner, which included meats, vegetables, cake, pie and coffee, was prepared on the platform, and at the close of the talk these were given to the lucky women whose names were drawn, to carry home for the evening meal.

At 4 o'clock the doors were thrown open to the public, and the demonstrations, as well as the samples of food which were given out, continued until 9 o'clock.

The monthly meeting of the Current Events Group of the Abundant Woman's Club was held on Friday, February 24, at the Abundant Club House. As it was Education Day, that committee of the Club was in charge of the morning's program.

"The Growth and Place in Education of the Junior College" was the topic of the speaker, Dr. M. Winslow, principal of the Lasell Junior College. Dr. Winslow explained that secretarial schools are included in this group, in which there are at present about five hundred in the country, and thirty-one of them are here in New England.

His definition of a Junior College was "a school which provided two years of work of college grade, and also which had such courses as Merchandizing, Student nursing, and Home Economics." Such institutions offer better opportunities to the student who does not care to take an entire college course, he said. In the absence of the Education chairman, Mrs. Frederick Goode, the speaker was introduced by Mrs. Austin H. Fisher.

After the noon intermission, during which coffee was served by the committee, the literary chairman, Mrs. Eldin Lynn, introduced Mrs. Joseph C. McCarron who reviewed Anne Morrow Lindbergh's book "Listen! The Wind." Following this Mrs. George D. de Grasse gave "Rebecca" and "The Joyful Delanays."

Mrs. Charles Valentine, vice-chairman of the Drama committee, and Mrs. Lynn read the Greek play "Lystrata," by Aristophanes, and this was followed by Louis N. Parker's "The Minute," read by Mrs. Herman Krueger and Mrs. E. Graham Bates.

Arrested For Attacking Woman

Crawford Fisher, 24, of 44 Worcester st., Natick, was arrested by Natick police at his home on Tuesday morning charged with criminal assault on Pearl Sanderson, 26, of School st., Newton. The young woman came in Newton police headquarters at 3 a. m. Tuesday and reported that just after she had alighted from a Boston Elevated car at Galen and Boyd sts. about midnight Monday, an automobile stopped alongside her, the driver alighted, and after striking her, forced her into the car. She stated that she was driven to a lonely spot between Wellesley and Natick and attacked. Her abductor, according to her story, to the police, then compelled her to hold lighted matches while he replaced a flat tire, and then drove her back to Newton. She made a note of the registration numbers on the automobile and through them Fisher was arrested as the alleged abductor and attacker. He was arraigned in the Natick court on Tuesday and his case continued until March 10. He was released in $3500 bail.

After being bailed out at Natick, Fisher was arrested by Watertown police charged with assault with a weapon on Miss Sanderson. It is alleged that he threatened her with a screw driver when he forced her to enter his automobile at Galen and Boyd sts. He was arraigned in the Waltham court on Wednesday morning and Judge Crafts continued the case until March 15, ordering Fisher held in $1000 bonds. Fisher is a waiter in a Boston restaurant.

Cars Crash at Chestnut Hill

Automobiles driven by Alexander Sideropoulos of Harvard st., Brookline and Antonio Boccabello of Water st., Waltham, collided on Saturday night at Commonwealth ave. and College rd., Chestnut Hill. Three occupants of the latter car received injuries and were taken to Newton Hospital. They were William Guerin, 20, of William st., West Newton; Dorothy Carroll, 21, of Exmoor rd., Newton Centre; and Mildred Bergeron of Riverdale rd., Waltham.

85 Year Old Man Falls 20 Feet

Jonas Knight, 85, of 18 Mountfort rd., Newton Highlands, while opening a second story window at his home on Tuesday night lost his balance and fell about 20 feet to the ground below. He was taken to the office of Dr. Charles Thompson at 1141 Walnut st., but upon being examined was found not to have received any injuries.

China's Yellow River Is Life-Giver Like the Nile

"Although a destroyer-in-chief, and justly entitled 'China's Sorrow,' like Egypt's Nile the Yellow river is also a life-giver. Washing rich top soil down from the mountains upon the North China plain, it transforms floods into farm fertility for the next generation. China's 'Sorrow' was also ancient China's cradle of culture," says the National Geographic society. "The Yellow river's rich soil deposits influenced the country's first civilized men to become farmers instead of wandering shepherds. And farmers the Hwang Ho valley inhabitants have remained for 40 centuries. A dragon symbolizing the Hwang Ho is described in a myth as having presented the Chinese people with their alphabet."

"Vital in the country's culture and cultivation, the Hwang Ho is practically useless in transportation. The Yangtze is navigable for steamships more than a thousand miles from its mouth; the Hwang, for about 25 miles. It is either too shallow or too turbulent elsewhere. In the middle third of its course, local shipping moves in flat-bottomed scows and in primitive rafts buoyed with inflated sheepskins and oxhides, much as in the nation's early history."

'Oglethorpe Trail' Dates Back Before Revolution

The old Indian trail and highway known as the "Oglethorpe Trail," dates back to pre-Revolutionary war days when General Oglethorpe, founder of the state of Georgia, established a thoroughfare from Savannah to Augusta in 1739, following his famous treaty conference with the Creek Indians at Coweta.

The British designated the trail in 1780 as a military road, and in 1791 President George Washington traveled the road during his southern tour.

Rich in scenic sites which pass through deep, jungle-like river swamps abounding with game and fish, the trail also winds through rolling hill territory and along the banks of the Savannah river.

Make River Push Ferries

In some parts of Europe they have a neat way of making ferry boats cross rivers without any apparent motive power whatsoever. They have no engine, neither do they use the wind, nor does man-power or the strength of animals pull them across. Instead, according to a writer in the Philadelphia Inquirer, the natives use the river itself to push the boat across. A heavy line is stretched across the stream, which must be clear and fairly swift-running at the crossing. The line is made tight and a pulley attached. The pulley is fastened to the boat in such a way as to keep her pointed diagonally across the current. All that is now necessary is to loosen the ropes holding the boat to the shore. The current pressing against the side of the boat, which is presented at an angle, drives the boat across at quite a speed. When the return crossing is to be made, the boat is turned to cross the current in the other direction and the current obediently drives the boat back. As long as the river runs the boat will cross, without engines or work by its crew.

Oldest University

The oldest university in the United States is Harvard, at Cambridge, Mass., organized in 1636, while Yale university, at New Haven, Conn., ranks second oldest, being organized in 1701. The others in their order, follow: University of Pennsylvania, West Philadelphia, Pa., founded in 1740; Princeton university, Princeton, N. J., 1746; Washington and Lee university, Lexington, Va., 1749; Brown university, Providence, R. I., 1764; Rutgers university, New Brunswick, N. J., 1766; University of Georgia, Athens, Ga., 1785; University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, Pa., 1787; Georgetown university, Washington, D. C., 1789; University of Vermont, Burlington, Vt., 1791; University of Tennessee, Knoxville, Tenn., 1784.

Claims Oldest Book

What is believed to be the oldest book in the world, the scroll of the Pentateuch, is in a remarkable state of preservation in Nablus, near Bierut, Palestine. It comprises the first five books of Moses, and is believed to have been written five years after the Israelites entered Palestine. Once the capital of Samaria, Nablus is known as the city of the Good Samaritans. A strict sect, rarely intermarrying, the Samaritans have a tribal shortage of women, and a male who desires a wife must put his name on a long waiting list. He sometimes attains ripe age before a teen-age bride falls to him by lot.

Classified Its Prisoners

During the World war, the prison in Baku, Russia, thoughtfully set aside two sections for good inmates—with money. The first, according to Collier's Weekly, was the "Grand Hotel," which, for a certain fee, admitted friends, food and furniture. The other was the "Hotel Metropolitan," which, for a larger sum, permitted its prisoners to live at home, merely asking that they or a representative drop in each morning and evening to answer the roll call.

DOG/NOTE
by PETER BOGGS

Seven years ago, in Sydney, Australia, a man and his dog were out for an evening walk. As they crossed a street intersection, the man was struck by an automobile and fatally injured. In the excitement of rushing the stricken man to the hospital, people forgot the dog. But as the ambulance entered the hospital grounds and the gates were closed, a dog came running up the road to paw at the closed gates.

Today at the entrance to that hospital, one can see a cattle dog, answering to the name of "Blue," sitting in the roadway waiting for a master who will never return. Since the night of the accident the dog has kept its pathetic vigil. Blue is fed regularly by hospital attendants and nearby neighbors. He has been offered many a good home. In fact, he has been taken to many, but each time he returns to his post in front of the hospital.

Unless you have experienced the tedious job of extracting chewing gum from your dog's coat you perhaps don't realize what a job it is. If you should find this predicament facing you, I offer the following suggestion. Take a handful of ice and hold it to the hair to which the gum is adhering. After a few seconds the gum becomes brittle and you will find that you can remove it without the loss of a single hair.

"Butts," owned by Dr. W. R. Dillingham of Langrum, S. C., saved his master's life. Dr. Dillingham suddenly stricken with a serious illness fell unconscious in his office. Butts immediately sensed that all was not well. She tried to arouse her master by licking his face and tugging at his coat. Failing to do so she barked and howled until neighbors came to investigate. On discovering the doctor's plight, they rushed him to a nearby hospital where he underwent an emergency operation. Hospital officials stated that had Butts not brought help when she did, Dr. Dillingham would not have recovered.

After noting the crowds that poured into the Westminster show in New York recently and the multitude that thronged the two-day show at Boston, I looked up some statistics on attendance figures. When 25,000 or 35,000 people attend a football game or other sporting event it is considered quite a crowd, but did you know that over 51,000 passed through the gates at a one-day dog show? Officials holding a "national dog week" exhibition in the Country Club Plaza in Kansas a few years ago reported that almost 52,000 people had flocked to their show during that one day.

From time to time reports come in of dogs that can talk. I recall vividly a French Bulldog named Jacqueline. Before she died she earned $100 a day in vaudeville. This dog was able to

At left are four of a fleet of 26 sidewalk plows that ensure good walking conditions over 170 miles of Brookline sidewalks every winter. The men at right are bagging sand which is distributed by a fleet of sanding snow plows to protect motorists. Over 3,700 tons of sand were used this past winter, much of it during a three-week period in which more sand was used than the total for the past seven years. The man responsible for this amazingly large task is Brookline's tireless Superintendent of Streets Daniel G. Lacy, inset at left.

Hunting For Feature Photographs

First step is to think of likely ideas and to keep posted on coming events as Royal D. Chandler of Belmont is shown doing above as he peruses the columns of the Belmont Citizen with pencil in hand.

It's Not All Luck

Contrary to popular belief, feature photos are not all obtained by haphazard good luck on the part of the photographer. On this page is a series of pictures which outlines in brief the thought and planning which goes into most of the better pictures.

Tom Conroy, staff photographer of the Brookline Chronicle, has the ideas and is now checking with Officer J. J. McInerney as to where shots may be obtained. A lot of time is saved this way.

Having listed which shots are available, Roy Whitehouse is engaged in the third step—finding out from Editor A. Edwin Larsson of the Wellesley Townsman which ones he wants.

Delivering a finished print to Editor Clayton L. Fairbanks of the Needham Times is Henry F. Silsby, president of the Needham Camera Club. That completes the hunting of feature photos.

Change In Car Service On Newton-Watertown Line In Effect Tomorrow

Inferior Service Seen From Substitution of One-man Cars For Present Train Service and Reduction in Seating Accommodations

Tomorrow, Saturday, March 11th, a change in the service of the Boston Elevated Railway Company on its line from Watertown and Newton through Brighton to the subway in Boston, will result in greatly inferior service to residents of Newton, Newtonville, Nonantum, West Newton, Waltham and other places, who regularly travel on this line from Newton Corner to Boston, and from Boston to Newton Corner. Instead of operating two-man cars on this run, one-man cars will be substituted, even during the rush hours in the morning and at evening.

Until recent years the Elevated operated two-man cars day and night on the Newton-Brighton line, but several years ago one-man cars were put into operation during the night hours. The service from Watertown via Newton and Brighton to the subway in Boston has been on a 5 minute headway during the busy hours of the day. Two car trains operated by a motorman, and each car having a conductor, with each car having accommodations for 52 passengers, seats for 1248 passengers from Newton and Watertown during the heavy traffic periods. The cars used were of the centre-entrance type, with large loading platforms. These cars were transferred to the Newton line from East Boston and other places some years ago, and were inferior in riding qualities to the cars which they replaced.

Under the schedule and service which is planned to go into effect tomorrow, a one-man car will leave the Watertown terminal every 4 minutes during the rush hours for Newton, Brighton and the subway. These cars, with end doors, have 48 seats and thus will afford accommodations for seating 650 passengers per hour, in comparison with 1248 seats provided by the two-car trains in the past. Brighton and Allston patrons of the Elevated will continue to receive approximately the same service as in the past. Additional cars will run from Oak sq. to Boston and vice versa between each two through cars to and from Newton and Watertown, thus giving a 2 minute headway from Oak sq. to Boston.

While there are only six stops in Newton territory on the Watertown-Brighton subway line, much of the North side of this city will be affected because Newton Corner is the terminus. (Continued on Page 10)

Graphic Broadcast On Station WCOP

The GRAPHIC presents the third in its broadcast series over its official radio outlet, WCOP (1120 kc.), Boston, Sunday, March 12, at the regular time—4:30 p. m. The programs consist of Newton news based on material appearing in the most recent issue of THE GRAPHIC. Doubts which Newton citizens may have had about the success or value of such a program have been most efficiently dispelled by the first two broadcasts.

Incidentally, the young man with the pleasing voice who "does" "The Newton GRAPHIC ON THE AIR" programs on WCOP, is Russell Offhaus, a member of the station's announcing staff.

So receptive have Newtonians been to the new program about their city that the editors of THE GRAPHIC have evolved a plan by which they may have an actual hand in the preparation of the programs.

Undoubtedly, certain residents of this city have in their possession some as yet unheard, or unusual, information about Newton. If that information reaches the editors of THE GRAPHIC at 11 Centre ave., Newton, it may find its way into a future broadcast.

Also, from time to time, certain outstanding figures in Newton life will be selected by THE GRAPHIC to go to WCOP on Sunday afternoons and give short talks about their city. Mayor Edwin O. Childs has received the first invitation for such a talk.

John L. Grant Dies Suddenly

John L. Grant of 467 California st., Newtonville, died suddenly of heart failure in the Turgeon Garage at Newtonville about 8 o'clock Thursday morning just after he had entered the place to take out his car. Mr. Grant was born in Newton 41 years ago, the son of Mary Mullen Grant and the late John J. Grant. For many years he had conducted an express business at Newton. He was Esteemed Leading Knight of Newton Lodge of Elks and was to have been nominated for Exalted Ruler of the Lodge at its meeting last night. He was also a member of Newton Council, Knights of Columbus and Mount Ida Council, Royal Arcanum. He is survived by his wife, Kathleen Boyle Grant; a son, John L. Grant, Jr.; three daughters, Virginia, Barbara and Jean Grant; his mother; two brothers, Frank and Edward Grant, and two sisters, Mrs. William Rattigan and Mrs. Charles Wright, all of Newton. Mr. Grant's funeral service will be held at Our Lady's Church on Saturday and burial will be in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham.

High School Drama Club Presents Play

The Drama Club of Newton High School is presenting its annual production this week on Friday afternoon, March 10, and on Saturday evening, March 11, in the High School Auditorium, Newtonville. The play this year is an adaptation by Helen Jerome of Jane Austen's novel "Pride and Prejudice." The setting of the play is in the early nineteenth century England and it is concerned with the efforts of one Mrs. Bennet to marry her three daughters to wealthy young gentlemen. Allan Michaels of Chestnut Hill plays the male lead and the female lead is portrayed by Betty Brady of West Newton. A large supporting cast includes the following: Constance Elrod, Richard Warren, Mavis Hayden, Paul Ellicker, Jacqueline Paul, Leon Kruger, Winifred Greenleaf, Richard Grimm, Nancy Blake, Felix Rogers, Mary Dillon, Robert Gallant, Mildred Kearney, Ralph Burns, Shirley Greene, Hollis Wyman, Betsy Blake, Roland Pease, Lois Oliver, Leslie Nesson, Rose Schiavone, Mary O'Donnell, Florence Timby, and Annetta Couchman. The play is under the direction of Miss Louise Wetherbee, the faculty adviser of the club.

Aldermen Reject Searway as Head Of Street Dept.

By a unanimous vote nineteen members of the Newton Board of Aldermen refused to confirm Mayor Childs' appointment of Francis L. Searway of Dickerman rd., Newton Highlands, as Street Commissioner. Aldermen Hughes and Hutchinson were absent. The mayor had sent in the name of Searway to the Aldermen on February 20. Searway gave a list of his educational background and professional experience to the mayor and the Aldermen, and the latter checked up on the statements made by the mayor's appointee. The Aldermen held a special meeting as a committee of the whole last week to consider the appointment and interviewed Searway.

At the meeting on Monday night Alderman Walker stated that the rules of the Board prohibit the discussion of the appointment of a salaried city official before a vote is taken, but he moved that a committee of three be selected to prepare a statement and send it to the mayor giving the reasons why the Board refused to confirm Searway. Alderman Temperley said he would not vote on the motion. The committee included Aldermen Walker, Jamieson and McKay.

Outstanding Harpsichord Player Guest Soloist Tuesday Evening

Due to conditions in Vienna, Mme. Hedda Ballon, one of the outstanding pianists and harpsichord players of Europe is now in America and will appear as guest soloist of the Highland Glee Club of Newton at their Spring Concert, next Tuesday evening, March 14th in the Newton High School Auditorium.

Mme. Ballon was for many years a professor at the Conservatoire in Vienna and has played with several of the leading European orchestras. In her appearance with the Highland Glee Club she will give an intimate harpsichord recital and in addition will show its accompanying possibilities with Miss Martha Wright, soprano, as assisting soloist.

Ratcliffe Defends English Premier's War Crisis Policy

Former Chamberlain Critic Says It Was Only Way To Avert War

S. K. Ratcliffe, special correspondent of the London Spectator, Sunday told a Newton Community Forum audience that he had been a critic of Chamberlain but that the premier's policy during the September crisis had been the only way to avoid a disastrous war.

Mr. Ratcliffe declared that the readiness of the great British Conservative Party to buy peace at any price represents the greatest historical change of a generation. He reported that more than 200 British ships have been attacked during the war in Spain.

"War would not have saved Czechoslovakia," he said. "She would have been the first to be destroyed. Any skirmish on that front would have brought the German air force into play and nothing could then have prevented the whole of Europe bursting into flames."

Leaves Bequests To Employees

The will of the late Mrs. Isabella Bacon of Prospect st., West Newton, was filed at Middlesex Probate Court on Monday. The estate is valued at about $355,000 and the principal beneficiaries are the two sons of Mrs. Bacon, William H., of Temple st., West Newton, and Josiah M., of Beacon st., Boston. A number of employees of the deceased are remembered in the will. Bridget Flanagan will receive $10 a week for life. Bequests of $500 each were made to Dorothy Breitzke, Marion Belyea, Mary Flanagan, Anna Mulligan, Elizabeth Davis, Norah Lomax and Joseph Yeradi.

Budget Recommendations Of Mayor Show Increase Over Last Year's Expenditures

Pictorial Section Delayed This Week

Due to delayed delivery of the Pictorial Section it was impossible to include that section with this issue of the NEWTON GRAPHIC. Mechanical difficulties over which there was no control occurred at the large Boston printing concern where the section is printed. The Pictorial Section will be resumed next week.

Safety Council Meets March 14

A meeting of the Newton Safety Council will be held on Tuesday evening, March 14, at 8 o'clock in Police Headquarters at West Newton. The speaker will be Chief Archie F. Bullock of the Arlington police and his subject will be "Registration of Bicycles in Massachusetts." He will refer to the bill now before the Legislature on this matter. The bill is sponsored by the Massachusetts Chiefs of Police of which Chief Bullock is secretary. A review of the safety work done in the Newton public and parochial schools will be presented by Julius Warren, superintendent of schools, and Rev. John P. Reynolds of Sacred Heart parish. The meeting will be in charge of Raymond A. Green, chairman of the Child Education Committee of the Newton Safety Council.

McCabe Charges Abuses In Relief Of Veterans

Alderman McCabe of Ward 1 at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night made a statement in which he charged that abuses have entered the operation of the Soldiers' Relief Department of this city. He said that there are eight stooges in various city departments who go over the heads of their departments and to the Mayor, when they so desire and his remarks on Monday night dealt with an investigator in the Soldiers' Relief Department who handles the cases which are outside the city. McCabe referred to this person as "Stooge Number 3," and said that this man boasts that as long as "Ned" is Mayor he can do as he pleases in the Soldiers' Relief Department. McCabe commented that Edward Dunagan, Director of Soldiers' Relief, has been doing a humane job, but this investigator was inflicted upon him.

The Ward 1 alderman told the Board that as a veteran of the World War he became interested in the case of another World War veteran, who is broke and in poor health, and who lives in a community about 10 miles from Newton with his three motherless, young daughters. As the veteran was formerly a resident of Newton he applied to this city for Soldiers' Relief, and the person referred to as Stooge No. 3 took charge of the case, had someone whom Alderman McCabe referred to as "Sub-Stooge No. 2" take the sick veteran to the Soldiers' Home at Chelsea, and upon arriving there with the patient, told the nurse that the veteran should be placed in the ward for mental cases. McCabe stated that the nurse who (Continued on Page 2)

Mayor Childs budget recommendations for 1939 were submitted to the Board of Aldermen on Monday night. They total $5,511,247.47 in the regular budget, and $292,482.96 in the Water Department budget, or about $218,122 more than the 1938 expenditures. The recommendations of department heads totalled $5,895,029.02 in the regular budget, and $294,782.96 in the Water Department budget. Last year's budget as approved by the Board of Aldermen totalled $5,447,323.20 in the general budget and $304,983.62 in the Water Department budget. The expenditures were $5,300,915.33 and $284,692.69, respectively.

The General Department budget shows an increase of about $21,000 over the 1938 expenditures for this department. There is an increase of about $6000 necessitated by pensions for retired city employees, and the estimated cost of insuring city-owned buildings jumps from $4,277.68 in 1938 to $13,784.70 in 1939. Last year the amount appropriated for the expense of the License Board was $1,452 and the amount expended was $1,441.05. For expense of this Board in 1938 the Mayor recommends $2,452, an increase of $1,000. The city's share of the expenses of the Middlesex County T. B. Hospital in 1938 was $38,084.78. The estimate for 1939 is $41,500.39.

The Executive Department budget, $44,300, is about $1,000 more than the 1938 expenditures. WPA administration expenses in Newton for 1938 were $25,000. For this year $32,500 is asked. The Accounting Department 1938 budget is about $3,000 less than the 1938 expenditures. The savings are effected mostly through decreases in the amounts needed for laborers and firemen's pensions.

The budget of the Treasury Department $886,471, shows a big increase over 1938 expenditures which totalled $737,645. The retirement of serial bonds is the reason. The printed budget showed that the Mayor had approved the recommendation of City Treasurer Newhall for an increase in the salary of his hard-working assistant, Miss Laura Ellice from $2500 to $3000, but a supplementary statement explained that this was in error, and the Mayor did not approve of the increase. The Assessing Department budget shows a decrease of nearly a $1000 from the 1938 expenditures of this department. The total recommended by the Mayor, $24,240.33, is only $50 less than the amount asked for by the Department head; the difference being in the item for clerks salaries.

The budget of the Soldiers' Relief Department totals $88,206, the same amount recommended by Director Dunagan. Of this amount $80,000 is asked for soldiers' relief; in 1938 the amount expended was $63,990, and in addition $20,790 was expended from an additional loan. The Mayor's recommendation for the City Clerk Department is $34,797. Last year the cost of this department was $36,832. The Mayor lopped $100 from the amount asked by the City Clerk for increase in his assistants salaries, and (Continued on Page 2)

Newton Birth Rate Hits New Low

The annual report of the Newton Health Department just issued, shows that in 1938 the number of children born, and whose parents were residents of this city, totalled only 842, or a rate of 11.5 per thousand of population. This is the lowest birth rate in the history of the city. Unless the stork is kept busier in Newton in coming years, or a large number of children move into the city, Newton will not have to worry about its schools becoming overcrowded. During 1938 the infant mortality in Newton increased until the rate was 36.8; the highest since 1932.

to $13,784.70 in 1939. Last year the amount appropriated for the expense of the License Board was $1,452 and the amount expended was $1,441.05. For expense of this Board in 1938 the Mayor recommends $2,452, an increase of $1,000. The city's share of the expenses of the Middlesex County T. B. Hospital in 1938 was $38,084.78. THE BILL OF RIGHTS

Last week Governor Saltonstall signed legislation passed by both branches of the General Court ratifying the Bill of Rights. Eight of the original thirteen states of the Union ratified these rights some 150 years ago. Under Governor John Hancock there was prolonged debate to make this charter of liberty even more inclusive, and although Massachusetts was among the strongest advocates it subsequently failed to take this action. Historians tell us that Massachusetts refused to ratify the Constitution of the United States until it was agreed that the Bill of Rights would be added to it. The ensuing oversight therefore was not only inconsistent, but reflected upon the State. We are now commemorating the 150th anniversary of the Bill of Rights and it was fitting and proper that the State correct the situation by its ratification.

Beyond the historical tradition and significance is the desirability of emphasizing that these first ten amendments to the Constitution still are vital to the protection of individual rights. The Constitution is the keystone of the structure of our democracy and the Bill of Rights must be kept alive and constantly applied if we are to preserve democracy and withstand dictatorship.

THE 1939 BUDGET

Considerable interest is being manifested in the proposed budget of the city for 1939. The recommendations of Mayor Childs, showing an increase over last year's expenditures of some $200,000, will receive close attention from the Finance Committee of the Aldermen, as well as from other interested individuals and organizations concerned with the tax situation. It should be borne in mind that the city must also take into consideration such assessments as are levied upon it by the state as well as such distribution of state funds as may be allotted to it. With state expenses having shown a considerable increase in recent years, there is grave concern as to how much of a local increase, if any, can be absorbed without overburdening the already harassed real estate taxpayer.

Letters To The Editor

NEWTON TAXPAYERS' ASSOCIATION—MEMBERSHIP

To the Editor:

It has come to my attention that there is a feeling on the part of some city employees that because of their direct connection with the city they are not eligible for membership in the Newton Taxpayers' Association. Through the GRAPHIC I should like to make it clear that not only are all employees of the city eligible and welcome to membership but there is every reason why the Taxpayers' Association should receive the active support of city employees.

The Newton Taxpayers' Association work is wholly constructive. Its object is to see that taxpayers' money is spent prudently so as to get the maximum of service for each dollar spent. It is not opposed to any necessary service, but it does hold that the citizens of Newton cannot stand a continually increasing tax rate and thus that expenditures should be held to an absolute minimum consistent with essential services to the citizens. Under present conditions the question with regard to all new items of expense should not be "is it desirable" but "is it necessary and can we afford it."

If for no other reason than as a protection of their own jobs which would be jeopardized if the city were to get into financial difficulties, all city employees who are interested in the welfare of the city and the permanence of necessary jobs should join the Newton Taxpayers' Association.

Very truly yours,

M. B. DALTON,
Vice President.

Channing Alliance To Present
"Spring Cabaret" March 25

The Channing Alliance will present "Spring Cabaret" on Saturday evening, March 25, at the Channing Church parlors. Under the direction of Clayton Holden, the program is rapidly being improved, which will include numbers in tap dancing and singing. Refreshments will be served during the performance and there will be social dancing afterwards, with music furnished by a well known orchestra.

The following committees have been chosen: refreshments, Mrs. A. R. Welton and Mrs. A. C. Johnson; tickets, Miss Margaret Ball; decorations, Mrs. L. N. Spear, Miss Marion Bryant, and Miss Kate Howard.

Frank Capra's "You Can't Take It With You" now showing at the Walden Theatre with Jean Arthur, Lionel Barrymore, James Stewart and Edward Arnold, has been endorsed by the Hobby Guild of America as "excellent film entertainment which is a clear illustration of how hobbies add to the joy of living." The Guild is the leading organization of its kind in the country.

New Budget Sent To Aldermen

$1900 each from the items for clerical assistance in registering voters and the cost of printing poll, voting and jury lists. A tentative budget of $10,000 is recommended for the Law Department. Last year this department expended $63,876.44, mostly in payment of land damages and claims. The budget of the Engineering Department, $41,951, is the same amount asked for by the City Engineer. The 1938 expenditures totaled $44,977.

The budget figures of the Mayor for the Buildings Department total $149,325, about $5000 less than asked by the Buildings Commissioner. This includes salaries for 6 inspectors, but cuts the amount asked for these salaries by $300. An increase of $50 in the salary of the Building Maintenance Supervisor is refused by the Mayor. The Mayor cut $4000 from the amount asked by the Commissioner for the maintenance of schools and other public buildings.

The Police Department budget as recommended by the Mayor totals $243,582.36; about $3000 less than Chief Hughes' figures. The Mayor asks for 6 additional patrolmen to go on duty July 1 so that the members of the department may have a day off in 6, instead of a day off in 8 as at present. The Mayor also approves the Chief's request for a new ambulance, replacement of nine cruising cars and four motorcycles, and a new car to replace the 1930 antique now being driven by the Chief.

The budget estimate of Chief Randall for the Fire Department totals $246,788.99 and the Mayor cuts this figure to $316,193.10. Last year the expenditures for running this department were $260,740.11. The Mayor recommends the replacement system be established on July 1. According to the estimates of Chief Randall this would require another assistant chief, 10 lieutenants and 42 more firemen, and their salaries from July 1 to the balance of the fiscal year would total $43,540. The Mayor does not approve a request of $23,450 for new apparatus and $1300 for a traffic light at Engineer 2 Highway.

Newton. He does approve the Chief's recommendations of $2145 for radio equipment and $1160 for an emergency electric plant at police headquarters.

The Sealer of Weights and Measures again asks for a salary increase, from $2400 to $2600, and the Mayor recommends that he receive $100 additional. The budget of the Health Department as submitted by the Department totaled $76,185 and asked for an increase in Health Officer Choate's salary from $4000 to $5000, increases of $100 each in the salaries of the inspectors; an additional inspector and an additional dental hygienist, and $600 for the salary of a nutritionist, who this year received $300. The printed budget showed that the Mayor approved the $1000 additional salary for Dr. Choate, but did not approve the increases for the inspectors.

The budget of the Welfare Department totals $575,791.90, or about $5500 less than asked for by the department. From the $30,000 asked for "outside aid," the Mayor lopped $5000. In 1938 this department expended $666,147.95. The new City Physician asks $600 for an assistant, and the Mayor approves this recommendation. In 1938 $250 was expended for assistance to the City Physician.

The budget of the School Department totals $1,464,984.60 for the regular schools and $85,205.33 for the vocational school, a total of $1,550,189.93. Last year this department cost the city $1,529,230.41. The increases are caused by step rate increases in teachers' salaries, and about $5000 increase in the estimate for fuel, power and water. The Library Department budget totals $94,920, an increase of about $2500 over 1938. For the new Newtonville branch $1000 is asked for books, and for the West Newton branch $850 for furniture. Librarian Lucht who has for several years asked that his salary be increased from $4000 to $4500, and who was given a $1000 increase last year, again asks for the $4500 salary, and the Mayor again concurs.

The Playground Department budget was lopped $7000 by the Mayor, his recommendation being $88,892. The item cut was that for construction. Last year this department expended $496,413. The Mayor recommends $931,671 for the Street Department, cutting $127,000 from the figures recommended by the Department. Cuts made include $5000 from the amount asked for maintenance of streets, $5,000 for snow and ice removal, $25,000 for resurfacing streets (the Mayor recommending nothing for this work), $10,000 from the amount asked for the collection of ashes and rubbish, $3000 from the item for maintenance of tools. The item for the care of trees is cut from $35,000 to $20,000, that for new equipment from $59,100 to $45,000, and care of grounds from $30,000 to $25,000. In 1938 the Department expended $947,632 plus $89,102 for hurricane damages.

The Water Department budget totals $292,482.96; about $2500 less than asked for by Commissioner Murray. Last year this department expended $284,692. It costs the city nothing, but it costs the citizens who pay water bills enough so that the department shows a substantial profit each year, which, like the State gasoline tax, is diverted to pay part of the expenses of other departments.

The Finance Committee of the Board of Aldermen will spend many hours the next few weeks in studying the Mayor's budget recommendations. Other committees of the Board of Aldermen will work on the budget include the Public Works Committee and Public Buildings Committee.

booked the patient at the Chelsea Home reported that the man seemed to be normal mentally, and the patient proved to be normal.

According to the statement made by Alderman McCabe the investigator whom he criticized, hired a woman to keep house for the three motherless children of the veteran who was at the hospital, the "substitute" took up his abode at the house as a caretaker, and another woman was hired as assistant to the first woman. McCabe said that on November 19 a check was drawn on the city for $29 to provide the veteran's family with necessities, and that on November 23 (the day before Thanksgiving) the three young girls were told to go to relatives, which they did. The Ward 1 Alderman stated that out of the $29 check the family received but $5, and the other $24 went to the housekeeper, caretaker and for supplies.

Alderman McCabe commented that he had purposely refrained from telling all that occurred, but he hoped he had given enough information to demonstrate how the taxpayer had to pay for the Mayor's stooge in this department.

icy of patience and delay which looks like defeat and feels like humiliation. Hitler is filled with dangerous dreams, he feels himself superior to Napoleon in military genius. He has followed the policy of Bismarck to control the Balkan nations. But I do not think Germany will attack Russia to get the Ukraine, that would be insanity indeed."

The speaker said also that an invasion of America could not occur for years although the fascist nations are laying the groundwork for penetration into South America. The greatest immediate question, he said, is whether Germany will back Italy in demands for French possessions.

Mail Truck and Bus Collide

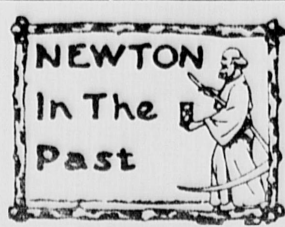

A mail truck driven by Timothy McCarthy of Woodward St., Roxbury, collided with a Boston & Worcester bus on the turnpike on Sunday afternoon. Witnesses reported that the truck was passing the bus near Parker st. when the collision occurred, and that the truck continued on for a considerable distance and then tipped over. McCarthy was assisted from the cab and taken to the Newton Hospital. He received a sprained ankle.

"Veterans" Concert Promoter Guilty Of Larceny

Harry E. Tripp, 40, of Shrewsbury, who referred to himself as a Lieutenant in the Army Transport Reserves in promoting an alleged benefit for the 14th Engineers Veteran Association, was found guilty of larceny by Judge Mayberry in the Newton court last Thursday. The case was continued until March 16 with the understanding that in the meantime Tripp will make restitution to all who bought tickets or paid for program advertisements for the benefit concert which never occurred.

55 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, March 1, 1884
C. M. Tupper is manufacturing screw drivers and nail sets.

A. A. Glines photographed several beautiful snow scenes on Newtonville ave. and Park st. on Wednesday morning.

Alderman Henry E. Cobb, who has been ill with fever for several weeks is recovering. He expects to start on Monday with Mrs. Cobb on a brief trip to Florida.

Edward Tobin, a Natick shoemaker, was instantly killed by an inward bound train near Faneuil on Saturday night. He had lost his ticket and had been put off a train at Allston and was walking home, having no money with him. He was a sober, industrious man and leaves a wife and five children.

A pleasant wedding took place at the residence of James Anderson at Newtonville last Wednesday evening when Frank Jordan, for many years clerk at Francis Muldock's store, was married to Miss Laura Anderson. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Dorchester and everything passed off very pleasantly.

J. F. C. Hyde has sold the estate on Church St., Newton, where the late Orrin Whipple so long resided, and the Baptist Church Society will build a church edifice on the lot. The lot contained 21,000 square feet, was assessed for $7800 and sold for $11,000. The sale was considered very satisfactory by the owner, Mrs. Emeline Whipple.

At the regular meeting of the Common Council on Monday night the order establishing office hours at City Hall and forbidding smoking, was taken up. At their last meeting the Councilmen struck out the no-smoking clause, but the Aldermen non-concurred. The Councilmen voted 9 to 4 to recede and the original order was passed.

The boys of Pine Farm School, Waban, paid their annual visit to the Parsonage at West Newton on Wednesday evening and had a good time partaking of a generous entertainment.

The small village of Auburndale was stirred on Tuesday evening in an unbecoming manner by a discussion on the temperance question in the Congregational Chapel. The affirmative and negative sides were ably led by Rev. Messrs. Bashford and Bisbee and exchanges between the disputants made a livelier scene than "Saints Rest" is usually accustomed to witness.

The funerals of two lads drowned in the Johnsonville section of Newton Centre, took place on Saturday. They were 9 years of age and sons of Arthur Muldoon and Mr. Haley. After school on Thursday while returning home, they went into a pasture to slide on the ice in a swamp broke through, and both were drowned.

50 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, March 1, 1889
The Legislative committee has reported 5 to 4 against the annexation of any part of Watertown to Newton. This injures the chances of the residents of the Morse's field section who want that part of Watertown this side of the Charles River joined to Newton.

Mrs. Moore of Carleton st., Newton, had her pocket picked in a trimming store in Boston on Tuesday. Her pocketbook contained $110.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brooks will give a reception this evening at their residence, corner of Waverley ave. and Sargent st. It will be one of the notable society events of the season as 600 invitations have been issued.

A new barge line has been started between Newton Upper Falls and Newton Highlands. It will be run to evening and Sunday trains only. George Kerrivan is the proprietor.

Mr. Spear, the stable keeper at Newton Highlands, on going to his stable last Thursday morning found one of his most valuable horses dead in its stall.

A new door has been placed at the entrance of the police station at West Newton to replace the old one which was worn out. What is needed in Newton is not a new door for a poor lock-up, but an appropriation for a substantial police station and court house, entirely separated from City Hall. We also want the police force enlarged so that the city can be continually patrolled.

At the meeting of the Common Council on Monday night Councilman Forkman presented a petition for a fire alarm bell at Nonantum, not so much for fire as for school purposes. He said similar petitions had been presented before, and had been recommended by Mayor Kimball in '86 and '87. On stormy days the "no school" signals cannot be heard in Nonantum, children there have to travel some distance to school, wait outside until it is time for school to begin, before they know there is to be no school, and then return home wet through. Druggists complain of the children trooping into their stores to find out if there is to be school that day, and police in Nonantum have to telephone to City Hall to find out the location of a fire.

Powers' Paragraphs

The conviction in the Newton court on a charge of larceny of a Shrewsbury man who obtained money from Newton residents for a "benefit concert" which never was held, again calls attention to the number of easy marks in this city. The person found guilty holds the imposing title of lieutenant in the Army Transport Reserves and he sold a number of tickets for a concert which allegedly was to have been held at the Newton Centre Woman's Club building on February 1. He also obtained money for advertisements in a program. The "veterans" organization which was to have split the profits from the concert with the promoter is the 14th Engineers Veteran Association, which is not a Newton organization, although it may have some members in this city. Police started to investigate the affair the middle of January and found that the hall had not even been rented for the date specified. The case was continued until March 16 on the promise of the defendant that he would make restitution to those from whom he had obtained money for tickets and advertisements.

Because Newton has the reputation of being a wealthy community it is selected as a fertile field by persons promoting various rackets. These include entertainments allegedly to be conducted for the benefit of this or that veterans organization, some of which are conducted as private money making schemes, and others are organizations which are located outside of Newton and resort to the questionable method of obtaining easy money by allowing some promoter to use their name, and split the profits. Newton Post, A. L. and Serr. Duley Camp, V. F. W., have repeatedly warned Newton people against such rackets, but the "suckers" in this city continue to bite.

In addition to the money wheeled from Newtonians for the "benefit of veterans," many Newton folks are easy marks for solicitors who regularly or intermittently travel about this city asking contributions for alleged philanthropies conducted by quasi-religious organizations which try to imitate the highly reputable Salvation Army. And then there are the young men and women who go from house to house endeavoring to sell subscriptions to magazines, and who recite the old wheeze of using this method in order to finance their college expenses or their expenses at some aviation or other school. If you have any money to give to charity, there are plenty of poor people in Newton, and there are established agencies here such as the Newton Community Chest. If you desire to help needy veterans, get in touch with the local veteran organizations.

Most men are satisfied to use one name and the initial of a second name in addition to their surname; the initial being for the purpose of added identification in our urban communities. Comparatively few men use two names in addition to their family name. Most who do so are clergymen and educators. Perhaps they believe such a practise gives them added dignity. It is rarely that a newspaper scribe goes into the three name class, so it interested us when we observed that the fortunate reporter who recently got the assignment from a Boston newspaper to travel to Rome, is a "tri-name" addict. Supposing we "put on the dog" and title ourself Edward Brian de LaPoer.

ONE THING AND ANOTHER

Let's Get Ready

Brawn and muscle not otherwise engaged may well be applied these days to raking leaves, clearing rubbish and removing the drab accumulations revealed now that snow and ice have melted and the earth is bare, or was at this writing. We face the period when main thoroughfares, side streets, front lawns and back yards present a discouraging appearance. Cold, mud, soggy grass, sticks, rags, pieces of metal glass and rubber, bones and even old clothing and hats are uncovered. Once lost in the snow and now made plain to view by March's melting mood they offer a hideous spectacle. We shudder at it.

As long as the skies are cloudy it doesn't seem so bad and is like a room where the shades are drawn in the hope that the dirt will not be detected. But when the sun bursts forth in full radiance it seems as if unexpected visitors had arrived before the morning housework was even started. Nature can do considerable on its own but in preparing the great outdoors for glorious spring it should have both our cooperation and assistance.

"Well, It's New To Me"

Highly-polished metal has served as a substitute mirror on numerous occasions for let us say as many years as it has existed. Until a recent amateur dramatic performance I never knew that there were mirrors of metal as well as glass. I cannot tell you of the technical side, but as for the practical they are first class and quite as good. Probably they stand the strain better, but that wasn't the point I started to make. Somebody passed me the metal mirror to use in getting the grease paint from my face. I thought it was glass and took it gingerly. "It's metal," I was informed. "They brought out the idea during the World War and men overseas used them."

Really, although impressed at the moment, I didn't think much about it until last week when I was browsing around the five-and-ten cent store. At the counter where electrical fixtures are sold and where I tried in vain to get a tiny lamp, was a young woman clerk. Pausing, presumably because there were no customers, she picked up one of the flat metal plates that are used to fit over and conceal the wiring of a wall button or plug. It was highly polished, at least on one side. The first thing I knew she was using it as a mirror and successfully it appeared. She patted her hair all round and then studied her face until seemingly satisfied. And that was new to me, too. I'm learning.

As To The Effete

It is on my list of "things to be done" to read once more some of the articles written on the history of the telephone. I hope to obtain additional enlightenment within a few days because not long ago I was reminded that the telephone was first used Friday, March 10, 1876.

On the 63rd anniversary, it seems to me it would be appropriate to strive for answers to some of the questions that long have bothered me. I would like very much to

Grouch of the Week

As we scrape together sufficient coin to satisfy the Federal income tax collector it is comforting to think that Mr. Dewey, the New York District Attorney, is successful in prosecuting the "big shots" in the greatest and most corrupt political organization of any State. And when the press brings us the glad news that a prominent individual has been indicted for alleged evasion of his income tax payments we feel less pain in handing over our own taxes to Uncle Sam. The humble taxpayer doesn't expect much for his money and is seldom disappointed. It does him good to learn that at least a few transgressors have, after sneering defiance of the law, been brought to justice.

Franklin I. Jordan To Speak At Camera Club Meeting

Franklin I. Jordan, F. R. P. S. (Fellow of the Royal Photographic Society) will honor the members and prospective members of "The Camera Club for the Newtons" next Friday, March 17th, at 8 p. m. sharp. The meeting will be held in the studios of the J. Dunham Jones Company, 346 Centre st., Newton Corner.

Mr. Jordan is a resident of Newton Highlands and is past president and member of the Boston Camera Club, also the 35 Millimeter Club of Boston. He is well known throughout the country as one of the leading lecturers on Pictorial Photography. Mr. Jordan is the author of many books on photography, among which are "Photographic Enlarging," "Photographic Enlarging Control Processes" and "Photographic Hints and Gadgets." He is associate editor of the American Photographic Publishing Co. The Club will hear a talk on "The Value of a Camera Club and the Meaning of Pictorial Photography." After the lecture, Mr. Jordan will be glad to judge prints of those present. He requests that the prints be at least five by seven inches in size. Mr. Jordan will bring some of his own prints for the benefit of those present.

MT. HOLYOKE CLUB

On Wednesday evening, March 15, the Mount Holyoke Club of Boston is presenting a "Super Quiz" program at the Simmons College Auditorium, 300 Fenway, proceeds of which will be used for the student aid fund of the club. Dr. Roswell Gray Ham, President of Mount Holyoke College, will act as one of the "experts" who have been invited to answer questions submitted by club members and friends. Questions should be sent in advance to Miss Louise Bray, 37 Concord ave., Cambridge. There will be rewards for all questions accepted for use and special awards for questions which the experts are unable to answer. Mrs. Clinton Tylee of 53 Bigelow rd. is serving on the committee. Mrs. Reginald Putnam, Wellesley Hills is in charge of tickets.

SARAH HULL CHAPTER, D. A. R.

The members of Sarah Hull Chapter, Daughters of the Revolution, met at the home of Mrs. Annie L. Eastman, 196 Pleasant st., Newton Centre, on Wednesday, March 8th, 1939, at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. Albert M. Hinkle, Jr., the Regent, presided, and after the salute to the flag and a short business meeting Miss Campbell of the Middlesex County Extension Service, spoke on the subject "Art in Every Day Life." That was a most interesting subject for all present and Miss Campbell made it most instructive and entertaining. Before Miss Campbell was introduced, Mrs. Marion Merrill and Miss Beatrice Eastman, Mrs. Eastman's daughters, sang two songs, very delightfully, with Miss Dorothy Merrill at the piano.

Coffee and sandwiches, with tea for those who wished it, and little cakes were then served with Dr. Marietta P. Reid and Mrs. Charles E. Morro at the tea table. A social hour followed which all enjoyed.

The hostesses of the afternoon were Mrs. Raymond S. Foggate, Mrs. Daniel M. Goodridge, Miss Kate M. Fox and Miss Mary I. Fox.

PHILOMATHIA CLUB

The Annual Green Tea of the Philomathia Club of Boston College will be held on Wednesday afternoon, March 15, at two-thirty at the Chalet on Commonwealth ave., Chestnut Hill. Mrs. Daniel J. Holland, the chairman, will introduce the speaker, Miss Mary Brennan, who will give a talk on her experiences at the Eucharistic Congress at Budapest and will present pictures of the same. A musical program will follow under the direction of Mrs. George Flood, with Mrs. Mary Glavin Brean as soloist. The proceeds will be used to augment the scholarship fund at Boston College.

The Junior Philomathia Club will hold their Fourth Annual Penny Sale on Monday evening, March 27, at the Boston College Auditorium under the direction of Mrs. Byron G. Tosi of Chestnut Hill, senior adviser, assisted by the Misses Angela and Mary Elena Albire.

Rotary Club

John H. Walsh, of Waltham, was the speaker at Monday's luncheon at the Brae Burn Club. Although Past Commander of the State Department of the American Legion, Past President of the Waltham Rotary Club, and Superintendent of the Middlesex and Boston Street Railway, Mr. Walsh is better known as "Jack" Walsh. His talk to the Rotarians was on the Legion. Contrasting the hard work and high purposes manifested in committee rooms and executive sessions with the antics of the Legionnaires on the streets of the convention cities, Mr. Walsh sincerely and effectively presented the Legion as he has seen it from the inside, the real Legion which is striving throughout the length and breadth of the land to put into effect the principles of its preamble. Growing out of an organization of members of the A. E. F. after the Armistice, the Legion now has a membership of about a million scattered throughout some twelve thousand posts. Allied with it are some five hundred thousand women in the Ladies' Auxiliary and about sixty-five thousand boys in the Sons of Veterans organization.

Mr. Walsh cited a group of very large figures concerning the costs of caring for disabled veterans and boiled them all down into three words: War Is Expensive. Keen realization of this fact leads to one of the Legion's major activities—strong, continual pressure for an adequate National defense. A second extensive and important activity is the care and protection of the disabled veteran and his dependents. This is no small task, with sixty-two thousand veterans in hospitals alone costing many millions each year for medical care and entirely aside from the costs of their food and shelter. Illustrative of the Legion's concern for these unfortunates is the endowment fund from the income of which one half goes into rehabilitation and one half into general child-welfare work. Of particular interest to the members was a sketch of the skeleton organization which the Legion has ready to spring into active service with the Red Cross in case of any extensive disaster. Throughout New England, Legionnaires rendered tremendous service at the time of the hurricane last fall. In all of its plans and activities, the Legion is constantly alert to preserve and to transmit to posterity the American way of living under a constitutional form of government where law and order will be preserved and autocracy combated.

LUCY JACKSON CHAPTER, D. A. R.

Lucy Jackson Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will hold its next meeting in the Chapter House, Newton Lower Falls, on Monday, March 13th, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. George Howland, regent, will preside. Mr. Charles J. O'Malley, president of the O'Malley Advertising Co. of Boston since 1912, will be the guest speaker. His subject will be "The Irish Soldier in the War of the Revolution."

The Chapter is having a "guest night" on April third, in the Chapter House. This will be a gala affair with many distinguished guests attending. There will be a programme furnished by the "Kovitz" trio, violin, cello and piano, and Miss Marian Sheppard, reader, from Watertown. Mrs. Winfield Scott Smyth, chairman and her hostesses, will serve tea at the regular meeting.

newer residents of this city, and brings back memories to the older residents. Some of the photographs are the property of Major Harold Daniels and were obtained by him from the studio of Ellis Moore. They were taken from 40 to 60 years ago by predecessors of Mr. Moore who conducted the old studio in Sumner's Block on Centre st. They show the old Nonantum Block and other buildings at Newton Corner including an old Colonial house in which the writer spent his earliest years.

Other photographs in the exhibition were taken by the late Dr. Samuel Loveland of Elmwood st. and show views of the lowering of Boston & Albany tracks 43 years ago. Newton Corner—and the world, have changed considerably since the old photographs were taken, and in some ways the changes have not been for the better.

Most of the GRAPHIC readers either use the Boston & Albany Railroad to commute to and from Boston, or travel in their own automobiles. But many of our readers, and many other residents of Newton commute to and from Boston on the street cars of the Boston Elevated. Starting tomorrow, these persons are going to get a rude surprise. On Saturday, March 11, the Elevated management will cease to operate two-man cars on the Watertown-Newton-Brighton line. Even during rush hours when hundreds of persons are on their way to and from work, they will no longer have two-car trains with 104 seats, and with a conductor in each section. Instead, there will be a one-man car with 48 seats. Fifteen of these cars each hour with a seating capacity of 720 will take the place of 24 cars that seat 1248. If you want to see a result of this change, go to Nonantum sq. at Newton Corner any week-day morning between 7 and 8:30 and see from 20 to 40 persons trying to board a one-man car. The chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Elevated is Edward E. Whiting of Newtonville. Possibly he may be prevailed upon to use his influence in undoing this blow to the people of Newton who depend on the Elevated for transportation.

AN AMAZING THING has happened to LaSalle during the past seven years. The car has been made at least twice as good—and the price has been reduced more than one half! It is one of the greatest value triumphs the automotive industry has seen. In fact, it is such an amazing thing that the general public has not yet grasped its full significance. This is especially true with regard to price. Thousands of people still believe it takes hundreds of dollars more to buy a LaSalle than it actually does. Don't buy a car without driving LaSalle—and without learning, for yourself, of its unrivalled performance and comfort. Do that—and you'll surely get a LaSalle!

The chairman of the Junior Prom, which is to be held in Winslow Hall Saturday evening, is Mary Mathews of Flemington, New Jersey. The patron and patronesses are: Dr. and Mrs. Guy M. Winslow, Dean Margaret Rand, Mrs. Statira McDonald, and Miss Karin Eliasson.

At the Tuesday assembly Mr. Charles Crawford Gort initiated bird songs, and on Friday the speaker will be Mr. Kenneth E. Backman of the Boston Better Business Bureau.

Among the honor students for the first semester are: Marjorie Lind of Newton Centre, Marjorie Woodrough of Newton, Dorothy Carter of Cambridge, and Barbara Richardson of Framingham.

A joint concert by the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and the Lasell Junior College Glee Clubs will be given at Walker Memorial Hall on Friday evening. The concert will be followed by dancing. The patrons and patronesses from Lasell are: Dr. and Mrs. Guy M. Winslow, Mr. and Mrs. George Dunham, and Dean Margaret Rand.

AMERICAN McALL ASSOCIATION

The Fifty-Fifth Annual Meeting and Luncheon of the Boston Auxiliary to the American McAll Association will be held in the Empire Room of the Hotel Vendome, Commonwealth ave., and Dartmouth sts., Boston, on Wednesday, March 15th. Business meeting at 11:30 a. m. Luncheon at 12:30 p. m. Speaker, Mrs. F. S. Bronson of New York. Topic, "The McAll Mission as I Saw It."

Wednesday evening the crew of 25 men and three officers aboard Sea Scout Ship 13 received the glad news from Commodore Moffatt that they had been designated Regional Flag Ship for 1939. This honor is the result of taking first place in New England in general Sea Scout excellence which is rated by the point system. Automatically Ship 13 becomes a member of the National Flag Ship Fleet of Sea Scouts and is now being considered in Washington, D. C., for the National Flag Ship award. Announcement of the winner is expected in April.

Last week Ship 13 observed Father and Son night by serving a baked bean supper at headquarters on Watertown st. Fathers were paying guests of their sons, and in addition to the dinner were treated to a four reel movie of life aboard the old square-rigged wind jammers. A public spirited father of three sons generously presented Ship 13 with 50 each plates, cups, saucers, knives, forks and spoons. Several Sea Scouts will be advanced in rank at the Boy Scout Court of Honor to be held by Norumbega Council the latter part of March.

THE WEEK IN NEWTON SPORTS

OUR LADY HIGH FIVE IN FINALS Lose Catholic Title To St. Bernard's of Fitchburg

In the Catholic High School basketball tournament last Friday and Saturday the Our Lady High quintet, invited to participate by virtue of winning the playoff for second place in the Greater Boston Catholic High School league circuit, turned back its preliminary and semi-final round opponents but was defeated in the final round by St. Bernard's high of Fitchburg.

Friday afternoon Charlie Gallagher's local quintet found little difficulty in turning back Coyle High of Taunton in the first game of the tourney, 29 to 20. The Newton team took a 7 to 4 lead in the initial stanza but at half time enjoyed but a point margin at 12 to 11. In the third period they drew out to a more comfortable lead at 19 to 13 and in the final period, after holding off a courageous bid by Coyle, ran wild to tally 10 points for their 29 to 20 margin. The Carderelli brothers, Mello and Dan, with Bob Muse at centre, divided honors for Our Lady's with Muse and Danny counting 7 points each and Mello 5.

Saturday afternoon Our Lady High drew St. Raphael's High of Pawtucket in the semi-final round in what proved to be the most exciting game of the tournament. It took an overtime sudden death period of but twelve seconds for the locals to crash through after Pawtucket had tied the regulation time game up in the closing minutes.

The Rhode Island boys could not stop Mello Carderelli, Catholic league individual high scorer, who tallied 14 points closely followed by Johnny Cronin with 12. Tony Grella and Dan Carderelli proved, as usual, great play-makers with their two mates. At half time the locals trailed by three points but outscored their rivals 12 to 7 in the third period to take over the lead, 22 to 20. The fourth period was a ding-dong affair with Pawtucket matching every point scored by Our Lady's. With less than a minute to go the Newton five led by three points but elected to attempt to widen the gap instead of defensive tactics. St. Raphael's cashed in scoring three shots from the foul line to send the game into overtime. Four Newton lads had a shot at the basket before Cronin snared Mello Carderelli's rebound and tossed it in for the winning points. The victory was the tenth straight for the Gallagher coached outfit which opened the season with three losses before getting on to the victory path which was as yet uninterrupted.

St. Bernard's High, with a team of 16 year old players, conquerors of Mission High, 1939 champions, also were Our Lady's High nemesis in the final game Saturday evening. The first period was a nip and tuck affair with Fitchburg having a 13 to 12 edge and at half time a 19 to 15 margin. In the third session the up-staters ran wild and stepped out to a commanding lead of 32 to 20. But the locals refused to give up and with Mello Carderelli the sparkplug held the Fitchburg five scoreless, while tallying nine points. The Newton star scored seven of these points in a brilliant surge within the first three minutes of the period. Alarmed by the threat and with their lead reduced to a 32 to 29 score the Fitchburg team resorted to passing tactics and kept possession of the ball most of the rest of the period.

NEWTON FAILS TO CATCH ARLINGTON FIVE Eliminated In Suburban League Playoff—Waltham Wins

In the preliminary round play-off for the Suburban league basketball title at the Newton high gymnasium last Saturday night, the Newton high five was eliminated by Arlington in a 30 to 28 game. On Tuesday the Arlington and Waltham fives were matched for the championship game at Waltham with the Watch City team winning by the identical score of 30 to 28.

Against Newton the Arlington five built up an impressive lead in the first half to step out in front 23 to 16. As usual Newton put on a strong offensive surge in the third period while maintaining a stout defense. At the end of the third period Newton had drawn up on the visitors' heels to a 27 to 26 point. Early in the fourth period a basket by Capt. Don Abbott put Newton one point in front but from that point until the final whistle the Newton lads failed to find the hoop, although narrowly missing on several occasions. Meanwhile George Mernick of Arlington tossed in a floor goal to take over the lead again and a foul toss by Whitney gave them their two-point margin which held as the final count.

As usual Abbott and Flag were the Newton stars with the Newton leader tallying 11 points and Flag eight. Mernick at centre and Bill Glenon at forward were the Arlington stars, each tossing in six floor baskets for 12 points apiece. Neither team capitalized to advantage on tosses from the foul line as only four, two for each team, were successful.

At Waltham on Tuesday afternoon the crimson team stepped out to an early lead, much the same as Arlington had at Newton, although Arlington quickly made it 5 to 1 in the first few minutes. At half time Waltham led 17 to 9 and at the start of the final period 23 to 17. In the final sesion Arlington staged an offensive rally which gave the Watch City supporters the jitters. Two Waltham baskets made it 27 to 17 before Arlington got going in that final session tallying 11 points while Waltham got but two to draw up to a 29 to 28 count, one point behind the leaders. A Waltham point from the foul line with a couple of minutes left to play when Waltham successfully "froze" the ball.

COACH ENOCH TAKES SEVEN TO BOWDOIN Newton Track Stars Favored To Repeat Victory

Coach Donald Enoch and seven of the Newton High track team go to Bowdoin tomorrow to compete in the annual interscholastic meet at Brunswick, Maine. Winners of the meet last year, Newton is again expected to return victorious. The boys chosen to make the trip are Co-captains Don MacKinnon and Billy Pescosolido, Fred Hall, Art Hughes, George Hutchings, Bill Woods and Joe Paglia.

With entries restricted to one competitor from each school the Newton stars will have to double up in various events in order to tally sufficient points for a victory. In previous meets this year the hurdles and 600 yard run have provided the locals with approximately 16 of their meet points with MacKinnon and Pesky in the first named event and Hall and Hughes in the middle distance run.

MacKinnon, ace hurdler, will be Newton's entrant over the high barriers, there being no low hurdle event. The Newton co-leaders will also run the 300, provided it is run in one heat. Pesky will compete in three events. He will be the local entry in the dash, high jump and broad jump and has an excellent chance of making the grade as individual high scorer of the day. Fred Hall will go to the starting line in the 600 although there is little to choose between he and Hughes. The one-competitor restriction obliges Hughes to confine his activities to the relay. Woods will run the 1000 yard event in which Hutchings has been a consistent scorer but tomorrow the latter will attempt the mile in which he has a good chance of finishing in the division of points.

The make-up of the relay team will depend largely upon the order of events and the efforts which the local youths expend in doubling up. Coach Enoch will probably race his fastest quartet, Pesky, Hughes, Hall and MacKinnon but has taken Joe Paglia along as a spare. In the event that Pesky or MacKinnon find the relay duties too arduous in addition to other events they will have competed in Paglia will get a chance to carry the baton.

The meet concludes the Newton indoor season for 1939 with the outdoor season still several weeks away.

WEST NEWTON THEATRE

"Going Places," the Warner Bros. picture which opens Sunday at the West Newton Theatre with Dick Powell and Anita Louise heading the cast, is a hilarious farce whose action is interspersed with some highly original and tuneful song numbers.

The supporting cast is largely made up of actors whose fame as funny-men has long been well established, notably Allen Jenkins, Walter Catlett, Harold Huber and Thurston Hall.

Playing slightly more sedate roles are Ronald Reagan, Minna Gombell and Larry Williams, while the musical burden is shared with Powell by those two great colored stars, Louis Armstrong, the world's premier hot trumpeter, and Maxine Sullivan—making her debut in motion pictures.

Co-featured on this program The Newton Theatre is showing Bonita Granville in "Nancy Drew, Detective."

Starting Wednesday, March 15th, will be that romantic comedy of the year "The Cowboy and the Lady" starring Gary Cooper and Merle Oberon.

Change Ordinance To Make Hermann Playground Head?

The Claims & Rules Committee of the Newton Board of Aldermen is considering a plan whereby the ordinance governing the setup of the Newton Playground Department will be changed. The present ordinance vests the executive authority of this department in five members, who are appointed by the Mayor and confirmed by the Aldermen. In January a sub-committee composed of Mrs. Teresa Marshall and Lyscom Bruce, threw a bombshell when they called attention to the fact that Mr. Hermann, who for many years has served as part-time superintendent of playgrounds, would have to retire in March as he would then reach the age limit of 70. George Kellar, another member of the commission, agreed with Bruce and Mrs. Marshall.

But strategy was resorted to. No meeting of the commission was held in January or February, and when Bruce's term expired last month, Mayor Childs did not reappoint him. Instead, he appointed Irving Paul of Newton Centre.

In the meantime plans for changing the ordinance pertaining to the organization of the Playground Department have been concocted, and now it is proposed that Mr. Hermann, as Secretary of the Playground Department, will be its executive head, and thus will not have to retire because of reaching the age of 70. The Playground Commission would merely be an advisory body.

Detective Work Causes Arrests

Inspector Hammell of the Newton police by doing some sleuthing last Monday caused the arrest and conviction of three men for breaking into a freight car at Newton Upper Falls and stealing automobile accessories valued at $80 from new automobiles which were in the car. Investigating the burglary, Hammell found in the freight car an empty can which had contained baked beans, and also part of a loaf of bread. Deducing that local men had been involved, Hammell inquired at neighboring stores and found who had bought a can of beans and bread on the day the car was broken into. From the description of the purchaser, he questioned a suspect who admitted his guilt and involved two other men. In the Newton court on Tuesday James Green of 17 Goddard st., Newton Highlands; Francis McKenna of 827 Boylston st., Newton Highlands, and John Walsh of 30 Lincoln st., Newton Highlands, all were found guilty and sentenced to serve two months in the East Cambridge jail.

Benefit Bridge For Newton Hospital Aid March 29

Miss Maida Flanders of 12 Lake ter., Newton Centre, is chairman of the benefit bridge to be held on Wednesday afternoon, March 29th, at one-thirty, by the members of the Newton Hospital Aid Association in the new Nurses' Home of the Newton Hospital. Several hundred women of the neighboring communities of Wellesley and Newton are members of the Aid since Newton Hospital serves both of these towns.

Assisting Miss Flanders in the distribution of tickets and plans for the success of the bridge are Mrs. Horace W. Cole of Newton, Mrs. Herbert G. Dunphy of Newton Highlands, Mrs. Charles B. Floyd of Auburndale, Mrs. Robert A. Hogsett of Wellesley, Mrs. Oliver A. Lohr of Waban, Mrs. Roy R. Merchant of West Newton, Mrs. Ernest P. Rallsback of Newtonville, Mrs. Charles F. Rittenhouse of Newton Centre and Mrs. Harold C. Wiswall of Wellesley.

Tickets may also be secured from Mrs. Lawrence Allen of Waban, Mrs. Marsena Butts of Newton, Mrs. Cecil Clark of Newtonville, Mrs. Ernest Cobb of Newton Upper Falls, Mrs. Edwin P. Gibbs of Newton Highlands, Mrs. M. Hemen Jr., of Newton Lower Falls, Mrs. Henry F. Keever of Auburndale and Mrs. Faulkner Kendall of Newton Centre.

Auburndale Priest Flays Communism

Last Saturday members of the Corpus Christi parish at Auburndale received at their homes a letter signed by Rev. John B. Condon, pastor of the church, and Rev. Ralph J. Clark, his curate. The distribution of the letter was obviously caused by the recent appearance at the Newton Forum of Earl Browder, a leader of the Communist party in this country. The letter read as follows:

"Corpus Christi Rectory
"45 Ash Street, Auburndale.
"Dear Parishioner:

"To counteract any adverse influence from the recent activity of a prominent Communist in Newton and to show how clearly Communism is opposed to our Catholic faith and American institutions, we are sending to each home in the parish copies of pamphlets, 'Communism Answers Questions of a Communist,' by Mr. Fulton Sheen, and 'The Hand of Pilate,' by Rev. Edward Lodge Curran.

"This project has been made financially possible by a friend of the Corpus Christi Parish. The pamphlets are given to you gratis with the sincere hope that you will give yourself the benefit of reading these brief yet thorough exposures of Communist hypocrisy.

"As you will notice they are written by two learned and respected leaders of Catholic thought and action in the United States."

Dedicate Nurses Home Saturday

The New Home for Nurses at the Newton Hospital is now completed and furnished and will be formally opened on Saturday, March 11th. Dedication exercises will be held in the living room of the new home at which it will be opened for inspection.

The building was made possible by the generosity of the citizens of Wellesley and Newton and all donors have been invited to inspect the home on Saturday from 3:30 to 6 and on Sunday, March 12, from 2 until 6.

Choir Directors Honor C. N. Sladen

Charles N. Sladen of Lowell ave., Newtonville, was made the first honorary member of the New England Choir Directors Guild on Tuesday night. He was the guest of honor at a meeting in Copley Square Hotel, Boston. A number of wood carvings and pen sketches made by Mr. Sladen was on exhibition. Mr. Sladen, who is 80 years old, became director of Grace Episcopal Church choir at Newton 52 years ago, and still holds that position.

Testimonial To Patrolman Hannon

Patrolman George Hannon, who was retired from the Newton police force on March 1 after 33 years service, was rendered a testimonial at the Nonantum A. A. clubhouse on Tuesday night. About 200 were present and the guest of honor was presented a purse of $100 by Sergeant Leehan, who praised Hannon as "a square shooter." Joseph Champagne was toastmaster and the speakers included Mayor Childs, Samuel Fried, James P. Gallagher and Samuel Pried. A vaudeville entertainment was provided.

Fined For Driving After Drinking

In the Newton court last Friday Henry Lallemand of 39 Rustic st., Nonantum was fined $35 by Judge Mayberry for driving a car while under the influence of liquor. Lallemand was arrested by Patrolman Whelan and McEnaney after his car had hit a car driven by Stephen Siroco of East Boston.

George Robertson of 62 Pond st., Newton was arraigned in the Newton court last Thursday on charges of drunkenness and driving while under the influence of liquor. His case was continued until March 16. He was arrested the preceding afternoon by Serg. Leehan and Patrolmen Loughlin and Jenkins after his car had collided on Watertown st. with a car driven by Bernard Wilensky of Brighton. Robertson claimed he was stunned at the time of the collision by a ladder which was in his car hitting him. Robertson was fined $35 in court yesterday by Judge Mayberry on the charge of drunken driving. The drunkenness complaint was filed.

"Mississippi Bubble" Great Scheme
The "Mississippi bubble" was a vast speculative scheme, projected by John Law, a Scottish financier, who fled London after conviction of murder following the death of an opponent in a duel. Under the patronage of the duke of Orleans, regent of France, he put into operation a plan whereby he promised to liquidate the national debt and increase the importance of France in colonial America. The project was launched with the establishment of a bank in 1716. The success of this encouraged him to found the Louisiana company, or Mississippi company, as it commonly was called. He became controller of French colonial trade. Given the right of farming the revenues, the company took over the state debt and public confidence became so great that wild speculation followed. Shares rose to 20 times their value. Inevitably the enterprise failed and thousands in France were impoverished. Law fled from France in 1720 and finally died in poverty in Venice.

Girl Scouts

At the meeting of Troop 20, Newton Girl Scouts, held at the Y. M. C. A., Feb. 28th, an Investiture Ceremony in charge of Virginia Crissey, Shirley Shields, Dorothy Altieri and Jean Barker was given for Barbara Shields and Mary O'Brien. Also badges were awarded to girls completing work in the following fields: Hostess badges to Shirley Shields, Nancy Gower and Carolyn Handley; Horsewoman badges to Shirley Shields and Barbara McAdams; Swimmers badge to Carolyn Handley, and Readers badge to Gorgian Curtin. The remainder of the meeting was in charge of Miss Tobin of Cabot School who worked with the girls on the Star badge.

The Girl Scout Leaders' meeting will be held at 7:45 p. m., March 15, at the home of Mrs. Shields Warren, 301 Otis st., West Newton. West Newton leaders will be hostesses with a program of games appropriate for Girl Scouts, and how to teach them.

Mrs. Frank Sadler of Newton Centre is the new president of the Brownie Leaders' Association, succeeding Mrs. William McAdams of Newton.

Mrs. W. I. Bowditch, who has resigned as Village Chairman of West Newton Girl Scouts, will be succeeded by Mrs. Robert H. Loomis. Mrs. Loomis will be assisted by Mrs. Stanton L. Burgess.

In the interest of enlisting new leaders and other workers for the Girl Scouts, the Newton Council is sending speakers during spring months to a number of clubs throughout the villages. At the Newtonville Women's Club, Friday, March 10, Mrs. Herbert C. Hardy spoke for a few minutes about the need for Ship, Troop and Brownie Pack leaders. On Monday, March 13, Mrs. Edward V. Hickey is presiding at the Mothers' Council in West Newton in the absence of Mrs. George H. Fernald, Jr., and as she is also a member of the Newton Local Council of Girl Scouts, she will speak briefly in their behalf.

Watch for the date of Girl Scout Day in Newton Highlands.

On St. Patrick's night, March 17th, the Junior Class of the Sacred Heart High School will present the ever popular comedy of youth "Peg o' My Heart" in the Newton Centre Woman's Club at 8:15.

The leading role of Peg will be played by Mary A. O'Neill, and the hero, Jerry, will be portrayed by Joseph J. Churchville. Other members of the cast are Carol A. Boylan, Joan L. Keating, Alice M. O'Donnell, Francis D. Condon, Robert M. Spellman, Herbert J. Lewis and James E. Hennrikus. Additional features of the evening will be toe and tap dances by Lucille M. Burke and songs by Jane C. O'Neill. Other members of the Junior Class taking part in the production are: William Galvin, John De Bourke, Paul Butler, Joseph Mueller, Charles Coffey, Thomas Burke, Francis McKenna, Henry Bettencourt, Nathalie Crowley, Jane O'Neill, Virginia Vachon, Helen Dunne, Lucille Burke, Jean Cameron, Katherine Sweeney, Catherine Alberti, Marie Koen, Grace Coffey, Frances Bouzan, Catherine Rooney, Mary Uniacke, and Ethel Conrad.

These pupils are among those who also performed the Holy Father, Pope Pius XII, when in 1936, as the guest of their pastor, Bishop Francis J. Spellman, he was tendered a program by the pupils of the Sacred Heart School.

West Newton Thief Goes To Prison

Oliver Emery, 27, of Glen st., Somerville, formerly of West Newton, was sentenced by Judge Donahue in the Superior Court on Tuesday to serve 3 to 4 years in State Prison for committing a burglary at the home of Roswell Dougherty, 39 Forham rd., West Newton. For a burglary at Belmont, Emery received a similar sentence, to be served concurrently. Charges of stealing articles from automobiles parked at West Newton were placed on file. Emery's nephew, John Waters, 18, of Carberry st., Medford, charged with participating in the burglaries, received a suspended sentence of 2 1/2 years.

Raymond-Whitcomb Norway-Europe Cruise Includes Several New Ports

According to a recent announcement from Raymond-Whitcomb, their 1939 Norway-Europe Cruise on the French Line's popular liner "Paris" will sail from New York on June 24 and will follow a route which promises to be even more interesting than that of other years. It will begin with a call at Madeira, and, after visits to Lisbon in Portugal and Brest in Brittany will go to two new ports—Plymouth, which brings historic Devon and pleasant Cornwall into the field of this cruise, and Cherbourg whence there will be a short trip overland to famous Mont St. Michel and quaint St. Malo.

After the cruise will go to places in Ireland, Wales, Scotland and Scandinavia that have been favorites with those who have taken the three similar Raymond-Whitcomb cruises on the "Paris." The Irish and Welsh portions will begin with a stop at Glenarriff on lovely Bantry Bay and will include Cobh, Holyhead in northern Wales and Dun Laoghaire, the deep sea port for Dublin, capital of Eire, the former Irish Free State. In Scotland there will be stops at Greenock at the mouth of the River Clyde, within easy distance of both Glasgow and Edinburgh, and at Oban, the seaside resort of the Scottish Highlands.

Interesting and picturesque as these places are, the true climax of this cruise for most passengers is the Scandinavian countries which come, fittingly, towards the end. After more than a day at Copenhagen, the pleasant Danish capital, the "Paris" will go to Nynashamn, a port for Stockholm, Visby, the ancient walled city on the island of Gotland, Oslo, spacious capital of Norway, and the old city of Bergen. Then, as a grand finale, there will be nearly two days of cruising through the spectacular Norwegian fjords, with calls at the tiny, sod-roofed hamlets of Merok and Oie. Between Bergen and Merok, the "Paris" will sail some sixty miles up the great Nord Fjord, where mighty mountains and glaciers combine to make an Alpine-like setting, and will thread her way through the Stor and Slynge fjords, the Suneis fjord, noted for its waterfalls, and the serene and lake-like Geiranger fjord. The next day she will retrace her course through the Geiranger, Suneis, Slynge and Stor fjords to the Jorund fjord, which many Norwegians consider the most beautiful of all, and will sail through that and the Norang fjord to Oie.

On July 26, the "Paris" will arrive at Southampton and Havre. Passengers who wish to return to New York immediately can transfer to the "Normandie" at Southampton, and arrive in New York on July 31, only thirty-eight days after their departure.

Samuel Cunard, Founder of Famous Steamship Co. Opened Nassau Travel

"With the establishment of a regular weekly year around service between Nassau in the Bahamas and New York City by the Cunard White Star Line, the fact is brought to mind that it was Samuel Cunard, founder of the Cunard Line, who opened up the beautiful port of Nassau to the people of the United States," says Miss Mary Moseley, M.B.E., historian of the Bahamas.

The liner Lancastria, which has been the Cunard White Star's crack cruise ship sailing from England to ports in the Mediterranean and the islands in the eastern Atlantic ocean during the past three years, will be brought over to take up the new schedule beginning May 6th, from New York. She will remain in this service, sailing every Saturday from New York and every Tuesday from Nassau, until December, when the service will be taken over for the winter season by another vessel of the Cunard White Star fleet.

This winter and spring the Britannic and Georgic will also maintain regular sailings between New York and Nassau from January through to April, assuring a weekly service to the Bahamas port from New York practically without interruption during the entire year of 1939.

Cunard Opened the Port in 1857

As early as 1851 Great Britain offered a subsidy of $5,000 per annum to the steamship line that would add Nassau to its regular ports of call. This sum failed to attract any line, but in 1857 when the subsidy was raised to $15,000 a year the first contract was entered into between the British government and Samuel Cunard, who, in addition to his comparatively new trans-Atlantic line between New York, Boston and ports in Great Britain, had for many years owned a line plying between Halifax and Bermuda. He accepted the subsidy, which covered a term of five years, totalling $75,000. Up to the coming of Samuel Cunard's steamers, the Bahamas had practically no connection with the outside world.

The colony remained dormant for many years, enjoying its first period of prosperity after the beginning of the American Civil War, when Nassau became one of the chief bases of supplies for the Confederate blockade runners. During the period of the war upward of 400 vessels made successful trips between the Southern States and Nassau. The profits accruing from these voyages were enormous, Nassau quickly grew into a rich and beautiful city. At the close of the war there was the customary slump.

During the administration of Sir Ambrose Shea, toward the close of the 19th century, the sisal hemp industry was established reviving the prosperity of the island of New Providence, and other islands in the Bahama group. The sponge fisheries were also given a great impetus.

For the past thirty or more years, Nassau has steadily grown in popularity as a pleasure resort. H. M. Flagler was one of its foremost promoters. He bought and improved one of its largest hotels.

Sunshine and Flowers

The tourist's chief impressions of sunshine, Nassau will be pink walls overhanging with bougainvillea and vividly-colored creepers; gardens of bright shrubs and flowers; the ever-blooming hibiscus; the roses that cluster around the verandahs of the colonial houses; the blues and greens of the harbor and sea; the blue of the sky and the invigorating freshness of the air.

All in all, it is a place of exquisite beauty in which to dream and rest—an ocean paradise within the reach of those who can afford $55 for a deep sea voyage on a trans-Atlantic liner to a thoroughly foreign country and change of climate.

Many travelers have called Nassau the most beautiful spot in the world.

Motion Picture Conference

The Motion Picture division of the State Federation will hold a Conference at the Y. W. C. A., 140 Clarendon st., Boston, on Wednesday, March 15, opening promptly at 10:30 a. m. Mrs. Elliott B. Williams, chairman, announces the following speakers and topics for the program:

Screening of "Marjuna," disclosing the story of its rapid distribution in the form of cigarettes among the young people. The purpose of this showing is to inform clubwomen to the point of action against this disastrous traffic in Massachusetts.
"Our Movie-Made Children," a talk by Mrs. Robert Bushnell, president of the Boston Research Council.
"Experiences of a Moving Picture Film Exchange Operator," by Mr. Frank J. Howard, who entered the film industry in the pre-nickelodeon era of 1892.

An address by Colonel Harry A. Cole, National president of the Allied Theatre Owners Association.
"Through the Back Door of the Circus," illustrated by a motion picture in color, by Mr. George Brinton Beal, member of the faculty of Emerson College, an editor, critic, and author, whose experiences date back to the days of Kalem, Biograph, and such organizations.

It will be apparent from the above plans that there will be a variety in this program, and informative history of the development of the moving picture industry. There is a Registration fee of 25 cents.

Noted Musicians And Singers for Music Festival

A Festival of Music, sponsored by the Music division of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs, will be given on Thursday, March 23, at the Copley-Plaza Hotel, Boston, beginning at 10 o'clock.

The program will be a delightful one for all music lovers, and the public will be glad to know that Mrs. J. Arthur Snyder, chairman of the Music division, announces that non-clubwomen are invited to attend.

Artists who will be presented are Martha Atwood, formerly with the Metropolitan Opera Company, and now director of the Cape Cod Institute of Music; and Richard Hale, Bartitone, known in Boston as the narrator of "Peter and the Wolf," played by the Boston Symphony Orchestra, and who recently appeared in concert with Kirsten Flagstad in New York.

There will be selections also by Norma Olson, Violoncellist, accompanied by Edith Staines; the Lamson

Open Meeting on Good Citizenship

"I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people, whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign States; a perfect union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice, and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes."

"I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its FLAG; and to defend it against all enemies."

This is America's Creed, written by William Tyler Page, which will be pledged by the clubwomen of Massachusetts who attend the Conference of the State Federation Department of American Citizenship, Mrs. George W. Morris, chairman, at the Hotel Touraine, Boston, on Wednesday, March 22. It will follow the singing of "America" and the SALUTE TO THE FLAG, which will open the Luncheon-Conference at 12:30 o'clock.

There will be greetings from several State officers, and music by student artists of the New England Conservatory of Music.

Good Citizenship is the theme of the Conference. The addresses scheduled include:

1 p. m.—Lt. Governor Horace T. Cahill, "Good Citizenship as the Standard of the State."

1:30—Hon. Maurice J. Tobin, mayor of Boston, "What Boston Is Doing to Further Good Citizenship."

2:25—Lieut. William J. Carey, Boston Police department, "Boston Junior Police Corps."

2:50—Miss Mary Ward, commissioner of Immigration, Port of Boston, "Responsibilities of a Commissioner of Immigration."

3:20—Raymond Gowing, mayor of Westfield, "Essentials of Good Citizenship."

There will be musical interludes, including a baritone solo by Mr. Summer Weeks.

The audience is not limited to clubwomen only. The department will be glad to have husbands and friends attend. There is no Registration fee. Luncheon tickets, at $1.25, may be obtained from department members, or by sending check in self-addressed, stamped envelope to Mrs. Raymond Wheeler, 105 Summer st., Malden.

Many Attractive Programs and Events

Travel Talk and Bridge

The Ways and Means committee of the Newton Centre Woman's Club will present on Wednesday, March 22, at 1:15 p. m., Mrs. Raymond A. Green in a travel talk "Scandinavian Blondes in Native Spring Styles." Six adult members of the Club and four children of Club members will model the colorful Scandinavian costumes. Folk songs of the countries will be sung. Following the program, bridge will be played. Members of the Ways and Means committee are Mrs. David E. Goldich, chairman; and Mrs. Madeline MacPherson. Mrs. Howard O. Winslow, Mrs. John W. Duthie, and Mrs. Mark A. Dawson. Mrs. Howard O. Winslow and Mrs. David C. Dittmore are co-chairmen of the Ticket committee. Mrs. Victor H. Vaughan is in charge of the Food Table, where home-cooked food will be on sale from 12:45 p. m. Mrs. Everett C. Winslow is arranging the Kaffee and Smoraskard, from which refreshments will be served from 4 to 5 o'clock. Mrs. Alden H. Speare, Mrs. Walter T. Bryant, Mrs. George E. Squier, and Miss Elizabeth Bartlett will serve at the door. Tickets for the program only, are 40 cents; bridge and kaffee only, 50 cents; combination ticket for the afternoon is 75 cents.

Collection of Gems and Flower Show

The Antiques committee and the Conservation and Garden committee of the Newton Centre Woman's Club will combine for the program Friday afternoon, March 17, when the Conservation and Garden committees will have a small Flower Show, including house plants, unusual ivies, and forced sprays; and the Antiques committee is presenting Ethel Doane at 2:30 o'clock in "An Intimate Talk on Gem Stones." Mrs. Doane will have on display a collection of gem stones, including cameos, intaglios, garnets, amethysts, jade, tourmalines, opals, and amber.

Any Club member is invited to enter plants in the Flower Show. Following the program, tea will be served. Mrs. Otis E. Stephenson and Mrs. Laurence Lewis will pour. Tickets may be bought at the door, for Club members, 35 cents, and for guests or non-members, 50 cents.

Exhibit of Peasant Embroideries

The Art committee of the Newton Centre Woman's Club is offering to all patrons of art on Thursday, March 16, from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., a colorful exhibit and sale of Peasant Embroideries, made by Refugee Women at the Near East Industries, Athens, Greece. Mr. Nachon H. Keljik will show at 3 p. m. pictures of the Near East, ancient seat of unrest, and the work being done to develop these countries educationally and artistically. Mrs. W. Cornell Appleton has charge of the unusual Oriental style refreshments to be served. Admission is 10 cents. The sale and exhibit will be held in the Reception Room of the Newton Centre Woman's Club House.

Stained Glass Windows

"Creating a Stained Glass Window," an illustrated lecture with color motion pictures, by Joseph G. Reynolds, Jr., will be the distinctive program for Art Day, Tuesday, March 14, at 2:30 p. m., at the Newtonville Woman's Club House. Mr. Reynolds, a recognized authority on the subject of stained glass, is known internationally for his work, examples of which may be found in such well-known churches and cathedrals as Riverside Church, and the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in New York City; Wellesley College Chapel, and the Washington National Cathedral. Mr. Reynolds also has made an extensive study of French Cathedrals over a period of years, and he owns many slides showing the richness and beauty of their windows. Mr. Reynolds will describe and picture in detail the designing, drawing, and technique of window-making.

After the lecture Club members and guests, who are cordially invited, will be served tea by the Art committee, with Mrs. John R. Tolman, chairman, in charge.

Sea Shells, Mosses and Other Sea Life

Miss Edith Scammon, so much enjoyed last year by Newtonville Woman's Club members for her talk on "Alaska," or "Uncle Sam's Attic," as she described it, again will speak at the next meeting of the American Home committee on Wednesday, March

An Invitation to see for yourself

You are invited to inspect this clean, modern laundry. Watch our operators do your work. You will see instantly that they are experienced and know their job. Notice the methods we use. See our modern equipment, that saves your clothes, yet cleans them spotlessly and finishes them faultlessly.

No matter where you send your laundry, inspect the plant that does it, and make sure it is as clean and efficient as you picture it to be.

WE HAVE BEEN PLEASING PARTICULAR PEOPLE FOR OVER 25 YEARS

15 at 2:30 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Clyde J. Allen, 25 Fairfield st. Her subject, "Sea Beach at Ebb Tide," will display a fascinating knowledge of sea-life, including sea shells, mosses, and sea weed. Miss Scammon, who as a scientist, is a traveler and writer, has made a trip the past year to Iceland to discover new plants, and she has been working on their classification at Harvard University. Mrs. Harold L. Stillman, chairman, is in charge of this program, and tea will be served.

Travel Class

Mrs. Arthur M. Teulon, 9 Elmwood pk., Newtonville, will be hostess to the Travel Class of the West Newton Women's Educational Club on Monday, March 13, at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Alvah H. Jordan will assist. Mrs. G. Howard Frost will read a paper on "Siam—The Land of the Free!" and Mrs. Raymond O. Littlefield one on "Federated Malay States and Dutch East Indies."

Auburndale Garden Club

"The Barn" on the estate of the Charles Grovers, 38 Vista ave., will be open for the next meeting of the Auburndale Garden Club at 2:30 p. m., on Monday afternoon, March 13.

This will be an informal afternoon, with no speaker, and an opportunity will be given for the members to discuss future plans for "Their Own Gardens" and "The June Show."

Club members are asked to note the change in place for this meeting from that listed in their Year Books.

Newton Highlands C. L. S. C.

The next meeting of the Newton Highlands C. L. S. C. will be held at the home of Miss Marian White, Beverly rd., on Monday, March 13. The program will be in charge of Mrs. Helen Ward.

Men's Night at the Newton Centre Neighborhood Club

Mrs. Edward Stimpson, one of the new current event speakers, will speak on "Making the Headlines Talk" at the next meeting of the Newton Centre Neighborhood Club. The meeting, which will be Men's Night, will be held at the home of Miss Editha Ewing, 955 Beacon st., on Monday, the 13th of March, at 7:45. Miss Ewing will be assisted by Miss Elizabeth Paul, Miss Elizabeth Thompson, and Miss Elizabeth Walworth.

Auburndale Woman's Club

Mr. Hoyland Bettinger will be the speaker at the meeting of the Auburndale Woman's Club on Tuesday afternoon, March 14.

There will be the usual business meeting at 2:30 o'clock. The program will be at 3 o'clock. Mr. Bettinger, who will be introduced by the Art chairman, Mrs. William M. Flye, will take for his topic "An Artist Goes to Gaspé." Having spent the last three summers painting at that popular resort, he has been able to assemble a collection of colorful cinema and lantern slides with which to illustrate his lecture.

In the Club Lounge will be found some of Mr. Bettinger's paintings on exhibition. Teachers from the Auburndale schools have been invited to be guests at this program.

Newton Hospital Aid Association

Mrs. Edwin H. Rogers of 79 Hillside ave., West Newton, is opening her home on Tuesday morning, March 14, at 10:30 o'clock, for the monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Newton Hospital Aid Association. The final plans for the coming bridge to be held at the new Nurses' Home, will be announced at this time.

At the close of the business, morning coffee will be served by the hostess, Mrs. Rogers.

Social Science Club

The Social Science Club will meet on Wednesday, March 15, at Channing Church, at 10 a. m. Dr. Jose Padin, former Commissioner of Education and chancellor of the University of Porto Rico, will speak on "The Spanish Situation." Miss Fanny M. Adams and Mrs. Charles H. Kimball will be the hostesses.

Music Day

Music Day at the Community Service Club of West Newton will come on Wednesday afternoon, March 15, at 2 o'clock, and will be held in the usual meeting place at the Unitarian Church.

The Boston Singers who were scheduled to appear on the program are unable to fill their engagement due to the renewal of a radio contract which will keep them in New York City for the next thirteen weeks. However, a real musical treat is promised for this meeting.

Mrs. William F. Leach of Needham, director of the Twelfth District of the State Federation, is expected to be present and to bring a message to the Club from her department.

Music Day is always a festive occasion, and members are reminded that it offers an opportunity to take advantage of the guest privilege, a pleasant way of paying social debts and at the same time adding to the fund for the many worthy philanthropies to which the Club is dedicated.

Mrs. Leslie P. Phinney will preside at the business meeting preceding the program which will be under the direction of Mrs. Hortense Creeds Ralshack. Tea will be served at a social hour following the music by Mrs. Anthony Jauregui and her committee.

Mrs. Osborne E. Brown, of Chestnut st., Waban, entertained the Glee Club of the West Newton Community Service Club at a "Morning Coffee" after the regular rehearsal, Thursday, March 9. During the morning, Cynthia, the young and talented daughter of the hostess, played Grieg's "Butterfly" and Chopin's "Waltz in A-Major."

The Glee Club, sometimes known as "The Squash End Singing Society," will hold its Annual Spring Concert on Tuesday evening, May 9, in the Warren Junior High School. Members are enthusiastic over the musical numbers and the many unusual features that will make up the program. This will be the seventh annual concert of the Glee Club and again will be the means of adding substantially to the Scholarship Fund of the Community Service Club which aids each year worthy students of Newton toward higher education.

Junior Competing in Drama Contest

A one-act comedy will be presented by members of the Newtonville Junior Woman's Club on Wednesday evening, March 15, at 8 o'clock, in the Auditorium of the Newtonville Woman's Club House. There will be dancing also during the evening.

The cast of the play includes Miss Phyllis Stafford, Miss Dorothy Burns, Miss Fredede Littlefield, Miss Louise Balch, Miss Barbara Tolman, Miss Marjorie Gilbert, and Miss Louise Tardive. The play is directed by Mrs. Edwin P. McGill, who is coaching the production.

It will be given in competition with other Junior Clubs in the State for a cup which is awarded annually to the club winning the State Drama Contest.

Other clubs competing this same evening are the Waltham Junior Woman's Club, the West Medford Junior Woman's Club, and the Roslindale Junior Woman's Club, all of whom will present their selections in the Auditorium in conjunction with the Newtonville Juniors.

Among those working for the success of the production are Miss Janet Elliott, chairman of the Stage committee, assisted by Miss Janet Gwilt, Virginia Pierce, Thelma Robbins, Sigrid Moller, Eleanor Hanlon, Lucy Brockman, Margaret Edwards, and Miss Marjorie MacMillan.

The Make-Up committee consists of Miss Bettie Stockwell, chairman; Miss Ruthie McKusick, and Miss Madeline Vitelli.

Boston City Federation

The general topic for the March 17th meeting of the Boston City Federation will be the Traffic Problems. Speakers will be Hon. Maurice J. Tobin, mayor of Boston, on the subject of "Present Problems Confronting the Mayor," William Stanley Parker, chairman of Boston City Planning Board, on "Traffic Problems of the City of Boston," James D. Henderson, chairman of the Division of Metropolitan Planning, on "Traffic Problems in the Metropolitan District," and Miss Mary Driscoll, on "Better Homes."

The Federation will meet in the Y. W. C. A. Auditorium, 140 Clarendon st., Boston, at 10:30 a. m.

Annual Mother and Son Supper
The Annual Mother and Son Supper of the Boys' Division will be held on Friday evening, March 10th, under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary of the Newton Y. M. C. A. Mrs. Arnold C. Barker, President, will have direct charge, with Mrs. A. Norman Needy in charge of the Dining Room, assisted by members of the auxiliary and of the Newton Tri-Hi Club. Mr. H. W. Gibson, former State Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of Massachusetts and Rhode Island, and Director of the Chimney Corners Camps, will be the guest speaker.

Educational Trip

As a part of the educational program conducted by the Boys' Division, members of the Junior Class have been invited to visit the plant of Thomas Dalby, Inc., manufacturers of knit goods, in Watertown.

Basketball

The Men's Massachusetts and Rhode Island Basketball Championships Sectionals are being held at the local Y. M. C. A. The teams entered from Eastern Massachusetts are Gloucester, Newton, Lynn, and Quincy. Gloucester withdrew and Lynn defeated Quincy last Saturday. Newton and Lynn will play quarter-final games at Newton on Saturday evening.

There are four sectional play-offs—the Eastern section at Newton, the Merrimack section at Lowell, the Narragansett section at Newport, and the Western section at West Springfield. The winners of each section come together in the semi-finals at Lynn. The winner of the Newton-Lynn game will play the winner of the Merrimack section at Lynn on Saturday, March 18th.

Newton has played Lynn twice this season, being defeated in both contests, 54-28, and 51-48.

The local team, co-leaders in the Newton Playground Department Basketball League, has shown steady improvement throughout the season and are confident they will earn the right to represent this section in the semi-finals.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

By virtue and in execution of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Carl D. Hall and registered in the County of Middlesex, South District, Middlesex County, Massachusetts, to the Cape Ann Savings Bank of Gloucester, Massachusetts, dated May 14, 1929, and recorded in said County, South District, Middlesex County, as Document No. 28810 in Registration Book 192, Page 541.

The said mortgage deed is hereby foreclosed and the premises described therein are being sold at Public Auction on the premises hereinafter described on Monday the twentieth day of March, 1939, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of satisfying the debt secured by said mortgage and for the purpose of discharging the same.

The premises are situated in the County of Middlesex, South District, Middlesex County, and are described as follows: Situated on the corner of Chestnut Street and the junction of said Chestnut Street with the way known as Waban in said Middlesex County, and shown as Lot 12 on plan No. 12, filed in the South District, Middlesex County with the Certificate of Title No. 21993, and bounded and described as follows:

Easterly by said Chestnut Street, eighty-three and ninety-two hundredths feet, as shown on said plan; northerly by the curve forming the junction of said Chestnut Street with the way known as Waban in said Middlesex County, twenty-five and six hundredths (25.06) feet; northerly by said Caroline Park shown on said plan, twenty-five and six hundredths (25.06) feet; northerly by said Joseph H. Burke, et al., one hundred and forty-four hundredths (144.4) feet, as shown on said plan. Containing about 12000 square feet, and being the premises No. 40 of Chestnut Street.

Said premises are hereby conveyed subject to the restrictions and covenants set forth in a deed from Harvey W. Cook, et al., dated June 14, 1926, and registered in said Registry as Document No. 68859.

The terms of the premises described in Certificate of Title No. 28810, issued May 7, 1929 to said Carl D. Hall, and registered in the County of Middlesex, South District, Middlesex County, as Document No. 28810, are as follows: "Together with all fixtures, heaters, ranges, mantels, gas and electric fixtures, and other improvements, and all other fixtures of whatsoever kind and nature which shall, prior to the last payment of the principal of said mortgage, be placed in the aforesaid buildings."

Said premises will be sold subject to any and all unpaid taxes, tax titles, assessments and other municipal liens. Terms $1000 in cash or by certified check at time and place of sale; balance of purchase price to be tendered in full at the time and place of sale.

No. 109 Main Street in Gloucester, Massachusetts, within twelve (12) days thereafter, unless other terms agreed upon at sale.

Newton H. S.

Again this year Newton High School teachers are taking active roles in the forty-eighth annual meeting of the Harvard Teachers' Association, held in Cambridge and Boston, March 16-18. All meetings are open to the public. Miss Caroline Doonan is a discussion leader in this Saturday morning's meeting at Hotel Statler, when the subject will be "Utilizing the Resources of the Community." Tuesday evening in Laurence Hall Mr. Charles H. Merendahl is one of the speakers on the topic, "Mathematics for the Twelfth Grade." The same evening in Hunt Hall, a symposium on ways and means of handling typical cases of guidance will be carried out by Miss Cora E. Riley, Miss Annie M. Sturges, Mr. Raymond W. Blaisdell, and Mr. G. Winthrop Brainerd, all of the Newton public schools.

Principal Paul E. Ellicker will lead the discussion at the morning session of the Harvard Teachers' Association in Agassiz Auditorium on Saturday, March 18. The general subject is "Recent Educational Surveys" and the speakers include Dr. Ben D. Wood, Dr. Homer P. Rainey and Dr. Alonzo G. Grace.

Charles Merendahl, Jr., former Newton High School graduate, and now a member of the sophomore class at Bowdoin, was awarded the prize for the annual one-act play competition. He was awarded twenty-five dollars and a statuette for his play, "Standing Room Only."

John Fairfield and Philip Scanlon, both juniors at Newton High School, received first prize of $100 and second prize of $60 respectively in the 1939 Shopping News Junior Scholarship contest. In addition, a biography of each appeared on the front page of the January 28th issue of the Junior Shopping News. John has been an honor student at school, a member of several clubs and a member of the school legislature. The Shopping News article stated that, "very active in church organizations, he is a real 100 per cent American boy. He hopes to attend Oberlin College in Ohio after graduation next year. Philip, another outstanding member of the class, has been on the Honor Roll all through high school and President of his class every year until last year when he was elected President of the class. He aims to be a Dartmouth graduate."

Weeks Jr. High

Mr. Dwight Hammers of Newton Centre spoke to the ninth graders on Tuesday morning. Mr. Hammers spoke on his travels to Central and South America.

This Friday from 8:30 to 8:45 Station WAAB will present John W. Weeks students in a radio sketch as one of the series of Newton School Days. Those participating are: John Elwyn, George Weir, Helen Hardy, Daniel Spero, Phyllis Generalio, Jordan Miller, and Manning Miller.

Under the supervision of Miss Margaret Jonah the Chemistry Club has held their elections. John Frost is president; George Martin, vice-president; John Heath, secretary; Fred Fowler, treasurer.

The winners of the ninth grade "Professor Quiz" contests have been announced by Miss Dorothy Foster, faculty sponsor. The winners are: Louis Weinman, August Klein, William McGrath, Russell Stanger, Rodney Park, Thomas Lacy, Mary Jane Solleck, Kenneth Campbell, Paul Estavero, John Frost, Barbara Washburn, Morton Wood, Charles Dasey, Norma Graf, Suzanne Staub, John Heath, John Drew, Duncan Fitchet, Robert Warshaw, David Miller, Chandler Davis and David Houghley.

Under direction of Mrs. Ernestine Dinsmore and Miss Patricia Smith a student talent assembly will be presented this Friday morning. Ballet Dances—Naomi Lederman, Vocal Solo—Janeth Beyer, Tumbling Demonstration—Betsy Mitchell, Piano Solo—"Impromptu," Reinhold, Tap Dance on Roller Skates—Florence Brown, Reading Ensemble—"Wienied," Jean Moore.

Solo with Ukulele—"Home on the Range"—Robert Van Gorder, Tap Dance—Miriam Duffy.

The March Parents' Day will be held from 2:30 to 3:30 this coming Monday afternoon.

Warren Jr. High

The Warren Broadcasters presented a radio broadcast entitled "The Parent Educates the School" over Station WAAB on Friday morning, March 3. The program was one of the series known as the Newton School Days. The following students participated in the broadcast: Barbara Donnell, Sallie Searle, Phyllis Carter, Shirley MacGregor, Robert Le Vert, Victor Belotti and Barbara Hirst. The faculty advisers for these radio programs consists of Mr. Carl Penny, Miss Esther Pepin and Mr. Charles Regan.

Intra-mural basketball games are arousing much enthusiasm among the various home rooms at Warren. In girls' sports the color teams are in the midst of a tournament. On Wednesday, March 1, the Blue first team defeated the Greens by a score of 16 to 12. However, the Green second team won their match easily scoring 37 points against 8.

TV scores for boys' basketball games for March 1, were: 113 and 114 won both games against 203, 206.

and 208 by a score of 15 to 8 for the majors and 7 to 4 for the minors. The assembly on Friday, March 3, was a marionette show entitled Hansel and Gretel. This show was presented to Warren students by the Massachusetts Society of Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Richard Low of home room 11 introduced Miss Phillips of the Society who talked to her audience briefly on some of the proposed plans of the M. S. P. C. A. Among the new members of the Warren School Community are: Donald Silcox from Washington, D. C., Marilyn Diniger from far away Egypt, Beverly Hayes, from Atlanta, Georgia, and Theodore Robblee, a transfer from the Day Junior High School.

Bigelow Junior H. S.

The Newton WPA Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Paul Kelley, gave a concert at the assembly, Friday, March 3rd.

On Monday, February 27th, the Warren Varsity and Junior Varsity teams played the Bigelow teams. The Bigelow Varsity lost to the Warren Varsity, but the Junior Varsity defeated the Warren Junior Varsity. Julius Kennedy and Francis Donalds were high scorers for Bigelow.

The following officers were elected for March:

The March Parents' Day will be held from 2:30 to 3:30 this coming Monday afternoon.

In another varsity clash in the school gymnasium Day won over Bigelow 34-23. The Junior Varsity also came through 21-12. Ninth Grade Home Room results: 10, 17; Room 21, 16; Room 20, 15; Room 26, 14. In the Seventh Grade Tournament Room 2 beat Room 20 12-6, and thereby won the shield for the year.

Two of the top films of all-time are being brought back to the Coolidge Corner Theatre, Brookline, by popular demand for a 5-day run, commencing Friday, March 10th. They are Lloyd C. Douglas' "Magnificent Obsession," starring Irene Dunne and Robert Taylor and Fannie Hurst's "Imitation of Life," starring Claudette Colbert and Warren William. The response for the return of these two films has been so great during the past year that the management of the theatre has agreed to bring them back for a 5-day run only. Others in the cast of "Magnificent Obsession" in addition to Irene Dunne and Robert Taylor are Charles Butterworth, Betty Furness, Ralph Morgan, Henry Armetta and Sara Haden.

In the demand co-feature, "Imitation of Life," is Claudette Colbert in her greatest role of all time, as Bea Pullman and Warren William as Stephen Archer. "Imitation of Life" is adapted to the screen from Fannie Hurst's best selling novel.

In addition to these two great demand pictures, there will be the latest issue of the Coolidge Corner Theatre Newsreel, presenting world events.

During the engagement of these pictures, the first show will go on at 1:40 p. m., the last complete show will be at 7:30 p. m., and there will be screenings of "Magnificent Obsession" at 1:40, 5:35, and 9:35 p. m., and screenings of "Imitation of Life" at 3:30 and 7:30 p. m., daily.

Announced for showing for 9 days beginning Wednesday, March 15th, is the epic story of a lawless era, "Jesse James," in glorious technicolor, with Tyrone Power, Henry Fonda, Nancy Kelly and Randolph Scott in the starring roles.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

By virtue and in execution of the Power of Sale contained in a certain mortgage given by Walter C. Crane and Victoria S. Crane, his wife in her right, both of Newton, in the County of Middlesex, in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, to the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, dated January 25, 1934, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 5785, Page 518, of which mortgage the undersigned is the duly appointed agent for the purpose of foreclosing the same will be sold at Public Auction, on Wednesday, March 15, 1939, at 10 o'clock A. M. on Monday, April 3, 1939 on the premises below described all and singularly conveyed subject to said mortgage, to wit:

"A certain parcel of land with all buildings and structures now or hereafter standing or placed thereon situated in Newton, in the County of Middlesex, in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, bounded and described as follows: SOUTHERLY by Royce Road, one hundred thirty (130) feet; EASTERLY by land now or late of Brown, one hundred thirty (130) feet; NORTHEASTERLY by minus for the Middlesex & Boston busses from other parts of the city, and for people coming from Waltham, Wellesley and beyond. During the rush hours in the morning, and late afternoon, from 20 to 40 persons at a time wait for cars at Nonantum sq., Newton. The average loading time per passenger is 4 seconds. The centre-entrance cars which have been in use on the Newton-Brighton line can accommodate 10 to 12 passengers, and the conductor on such cars can signal to have the car started after the passengers are aboard. But, on the one-man cars, the operator cannot start the car until each passenger boards the vehicle singly and pays his or her fare. This will result in much time being consumed before a large number of passengers board a one-man car at Newton Corner, and will cause delays of 2 to 3 minutes in comparison with the present service. The result will be that the cars will run in groups on the Watertown-Newton-Brighton line during the rush hours, and delays will follow.

Boston Elevated To Make Big Drop In Newton Service

been kept in good condition through proper maintenance. However, traffic conditions have greatly changed during the past 25 years and modern cars should have been purchased to meet these changes. The Elevated has bought large numbers of busses and condemned them after 10 years of service as obsolete. The larger type of busses cost nearly as much as a street car, so if the Elevated can purchase new busses under deficit conditions, it could likewise buy electric cars so that patrons who have to ride in the cars could do so under more comfortable conditions. In many cities a modern electric street car of a type known as P. C. C. have been in use for the past 5 years. They make very little noise, are streamlined, and accelerate and decelerate much more quickly than do the old cars which have been and will be in use on the Watertown-Newton line. Although the Boston Elevated buys scores of new busses periodically, it has not procured this modern type of street car. There is one in use on the Elevated system on West Roxbury way. San Francisco sometime ago passed an ordinance forbidding one-man cars in that city, and a Supreme Court decision upheld this ordinance.

A majority of the Elevated employees will perhaps favor the new service on the Watertown-Newton line as it will mean increased wages for conductors or motormen on two-man cars who will become operators of one-man cars. But, they will get these increased wages at the expense of 35 present conductors and motormen on this line who will lose their positions. The Elevated management might claim that it will save $50,000 yearly by eliminating the services of these 35 men, plus maintenance for one set of cars but this very small savings in the yearly deficit of the Elevated will be accomplished at the expense of Newton, Waltham, Wellesley and Natick patrons of that street railway who travel to and from Newton Corner.

No publicity has been given to the fact that the inferior service on this Elevated line would start tomorrow and members of the Newton Board of Aldermen had no knowledge of it until it was called to their attention on Monday night by Edward H. Powers, president of the Ward 1 Improvement Association of Newton, who also acquainted Mayor Childs with the news of the change on Tuesday. The matter was discussed by the Aldermen in committee on Monday night and referred to the Licenses Committee. Chairman Edward Fahey of the Licenses Committee said he would make a protest to Edward E. Whiting, chairman of the Board of Traffic and Public Safety, Mr. Whiting resides on Mount Vernon st., Newtonville. A protest was also sent by the Ward 1 Improvement Association. A number of meetings have been held in Brighton and Oak sq. districts to protest against the diminished service which will result from the institution of the one-man cars during the hours of heavy travel.

Newton Sea Scout Ship Chosen As Region Flagship

Word has just been received from Regional Sea Scout Commodore, Alexander Moffat, that Sea Scout Ship Norumbega, popularly known as "Ship 13" has been chosen as flagship of Region I. In arriving at the decision to confer this award upon Ship 13, the Regional Sea Scout Committee inspected Sea Scout Ships in the six New England States comprising Region I and rated them on a number of sub-divisions of the program which included Sea Scout cruising, service to the community in various ways, uniforms and equipment of the Scouts and the equipment of the Ship itself, training courses completed by leaders, rank achievements on the part of the Sea Scouts and the programs of the weekly Ship meetings as listed and explained in the Ship's Log.

Ship 13 emerged from this competitive rating with a very high score and for the first time in thirteen years has received the coveted award of Regional Flagship. The flag symbolizing this rank will be formally presented to the officers and Sea Scouts of Ship 13 at the Region I Annual Meeting which will be attended by about 1500 Scout leaders from all over New England and will be held at the New Ocean House in Swampscott on May 11, 1939.

Officers and men of Sea Scout Ship Norumbega are as follows: Donald McBurney, Skipper, of Newton; Robert L. Smith, Mate, of Newton;

Philip N. Eneagess, Mate, of West Newton; Robert M. Patterson, Chairman Ship Committee, of Newton; Clarence L. Morgan, Committeeman, of Newton; Ben Aldrich, Committeeman, of Newton; Frank E. H. Johnson, Committeeman, of Newtonville; Charles J. A. Wilson, Committeeman, of Newtonville; Dudley M. Pray, Committeeman, of Newtonville; L. E. Schoonmaker, Committeeman, of Newton.

CUB SCOUT EXHIBITION

The Annual Indoor Craft Palava of the Cub Scouts of Norumbega Council will be held at Newton High School, March 25th, 1:30 to 4:30 p. m.

It is an exhibition of the handwork which the cubs have accomplished during the fall season. The main project this year is Early American Frontiersman and Pioneering, and many interesting exhibits will be on display.

Cubbing is that branch of the Boy Scouts, for boys of nine to twelve years and this showing will be the results of their work. All interested in this branch of Scouting will be welcome.

Auto Hits Youth At Newton Centre

A car driven by Clifford Miller of 185 Valentine st., West Newton, hit Nicholas Malgieri, 20, of 384 Langley rd., Newton Centre, on Sunday night at Centre and Willow sts., Newton Centre. Malgieri received injuries to his chest and right hand and was taken to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance.

Saturday night a car driven by Donald Carling of Bedford hit Donato Magnarelli, 55, of 125 Adams st., Nonantum, as he was crossing Watertown st. at Adams st. Magnarelli received injuries to his right leg and arm.

Woman Killed by Auto at Waban

Miss Hester Wilkinson, 50, of 63 Aspen ave., Auburndale, was fatally injured at Waban last Saturday evening by an automobile owned by Dr. Harold M. Teel of 11 Quindic rd., Waban. The car had been parked in front of Rhodes drug store at 1649 Beacon st. by Mrs. Elinor Teel who had gone into a nearby store. The car rolled backward, down the grade, and went in a semi-circle until it mounted the sidewalk at 1635 Beacon st. There it knocked down an iron traffic sign which hit Miss Wilkinson, fracturing her skull. She was taken in the police ambulance to the Newton Hospital, where she died a few hours later. Mrs. Teel stated she had set the emergency brake on the car when she parked it. It is thought that vibration caused by a passing train might have set the automobile in motion.

Miss Wilkinson was born in Boston and had lived in this city for 24 years. She is survived by her father, William H. Wilkinson of Aspen ave.; a sister, Mrs. Marjorie K. Mason of Chestnut st., Waban; and two nephews, William W. and Richard H. Mason. Her funeral service was held at her late home on Tuesday afternoon; Rev. Stanley Ellis officiated. Burial was in Newton Cemetery.

Year In Jail For Johnson

Walter Johnson of 1400 Main st., Waltham, was sentenced to serve a year in Billerica prison by Judge Donahue in the Superior Court on Tuesday. He was found guilty of having broken into the liquor store of Fred Moore at 311 Washington st., Newton, and stealing some liquor. Clever detective work on the part of Patrolmen FitzSimmons and McEnaney caused Johnson's arrest.

CHARLES W. BOND

Charles Wood Bond of 112 Gibbs st., Newton Centre, died suddenly at his home on Tuesday, March 7, of heart failure. He was born at Florence, Massachusetts, 66 years ago the son of Judge Daniel W. Bond of the Superior Court. His mother was a direct descendant of Governor Bradford of Plymouth. He attended Cushing Academy and graduated from Harvard Law School in 1898. For 12 years he was associated with the firm of Whipple, Sears & Ogden and then established his own practice. During the World War he was commissioned a captain and served at Camp Upton. He formerly resided in Waltham and was a member of the Waltham Board of Aldermen for 2 years.

Mr. Bond moved to Newton Centre 28 years ago. He had been active in Boy Scout work in this city and was a member of Norumbega Council. He was a director of Newton Y. M. C. A., a trustee of Cushing Academy and a member of the Boston City Club. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Louise Wood Bond; a daughter, Mrs. J. L. Hallett of Whitman; a son, Paul Bond; a sister, Mrs. W. E. Barnard of West Medford; and a brother, Henry H. Bond of Waltham. Mr. Bond's funeral service was held on Thursday at the First Congregational Church, Newton Centre.

FRANK W. STEARNS

Frank W. Stearns, for many years a prominent resident of Newton, died suddenly at his home on Fairfield st., Boston, on Monday afternoon, March 6. He lived at 269 Park st., Newton, from 1892 until 1922. Mr. Stearns was born in Boston, 82 years ago, the son of Richard H. Stearns and Louisa Waterman Stearns. His father was the founder of the R. H. Stearns Co., one of Boston's leading stores. Mr. Stearns gained fame as the sponsor of Calvin Coolidge and he gave freely of his time and money in advancing Coolidge from the office of State Senator to the Lieutenant Governorship and Governorship of Massachusetts, and thence to Vice President of the United States. After Mr. Coolidge became President, Mr. Stearns spent much of his time at the White House in Washington.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Emily Clark Stearns; a son, Congressman Foster Stearns, whose home is at Hancock, New Hampshire; two daughters, Mrs. Henry W. Giese of Wellesley Hills and Mrs. Francis Prescott of Grafton; eight grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. His funeral service was held on Wednesday in St. Cecilia's Church, Boston, and burial was in Mount Auburn Cemetery.

ORRIN F. BARKER

Orrin F. Barker of 1407 Washington st., West Newton, died on March 4. He was born in West Newton 82 years ago, the son of Aaron and Caroline Jennison Barker. Both his parents were members of old West Newton families. Mr. Barker was employed for many years at the Waltham Watch Company. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Rosella Barker. His funeral service was held on Tuesday in Fuller Chapel at the Second Church; Rev. Boynton Merrill officiated. Burial was in Newton Cemetery.

CHARLES T. HARRINGTON

Charles T. Harrington, for many years a letter carrier at the Newtonville postoffice, died at his home, 17 Morton st., on March 2. He was born at Arichat, Nova Scotia, 82 years ago and had lived in Newton for 65 years. His funeral service was held on Monday at Lincoln Park Baptist Church, West Newton, and cremation was at Mount Auburn.

Your best friend should have told you: You can buy a Buick for— delivered at Flint, Mich.

*Subject to change without notice. Transportation, state and local taxes, if any, optional equipment and accessories extra.

The model illustrated is the Buick SPECIAL model 41 four-door touring sedan $996 delivered at Flint, Mich.*

WE'RE talking about that friend of yours who owns a 1939 Buick—

You've heard plenty from him, naturally, about the fresh-as-the-morning-breeze styling of his taut and trim new Buick—and the way it perks abody up just to look it over!

You've listened while he sang the praise of a ride that's like a lullaby—soft and gentle as a tender touch, but sure, unwavering, steady, in cross-wind or at speed.

No doubt you've sensed his joy at those eight eager Dynafash cylinders, that need only the gentlest sort of hint to hike you straight to the forefront—and the snug and reassuring steadiness of this low-slung, stable stepper's gait!

All of which is well and good, and not to be disputed. But has your good friend told you this:

... That Buick's prices are easily the lowest prices for the value you'll find anywhere on automobile row?

... That this far-ranging great-hearted eight—with all the sky-larking life those extracylinders give it—still costs less than some sixes?

... That factory list figures run anywhere from $51 to $102 less than a year ago—and that they buy worlds more in self-banking Knee-Action, Handshift transmission, 15% softer BuCoil Springing, visibility stepped up as much as 412 square inches, any number of so-called "extras" such as the Flash-Way direction signal?

If he hasn't told you this, it's plainly time to do this:

Get dollars-and-cents figures on what the model of your choice will cost delivered in your driveway!

That will prove, we think, that Buick's the car and the value of the year. And we're certain sure it will tell you what your best friend may have forgotten—this shining star is in your reach, so why should you be without it?

Mme. Ballon Featured In Highland Glee Club 68th Annual Concert

Distinguished Austrian Harpsichord Player Reproduces 17th, 18th Century Music; Martha Wight Sings Several Solo Numbers

Mme. Hedda Ballon, Austrian Harpsichordist, was the distinguished soloist at the concert given Tuesday night by the Highland Glee Club at the Newton High School auditorium. The usual large and enthusiastic audience greeted a well-rounded performance by eighty men's voices under the baton of D. Ralph Maclean, Director of the Club. Karl Switzer was the accompanist. Several members of the Club appeared as soloists, as did also Miss Martha Wight, soprano, daughter of the Club's President, Geo. H. Wight. Another well known figure to appear on the platform was Samuel Richards Gaines, composer, who conducted one of his numbers.

There is something beside novelty to be enjoyed in listening to the authentic reproduction of seventeenth and eighteenth century music as performed by Mme. Ballon on her harpsichord. In abandoning this instrument in favor of the piano, music in the home gained much in volume and sustained tone, but lost a delicate brilliance of flavor as proved by Mme. Ballon's performance last night. Our understanding of the old masters' compositions is enhanced by hearing them as in their day. The way the harpsichord blends with the human voice was neatly illustrated in the singing of a group of carefully chosen selections by Martha Wight. Just to show her impartiality, however, Miss Wight sang very effectively Palmgren's "Summer Evening," with the Glee Club as her accompaniment. The Glee Club in this, its sixty-eighth regular concert, fully maintained the high standards which Newton has come to expect from this unique organization. Not only is this Club the largest of its kind in New England, but also concededly of the highest musical standard.

As usual the program was well balanced between classical, sentimental and light numbers, calculated to please an audience of varied and discriminating tastes. Purcell's "I Attempt from Love's Sickness to Fly," Mendelssohn's barcarolle "On the Water" and Parker's "Lamp in the West" exhibited the sonorous organ-like qualities possible to well-trained men's voices.

More spectacular effects were achieved in the singing of "Patria" by Coombs, "Mother Earth" by Forsyth, Gericke's "Chorus of Homage" and S. Richards Gaines' "Immortales," the last of which brought a howl from the composer. Karl Switzer's piano work in these numbers was outstanding.

Lighter numbers well received were Forsyth's "Old King Cole," familiar to radio audiences, "All Day on the Prairie," A. Foote's "Bedouin Song" and a sparkling new number by St. Helius "Forest Invocation." The singing of such numbers by a large amateur group with the requisite "verve" is a distinct tribute to Maclean's direction.

A very gratifying feature was the solo work of several members of the choir. Ernest Schleicher sang Vaughn Williams' "Turtle Dove" in a rich baritone and F. Nelson Lane, bass, and Edgar M. Randle, tenor, assumed the solo parts in "Oh Caesar" from "The King's Henchman" by Deems Taylor.

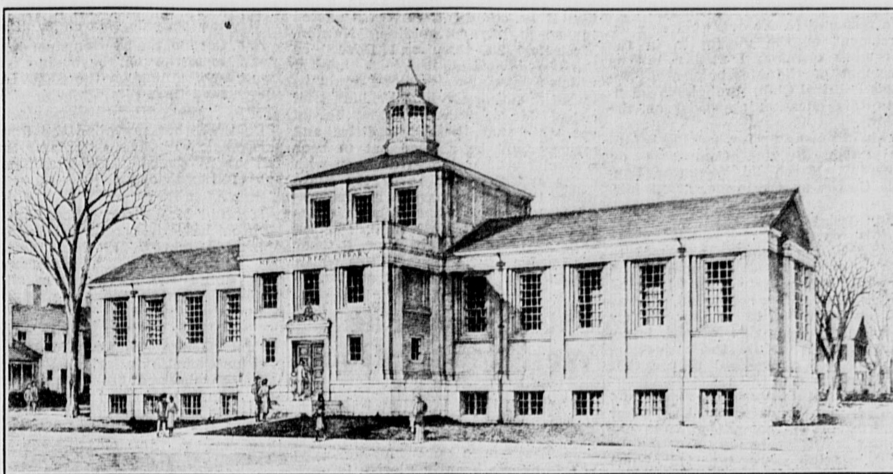

The two numbers to be sung in the forthcoming contest of the New England Federation at New Haven on May 13 were "Hymn to Diana" by Dunhill and "The Day of Judgment" by Arkangelaky, arranged and conducted by Gaines. The audience was requested to write and leave criticisms of these performances for the benefit of the conductor and Club. The Club has won first honors for New England three out of the past five years, and judging by last night's performance, their chances of repeating this year seem to be excellent.

Hermann Will Not Be Retired Now

City Ordinance Change Would Mean Hermann Could Still Hold Playground Office

Ernst Hermann, for many years superintendent of Newton playgrounds and secretary of the Playground Department, will continue in these two offices at least until next June. Mr. Hermann, who reached the age of 70 on March 13, and who would therefore have to retire, according to a report drawn up by a sub-committee of the Playground Commission last January, has at least 30 days in which he can continue to serve following his 70th birthday, and the provisions of the Retirement Law permit him to serve as long as 90 days after that date. If before June the Newton Board of Aldermen should vote in favor of the proposed change in the ordinance relative to the Playground Department, whereby the Playground Commission would cease to be the executive body of that department, and the secretary would become the head, Mr. Hermann could continue to hold office.

Cahill Heads Newton Bankers

At the annual meeting of the Newton Bankers' Association at the Brae Burn Country Club this week, William M. Cahill of the Newton Trust Company was elected president for the coming year. One hundred members attended and other officers elected were James B. Melcher, Newton National Bank, vice-president; Warren W. Oliver, Newton Co-operative Bank, treasurer; and Kenneth W. Rogers, West Newton Savings Bank, secretary. Mr. Cahill succeeds the retiring president Roland M. Gammons who presided at the meeting.

Among the guests were John W. Murphy, chairman of the Board of Assessors, and Charles B. Floyd, president of the Newton Board of Aldermen.

Bus Hits Plow on Worcester Pike

A street department truck operating a snowplow was hit about 6 a. m. Sunday by a New York to Boston bus on the turnpike near Hartford st., Newton Highlands. The bus, driven by Lew Wallace of Astoria, Long Island, was damaged in front, but was able to proceed to Boston. The truck, operated by Charles Duffy of 1139 Beacon st., was also damaged and had to be towed to the garage.

Money From Gas Tax For Street Dept. Expenses

$121,000 Received From State To Be Used For Local Drains, Streets, Sidewalks

Copies of the Act passed by the State Legislature last year relative to the diversion of funds received through the tax on gasoline, were received last week by Newton officials from Tax Commissioner Henry F. Long. Comptroller Daniel White and John W. Murphy, chairman of the Board of Assessors agree that the conditions in the Act permit Newton, in common with other cities and towns to spend the money allotted to them as their share of the gasoline tax not only for the construction of streets but also for the maintenance of streets and sidewalks, and for work on surface drains. The amount allotted to Newton last year is $121,000 and this may be used to cover expenses of the Street Department which otherwise would have to be provided for in the annual budget.

Big Jump In Tax Rate Seen Due To Increased State Tax Assessments

City Receives Estimates From Com. Long; Latter Says "Sheltered Communities" Must Aid Industrial Cities if Sales Tax Not Adopted

Despite earnest attempts of the Newton city government to hold down the Newton tax rate for 1939, according to the estimates received from State Tax Commissioner Long the past week Newton's tax rate this year may have to be raised $3.50 and even more over last year. The sad news was received from Mr. Long on Monday in a communication to the Newton Board of Assessors which gave the estimates for the State, Metropolitan District and County, Metropolitan District and County warrants, and also the receipts and adjustments the city may expect to be credited with. The estimated warrants for 1939 which Newton will have to pay total $988,986.96. Added to these are the underestimates for 1938 which total $218,638.69. These two totals make $1,207,625.65 which Newton will have to pay toward the support of the State, Metropolitan District and the county this year. The huge figure for underestimates in 1938 was caused by the action of the Legislature last year in voting against the diversion of revenue derived from the gasoline tax from the highway fund into the general fund.

Safety Features WCOP Broadcast

Raymond A. Green To Speak Briefly on "Bicycles And Highways"

The next broadcast by the GRAPHIC will be heard at the usual time, 4:30 p. m., next Sunday afternoon over the GRAPHIC's official radio outlet, Station WCOP, Boston. Mr. Raymond A. Green, assistant principal of Newton High School and Chairman of the Child Education Committee of the Newton Safety Council, will give a brief talk on a subject to which he has given much study and which is of vital importance—"Bicycles on Highways."

Your attention is also invited to the page in the GRAPHIC's rotogravure supplement this week which is devoted to safety. One picture on the page is a striking example of what carelessness can result in—a display which WCOP sponsored recently in Kenmore sq., Boston.

Tax Commissioner Long had supposed the Legislature would authorize the diversion as it had in previous years, and had estimated his 1938 figures accordingly.

Last year the State, Metropolitan District and county warrants which the city had to pay total $834,434.39, and added to this sum was $23,083.75 in 1937 underestimates, making a grand total of $707,718.19. So this year the total of the warrants which the city will have to pay to the State and county is $499,907.48 more than in 1938.

But, the bad news for Newton taxpayers does not end there. Tax Commissioner Long's estimates for the receipts Newton will be credited with by the State this year total $352,110.95, and the corporation taxes will amount to $24,548.02. Overestimates for 1938 to be credited to the city amount to $9,766.72. The grand total of these three is $386,425.69, or $83,091.34 less than the receipts credited to Newton last year from these three sources. This means that between the increase in tax warrants over 1938 and the decrease in receipts, Newton will have to raise an additional $532,998.82 this year to pay to the State and the county. This will result in an increase of $3.50 to the Newton tax rate over that of 1938, unless the city government by some drastic measures, can greatly reduce the running expenses of Newton. And this is highly improbable.

And as added "solace" to Newton taxpayers, Mr. Long at the hearing before the Taxation Committee of the Legislature on Tuesday, asserted that unless the proposal to authorize a State Sales Tax of 2 per cent is enacted into law this year, "sheltered communities" such as Brookline, Newton, Waltham, Needham and others will have to be assessed in order to support such industrial centres as Fall River, Lowell, New Bedford, and other near bankrupt cities such as Chelsea, which have enormous welfare burdens and cannot meet them. And should this expedient be resorted to, instead of the $3.50 addition to Newton's tax rate caused by increased State and County expenses, several more dollars would be tacked on to the tax rate of this city. John W. Murphy, chairman of Newton's Board of Assessors, says that he favors the Sales Tax, even though (Continued on Page 2)

THAT "SHELTERED COMMUNITY" TAX

State Commissioner of Taxation and Corporations Henry F. Long this week asserted that unless a two per cent sales tax is enacted by the legislature this year it may be necessary to resort to a "sheltered community" tax. Such a tax would be levied upon such "sheltered" communities as Newton, Brookline, Wellesley, Needham and Dover. Already doubt has been expressed as to the constitutionality of such a procedure on the grounds that it would be discriminatory. There is a possibility that, similar to our income tax laws, such a tax method might be adopted through exempting other communities whose valuation was not as proportionally great as in Newton. However, it should be emphatically pointed out that Newton already pays a "sheltered community" tax, not specifically as such, but through the obvious fact that personal income taxes, personal property taxes, and individual real estate assets are great and therefore in proportion Garden City residents actually contribute a greater portion of tax revenues than do other cities and towns which are "less sheltered."

Rotary Club

Benjamin Franklin might almost rank as the greatest American if one takes into account his many and varied interests and activities; certainly his accomplishments for his country during the Revolution and in the early days of the new republic place him very close to Washington. Such was the thought that Rev. Ralph H. Rogers, pastor of the Congregational Church in Auburndale, developed at the Rotary Club Monday noon.

The average person is more or less familiar with the picture of Franklin which he obtained in school, remembers his trials as a candlemaker under his father, as a printer's apprentice under his tyrannical brother, as a printer himself in Philadelphia; recalls, perhaps, that Franklin secured financial aid from France at a very critical time in the Revolution and that his judgment and wisdom exercised a tremendous influence on the constitutional convention. Franklin is also readily associated with his almanac and with his electrical experiment with the kite, and his name is still borne by the stove he invented to improve on the fireplace. But not so many people know that he invented bifocal glasses, developed a fertilizer for farmers, and devised a ventilating system for the House of Parliament. Neither are they aware that he founded the first public library, an academy that grew into the University of Pennsylvania, a fire department, and the first insurance company in America. Commonly thought of as a free-thinker and an irreligious man, Franklin was, on the contrary, a very devout man who thought deeply on matters of religion and philosophy, who embodied vigorous and beautiful thoughts on the Deity in his writings and in his own epitaph which he devised some time before his death.

Letters To The Editor

MASSACHUSETTS WOMEN'S POLITICAL CLUB

Dear Editor:

I would appreciate space to explain the present like of the proposed legislation to bar married women from employment in public service in reply to many inquiries which have come to me from interested citizens.

In response to the overwhelming endorsement of the electorate in the November election, I filed a bill as President of the Massachusetts Women's Political Club, through whose efforts this question appeared on the ballot.

This bill came up for hearing before the Public Service Committee on Thursday, March 24. Senator Laurence Curtis, as Chairman, acted fairly.

However, as some of the opponents of this legislation, instead of using worthwhile arguments, resorted to heavy sarcasm and personalities, I asked for one minute rebuttal period after the opposition concluded. It was not my intention to present further evidence for our cause, but merely to refute the unjust situations of a personal nature that were made. Chairman Curtis understood that this was my idea and granted me the minute. The other members of the committee were not advised of the exact nature of my request, and the rebuttal period of one minute was not permitted.

I should like to thank Chairman Laurence Curtis of Boston for the courtesy he showed to me and to all the speakers who came before this committee.

This bill is now being considered by the committee. If an adequate law is not passed at this session of the Legislature, we promise to keep faith with the people and will bring the issue before them again for a vote by means of an initiative petition which will place the law at once on the statute books of the Commonwealth without legislative action.

Sincerely yours for good government,

(Miss) FLORENCE BIRMINGHAM, President.

96.20% NOT ENOUGH—WHY?

The phenomenal competitive examination average of 96.20% failed to warrant the Public Health Department to appoint Newtonville's intelligent physician, R. A. Pavone, M.D., 192 Crafts st., Newtonville, as Newton School physician.

Dr. Pavone is known for his ability, especially regarding children's ailments. Newton citizens residing in the Newtonville section of the Massachusetts Civil Service Examinations so that he may be eligible to take care of our children.

One of the appointees qualified by the Civil Service with a rating close to the bottom of the list had little or no experience in private practice.

Dr. Pavone's training is above average. An honor student at Harvard and Tufts Colleges; a fellow of the American Medical Association; a fellow of the Massachusetts Medical Society; a member of the Association of Harvard Chemists; a diplomat of the National Board; a member of the Newton Hospital staff; consultant physician at St. Margaret's Hospital; holder of the remarkable obstetrical record of delivering the country's youngest mother, successfully. I might also mention that he graduated from Harvard cum laude.

Sincerely yours,

JOHN A. SCIPIONE, 146 Walnut St., Newtonville.

Camera Club Features Noted Photographer at Next Meeting

Members of the Camera Club for the Newtons will hear a talk by Mr. Franklin I. Jordan at their next meeting of the club on Friday, March 17, at 8:00 p. m. His subject will be "The Value of a Camera Club" and "The Meaning of Pictorial Photography."

In recognition of Mr. Jordan's photographic abilities and his timely writings, the title of Fellow of the Royal Photographic Society of London, England, was conferred on him. Former president of the Boston Camera Club, he is now Associate Editor of the American Photographic Publishing Co.

At the last meeting of the club, L. B. Huntington was elected president; R. F. Bauer, vice-president; Fred Moore, treasurer, and R. M. Bishop, secretary.

Members are urged to bring any prints they have to the next meeting at J. Dunham Jones, for criticism, and suggestions by Mr. Jordan. R. M. Bishop, secretary of the club, suggests that members bring any friends who are interested in photography.

Caught In Attempt To Rob Two Safes

At 4:30 a. m. on Sunday Patrolman Purcell while on his route at Newtonville observed, in looking through a rear window of the Star Market at 304 Walnut st., that the combination knobs had been knocked off two safes, and that tools were on the floor. Hastening to a nearby patrol box he notified police headquarters and a squad of police hastened to the scene in the patrol wagon and three cruising cars. Sergeant Cleary and Patrolmen Purcell and William Whelan entered the front door of the market, which had been unlocked by Joseph O'Meara, manager of the store, who had been notified. In the store office on the balcony the police found Richard Stuart, 22, of Jewett st., Newton. He was arraigned in the Newton court on Monday and the case was continued until March 20. Bonds of $11,000 were placed on him and he was taken to East Cambridge jail.

Added State Taxes May Cause Jump In Local Tax Rate

cities of the type of Newton will furnish the greater part of the Sales Tax, and receive less benefit from it than will other places.

The GRAPHIC, in a conversation with Tax Commissioner Long asked him if he had been correctly quoted in specifying "Brookline, Newton, Wellesley, Needham and Dover" as "sheltered communities" as against which a special assessment would be levied to succor the hard-hit industrial cities. Mr. Long replied that he did not state that these few cities and towns would be singled out to bear a special burden, but in common with cities and towns all over the State where the welfare burden is comparatively low, as contrasted with cities such as Fall River, Lowell, Chelsea and the like, they will have to bear the burden of the communities which are in desperate financial straits.

Catch Burglar at West Newton House

Newton police captured a burglar at the home of James J. Lannon, 22 Burnham rd., West Newton, a short time before noon on Wednesday. The Lannons have been in Florida for several months and their home has been unoccupied. So, when John McGregor, chauffeur for Robert Gross of 10 Burnham rd., observed a stranger ring the doorbell at the Lannon residence and then go to the rear door, break a pane of glass and enter the house, he called to Annie Evans, domestic at the Gross home to telephone police headquarters. McGregor watched the Lannon house until the police arrived in a few minutes. The squad of police that speeded to the scene included Serg. King, Inspector Hammell and Patrolmen Dowling, Donahue and Carroll.

While some of the police guarded the outside of the house, others entered and traced the burglar's progress by means of the footprints from his wet shoes. Serg. King and Dowling traced the footprints to a basement garage at the house, but there was no burglar visible. Dowling lifted the cover of the rumble seat of an automobile in the garage, and inside, with his pockets bulging with loot, was the burglar. He identified himself as John White, 39, of Pittsburgh, and said he was party of Spanish origin. Later the police found that the prisoner had been arrested in Boston last August and at that time gave his name as Bert Gibson, 41, of West Lenox st., Boston. He has served time in Federal prisons. He was arraigned in the Newton court on Thursday and held for the Grand Jury.

It was fortunate for King alias Gibson that his hiding place in the rumble seat was discovered, as the catch had shut and could only be opened from the outside. He would probably have suffocated in a short time, had Dowling not lifted the rumble seat cover.

Snow Sculpture By Nonantum Man

Persons who traveled along Adams st., Nonantum, on Tuesday and Wednesday stopped to admire two excellent specimens of snow sculpturing by Antonio Marini of 122 Hawthorn st. In front of the American-Italian Citizens Club at 192 Adams st., Marini on Wednesday modelled a bust of George Washington which was a remarkable copy of Stuart's famous portrait of the first President of this country. On Tuesday night some boys who had neither proper regard for Washington nor art, snowballed the bust to destruction. On Wednesday Marini modelled a bust of Abraham Lincoln which attracted much favorable comment. Mr. Marini was born in San Donato val di Comino, Frosinone, Italy and studied art at Rome. Unfortunately he has not had the proper opportunity to engage in his profession in this country that his skill merits.

Arrested For Drunken Driving

Oliver Alsapugh, 40, of Union ave., Framingham, was arrested early Tuesday morning by Serg. Sullivan and Patrolmen McKenna and Rogers on charges of drunkenness and driving while under the influence of liquor. He was arraigned in the Newton court on Tuesday and his case was continued to March 24.

Sunbeam Chats

Hello, everybody—did you miss me? I took a little vacation—I was all tired out cutting so many teeth and getting all kinds of shots in the arm every thing. I couldn't think of a thing to tell you.

Newton Graphic, March 8, 1884

A. J. Gordon, the Newton shoe dealer, starts tomorrow on the business trip to Europe, sailing on the SERVIA of the Cunard Line.

Cold weather prevailed the first of this week with fine sleighing. Snow fell on Wednesday night and more snow fell on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Adams of Newton have just returned from an enjoyable trip to Florida. On the day of their arrival at Jacksonville they found the thermometer at 82, while at Newton the same day the temperature was 32.

Supt. Henry Ross has for sale at Newton Cemetery a large collection of trees, shrubs and greenhouse plants. His reputation as a horticulturist makes it unnecessary to assure purchasers that they will find everything they purchase first class.

James V. Sullivan, bookkeeper for Thayer & Stiles was in Faneuil Hall in 1837 when Wendell Phillips made his first anti-slavery speech. He said Mr. Phillips spoke from the floor in the centre of the hall, and it was the most impressive speech he ever heard.

The sad news of the death of Rev. Samuel E. Lowry, founder and pastor of the North Evangelical Church at Nonantum, reached Newton this week. Rev. Wolcott Calkins received a letter Wednesday night from Mr. Lowry's brother, announcing his death, which occurred on February 20 at Bangor, on the sea-coast near Belfast, Ireland.

The demand for real estate on the South side of the city seems to be improving. J. F. C. Hyde reports having sold three estates in Newton Centre within a week.

A dispatch from the City of Mexico states that the northern and southern divisions of the Mexican Central Railway are within 8 miles of each other. The gap will be finished tomorrow and through traffic to the Mexican capital will begin at once. Newton can take just pride in this great enterprise which her distinguished citizen, Thomas Nickerson, has brought to completion.

For sale cheap—first-class double-rumler, good as new. Address P. O. Box 797, Newton. (Adv.)

The Health Committee of the Board of Aldermen at the meeting on Monday night discussed the advisability of dropping typhoid fever, spinal meningitis, dysentery and cholera infantum from the list of diseases which must be reported by physicians; requiring reports of typhus, scarlet fever, diphtheria and smallpox only.

The Newtonville Methodist Church has wiped out the last dollar of its long-standing debt and the members are rejoicing at prospects for the future. The revival meetings of the past few weeks have had good results in awakening the members. Eight have joined the church on probation, and more are expected.

50 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, March 8, 1889

George E. Baket, a member of the Newton police force since 1878, died at his home on Waban st., Newton, this morning. He was born in Lowell, 45 years ago. In the July following his appointment he was shot in the left eye while making an arrest, losing the sight of the eye. His health failed as a result and a complication of diseases set in the past few years. He is survived by a widow and two children.

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night Alderman Tolman introduced an order recommending that a system of three daily patrols be established in the police department, so that patrolmen may be on duty all night, instead of going off duty at 3 in the morning. Recent burglaries in this city have all occurred after 3 a. m., after the policemen have retired. Some special officer should be assigned to detective duty in citizens clothing, as there are several suspicious characters now in the city, one in his own Ward 7, he was sorry to say, who needs watching. Alderman Kennedy said a change had been recently made in schedules in the police department. The day patrolmen now go on duty at 2 p. m. and work to midnight, and the night officers then go on and work until the next day.

Mr. Tinkham of Auburndale lost a valuable horse this week, worth about $300.

Mr. Rogers, driver for Bullard's Express at Lower Falls, missed his footing while jumping on his wagon on Tuesday, and fell under the wheels, which passed over him, injuring him severely.

Michael Kinchilla, 9 years of age, fell through the ice at Silver Lake, Nonantum, on Friday afternoon. Edward Burke and John Rotchford went to the little fellow's assistance. Burke crawled out onto the ice, and held by Rotchford, succeeded in pulling out the boy after he had gone down for the second time. Young Kinchilla was taken to his home and resuscitated by his parents, assisted by neighbors.

Powers' Paragraphs

A sincere, zealous, unselfish man passed from this world on Monday, March 13 when Brother Fabian (Patrick J. Lyons) died of pneumonia at St. Elizabeth's Hospital. Born at Tallow, Waterford, Ireland 66 years ago, he came to this country as a boy and at the age 16 entered the Xaverian Brotherhood to devote his life to the care and teaching of boys. For over 20 years he was in charge of the Working Boys' Home at Newton Highlands and his efforts in behalf of the boys in that institution, many of them orphans, won for him the respect of the people of Newton. Irrespective of religious affiliation, Brother Fabian did not seek the things of this world, he was penniless from the standpoint of financial wealth; but his memory will be revered by the hundreds of poor boys to whom he was a foster-father, long after the material successes of men who were actuated by selfish motives will have been forgotten.

Now that we have had one of those real snowstorms, which some persons supposed were a thing of the past, we have again been urged to refer to the condition of sidewalks in this city. Once more we call your attention to the fact that the Board of Aldermen, a couple of years ago, rescinded the long-established city ordinance which required hard surface sidewalks to be cleared of snow within 24 hours following the end of a snowstorm, and the Mayor approved of this change. So, if sidewalks which were cleared of snow in former winters following storms, are now not shoveled, blame the Aldermen who voted to exempt property owners, or tenants, from the duty of clearing snow off sidewalks. If you travel along Newton streets on your feet instead of in an automobile, remember that you belong to the inferior pedestrian class which receives little consideration in Newton. And the writer regrets to state that he does very little walking, so he is not complaining because he is a pedestrian.

In the "horse and buggy days" the Newton Street Department owned scores of big, strong horses which were well-trained in the task of pulling small plows over sidewalks. The Street Department in those days also had dozens of expert drivers in its employ. Today the Street Department owns but a small number of horses, and some of these are long past their prime. The number of experienced teamsters in the Street Department is also quite limited. So, when a snowstorm occurs these days, the Street Department has to depend largely for motive power to pull sidewalk plows on hired horses, most of which have neither the requisite strength nor training to effectively haul the plow over sidewalks. Between the inadequate facilities of the Street Department to plow sidewalks and the action of the Aldermen in rescinding the snow-removal ordinance, pedestrians in Newton can use skis on the sidewalks or walk on the streets and take a chance of becoming another automobile victim.

The erudite commentators and those brilliant experts on international affairs have guessed wrong again. They have been telling us that the armament programs recently announced by the U. S. A., England and France and the pronouncement by President Roosevelt relative to the support this nation will give "democracies," had checked the bellicose attitude of Hitler and Mussolini. And then Adolf again crosses up the deep thinkers by grabbing what was left of Czechoslovakia.

The Newton Fire Department is not overmanned, and the fact that Newton firemen must go out after snowstorms to shovel snow away from hydrants lessens the number of men available to fight fires when an alarm comes in. Citizens can help the firemen by coaxing to shovel snow from their sidewalks or driveways onto or around hydrants. Thoughtless persons who do this ought to realize that should their home catch afire after some snowstorm, a buried hydrant would cause a costly delay.

ONE THING AND ANOTHER

One-Man Cars

Yes, I know we who feel we are obliged to patronize the Boston Elevated's Watertown-Brighton line between Newton Corner and Park st. subway may turn to the Boston & Albany trains, or hitch-hike or walk if we don't like the one-man car service. I have thought of those alternatives, of the fact the operators were getting more pay for doubling as motorman and conductor, of the decrease in the deficit and the fact that the Elevated is very sick financially and entitled to sympathy.

I know also that for the rate of fare charged the service is miserable even compared to cities with a five-cent fare; that conditions with the road, instead of improving are fast going from bad to worse, that the rolling stock is just about so-so and that instead of seeking to provide additional accommodation to the public the patrons are ignored in an attempt to carry out a program of economy. Nevertheless, I keep my spirits up by singing this ditty, a parody on one you may remember:

As we ride in the one-man car, on a trip that seems miles too far;
We are crowded and squeezed,
But—the management's pleased,
So, hooray for the one-man car!

When Neighbors Meet

Homes where neighbors drop in casually usually resort to one of several conventional forms of hospitality. These range from providing a comfortable chair and nothing more to liquid entertainment. A more experienced host knows which to employ. If he is alert he can readily adjust himself, never revealing surprise. Visitors who are merely invited to sit down are not expected to remain long. Their call is usually one of duty and both parties proceed on that basis.

If a caller is greeted with, "Well, come right in, glad to see you," something more than ordinary politeness is implied but not much. Tops is reached when the welcoming words are, "For goodness sake where have you been? We thought you'd gone back on us. Take off your things, etc." With this latter phrase the lid is completely removed.

The above will give you a key as to what neighbors think of each other. It may be that the best in the house is none too good for one while for another the host won't even go as far as switching on the piazza light. Still, people seem to get along pretty well. Lack of cordiality is better than insincerity and even indifference is more to be desired than a neighborhood squabble which never gets anybody anything.

Psychology of Audiences

If you find yourself criticizing an audience of which you happen to be a member, you will have done nothing more than many others before you. This phase of psychological study has always interested me. I have on occasions experienced intense reaction to a play, motion picture, lecture, recital or whatever only to find most of those about me calm and somewhat distant from enthusiasm. "What's the matter with them?" I ask myself, impatiently, "don't they know a good thing when they see it?"

Can it be that I am right and they are wrong or they right and I off? You will find yourself in deep water once you start to study audiences. It is the opinion of many that an audience that fails to respond is made up of dumb, inappreciative people. Yet this theory was exploded by a well known and capable actor who said to me, "You hear actors complain that the audience was not with them and therefore was a dull collection of people. That is nonsense. Any audience will respond if the performers, and that includes the playwright, are extraordinary. If mediocre, they simply sit and take it. If you have the goods and know how to get them across, your audience will show appreciation. There may be instances of stupid audiences but for my part I think it is up to the people appearing before them. At any rate, it's at least fifty-fifty."

Postage Stamp Poverty

It is amazing the number of persons who find themselves without postage stamps at the very moment they are most in need of them. Their numbers seem to be growing as far as I am able to observe and the worst of it is there seems little to be done about it. Of course I am referring to stamps used for everyday purposes and not those carefully collected, filed away in albums and treasured as rich possessions.

The man who wants a stamp in a hurry approaches his immediate companions with "Anybody got a three-cent stamp?" In his hand he carries a letter he has just written. The whole thing, it appears, is an emergency and so the others search themselves at once to help him if they can. When somebody digs up a stamp the person in want usually thrusts copers in payment or if not says, "Now, remember, I owe you for this."

The postoffice sells little books of stamps but I don't know how many people provide themselves as they should. I have seen a household almost completely devoid of stamps. I remember going in earnest quest for a stamp or two. The worst offender, if it is an offence, is he who, having been furnished with one, asks, "You haven't got another to spare, have you?" Maybe the government might attach stamp vending machines to letter boxes. That seems so simple I'll bet it's been tried long ago and found impracticable as have many of my best ideas.

Justice for the Goat

It was refreshing to learn what a valuable animal the goat has proved to be. So many jocose references are made, so much slang and other forms of slander thrown his way that the goat has never received fair treatment in general. Possibly there is something humorous in a goat's appearance, but that is probably due to the fact they are not as common as dogs and cats. I learned with genuine interest from members of an organization of goat breeders that the goat has many excellent qualities, that the milk of a goat is invaluable in many instances where sick people need nourishment and that goats do not eat tin cans. The latter has probably been well known but cartoonists continually draw goats feeding on these metal containers and in other ways hold it responsible for much of their own grotesque imaginings. But the tin can feature interested me most. My informant said that the glue on the label is relished by a goat who makes every effort to get at it. In consequence, the goat is put down as fond of tin cans, which is ridiculous. But that is as near as we get to the truth in many instances.

Dessert Bridge Given For New Residents of Newton

A Dessert Bridge was presented by Mrs. Charles M. Clark, president of the Community Welcoming Committee, to Newton Newcomers and the committee's Associate Members on Friday afternoon, March 10th, 1:30 to 5:30, in the parlor of the Unitarian Church, Cypress st., Newton Centre.

Hon. Edwin O. Childs gave a brief history of the founding and growth of Newton and related its advantages to modern youth. Mr. William H. Rice, president of the Newton Trust Company and Vice President of the Newton Centre Savings Bank told of the part his ancestors played in the development of Newton Centre and outlined the advantages offered by the Newton Banks with which he is associated. Rev. Albert C. Dieffenbach, pastor of the church, expounded in an inspiring way the benefits of the church to the Community.

During the afternoon the guests were entertained by a brief dance program: "Pierrette" by Priscilla Jean Clark of Waban, "Strut" and "Nautsch" by Barbara Estes Clark of Waban, and "Gypsy" by Dorothea V. Walsh of West Newton. The dancers were accompanied by Mabel Chambers Musgrave of Waban.

Recent Weddings

WAINWRIGHT—RAE

Miss Helen Rae, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Garfield Rae of 333 Otis st., West Newton, was married to Harris Edward Wainwright of Pittsburgh, Pa., son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Harris Edward Wainwright, on Friday evening, March 10, in the Second Church in Newton, West Newton. Rev. Boynton Merrill performed the eight o'clock ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of ivory satin with a veil of rare lace and tulle caught to a matching cap and carried white orchids and lilies of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Frederick J. Warren of Cambridge, as matron of honor, who wore a gown of heliotrope chiffon with a coronet of Spring flowers and carried a bouquet of mixed flowers. Miss Jean Rae, another sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a gown of coral chiffon with a garland of white flowers in her hair and carried a bouquet of Spring flowers. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Morton B. Rae of Newton Highlands, Miss Eleanor Washburn of Brookline, Mrs. Albert H. Burchfield, Jr., Mrs. William S. Stimmel, Jr., and Mrs. Robert K. Follansbee of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Miss Griselda Deringer of Jackson Heights, New York. They wore gowns of pale green chiffon with garlands of small white flowers in their hair and carried bouquets of small Spring flowers.

Albert H. Burchfield, Jr., of Pittsburgh, was the best man. The ushers were Robert K. Follansbee, William S. Stimmel, Jr., of Pittsburgh; Morton Black Rae of Newton Highlands, and Benjamin Garfield Ray, Jr., brothers of the bride; Frederick J. Warren of Cambridge, David Sutton Jr., of Waban; Richard Hillman, Robert B. Gordon and George J. Willock, Jr., of Pittsburgh.

A reception was held at the Brae Burn Country Club. On their return from a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Wainwright will make their home at 17 Beaumont ave., Newtonville.

The bride is a graduate of the Brimmer School, the Garland School and Sweet Briar College, Virginia. The groom is a graduate of Shady Side Academy in Pittsburgh and also attended Lehigh University.

DICKENSON—DeBARD

Mr. and Mrs. Davis M. DeBard announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Frances DeBard of West Newton, and Baribon Plaza, New York City, to Robert Edward Dickenson, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert E. Dickenson of Tucson, Arizona, which took place at eight o'clock on Saturday evening, March 11, at the Boston Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, Tulsa, Oklahoma. Dr. Dickenson, father of the groom, performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of white peau d'ange lace and a fingertip veil of tulle caught with orange blossoms. She carried white roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Vinton H. Potter of Tulsa, Oklahoma, was the matron of honor and Miss Helen Hauser, also of Tulsa, was the bridesmaid.

D. Stewart DeBard, brother of the bride, of West Newton, served as best man. The ushers were Irwin A. Monger of Altemorogarda, New Mexico; T. D. Williamson of Tulsa, Oklahoma, and Earl Meggellin of Chicago, Ill.

A reception was held in the reception room of the church following the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Dickenson will make their home at 488 South Garfield st., Enid, Oklahoma.

Recent Engagements

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Willard of Waban have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Marian Willard, to Dr. Leslie M. Bell, son of Dr. and Mrs. Walter H. Bell of Dozier, Ala. Miss Willard was graduated from Wellesley College with the class of 1936 and attended the Fine Arts Graduate School of New York University.

Dr. Bell was graduated from the University of Alabama and received his master of science degree in 1930. He spent the following year as a graduate teaching fellow at the University of California. He is a graduate of Harvard Medical School, class of 1935, and served his internship in surgery at the Roosevelt Hospital in New York City.

LASELL JUNIOR COLLEGE

Students in the merchandising department entertained at tea Tuesday afternoon in the library at Bragdon Hall.

The Dramatic Club is giving two plays on Friday evening, "The Gracie Song" and "The Dream Maker" under the direction of Miss Ruth Goodwin and Miss Ruth Spoor of the Lasell faculty. Miss Anne Langdon of Washington, D. C., Miss Barbara Albrecht of Akron, Ohio, and Miss Mary Mathews of Flemington, New Jersey were the leading parts.

The basketball game between Westbrook Junior College of Portland, Maine and Lasell will be played Saturday evening. Following the game there will be dancing in the Barn.

President Marsh of Boston University will be the Sunday Vesper speaker.

Contest To Find Newton's Most Popular Child Started

The management of the Paramount Theatre and the J. Dunham Jones Co., of 346 Centre st., are determined to find the most popular child in Newton under 16 years of age. To do this they ask all mothers who would like to enter their children, to simply call the J. Dunham Jones Studio, Newton North 3462, or call in person at the studios and have their photos taken at no charge or obligation whatsoever.

These photos will be given an identification number, and posted on a display in the lobby of the Paramount Theatre Friday, March 24th.

All that remains to determine the winner is to have votes cast in the lobby of the Paramount Theatre by the many friends and relatives of the individual contestants.

The winner of this unique contest will receive in addition to a beautiful 11x14 enlargement colored photo, a "Most Popular Child" trophy engraved with his or her name that will be an everlasting testimonial to Newton's 1939 Most Popular Child.

Be sure to watch this paper for further details as to the various Newton stores who will participate in this contest by having the votes that you may secure to cast for your choice.

So mothers and dads, let's see that child of yours among the contestants, let Newton know them and love them as you do.

Remember all you have to do is have a photo taken of them at the J. Dunham Jones Co., "On the Square," 346 Centre st., Newton North, then watch the announcement of the winner receiving the greatest number of votes cast. See the sample colored photo and the engraved trophy to be presented to Newton's 1939 "Most Popular Child Winner."

NEWTON STARS WIN AGAIN AT BOWDOIN

Six Athletes Score 34 Points—Pesky and MacKinnon Lead

The Newton High track team closed its 1939 indoor season with its fourth consecutive major meet win of the season last Saturday at the annual Bowdoin interscholastics. It was the 13th straight major meet victory, counting indoor and outdoor affairs, and the 28th out of the last 31 meets for Newton teams coached by Don Enoch. The Bowdoin victory, as a matter of fact, was one of the most impressive of this long string, as six athletes figured in the compilation of points. There were ten events at last Saturday's affair with the orange and black returning home with five first places. A spill in the relay race by Art Hughes prevented a sixth first place and another probable meet record.

As it was, Billy Pescosolido paced the Newton group to two new meet records, boosting the ceiling in the high jump to 6 ft. 2 3/4 in., and pushing the running broad jump mark out to 21 ft. 9 1/4 in. He also took fourth in the dash for an individual feat of 11 points, exceeded only by Johnny Grigas, Chelsea's one-man track team, who won the dash and shot put and took second in the broad jump for 13 points as the top scorer. Pescosolido also ran a leg on the relay to culminate a busy afternoon for the Newton co-captain.

Co-captain Don MacKinnon was another double winner for the Newton lads in their bid to repeat the 1938 victory. After trimming the field over the hurdles, MacKinnon came through with another five points by winning the 300-yard run in 33.25 seconds. The Newton ace hurdler's effort of 6 seconds over the barriers equalled the meet record. Thus the combined MacKinnon-Pescosolido efforts resulted in 21 points.

The fifth Newton first place was turned in by Fred Hall, probable 1940 captain, who captured the 500 yard run in the excellent time of 1m. 15.45s. In turning this trick the Newton flyer again conquered the Medford ace, Don Reed, for the second consecutive time. The pair met in the same heat in the Class A event at the State meet two weeks previous with Hall proving his superiority.

Bill Woods, who has been developing rapidly as a 1000 yarder for Coach Enoch, ran a nice race to finish second to Dave Blair of Medford. In the mile event George Hutchings, who essayed the longer distance for the first time in competition this winter after consistently scoring in the 1000 yard runs, came through with a second place and another three points for the Newton team. The shotput had no Newton entrant.

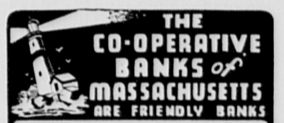

In the relay Coach Enoch used his

SMITH COLLEGE CLUB

The Newton Smith College Club will meet at a buffet luncheon on Tuesday, March 28, at 1:15 at the Brae Burn Country Club in West Newton. Mrs. F. Leslie Ford of Auburndale will talk about recent happenings at Smith in her alumnae council report, and Mrs. Frank Davidson of West Newton will tell latest news from Gilling, a sister college in China. Mrs. Hollis J. Gleason, former president of the alumnae association will speak about the new committee on resources.

There will also be a musicale with 'cello selections by Eleanor Lord and vocal selections by Dorothea Trickey Wells. Mrs. A. Dudley Bach will be the accompanist.

Mrs. Alfred H. Stafford of Waban is in charge of reservations.

YOUR SAVINGS INSURED IN FULL UNDER MASS. LAWS

WOULD YOU DRIVE WITHOUT A SPARE TIRE?

The wise family man needs life insurance for readjustment just as much as his car needs a spare tire. Whether it is all the protection he owns, or simply one policy in a complete life insurance program, it is likely to be the most important factor in his family's financial future—if they ever have to go along without him.

The John Hancock readjustment plan is designed with the idea of continuing the breadwinner's support for a year or more after death. It gives dependents time to prepare for living on a reduced income or for arranging to replace the breadwinner's earnings with their own.

This special protection is within the reach of every man who can earn a comfortable living for his family today. Ask a John Hancock representative about the Readjustment Plan or write for descriptive booklet.

BROTHER FABIAN

Brother Fabian, for many years Superior at the Working Boys' Home, Newton Highlands, died on March 13 after a brief illness with pneumonia. Brother Fabian, who in the world was Patrick J. Lyons, was born at Tallow, County Waterford, Ireland on November 2, 1882. He joined the Xaverian Brothers in 1899 at St. John's School, Danvers and when that Order assumed charge of the Working Boys' Home in 1908 he was assigned to the Newton Highlands institution, and served there two years. He returned in 1915 as Superior of the Home and was in charge of it until 1932, when he was made principal of the boys' school at St. Joseph's parish, Somerville. In 1935 he returned to the Working Boys' Home to again become its Superior.

The hurricane of last September caused considerable damage to the home property, especially the chapel. In the week of rehabilitation, Brother Fabian overtaxed his strength and had a breakdown. He had apparently recovered his health when on March 8 he was stricken with pneumonia and died several days later at St. Elizabeth's Hospital. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Margaret Keene of Lowell. Brother Fabian's funeral service was held at the home chapel on Friday morning at 10 o'clock. The solemn requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Michael O'Connor, chaplain of the home; Rev. Richard Quinlan, supervisor of parochial schools was deacon; and Rev. Frederick Driscoll, sub-deacon. Burial was in St. John's cemetery, Danvers.

ANNIE B. LEONARD

Miss Annie B. Leonard of 2189 Washington st., Newton Lower Falls, died suddenly of cerebral hemorrhage on March 11. She was born in Lower Falls 79 years ago, the daughter of Patrick and Bridget (Early) Leonard. She had been a dressmaker by occupation. Miss Leonard is survived by three nephews, Frank Rotchford, who resided with her; Dr. Richard Rotchford of Springfield; and Hilary Rotchford of Florida. Her funeral service was held on Tuesday at St. John's Church, and burial was in St. Mary's cemetery, Needham.

PONTIAC

WORLD

On no less than 90 great automobile advancements, you'll find the names of Pontiac engineers. And, right there, you have the reason why owners, and other capable judges, rate Pontiac the most trouble-free car in the world: No car on earth is better engineered, and great engineering and true-blue dependability always go together.

For proof, look at Pontiac's record: It's been a long time since Pontiac started to build cars, yet today 81.7% of all Pontiacs ever built are still in daily use. We design our cars to last 100,000 miles, but mileage figures much higher than that are often reported by Pontiac owners. And remember—these are smooth, thrifty, and trouble-free miles.

Priced near the lowest, dependable as the sunrise—isn't that exactly the kind of car that you've been looking for?

State Juniors Compete To Attend Biennial

The preliminary contest for the Travel Scholarship for State Federation Junior Club girls will be held at the Y. W. C. A., Stuart st., Boston, on Saturday, March 18. Luncheon will be at 12:30 p. m., and the contest will begin at 2 o'clock. The winner of the Contest, finals of which will take place at the Annual Junior Conference April 1 at Malden, will represent the Juniors of Massachusetts at the Council Meeting of the General Federation which will be held in San Francisco, California, May 8 to May 14. Mrs. George T. Hart, Jr., chairman of the Senior sponsors, assisted by Mrs. Harold M. Scheibe, is making arrangements for the contest.

The Newton Centre Juniors and the Newtonville Juniors have been hostesses this past week to two Dramatic Contests of several Junior Clubs competing for this honor and pleasure, Newton Centre on the 13th and Newtonville on the 15th of March.

National Parks With Pictures In Color

Mr. R. A. Kirkpatrick will give an illustrated lecture on "Utah-Arizona National Parks" before the Newton Community Club on Thursday, March 23, at 2 p. m., in Underwood School Auditorium. Mr. Kirkpatrick has been associated for many years with nationally prominent organizations which promote recreational areas, forest conservation, wild life protection, and kindred subjects. His travels have taken him into remote places of desert, forest, and stream in the United States, Alaska, and Hawaii. As a speaker, Mr. Kirkpatrick not only commands the attention of his audience by his vivid and dramatic descriptions, but his illustrations are fascinating and of majestic beauty.

To Present "Tom Sawyer"

The wholesome simplicity and humorous naivety of rugged boyhood in "Tom Sawyer" continues to hold the interest and admiration of present-day youth as it did in their grandfather's time for whom that immortal story was written by Mark Twain. Newton boys and girls will have the opportunity to live that mid-Victorian story at the Newton Centre Woman's Club House on Saturday afternoon, April 1, at 2:15 o'clock, when the three-act play "Tom Sawyer" by Charles George, will be presented by

Tickets are priced at 35 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. Mrs. Donald E. Welch, chairman of Tickets, is reserving the first four rows of seats for small children. Reservations for the family should be made with her immediately.

Various Programs And Events Of Interest

Newton Highlands Woman's Club

Basil Mathews, world traveler, author, and lecturer, will be the speaker at the regular meeting of the Woman's Club of Newton Highlands on March 21, at 2:30 p. m., in the Congregational Parish House. Dessert will be served at 1:30 o'clock. Mr. Mathews, who comes to the Club through the courtesy of the Newton Trust Company, has just returned from England, and he has chosen as his subject "The British Foreign Policy in the Remaking of Europe."

The Club is sponsoring a Dance to be held in the Workshop Saturday, March 18, from 9 until 12 p. m. Tickets are $2.50. Further information or reservations may be obtained from Mrs. Elwood Clapp or Mrs. Russell N. Hopkins.

Newtonville Woman's Club

"Keeping Out of the Ruts of Stagnation" suggests a provocative point of view for the address by Professor F. Alexander Magoun to be given at the Newtonville Woman's Club House, Tuesday, March 21, at 2:30 p. m. The speaker is Professor of Humanities at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and his keen knowledge of human nature is gleaned from his many experiences in his progress from a farm boy in his boyhood to his present position as personal confidant and adviser of college men for nearly twenty years. Nicknamed "Magnetic Magoun" by his students, Professor Magoun reaches his audiences through his humor and clear logic and his real gift of helping people to understand themselves and each other.

After the address, tea will be served in Social Hall.

A delightful intimate Tea was given to the members of the Newtonville Woman's Club who had joined the Club during the two years' term of the present president, Mrs. George H. Tracy, at the home of Mrs. Raymond Tucker, 479 Walnut st., Monday, March 6, from 3 to 5 p. m. Helping Mrs. Tucker, the hostess, to serve sandwiches and cakes and pour tea and coffee were members of the Executive Board. The pourers included Mrs. Henry E. Johnson, Mrs. Clarence A. Wentworth, Mrs. Clifford B. Whitney, Mrs. William D. Walker, Mrs. Chester S. Merrill, and Mrs. Raymond A. Green. With the informality of this smaller group, new Club members had an opportunity to chat with their president, Mrs. Tracy, and with the various officers, and to become acquainted with each other.

Waban Woman's Club

Mr. Basil Mathews, of England, and an Oxford graduate, comes to the Waban Woman's Club, March 20, at 2:30 o'clock. Mr. Mathews teaches one semester at Boston University, and comes to the Club through the courtesy of the Newton Trust Company. He will discuss "World Affairs and Relations."

Mrs. Philip Woodbridge will be tea hostess, and Mrs. Russell Burnett and Mrs. David H. Hill will pour.

Newton Upper Falls Woman's Club

The Newton Upper Falls Woman's Club met at the home of Mrs. Walter J. Billings, on Monday, March 6, at 7:30 p. m.

Mrs. Billings greeted her guests in rooms decorated with large bouquets of crimson carnations. The president, Miss Nellie M. Osborne, presided at a short business meeting.

Mrs. Billings, who is the Club's chairman of Public Health, introduced the speaker of the evening, David Lewis, A.B., A.M., and M.D., who spoke on the topic "Health With a Smile." Dr. Lewis described what he considered the importance of vitamins in daily living. Following the talk, Dr. Lewis conducted a forty-five minute question period in which he answered any question on this topic that any one in the audience wished to ask.

Refreshments were served by the Hospitality committee.

The next meeting of the Club will be held in the Emerson School, on March 20, when an illustrated lecture will be given by Mrs. Robert B. Parmenter, a former chairman of Conservation in the State Federation.

Auburndale Review Club

The Auburndale Review Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Guy M. Winslow, 145 Woodland rd., at 10 o'clock, on Tuesday, March 21. The program will consist of papers on the general topic, "Trends in Religious Thinking." Mrs. H. A. Hansen will tell of the "Oxford and Youth Movements"; Miss Anne Buckley describes "Missions"; and Mrs. John E. Williams will review the book, "Twelve Tests of Character," by Harry Emerson Fosdick.

Social Science Club

At the meeting of the Social Science Club on Wednesday, March 22, in Channing Church at 10 a. m., there will be an address by Mrs. H. H. Powers on "The Origin of the Bible." The hostesses will be Mrs. Harriette W. Robinson and Miss Elizabeth S. Fuller.

Newton Centre Woman's Club

Wearing the colorful Scandinavian costumes to illustrate the talk "Scandinavian Blondes in Native Spring Attire," by Mrs. Raymond A. Green, at the Newton Centre Woman's Club Wednesday afternoon, March 22, will be Mrs. Sidney C. Derow, Mrs. A. Harry Hutchinson, Mrs. Thomas J. Starr, Mrs. Franklin C. McCoy, Mrs. Donald E. Welch, and the wee Misses, Nancy Tibbott and Maree Klein, and Masters Teddy Starr and Carol Hoffmann, Jr.

Home-cooked foods will be for sale when the doors are opened at 12:45 o'clock. Folk Songs will be sung by Mrs. John W. Merrill, Mrs. Thomas W. Cunner, and Miss Beatrice Eastman to begin the program at 1:15. Following the program, bridge will be played till tea-time, when tea and kaffee will be served with Scandinavian pastry. Tickets for the lecture may be secured at the door. Reservations for a bridge table must be made in advance.

The Civic and Legislative committee of the Newton Centre Woman's Club presents Mr. Roland Young, assistant to Professor Arthur E. Holcombe, Professor of Government, Graduate School of Public Administration, Harvard University, at 10 o'clock, Thursday morning, March 23. Through his service on various committees in Washington, Mr. Young is well informed on National affairs. This meeting is open to the public without charge with the unusual opportunity to hear a lecturer from the newest of the Harvard Graduate Schools, the School of Public Administration. Coffee will be served.

Auburndale Woman's Club

The International Relations committee of the Auburndale Woman's Club will take charge of the morning program at the next meeting of the Current Events Group which will be held at 11 o'clock on Friday, March 24, in the Lounge of the Auburndale Club House.

The chairman, Mrs. Arthur G. Robinson, who is connected with the Walker Missionary Home, is in close contact with conditions in many of the warring countries across the water and she expects to present as a speaker someone who will have up-to-the-minute news.

It's Common Sense

that you can't get something for nothing, nor can you get good quality at poor quality prices, whether it be clothing, food, rent or laundry work

We could charge a few cents less by hiring our operators on a piece-work basis . . . by using cheap, harsh soaps and cleansing materials . . . by taking short cuts here and there . . . but you'd lose in the end because your clothes wouldn't last as long or look as well, and we'd lose our Reputation, Goodwill and Customers.

At noon there will be the usual box lunches, and coffee will be served. For the afternoon program, Mrs. Edlin Lynn, chairman of the Literature committee, will present one of the Club's newer members, Mrs. Julian Jackson who will review "Three Harbours," by Mason. Mrs. Jackson has had professional training in such presentations.

The Drama committee, under the management of Mrs. Charles Valentine, will close the program with the study of the comedy, "The Convent," by Merman Behr.

This meeting is open to all Club members, and guests are welcome at the usual fee.

West Newton Women's Educational Club

Edith Marshall Clark, novelty instrumentalist, will entertain at the next meeting of the West Newton Women's Educational Club on Friday, March 24, at 2 p. m., in the Unitarian Church Parish House. Mrs. J. Arthur Snyder, Music chairman of the State Federation, will be a special guest.

The Ways and Means committee of the Club announces a Dessert Telephone Bridge to be held on Friday, March 31, at 1:30 p. m., at the following homes: Mrs. G. Howard Frost, 200 Fuller st.; Mrs. Emil Haas, 371 Highland st.; Mrs. Albert E. Herring, 154 Randlett park; Mrs. Francis H. McCrudden, 19 Stoneleigh rd.; all of West Newton; and Mrs. Hermon R. Place, 167 Neholden rd., Waban. Tickets are 50 cents each, and should be ordered at once from the Ways and Means committee; Mrs. Patrick Duncan, chairman; Telephone, West Newton 2917.

The Educational Garden Club of West Newton will meet on Monday, March 20, at 12:30 p. m., with Mrs. B. Howard Lester, 203 Mt. Vernon st. The subject to be studied will be "Making a Garden with Annuals."

The Hobby Class gave a Surprise Party to Mrs. D. Webster Anders, corresponding secretary, on March 7. Mrs. Anders has been ill for several months, and the "Sunshine Basket" which was presented to her at this time brought much happiness to her. Sandwiches, ice-cream, cake, and coffee made the afternoon complete.

Dr. Bancroft Beatley, President of Simmons College, in his talk on "Education" on March 10, at the regular meeting of the Educational Club, urged parents to study the type of college very carefully as well as the tastes and abilities of their child to determine they are suitable to each other. Many times a student does not succeed because he is in the wrong place, sometimes due to sentiment or social reasons, the speaker declared. Dr. Beatley further said that most parents hoped their child would have the intelligence and sufficient maturity to attend college, but that it was not wise to bring a child up with the idea that he must go to college. It might be not valuable as well as a child's life is blighted because he cannot go to college, he added. Education goes on in spite of economic conditions. Parents should consult the guidance department of the High School for information and help, he advised.

Miss Mary Cameron rendered two piano selections for the enjoyable musical feature of the program. Members assisting Mrs. Henry D. Stone with the Food Sale were Mrs. Morgan Hurley, Mrs. Fred H. Fowle, Mrs. Herman R. Place and Mrs. G. Howard Frost.

Pourers at the coffee table were Mrs. Maxwell P. Gaddis and Mrs. Raymond R. Forte. Hostesses were Mrs. Arthur L. Gates and Mrs. George E. Dennett.

Newton Zonta Club

On Monday, March 20, the Newton Zonta Club will meet at 892 Water-town st., West Newton. The program will be a piano recital by Miss Olivia Cate.

The Walker Missionary Home, at 144 Hancock st., Auburndale, extended its hospitality to the Zontians for their meeting on March 6.

In the absence of Grace Lawrence, the secretary, Bertha Putney Dudley was appointed a secretary pro tem.

Announcements concerning the District Conference to be held at the Copley-Plaza Hotel, April 15 and 16, were made in detail. It is hoped Zonta Club members will avail themselves of the opportunity to attend the sessions which will have many inspiring addresses.

To assist in defraying the expenses of the Conference, a Bridge, Tea, and Style Show has been arranged to be held at Filene's, March 18, at 3 o'clock. The Bill before the Legislature, "Shall Married Women Work?" was debated. Mrs. Croa Sadler was appointed, to interview, or to write to, Mr. Arthur Hollis, Newton's State Senator, to state the consensus of opinion of Newton Zonta Club members.

Arranged by the Program chairman, Mrs. Sadler, with her subcommittee, the feature of the evening was a talk by Mrs. Arthur G. Robinson, superintendent of the Walker Missionary Home. Having lived in China for over twenty years, Mrs. Robinson was ably equipped to talk to the Club authentically about "China."

After giving some historical data about the "Home," she spoke briefly of the calamitous condition of China, and of the demolishing of the "Wall of China" and of educational and industrial buildings. The Chinese say now, "Not so bad; now that the Japanese have less to hide behind." Those surviving the dire distress of past months have not lost their courage. Singing as they go on their trek westward, they are planning to make a "New China" in the "Hinterland."

Meantime the Japanese are striving to break down the morale, mind, freedom, and soul of China, but are meeting with vigorous resistance she said.

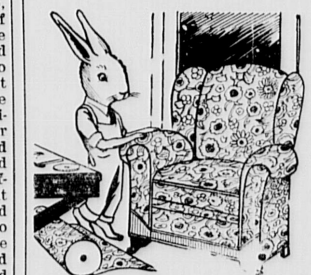

Co-operation is strong among the Chinese. "Virtue, industry, culture, and education are on the march." Nothing is too arduous to attempt for the men and women of China.

"New China" can still "carry on" even if her eastern ports are closed. Honesty, self-respect, service, and justice are paramount in the establishment of the "Hinterland" to the west.

Mrs. Robinson left the Zonta Club audience with a strong impression that China has intrepid spirit which will carry her far toward recovery.

Librarian Did Not Ask More Salary

In last week's GRAPHIC in the article referring to the Mayor's budget recommendations for 1939 it was stated that "Librarian Lucht, who has for several years asked that his salary be increased from $4000 to $4500, and who was given a $100 increase last year, again asks for the $4500 salary, and the Mayor again concurs."

Mr. Lucht has informed the GRAPHIC that neither this year nor in past years did he ask for an increase in salary. The requests were made by the Board of Library Trustees, in whom is vested the executive authority of the Library Department.

Village Players To Present "My Son" Next Fri., Sat.

The well-known little theatre organization, Village Players, will present the third play of its 16th season on Friday and Saturday evenings, March 24th and 25th, at the Unitarian Parish Playhouse, Newton Centre.

The program committee has chosen an unusually interesting drama, "My Son," by Martha Stanley, which had a run of 258 nights in New York when it was first presented in 1924. It has been rarely presented by amateurs. Its setting is on Cape Cod, in a town where the Portuguese colony comprises one half of the inhabitants and the summer colony is rapidly increasing. It is a thoroughly American play.

The cast includes Mrs. Wesley Dynes, Miss Margaret Underhill, Miss Betty Farwell, Miss Anahid Desdigne, Wesley Dynes, Russell Perham, Ivad Strauss, Frank Rossi and Harry Swisher.

Mrs. William F. King of Eastbrook rd., West Newton, will open her home Monday, March 20th, for the March meeting of the Newton Circle Inc., of the Florence Crittenton League. Luncheon will be served at one o'clock. The speaker will be Mr. Benedict Fitzgerald, Supervisor of Music of the Cambridge schools, who will illustrate his talk at the piano.

At a time of year when roads are treacherous and weather conditions constantly changing, it is well to think of safety.

WCOP conducts, in cooperation with the Massachusetts Safety Council, a Highway Safety Campaign.

At regular intervals during the day, bulletins go "on the air" asking listeners who see automobiles being driven in an unusually safe, courteous or intelligent fashion to report the registration number—NOT the driver's name—to WCOP at once, with the time, the place and why the person making the report thinks the driver's act should be recognized.

If, after checking the driver's previous record at the Registry of Motor Vehicles, it is found that he has a good record, WCOP sends him a "Certificate of Merit," suitable for framing.

The campaign has earned WCOP the title of the State's leading "safety station." This paper, naturally, suggests that its readers drive with care.

Virtue not being without its rewards, a WCOP "Certificate of Merit" soon may be forthcoming to some deserving reader of the GRAPHIC.

Heavy, Wet Snow Hard To Plow

The storm which started last Saturday afternoon and continued until Monday morning was the heaviest fall of snow in several years, and the wet condition of the snow made it especially difficult to plow. In addition to using all available trucks owned by the Street Department for plowing the streets and curbing snow, Acting Supt. of Streets McCarthy hired 30 trucks. The 300 Street Department employees were assisted by about 200 men who are receiving welfare aid from the city.

The snow, because of its depth and soggy, caused the formation of deep ruts, and many automobiles became stalled temporarily when they could not be backed out from curbs because of the front wheels having settled into depressions, or the rear wheels twirling rapidly in the damp, slippery snow. The Street Department has many streets because automobiles, parked all night in violation of the city ordinance, impeded the progress of the snowplows.

Recover Body Of Drowned Girl

The body of Helen Orrok, 8, of 35 Kelvedon rd., Waban, who was drowned in the Charles River on January 17, was recovered yesterday. The body was seen floating in the river by two Wellesley boys, Gerald Murray and Austin McCourt, as they were walking along River st., on the Wellesley side of the Charles. Metropolitan police were notified and Sergeant Galvin recovered the body. It was taken to the Newton Hospital morgue. An extensive search had been made for the child's body since she was drowned, and a net had been placed at the Wales st. bridge, just off Washington st., Newton Lower Falls. The body had gone over the dam at the foot-bridge to reach the spot where it was found.

Cars Collide on Icy Newton Streets

Icy streets which were not sanded caused several collisions between automobiles on Newton highways last Thursday and Friday. At 1:30 Thursday afternoon a truck driven by Eldon Wheeler of Berlin skidded on Elm st., West Newton and collided with cars driven by Joseph Yerardi of Harvey pl., West Newton. Yerardi reported that he was injured.

At 2:30 last Thursday afternoon cars driven by William Bransfield of Sumner st., Newton Centre, and Robert Bonner of Albion pl., Newton Centre, collided at Beacon and Walnut sts. Bransfield's car hit the rear of the other automobile when it skidded along the icy surface. Mrs. Agnes Bonner was reported as having been injured.

FORECLOSURE SALE OF REAL ESTATE

Pursuant to a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed dated April 25, 1936, recorded with Middlesex South District Registry of Deeds, Book 5455, page 534, given by Leah L. Ogilvie to Waltham Savings Bank, present holder thereof, for breach of condition of said mortgage and to foreclose the same will be sold at public auction on Tuesday, April 11, 1939, at thirty minutes past nine o'clock in the forenoon, upon the premises hereinafter described, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed therein described substantially as follows:

"A certain parcel of land containing 11.469 square feet, with the buildings thereon situated on the Western side of Garland Road in that part of Newton called Newton Centre, being Lot 81 on a plan drawn by Barnes & Bell, dated December 1925, recorded with Middlesex South District Registry of Deeds, Book 367, page 22, bounded and described as follows: Southeastly by said Garland Road, sixty-five (65) feet; Southwestly by Lots 82 and 83 as shown on said plan, one hundred eighty and 74/100 (180.74) feet; Northwestly in part by land now or formerly of the Newton Cemetery Corporation, sixty-five and 60/100 (65.60) feet, and Northeastly by Lot 80 as shown on said plan, one hundred seventy-one and 91/100 (171.91) feet. The premises are conveyed subject to restrictions of record so far as now in force and applicable to the granted premises, and to taxes assessed as of April 1, 1936."

The premises will be sold subject to any and all unpaid taxes, tax titles and municipal liens and assessments thereon. A cash payment of three hundred ($300) dollars will be required from the purchaser at the time and place of sale. Other terms will be announced at the sale.

DOG NOTE
by PETER BOGGS

About this time each year we discuss what is the most popular breed of dog in America. The American Kennel Club's registrations for the year 1938 show the Cocker Spaniel in first place for the fourth consecutive year among the number of dogs registered. Although the A. K. C. figures are not definite proof of the popularity of one breed over another, they are the most reliable index known.

Figures show that second place, also for the fourth consecutive year is held by the Boston Terrier. 16,844 Cocker spaniels were registered in 1938 followed by 8,257 Boston Terriers, 6,866 Scotties, 5,997 Fox Terriers, and 5053 Beagles. These first five breeds have remained precisely in the same order for the last four years.

Dog popularity like fashions changes with the years. Once it was the Dalmatian, or Coach Dog, which was America's favorite. The Boxer also at one time had many admirers. It is interesting to look back and note the different breeds which have held the honor of being the country's most popular. Right after the World War the German Shepherd dog ranked as the most popular breed, probably because of the great amount of publicity they received for their role with the armies of the world during this conflict.

In 1930 the Shepherd began to lose its hold on the public's imagination and relinquished first place to the Boston Terrier, which in turn was displaced by the Cocker as number one breed in 1934. At the present time the Shepherd is in 20th place. But there is one record that the Shepherd holds which will be hard to beat. In 1926 this breed set an all time high for registrations with 21,596.

Went by Red Light, Found Not Guilty

Achilles De Serres, 58, of Main st., Attleboro, was found not guilty by Judge Mayberry in the Newton court last Thursday of driving a car so as to endanger the safety of the public. Traffic Officer O'Donnell testified that on December 28 De Serres drove his car past a traffic signal at Beacon and Walnut sts., Newton Centre when the red light was against him, and at a rate of speed of 30 miles an hour. De Serres admitted that O'Donnell's estimate of the speed was correct. De Serres' car hit an automobile driven by Colburn Hardy of Wellesley and in the crash De Serres' right knee-cap was fractured. Judge Mayberry found De Serres not guilty of driving to endanger, and commented that Patrolman O'Donnell had proved a clear case of passing through a red light.

Built for ACTION-PRICED the same way!

The model illustrated is the Buick Special, model #1 four-door touring sedan $990, delivered at Flint, Mich.

$894 and up delivered at Flint, Mich. Subject to change without notice. Transportation, state and local taxes (if any), optional equipment and accessories—extra.

FIRST time we saw the blueprints for this Buick thirty-niner we knew we had something pretty special for folks who like action in their travels.

It had eight eager cylinders in a mighty Dynaflex engine—and they could make a scared jack rabbit eat dust whenever the word was given!

It had a ride we promptly dubbed "full float"—its stout coiled springs are now 15% softer in the rear, and hooked up, in front, with Knee-Action that banks curves for you.

It had a view, a gorgeous view, from windows and windshields as much as 412 square inches bigger—and it had style that has already altered the pattern on many another carstylist's drawing board.

So we looked it all over—and went a step further. We decided a car so plainly meant for action needed to have a price that would get action for it!

Now it isn't easy to build such a traveler—rich in reliable Buick quality clear down to the metals it's made of—and still give it a price that rubs elbows with the sixes.

But just look around, match up the price tags, and you'll find that this great straight-eight lists for less than some cars with two fewer cylinders!

It comes complete with equipment that's extra in many another instance—yet the figures still read lower than on Buick of a year ago.

So when you see this Buick you not only see the car, but the one big value of the year. That's why we're anxious to have you try Buick—it's a car with a winning way about it, and a winning price tag in the bargain!

"Better buy Buick!"

SECTION II

March 17, 1939

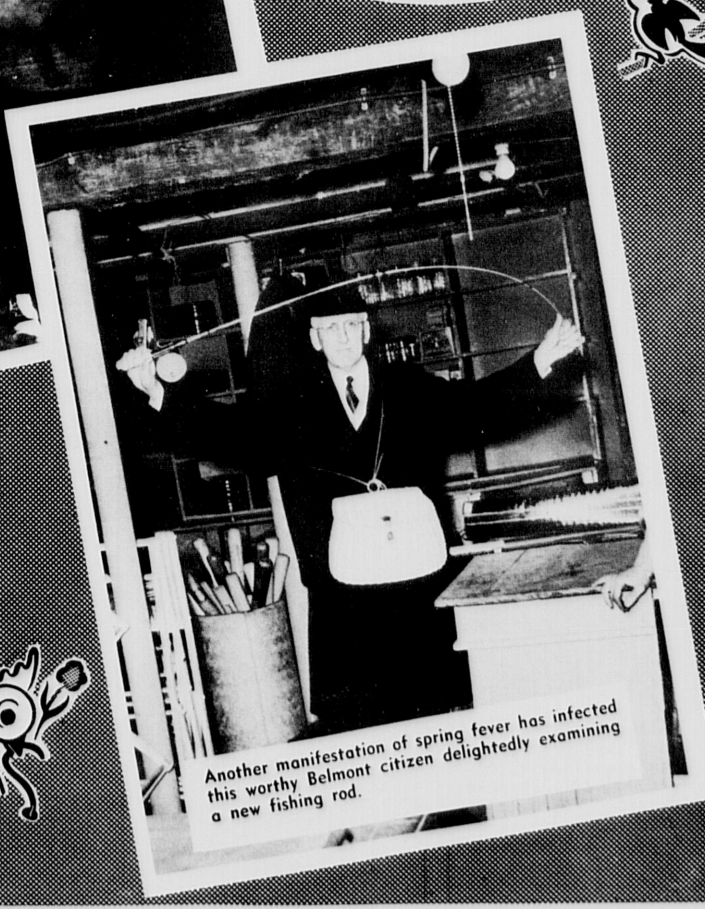

The first sign of spring is an excellent time to start shooting marbles, think these Brookline Village children.

This young Wellesley swain agrees that in spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love.

Sandlot baseball makes its inevitable appearance at this time as is evidenced by the game in progress in Newton (above) and the serious business of choosing up sides which holds the attention of the Needham lads (below).

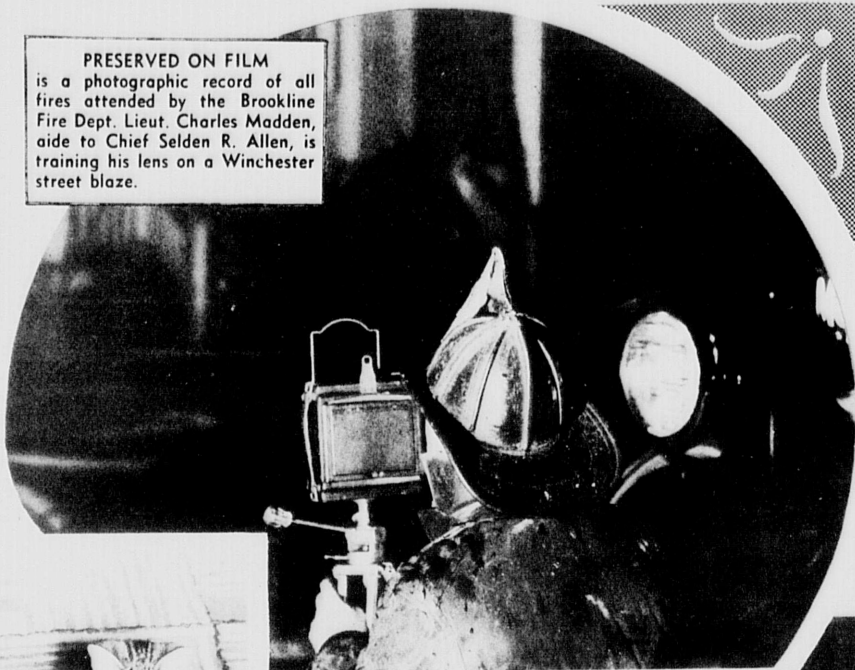

Another manifestation of spring fever has infected this worthy Belmont citizen delightedly examining a new fishing rod.

A SURPRISED SCOTCHMAN was John McIntosh of Wellesley when the four Grant brothers, bagpipers of Newton Lower Falls appeared at the testimonial luncheon tendered him by the Wellesley Kiwanis Club on his last day as a Selectman of the town—a post he has held for nine years.

PRESERVED ON FILM
is a photographic record of all fires attended by the Brookline Fire Dept. Lieut. Charles Madden, aide to Chief Selden R. Allen, is training his lens on a Winchester street blaze.

MR. AND MRS. HENRY SCHOENFELD of School street, Belmont, recently observed their Golden Wedding Anniversary amid the congratulations of their many friends and neighbors.

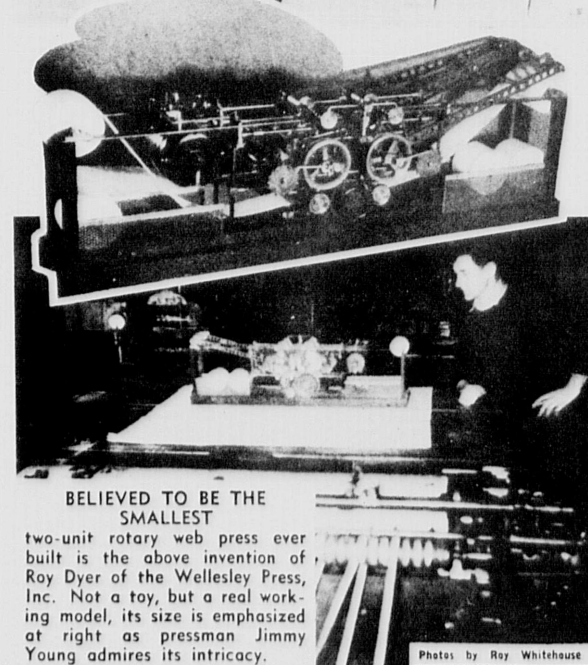

"WHAT GOES ON HERE?"
asks the bewildered kitten as Kenneth Watson of Needham snaps the shutter.

"THESE OUGHT TO BE GOOD," say Donald McCarthy and Roland A. MacGowan both of Belmont as they look over some of the new books in the library.

A STUDY IN CONCENTRATION is this group of busy little children with their teacher at Nursery School in Auburndale.

BELIEVED TO BE THE SMALLEST
two-unit rotary web press ever built is the above invention of Roy Dyer of the Wellesley Press, Inc. Not a toy, but a real working model, its size is emphasized at right as pressman Jimmy Young admires its intricacy.

Crosby, Timothy Good, Jr., A. C. Lockhart, Chas. Napoli, Wayne Donaldson, E. J. Cullington, Herbert Keys, F. C. Poor and C. F. Merrow.

Great pals are Miss Dorothy Chase of Benton road, Belmont, and her chow, Moy.

at Wellesley College is equipped with windows below the surface of the water so that spectators may view under-water action.

The model of the "Queen Mary" above was built to scale by Waller Mowll of Needham in a period of a year. Powered by two electric motors attached to its screws, it is complete in every detail right down to replicas of the winch motors used to lower the life boats. Its overall length is five feet, four inches. Mr. Mowll is now building a model of the "Queen Elizabeth" entirely of metal plates.

SYMPOSIUM OF POLITICAL PHILOSOPHIES DRAWS LARGE CROWD

Hundreds were turned away for lack of space as over 2,000 jammed the Newton High School auditorium as three leading exponents of opposing political philosophies engaged in heated debate.

"I have two more minutes to go, not one—I've been watching the clock," Lawrence Dennis, at left, informs the timekeeper, Mr. Dennis represented the "Fascist Way."

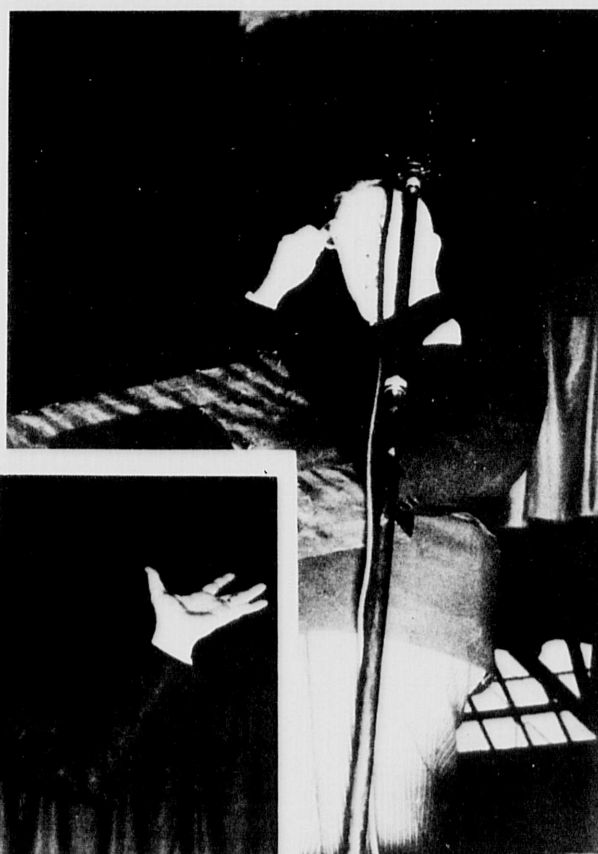

Earl Browder, last Communist Party Presidential Nominee, throws up his hands in defense of Communism as he orates at the Newton Community Forum.

Starting a familiar gesture as he defends the "American Way" against Fascism and Communism is former Governor Joseph B. Ely at right.

The speakers were introduced by Prof. Kirtley F. Mather, president of the Newton Community Forum which has gained renown for the quality of its sessions.

Spring Housecleaning Here Again

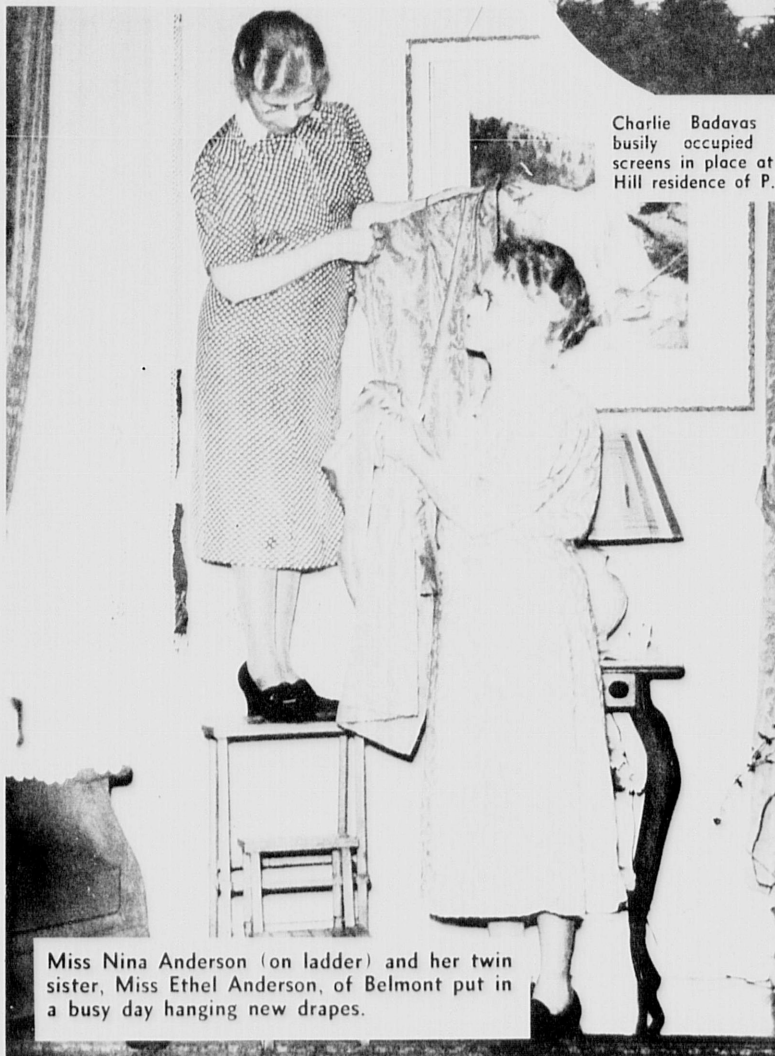

Mrs. Louis B. Avanzini of Needham goes into action with damp cloth and cleaning powder in order to restore the painted woodwork to a gleaming white.

Mrs. Page Sanderson of Newtonville cleaning winter clothing preparatory to summer storage.

Charlie Badavas finds himself busily occupied putting the screens in place at the Chestnut Hill residence of P. G. Contas.

Miss Nina Anderson (on ladder) and her twin sister, Miss Ethel Anderson, of Belmont put in a busy day hanging new drapes.

Forrest N. Adams of Wellesley decides that the best way of ridding the cellar of a winter's accumulation is to take it out and burn it.

Chest Pledges Increase In Number; Support Still Needed Says Harwood

Agencies Now Must Obtain Approval of Chest Officials Before Individual Money-Raising Drives Can Be Started

A steady increase in the number of contributors to the Newton Community Chest for the past four years was reported by A. Leslie Harwood, Jr., President of the Chest, at its annual meeting held last night at the Newton Centre Women's Club. The 1938 campaign obtained 15,588 pledges compared with 8,676 in 1934, an increase of 79 per cent. Mr. Harwood pointed out, however, that the Chest failed to reach its goal by 3 per cent, and declared "that the Chest must enlist the support of an even greater number of contributors to its next campaign."

"These Newton social agencies," he said, "play an essential part in the welfare of the community and their support must be on a community-wide basis. Newton is becoming more and more a cosmopolitan city, and it is the task of the Chest to win to its support the entire community. We must retain the support of all our old friends, and also obtain that of those who have more recently come to live in Newton."

The following officers of the Chest were elected for the coming year: President, A. Leslie Harwood, Jr.; First Vice President, Most Reverend Francis J. Spellmann, D.D.; Second Vice President, Mrs. William Albert Gallup; Treasurer, Maynard Hutchinson; Clerk, Kenneth S. May, Jr.; Directors elected were Durham Jones, Mrs. Louis W. Arnold, Mrs. Frank A. Day, Jr., Mrs. Maynard Hutchinson, Miss Dorothy L. Simpson, Frank L. Richardson, Metcalf W. Melcher, Frank A. Day, Ronald W. Cordingley, Raymond D. Hunting, Sidney Rabino-vitz and Clifford H. Walker.

Members of the Nominating Committee were Charles D. Dasey, Chairman, Mrs. Paul E. Ellicker, Mrs. Lucius P. Thayer, Mr. Kivie Kaplan, and Gen. Daniel Needham.

Dana S. Sylvester, Chairman of the Chest Publicity Committee, urged the need of a persistent program of public education regarding the work of the Chest. Other reports were made by L. A. Bruce, Jr., Executive Director, and Maynard Hutchinson, Treasurer.

The question of money-raising activities during the year by Chest agencies has been studied by a committee consisting of Kenneth S. May, Chairman, Mrs. L. Sumner Pruyn and Mr. George L. White. Pointing out there had been some complaint by citizens that agencies had conducted many money-raising activities despite the fact that one of the major reasons for the Chest Campaign was "one Campaign instead of 14," the committee stated that rules and regulations were established last January which will in the future govern such activities by agencies.

Many Chest agencies, the committee reported, like the Scouts, have within them units which receive no financial aid from the Chest. Such units need to raise small amounts to finance their activities. Under these rules now prescribed no money raising may now be undertaken until a permit has been granted by the Chest Committee. "This procedure," says the committee, "has resulted in increased long-range planning by agencies and materially re-

Graphic Broadcast Over Station WCOP

The next broadcast of news for Newton, based on material appearing in the columns of this week's issue of The Graphic, will be heard over WCOP, Boston, Sunday afternoon at 4:30 p. m.

Many enthusiastic comments on the program — "The NEWTON GRAPHIC ON THE AIR" have reached officials of WCOP and the editorial staff of The Graphic.

The Graphic cordially invites residents of Newton to tune to WCOP Sunday afternoon at 4:30 — the program is one intended especially for Newton people. The news content is both interesting and enlightening.

The broadcasts have been called "one of the strongest actual demonstrations of the theory that radio and the newspapers CAN get along well together—if they have the chance."

Ralph L. Blanchard, Administrative Director of the Community Chests and Councils, Inc., of New York City, will be the speaker at the Annual Meeting of the Newton Community Council held Tuesday, March 28, at the Newton Centre Women's Club.

Legion Asks Mayor To Adopt 10-Year Retirement Law

A committee from Newton Post, American Legion, composed of members who are employees of the City of Newton, awaited on Mayor Childs last week and asked him to notify the Secretary of State that this city will accept the law whereby any employee of the City of Newton who has the status of a "disabled veteran" may be retired on a pension at half-salary after 10 years of service, or after 30 years of service if they have not the "disabled" status. This law was enacted several years ago and any city or town may accept it upon request by the Mayor or Board of Selectmen.

The committee which called on Mayor Childs was composed of Arthur R. McCarthy of the Newton Fire Department, chairman; Lieut. Edward Moan and Patrolman John Foley of the Police Department; Joseph J. Ward of the Trade School, and J. Edward Theriault of the Public Buildings Department. The committee informed the Mayor that they knew of only one case where application might be made at present, and that concerns one employee who is in a hospital. The mayor said he would consider the matter. Last year a similar request was made by a committee from the Newton Veterans' Council.

Night Trucking On Bacon Street Taboo

The use of narrow Bacon st. at Newton as a detour by huge inter-state trucks during wee morning hours will be forbidden in the future. The Board of Aldermen on Monday night passed a traffic ordinance forbidding trucks of over 2 tons capacity from traveling over Bacon st. or on Pearl st. between Centre and Bacon between the hours of 8 p. m. and 7 a. m. The Pearl st. restriction was included so that the big trucks will not be operated on Peabody, Channing or Thornton sts., now that they are forbidden on Bacon st.

About 3 years ago a traffic ordinance was passed forbidding large trucks on Watertown st. during the night hours. Shortly after many of the drivers of these huge freight cars started to detour over Bacon and Pearl sts. from Washington to Centre st., and thence toward Watertown. Many trucks would pass over Bacon st. between the hours of 8 and 10 at night to avoid the traffic signal at Newton Corner. And between the hours of 3 and 5 a. m. a regular stream of big trucks and trailers would be driven over narrow Bacon st. There is a sharp right turn at Pearl st. and the changing of gears on the big motor trucks.

Newton Aldermen Favor Gasoline Tax Distribution

Authorize Finance Committee To Attend State House Hearing

The Newton Board of Aldermen went on record Monday night as favoring the diversion of $10,000,000 from the revenue received by the State from the tax on gasoline to cities and towns. Chairman McKay of the Finance Committee said that it is estimated that $28,000,000 will be received by the State from the tax on gasoline, and that if $10,000,000 will be diverted for the benefit of cities and towns, Boston and other cities badly in need of financial aid will benefit. He said that last year Newton obtained $121,000 from the State, and this year will probably get $242,000 from the gasoline tax, which should result in lowering the tax burden to the extent of $1.50. He moved that the Finance Committee be authorized to attend the hearing at the State House on Thursday, March 23, and favor the diversion of $10,000,000 from the gasoline tax.

The drill corps of Gethsemane Community are sponsoring a series of these monthly union Masonic meetings, April and May announcements will be given later.

Commends Members of Newton Police

The following letter was received recently by Chief Hughes of the Newton police in commendation of Inspectors Burke and Hammell and Traffic Officer McHugh.

The Fiske Corporation

Natick, Mass.

Chief of Police
Newton, Mass.

Dear Sir:

Being involved in an accident today I had occasion to visit police headquarters and I want to take this opportunity to commend you in the type of men you have in your department.

While my experience with police departments in official business has been limited, I want to tell you I have never come in contact with a more courteous AND friendly group of officers. I think they are really outstanding. Newton should be very proud of them as I know you must be.

Believe me, I will never forget the kindly treatment I received today and will always give the N.P.D. a boost when I can.

Sincerely yours,
Signed, WALTER DUNN.

Name Newtonville Library Honoring John R. Prescott

Naming Revealed At Saturday Exercises; Prescott Lays Cornerstone

The exercises in connection with the laying of the cornerstone of the branch library at Newtonville last Saturday afternoon revealed the fact that the new building will bear the name "John R. Prescott Library" in honor of Mr. Prescott who is a member of the Newton Board of Assessors. Mr. Prescott, who is 86 years old, has been a member of the Board of Assessors for 39 years. He wrote a booklet titled "Suburban Living at Its Best," a brief history and description of the City of Newton. The profits made from the sale of this book, $1504, Mr. Prescott donated toward the fund for the purchase of the site where the library building is being erected. In addition to the unusual honor of naming a public building after a living person, Mr. Prescott was also given the honor of laying the cornerstone.

George W. Taylor, president of the trustees of the Newtonville Library Association, presided at the exercises which were attended by several hundred persons. Mayor Childs announced that he would name the library in honor of Mr. Prescott, and President Charles B. Floyd of the Newton Board of Aldermen lauded the citizens of Newtonville who had contributed toward the purchase of the library site.

Before the cornerstone was sealed a copper box was deposited in it. This box contained copies of Newton and Boston newspapers, clippings relating to the library, photographs of the trustees of the Newtonville Library Association, copies of Mr. Prescott's books, a list of city officials, and literature issued during the campaign to raise funds for the library.

Aldermen Make Fourth Request Of Mayor To Abolish Police Position

Investigating Committee Reports Office of Sgt.-Mechanic Unnecessary; Believes Chief Should Buy Supplies and Equipment

For the fourth time in as many years a committee of the Newton Board of Aldermen recommended at the meeting of the Board last Monday night that the office of "Sergeant-Mechanic" in the police department be abolished. Alderman Inches, chairman of the special committee, appointed nearly two years ago to investigate the work performed by the Sergeant-Mechanic read the following statement:

The duties now performed by this officer with relation to the repair of cars and equipment are such that it is not necessary that they be performed by a member or officer of the Department. They could be done by a person who would be regarded as an employee of the department. The department now has some such employees, such as janitors, clerks, stenographers, matron, etc.

The bulk of the repair work is now in fact done by an assistant. The Chief of Police feels it all could be done by one man. No extra men are employed when this officer or the assistant is on vacation. Consequently, the continuance of the services of this officer is not necessary and could be dispensed with in the interests of economy.

Insofar as this offer purchases supplies and equipment, it is the opinion of this committee that such purchases should not be made by a subordinate officer but should be made by the Chief. The responsibility for the proper conduct of the Department is primarily the Chief's, and having the proper equipment is a matter which has directly to do with the proper functioning of the Department. All purchases of equipment, therefore, in the opinion of this Committee should be conducted under the direct supervision and control and by the direct action of the Chief himself, who could do this together with his present duties at no additional expense to the city.

For these and other reasons this committee believes that the office of Sergeant-Mechanic should be abolished in the interests of sound economy and efficient and economic administration of the Police Department, expenditures for which come within the appropriating power and financial control of the Board.

Alderman McKay, chairman of the Finance Committee, commented that something along this same line had been recommended the preceding three years when the annual budget was under discussion. He quoted from the reports made in 1936 and 1937 by the then chairman of the Finance Committee, Ex-Alderman Bowen, and from the 1938 report made by himself.

1936 Finance Committee Report

"The Police Department gives us considerable concern. We believe that closer supervision should be given to the department by both the chief and the captain, and greater discipline insisted upon which will result in increased efficiency. We find that the police cars have not been satisfactorily cared for and washed and if the sergeant-mechanic and his assistant are not able to do this work under the present set-up, then the office should be abolished and the work given out on private contract."

1937 Finance Committee Report

"The sergeant-mechanic has been given the authority to purchase the supplies of the department, including radio equipment. These were formerly bought by the chief. The practice is followed in other departments of having the department head make and be responsible for all purchases. We believe that the Mayor should return the power to purchase supplies to the chief and this should not be delegated to another member of the department. For several years the Finance Committee in considering matters relating to the Police Department has sensed that the present

McKay Suggests Mayor Submit Budget Earlier

One-Quarter of Fiscal Year May Now Pass Before Department Heads Know Their Budget

Alderman Donald McKay, chairman of the Finance Committee of the Board of Aldermen, at the meeting of the Board on Monday night urged that the annual budget be prepared as soon after January 1st as possible, so that it could be passed earlier in the year. McKay said:

I move that we adjourn until Monday, March 27th, at 8 p. m., at which time the Finance Committee will be ready to report on the budget. It is our suggestion that the board take our report under consideration for one week and act upon it formally at the regular meeting April 3rd. This will give the board and the public an opportunity to study the recommendations, particularly the Taxpayers Association, with whom representatives of the Public Works and Finance Committee have been in consultation. At this time we would like to comment on the method of adopting a budget. The calendar year is our fiscal year. The law provides that the mayor present his budget within sixty days after January 1st, and further provides that the Board of Aldermen

Elderly Woman Severely Burned

Miss Catherine Fallon, 76, of 399 Centre st., Newton, was severely burned on the head, face and arms on Wednesday noon when her clothing became ignited. The aged woman was smoking a cigarette to relieve an attack of asthma when her clothing caught fire. Mrs. Rose Nodell of 137 Charlesbank rd., Newton, was in the kitchen of the Fallon apartment on the fourth floor of the Weld Building when she saw the reflection of flames from the living room where Miss Fallon was sitting. She rushed to the rescue and extinguished the fire by dashing water on the burning clothing and chair, and beating the flames with her hands. Much of Miss Fallon's hair was burned off her head, and Mrs. Nodell received slight burns on her hands. In addition to the chair in which Miss Fallon was seated, a window curtain was also burned. A telephone call brought Engines 1 and 8 and Ladder 3.

Miss Fallon refused to go to the hospital, and after receiving first aid from the firemen, she received treatment from Dr. John Kervokian of Watertown. She has been a life-long resident of Newton and resides with her brother, John Fallon, at the Centre st. address.

Newton Hospital Dessert Bridge to Be Held Mar. 29

Many reservations are coming in for the dessert bridge which the Newton Hospital Aid is sponsoring for Wednesday afternoon, March 29th at 1:30 in the nurses' home of the hospital. Since the home has been recently completed and has not been thus shown previously there is more than the usual interest in the bridge of which Miss Maida Flanders of 12 Lake ter., Newton Centre, is chairman.

The Newton Hospital Aid Association, an organization which came into being in 1885, to help start the Cottage Hospital, has grown until the membership today numbers almost 600 women of Wellesley and Newton, the hospital serving both communities.

Through the building of the new hospital in 1929 to the present day when the nurses' home, a substantial brick building on the hill to the left of the main hospital and back of the original cottage building, has just been completed the Hospital Aid members have given active co-operation.

Even a partial list of what the Aid has done in those years gives a fair idea of its usefulness to the hospital. From 1885 to 1905 the Aid maintained a free bed, gave toward the endowment fund, gave furnishings for contagious and private wards, a room in the nurses' home, general repairs, wheel chairs, bedding screens, plus $10,000 for the new kitchen and balcony.

From 1905 to 1925 the Aid raised money for the hospital subway, for an x-ray, for sterilizers, for the eye clinic, for nurses to take training in New York, and in addition continued to maintain the free bed, supply newspapers, establish a loan fund and scholarship, spend $1000 for linens, furnish 7 rooms in the Porter ward, purchase bath tables for babies, and pay for much equipment and furnishing.

Ten thousand dollars was raised between 1925 and 1930 for the hospital Aid, some of which went for a portable x-ray machine. From 1930 until the present time even greater help has been given by the Aid as $25,000 was pledged and paid toward the new hospital and $5000 for the new nurses' home, while continuing the many helpful works that had been started in earlier years.

The Aid's usual way of making its funds and its chief activity is its Benefit Shop at 795 Washington st., Newtonville. Mrs. Francis Williams, of Newton Centre, is the shop director and presides most capably, assisted by members of the Aid, each village of Newton and Wellesley in turn sending helpers three days of the week. The shop is open from 2 to 4:30 on Mondays; Wednesday and Friday the hours are 10 a. m. to 12 a. m. The Aid feels that it has been of real help to many in these lean years by supplying good used articles at a minimum price, and has rendered a much needed social service.

Mrs. Maynard Hutchinson of Temple st., West Newton, is president of the Newton Hospital Aid and preside include Mrs. Charles B. Floyd, Mrs. Pitt F. Drew, Miss Mary C. Saw-need not be completed in the first week or two of January. The tax rate need not be established until April or May, but policies should be definitely fixed at the earliest possible moment.

1939 is an example. A year ago the Finance Committee pointed out that the increased rates for 1938 and 1939 should be equalized as far as possible by having an adequate budget in 1938. It was, however, far from adequate. Members of the committee publicly stated months ago that the 1939 rate could be up to $4.00 higher. Ample evidence indicated it. The substantial reductions which the board will be asked to approve may be more difficult for some departments to effect after three months' operation than if they had been advised early in January. For that reason the committee has acted as quickly as possible. It will report twenty-one days after receiving its assignment.

Food and Drink Loot of Burglars

Two burglaries reported to the Newton police last Friday evidently were made by burglars who were either hungry or thirsty. One break was at the Okemo Cafe Kitchen, 755 Beacon st., Newton Centre. The cash register was broken into but it contained no money. As a consolation prize the thief ate part of an appetizing cake and part of an apple pie.

The second burglary reported was at the beer and wine dispensary of Benedetto Generazio at 100 Needham st., Newton Highlands. From that place six gallons of wine were stolen. It was the third time in the past year that a break had occurred at this luncheon.

More Burglaries In The Newtons

The apartment of Florence Knowlton at 457 Washington st., Newton was entered over the weekend and jewelry valued at several hundreds of dollars stolen. Entrance was effected by means of a skeleton key. Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Gordon of 449 Commonwealth ave., Newton Centre returned to their home on Sunday night to find that it had been entered and looted during their absence on a trip to Florida. The loot included a quantity of silverware, two fur coats, a clock and a radio.

THE NEWELL CLUB

The March fourteenth meeting of the Newell Club was held at the home of Mrs. Ralph Patterson, 23 Plymouth rd., Wellesley Hills, with the president presiding.

Eva Munn Fernald, a graduate of the Curry School of Expression gave an illustrated lecture entitled "From Vancouver to the Land of the Midnight Sun."

Ten were served by the assisting hostesses, Mrs. Thomas V. Cleveland, Mrs. Donald L. Gibbs and Mrs. William Keohane.

Letters To The Editor

"BEHIND CLOSED DOORS"

To the Editor:

Since the Newton Health Department has gone on record, as favoring the bottom of the Massachusetts Civil Service list of qualified physicians for the Newton schools, and ignoring the first two ranking candidates, of whom R. A. Pavone, M.D., of 192 Crafts st., Newtonville, was the ranking physician with an unbelievable final average of 96.20 per cent, many tongues have started to wag throughout the Newtons. This is evidenced in many newspapers by the articles expressing various citizens' individual viewpoint relative to the recent "faux-pas" of our Health Department, which heretofore held the esteem and admiration of all Newtonians. "Today this is no more so."

The average Newton citizen knows, my dear Newton Health Department, that you have not given full faith or credit to those who have maintained the highest standards, and they hope that you will give him or her enough credit for having sufficient intelligence to fully realize and appreciate the fact that you have put the cart before the horse. You can not tell us, and we do sincerely hope that you will not attempt to, that the bottom of any competitive list, especially the Massachusetts Civil Service Competitive Examination list, which needs no encomium relative to fairness, soundness and scrupulousness, has the most capable and talented candidates.

Then why did you toss to our school children that part of the list? We can not try as we will, decipher your illogical deduction. Is this some new creation in doing things backward or a metaphysical corollary? We do not wish to hound you any more regarding your irregularities relative to the recent appointments for school physicians. We think by now that you are quite aware of them. However, the wrong done to us citizens can always be undone, for we like to forgive and forget. By giving the two candidates who ranked first and second on the list, and who were unceremoniously "dumped," what they earned fairly, not by chance or luck, but by zeal, hard work, pluck and God's blessings.

Sincerely yours,
JOHN A. SCIPIONE,

Rotary Club

An important announcement was that of the Revere charter night meeting on Tuesday, April 18. Boston is the sponsoring club.

The program was sponsored by Lou Haffner, who introduced Joe Garside, a Rotarian from Canton, Manager of the E. W. Wiggins Airways, Inc., Secretary of the Massachusetts State Aviation Association, and on the staff of "Yankee Pilot," "Magazine of Eastern Aviation." Mr. Garside gave an excellent talk on aviation as it affects you and I, and as it will continue to affect us in the future.

His story was not that of the romantic test pilot or war ace, but rather an interesting proof that the aviation industry has definitely grown up. Mr. Garside explained that aviation has two distinct departments, the scheduled flights and the unscheduled flights. The scheduled flights are those of the great airline companies and government flights, while the unscheduled flights are those that are made by our next-door neighbor and the ones that you and I will be making shortly.

The fact that aviation securities are playing an important part in investment and a goodly number of the larger concerns use mileage script for their salesmen and executives makes one feel sure that aviation is definitely here to stay.

The important need to promote aviation at this point is more landing fields. An important development along this line is the landing strip, or flight strip, which means a set strip of land along the main highway probably 200 feet wide by 1800 feet long which will give planes an opportunity to land whenever necessary. These should be built and maintained on the same basis on which the public roads are at the present time. One important feature of having more people flying would be a relief in the congestion of traffic conditions on the highways.

The majority of accidents in aviation today are the result of the human element rather than the mechanical element. This means that all we need is practice. Let's not find ourselves in the position of the man in 1900 who gave up his automobile because the industry had no future.

Girl Scouts

The Auburndale Girl Scouts are giving their yearly entertainment at Winslow Hall, the new auditorium of Lasell Junior College, on Friday evening, March 31, at 7:30. It is to be a cabaret, the theme of which is to be a trip to various foreign countries for a festival day. The girls of the Marine Ship Nantucket, will pilot the cruise ship and each troop and brownie pack will represent one of the nations to be visited. During intermissions flowers and refreshments will be sold, and following the entertainment there will be dancing.

The Newton Local Council of Girl Scouts met at 10:00 a. m. Tuesday, March 21 with Mrs. Horace Kidger, Mrs. Ralph Emery and Mrs. Norman Wade serving coffee. Following reports by committee chairmen there was discussion of summer plans for Camp Mary Day. Special consideration was given to applications for an operating staff. Girl Scouts interested in attending camp this summer can get information at Girl Scout Headquarters, 297 Walnut st., Newtonville.

Diversification of interest is always present in activities of Newton Girl Scouts. Troop 20, meeting at the Newton Y. M. C. A., at its last meeting made a study of trees, and taking a walk as part of the study were able to identify ten kinds of trees on Church st. And Troop 1, meeting at St. John's Church, Newtonville, has a book guessing contest with each girl dressed as the name of a book to be guessed. Prizes for the most original costumes went to Mary McManus, Joan Brown and Joan Richards.

AMERICAN BANK WOMEN

The New England Division of American Bank Women will hold its monthly meeting on Thursday, March 23rd, at the Junior League House in Boston following a dinner.

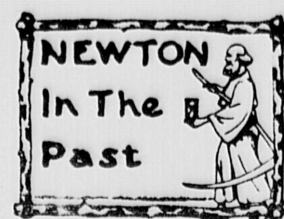

Mr. Roland F. Gammons, president of the West Newton Savings Bank, and Mr. William M. Cahill, treasurer of the Newton Trust Company, will address the meeting on pertinent banking problems.

The second leanyear's party at Cole's Hall, Newton, on Wednesday evening was much better attended than the first one. Evidently they are gaining in favor, especially among the gentlemen.

A Ward 1 man came home to dinner the other day and found his wife and the best of the furniture gone. He was greatly surprised, but finally decided that he was better off than the day before.

The bill allowing the Boston & Albany railroad to build the Newton Circuit branch has passed both branches of the Legislature, but has not yet been enacted. It will come to the Governor for approval the middle of next week.

Charles Ward Post of the G. A. R. added 3 members at its last meeting. It is estimated that about half of all the ex-soldiers in this city belong to the Post, which is free from debt and has a balance in its treasury.

The Boston & Albany railroad is putting wooden blocks in the angles of all frogs and between the second rails of all switches for the purpose of preventing loss of life among its brakemen. The blocks are low enough to allow car wheels to pass over them without touching, but high enough to prevent brakemen from having their feet caught while switching cars. The cost of this work will be small, and the annual saving in lives and limbs of employees will be great.

The building fund of Pomroy Home for Children on Hovey st. has reached $6000 and members of the soliciting committee feel greatly encouraged. It is desired to raise $15,000.

Rev. Dr. Furber of Newton Center is slowly recovering from the effects of the injuries received when he was thrown from his sleigh some weeks since.

The burglary at Knapp's grocery store on Station st., Newton Centre, on Tuesday night, when two professional burglars drilled two holes in the safe and stole $47, naturally raises the question—"Where were the police?" It is said they were watching a house where a drunken man was raising a disturbance, and so had no time to look for such small game as burglars. Some people think it would be more profitable if the police would devote less time to drunks and more to public security.

The death records for 1883 show that February was the healthiest month of that year in Newton; only 11 deaths occurring during that month. August was the worst month; there were 39 deaths in the city during that period.

A joint stock company is being formed to build a $75,000 hotel on Grove Hill park at Newtonville and there is no doubt about the money being raised. The hotel will command a magnificent view in every direction and boating privileges on Bulbough Pond will be attached to the hotel. Extensive grounds will be provided and the hotel should be a credit to this city and add to the prosperity of Newtonville. The Walnut st. branch of the proposed electric street railway will pass close to the hotel.

Divers were at work in the river at Auburndale on Wednesday and Thursday in an effort to recover the body of Miss Lucy Handy.

The question as to what shall be done with boys who are expelled from school is troubling the police and the truant officer. They cannot be arrested as truants and to have them coming at will about the streets is neither advantageous for them nor the community. There is need for an amendment to the truant laws so that boys who are so disobedient that their presence cannot be tolerated in school, can be taken care of and placed where they will be made to obey. Boys with whom moral suasion is a failure, need a liberal dose of corporal punishment, either from their parents or their teachers, and in this respect the old-fashioned methods were better than the present ones.

Edward H. Powers' Paragraphs

A few weeks ago a Harvard student gained fame (of a sort) by swallowing a small goldfish. The publicity he obtained has caused other college youths to imitate him, so swallowing goldfish has become more or less commonplace. Now if some college boy in search of notoriety wants to perform a real stunt, let him swallow a small sculpin.

Newton has changed greatly in the recent years, and had not the zoning ordinance been adopted in 1922, this city long ago would have been ruined as a very attractive residential community. The old estates in the city have been nearly all subdivided into house lots, and even the larger lots are being divided into smaller lots. Outdoors, with no regard for the city or its future, have come and are coming here to engage in real estate activities and are constantly attempting to have residence zones changed to business zones.

Almost invariably persons who have petitioned to be permitted to change one-family residences in single residence zones into two family residences, have been turned down by the Board of Aldermen, but scores of one family residences throughout the city have been converted into two-family residences without legal permission from the Board of Aldermen. Likewise, a large number of two-family houses in this city, have, since the zoning ordinance became law, been converted into three and four family residences, not only in violation of the zoning ordinance, but also in violation of Newton's building code.

Another phase of the attempts to "let-down" on Newton's zoning ordinance are efforts to have non-conforming uses in residence zones extended. Such extensions, if granted, will eventually result in the establishment of business areas in the city affected. One such attempt is now being made in connection with a business which has been conducted in a small, metal structure on Walham st., West Newton. This building, erected at the street line before the zoning ordinance was passed, certainly is not an asset to an attractive residential neighborhood. Because of the size of the building, it has been impractical to keep an adequate stock of merchandise in it, and the business has changed ownership several times. The present owner, who purchased the property about a year ago, has petitioned the Aldermen for a permit to place benches outside the building for the display and sale of merchandise; in other words an outdoor store, as an addition to the small structure now there.

When the writer was a member of the Claims & Rules Committee of the Board of Aldermen in 1928 a petition was received asking that a permit be granted for alterations on the bungalow which is located on the same lot with the small, store building, so that the then business might be conducted in the bungalow, and the little, shed-like structure be removed. I favored the petition as a means of removing what I considered an eyesore from the neighborhood. But, William B. Baker, then member of the Claims & Rules Committee from Ward 3, objected. He argued that if the business were permitted to be moved into the larger building, it would become a permanent business enterprise in that residential neighborhood and if it were confined to the small structure, it would eventually be eliminated. If the present Board of Aldermen permit the extension of the non-conforming use asked for, the isolated business at this place certainly should grow, and it will not increase the values of the residential properties surrounding it.

The Newton Board of Aldermen acted justly in voting on Monday night to restrict heavy trucks from Bacon st., Newton, between the hours of 8 p. m. and 7 a. m., because it was the act of the 1936 Board of Aldermen in prohibiting heavy trucks on Watertown st., during night hours, that caused the huge vehicles to be operated over narrow Bacon st. at Newton Corner. For over two years residents of Bacon and Pearl sts. have had their sleep disturbed and their property damaged by these two streets being used as a detour by the big freight vehicles that should be operated along Washington and Centre sts. from Newton to Watertown. The action of Alderman Gaddis and his colleagues will be appreciated by the people who have suffered patiently.

Mr. Chamberlain now states that Herr Hitler cannot be depended upon and that the German ruler is not a man of honor. Mr. Chamberlain ought to have realized these truths before he influenced Czecho-Slovakia to yield to Germany last year, and also before he and his French allies permitted Hitler and his cohorts to gain supremacy in the air and in armaments during the past three years. And if Mr. Chamberlain thinks that the coming visit of King George and his Queen to this country will palaver the citizens of the U. S. A. into agreeing to pulling England's chestnuts out of the fire, to the extent of becoming embroiled in another "World War" to preserve so-called "democracy," he is mistaken, and so will President Roosevelt be if he has such an idea.

It would seem that the threats of Tax Commissioner Long about levying special assessments on "sheltered communities," such as Brookline, Newton and Wellesley, might have influenced the Newton Board of Aldermen into sending a delegation to the State House to favor the diversion of $10,000,000 from the gasoline tax to other purposes than that for which this tax is allegedly imposed.

Greater Interest Aroused

When the Newton Board of Assessors hit upon the idea of arousing interest in their annual report by a change of presentation, they showed keen judgment in matters of psychology. As they describe it, the endeavor has been to show how the figures arrived at instead of merely spreading forth results in statistical form. There are few matters over which a citizen grumbles more and of which he knows less than taxation. I have always had an idea that if he were better informed, or had a fairly complete understanding, he would not be so critical. In fact, his views might be made far clearer, convincing proof that he would hasten each year to the city collector's office with his payment.

What the Newton Board of Assessors have done—and this gives me a chance to congratulate Messrs. Murphy, Prescott and McAuslan—is to show in a comprehensive way the city's receipts, valuations, exemptions and other essential figures. Any idea that this published document now available is dry reading should be promptly abandoned. Not only have the assessors performed their regular task with customary efficiency but they improved upon it, which leaves nothing to be added.

Swell Eats of the Past

When this column referred some weeks ago to tasty dishes of the past which seem to have gone on their way never to return, a responsive chord of gastronomic reminiscence must have been struck with considerable force. Several have spoken of it, only to call to mind some favorite food of years ago. The variety was far wider than was expected and to attempt a list would result in something resembling the index of a cook book. As there is no possible excuse for reviving the general subject it shall have to be dropped unless some persuasion is exerted. Nevertheless, this I am reluctant to do without a tender reference to hulled corn. That luscious cereal, served in a bowl and smothered with cream is a precious memory of boyhood. Possibly I relished it more because I had it less frequently. Where has it gone? I still get hominy at times and there are always available oatmeal, porridge, hasty pudding, and mush—but hulled corn, especially for Sunday night's supper, used to lead them all.

Grand Opera vs. Flower Show
Any life which had both grand opera and the flower show the same week must have been lived to the full for the seven days in question. Even to enjoy only one was a privilege that dispelled loneliness. As often happens, some went to the opera who would have preferred the flower show and there may have been people who would have traded a flower show ticket for an opera seat. I thought at first it was a mistake to have the two events run concurrently. As it turned out it was a break for a number of folks.

When the thought of going to the flower show enters the mind, one is more than likely to relax and from that moment, until after viewing the exhibition, the feeling of relaxation increases. Not so as regards the opera—at least among those who go because it is expected of them. From the outset they are seized with a feeling of reluctance which grows almost to a point of nervous exhaustion. Some members of the family wished for the flower show and hated the opera while others wanted both and, when compelled to choose, took the opera because it was more doggy. There were awful spats in some homes. I am informed.

I really believe there would have been no problem if these two irresistible attractions could have been held in adjoining buildings at the same time. Any who didn't want to dress up and hear the great vocalists could accompany those of musical tastes to the door of the opera house. Then in the more casual attire of flower show patrons they could proceed next door to the floral display and there admire and sniff fragrant blooms until the curtain had fallen on the opera. That might mean an extra long session for horticultural enthusiasts unless the performance of the singers was cut. However, that's only a trifling obstacle and one which no doubt could be met with a little thought. I think the idea in general a good one and am willing it should be applied for the public good, and, if possible, improved and developed.

Looking Forward

It was something of a surprise to learn that a number of people who do not live in Newton regard it as a "sheltered community" and therefore ripe for putting up funds for municipalities that have "gone broke." "Sheltered" may be the word, but if the Boston Elevated continues to run those rattly-bang one-man trolley cars between here and Boston, this city of ours will become a "shattered community."

Better to look AT... and Better to look OUT OF!

LA SALLE

WHEN YOU RIDE in a new LaSalle, your view of the landscape is well nigh perfect. The LaSalle Sedan now has more than twenty square feet of window and windshield space—an addition of 412 square inches over last year! And this extra area of glass does much more than increase the view. It adds tremendously to safety. Yes—the new LaSalle V-8 is not only better to look at—it's better to look out of! A demonstration costs nothing. Why not ask for one—today?

JUDGE MARCUS MORTON

Judge Marcus Morton, senior justice of the Massachusetts Superior Court, died suddenly of heart failure on Monday morning at his apartment, 535 Beacon st., Boston. He was born at Andover on April 27, 1862, the son of Judge Marcus Morton, chief justice of the Massachusetts Supreme Court. His grandfather, Marcus Morton was a Governor of Massachusetts and also served as a justice of the Supreme Court of this State.

Judge Morton attended Phillips Andover Academy, graduated from Yale in 1883 and from Harvard Law School in 1885. He was admitted to the bar that year and was engaged in the practice of law until 1909, when he was appointed a justice of the Superior Court by Governor Draper. He served 30 years and was the senior member of that body. In 1932 Mr. Morton married Marie E. Welch of Andover and they became residents of Newtonville. He took an active interest in Newton affairs and was a member of the Newton School Committee for 6 years, starting in 1903. He also served as treasurer of the Newton Home for Aged People and as a trustee of the Newton Hospital. He was a loyal member of the Episcopal Society, Mayflower Society, Episcopalian Club and Yale Club. During the World War he served as a Red Cross worker at Camp Devens.

Judge Morton is survived by his widow; a son, Marcus Morton, Jr. of Cambridge; a daughter, Miss Helen Morton; and a sister, Miss Lorraine C. Morton of Newton Highlands. His funeral service was held on Wednesday afternoon at Trinity Church, Boston. Cremation was at Mount Auburn, and the ashes will be interred in Newton Cemetery.

Our Lady's School Pupils Give Annual Musical Comedy

The annual musical comedy presented by pupils of Our Lady's High School was given at the school auditorium last Friday evening, March 17, under the direction of Miss S. Theresa McCarthy and the Sisters of Saint Joseph. Music was provided by the Schubert-Majestic Theatres Orchestra. The play this year was "Good News," by E. G. DeSylva and Lawrence Schwab. The leading parts were taken by Robert Muse, Rita Goodwin, Margaret Greathhead, Lillian Gerity, Daniel Cardarelli, Thomas McCauley, William O'Brien, John Garvin, Andrew Corrigan, and Paul Leone. Others in the cast were: Francis Welch, Albert Moore, Edna Fitzgerald, Maureen Maguire, James Cousineau, Robert Bryson, John Murphy, George Gubbins, Gerard Matthews, Lena Dalicandro, Frances MacDonald, Patricia McCaffrey, Christine McNelis, Alice Murphy, Ethel O'Brien, Mildred Regan, Mary Welch.

Young Newton Musicians In Jordan Hall Music Festival

Miss Elizabeth Pyffe, director of the All Newton Music School, conducted an instrumental group of more than thirty young players from that school at the Children's Festival held last Sunday in Jordan Hall, Boston. This group played four movements of a well known Bach Suite and had the place of honor on the program as guest artists of the afternoon. More than half of them played again in a combined ensemble of players from the All Newton Music School, Boston Music School, and the South End Music School under the leadership of Mr. George Faulkner, director of the South End Music School of Boston.

Over four hundred children participated in the concert, and it was inspiring to hear the splendid work both vocally and instrumentally in the rendition of the fine music of Handel and Bach as well as choice folk music representing many lands.

YOUNG WOMEN'S REPUBLICAN CLUB

OFFICIAL OPENING THURSDAY EVE., MARCH 30 AT 8 P.M.

New Bowling Alleys Open for Inspection Wednesday Night

Mayor Childs will officially open the twenty new, streamlined bowling alleys, which have recently been constructed for the Garden City Recreation Co. at 320 Washington st., Newton Corner, on next Wednesday, March 29, at 8 p. m. when the mayor will roll the first ball down one of the alleys.

The new bowling arena will be open for public inspection at that time, and Proprietors Joseph Kirby and John O'Donnell of Newton Highlands have announced that the alleys will be open for public use next Friday, March 31.

With concealed artificial lighting, air conditioning, venetian blinds, modernistic leather settees, a blue and maroon floor, and a color scheme of buff and ivory walls with mirrors and chromium fittings, the alleys are as complete and modern as can be found.

This modern bowlingdom was constructed by Arthur Chisholm, foremost constructor of bowling alleys in the country and occupies two floors at 320 Washington st. The owners are featuring special sections for ladies and a modernistic ladies rest room with blue travertine walls and supplied with vanities and modern furniture. The rest rooms are also air conditioned.

operation of the repair and care of the police automotive equipment has not been conducive to harmony and efficiency in the department and we would urge that consideration be given to this matter."

In 1938 the Chairman of the Finance Committee, Donald D. McKay, in reporting on the floor of the Board item by item in the budget, said:

"In a supplementary letter the Mayor approved the police department's recommendation of a salary increase of $290 for the auto mechanic. In accordance with our policy of not recommending most of the increases this year we are leaving the amount as formerly—$1500. But we do believe that auto-mechanic Becker is deserving of an increase when conditions so warrant. He is well qualified to conduct the garage and repair work. He reportedly does all the maintenance, repair and service work. Let me now refer back to the sergeant-mechanic. We see no reason for expending $2450 annually for one who apparently can seldom be found at the garage and who is generally believed to do little if any of the manual labor."

Rev. James L. Burke Speaks To Mt. Alvernia Club Mon.

The Mount Alvernia Club of Chestnut Hill will have Reverend James L. Burke, S. HIGH SCHOOL SPRING SPORT SCHEDULES OUT

Baseball Team To Open With Arlington April 24th

At the March meeting of the High School Athletic Council last week spring schedules in baseball and tennis were approved. The baseball team will open on April 24th with Arlington High and will confine its scheduled activities to Suburban league competition. Coach Jeff Jones will play a total of ten games, in home and home series with each of the other five league members.

The tennis team will open a schedule of eleven dates on April 26th. Coach Taylor's outfit, scholastic team champions, has good prospects of retaining its title this season with the added possibility of annexing the individual honors through the efforts of Captain Al Everts. Newton's first opponent will be the Milton Academy team.

Paramount Theatre Begins Contest This Friday

The most popular child in Newton will be chosen in a contest which is being conducted by the Paramount Theatre of Newton in cooperation with the J. Dunham Jones Co. of Newton Corner. The competition will begin this Friday, March 24th, with the posting of pictures in the lobby of the Paramount Theatre.

Preliminary announcements have been made on the screen of the Paramount Theatre for the past three weeks, and J. Dunham Jones indicated this morning that many inquiries had been made at his studio regarding appointments for taking the pictures.

Prospective most popular children merely have to make an appointment with the J. Dunham Jones Studios and have their picture taken. After the photograph has been made, it will be given an identification number and posted in the lobby of the theatre. Mr. Jones urges that mothers have their children's pictures taken early in order that all contestants can be given equal consideration by the patrons of the theatre.

Contestants are invited to initiate a campaign if they truthfully believe that they are the most popular child. As there is no restriction regarding the number of votes that can be cast by individuals, children entered in the contest will benefit by rounding up their relatives and friends.

Whoever is chosen as the Newton's most popular child will be given the "Most Popular Child" trophy engraved with his or her name on the pedestal. The award is a statue of a child mounted on a pedestal. "The prize, which is a foot high, is a fitting testimonial to Newton's Most Popular Child for 1939," states Mr. Parker, Manager of the Paramount Theatre.

In addition to the trophy, the J. Dunham Jones Co. has announced that it will present an oil-colored enlargement of the most popular child to the winner. The photograph will be a framed 11 in. x 14 in. picture, and a sample

Voting Qualifications

Attention to the fact that ballots cannot be obtained unless voters make a purchase at a store where votes are available should be brought to all those who intend to cast a ballot in this contest. This rule was made to help business at Newton Corner. Remember, for a small purchase these Newton Corner merchants will give you a ballot. This protects your contestant, and gives a true picture of the popularity.

Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays have been reserved by Mr. Jones exclusively for taking pictures of children who wish to enter the contest. As there is no entrance fee or financial obligation of any kind, mothers and dads are urged to enter their children in the contest.

Further announcements will be made in the Newton Graphic, and the results will be published in the GRAPHIC as soon as a winner is determined.

Here's All You Have To Do To Enter The Contest

1. All contestants must have their pictures taken at the J. Dunham Jones studios.
2. Pictures will be taken on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays only, and appointments must be made ahead of time.
3. All contestants must be under sixteen years of age.
4. Each contestant's picture will be given an identification number. No names will be attached to the pictures if desired.

Newton Merchants To Give Ballots To Voters

To determine who is the most popular child, the Newton Corner merchants have been given ballots with which Newton residents must vote for their choice for the most popular child. Ballots will be available beginning this Friday, March 24, at all stores listed on the right hand column of this page.

In order to receive a ballot, voters must purchase some article at the store where they intend to get their ballot. All ballots must be deposited in the ballot box at the Paramount Theatre.

The purchase of a large amount of goods will warrant a voter a larger number of votes, but one vote will be given for each purchase, no matter how small it may be.

CAMERA CLUB TO BACK POPULARITY CONTEST

Support of the contest designed to find Newton's most popular child for 1939 was assured by the Camera Club for the Newtons at their recent meeting on March 17.

Several members stated that they intended to enter their children, and it was urged that any members having children under sixteen enter them in this contest.

Handbills explaining the details of the Child Popularity Contest were distributed to the members of the club by J. Dunham Jones.

SECOND CHILDHOOD AT EIGHTY

This man's second childhood came to him during his eightieth year. That was the belief when an 80-year-old man walked into the studios of J. Dunham Jones Co. yesterday and inquired about entrance into the current "Child Popularity Contest." After Mr. Jones informed him that the age limit was sixteen, the elderly man, disappointed in that his rejuvenation would not cover up his age, sighed and reluctantly faced the sorrow that comes with years.

Play Day Offers Entertaining
Features

Through the co-operation of the president, Mrs. George H. Tracy, and members of the Executive Board, the Newtonville Woman's Club is planning a gay Play Day, for Friday, March 31, from 11 a. m. to 4 p. m., at the Club House. First in this interesting and varied program will be a talk on "Individuality in Clothes," by a representative of a well-known Boston shop. This will be followed by a Play-Reading. A sparkling, recent Broadway comedy is being coached by the Drama chairman, Mrs. Edwin P. McGill. At noon luncheon will be served under the management of the Hospitality chairman, Mrs. Henry E. Johnson, and of the House chairman, Mrs. Clarence A. Wentworth, at bridge tables in Social Hall. After luncheon, Club members and their guests may enjoy an afternoon of bridge. Mrs. Paul E. Ellicker and Mrs. George A. Edmonds, vice-presidents, will be in charge of the bridge, for which there will be prizes, chosen by Mrs. George L. Curtis, secretary of Finance. Names for chances on an attractive small radio will be taken by Mrs. Charles W. Peterson, recording secretary; and by Mrs. Clifford B. Whitney, treasurer. This generous entertainment may be had for 75 cents per person, and tickets may be purchased, until the tables are filled, from Mrs. L. Ivan Pettys, telephone, West Newton 1215M, and from Mrs. Frank M. Simmons, telephone, Newton North 1385-R. The last of the Literature Afternoons will be held at the home of Miss Marian L. Prescott, 271 Crafts st., on Monday, March 27, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Alice L. MacManamon will review the Pulitzer Prize novel of last year, "The Late George Apley." Tea will be served.

The Newest In Spring Fashions

The very latest thing in Fashions is the lure offered to the members of the Auburndale Woman's Club at its next meeting on Tuesday, March 28, at the Auburndale Club House. There will be the usual business session at 2:30 o'clock, and the program will start at 3 o'clock. The Day chairman, Mrs. Joseph McCarron, will present a representative from the Touraine Company of Boston and Wellesley, who will show the latest creations for early spring wear. Two girls from the Auburndale Juniors and three members of the Senior Club will act as models. Mrs. E. Dana Kendall, music chairman of the Woman's Club, will have the music for the occasion in her charge. The Seniors from Lasell Junior College will be the invited guests for the afternoon.

Other Programs and Events

State Federation Division Gives
"Bulletin Tea"

Methods of editing and financing Club Bulletins will be discussed at a "Bulletin Tea" to be held at State Federation Headquarters, 115 Newbury st., Boston, on Wednesday afternoon, March 29, at 2 o'clock. Editors, assistant editors, and business managers will speak, and every Club interested in starting a Bulletin is invited to send a representative and to take part in informal discussion. Guests will include Mrs. Charles L. Fuller, division adviser; and Mrs. Frank D. Peirce, chairman of the State Federation, division of Press.

Mrs. John E. Cannon, Bulletin chairman, will preside, and tea will be served by members of the division.

Showing of Hurricane Pictures

Through the courtesy of the New England Telephone and Telegraph

Company, pictures of the September hurricane will be shown to the members of the Newton Centre Neighborhood Club and their guests on Monday evening, March 27. The pictures will be accompanied by description. Mrs. Herbert Dunphy is hostess for the meeting, which will be held in the Newton Highlands Woman's Club Workshop. Dessert will be served at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. Dunphy will be assisted by Mrs. C. H. Emanuelson, Mrs. Frederick J. Fessenden, Miss Marjorie Gould, Mrs. Ralph D. Thompson, Miss Esther Winslow, and Miss Emily Woods.

Newton Highlands C. L. S. C.

The next meeting of the Newton Highlands C. L. S. C. will be held with Miss Adelaide R. Webster, Monday, March 27. Mrs. Mark Ward will have charge of the work of the afternoon.

West Newton Women's Educational Club

Mrs. B. Howard Lester and Mrs. Ethel Leach will be hostesses to the Travel Class of the West Newton Women's Educational Club on Monday, March 27, at 2 p. m., at 203 Mt. Vernon st. Mrs. Louise Filene and Mrs. Justin D. Starkie will read papers on "French Indo-China" and "Great Names in Art and Literature in Asia."

There are still a few tickets available for the Telephone-Dessert bridge to be held on March 31, and they may be obtained by calling Mrs. Patrick Duncan, W. N. 2917.

Newton Highlands Garden Club

Mrs. Thomas Nesmith, of the Fairmount Iris Gardens, of Lowell, will be the speaker at the meeting of the Newton Highlands Garden Club on Tuesday evening, March 28, at 8 o'clock. The Club will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren B. Kennedy, 39 Columbus st. Mrs. Nesmith's subject will be "Iris, Poppies, and Hemerocallis," illustrated by natural color slides.

Waban Junior Club to Have Fashion Show

The Waban Junior Woman's Club will have a Fashion Show on Wednesday evening, March 29, at 8:15 o'clock, at the Union Church in Waban. Mrs. Frank, of the Fashion Shop in Wellesley, will show a large number of her spring dresses. Miss Marilyn Pease is the chairman of the committee making the arrangements.

Social Science Club

Rev. Ray A. Eusden will speak on "The Development of the English Bible" at the meeting of the Social Science Club on Wednesday, March 29, in Channing Church, at 10 a. m. Mrs. Fred A. Gay and Miss Margaret H. Aubin will be the hostesses.

Newton Centre Woman's Club

Speaking on "World Affairs," Professor Anton DeHaas will give the third and last of the series of these lectures at the Newton Centre Woman's Club House, Monday evening, March 27, at 8 o'clock. This meeting is open to the public for a small fee. Club members will be admitted by their membership cards.

Antiques from the home of Mrs. T. Broun Powers will form the stage-setting for the mid-Victorian parlor for the play "Tom Sawyer" to be produced by the Newton Centre Woman's Club Saturday afternoon, April 1. Mrs. Clyde H. Walsworth will have charge of the stage. Mrs. Ben S. Peterson is collecting the properties. Mrs. George F. Richardson, Jr., will be in charge of candy and the intermission. Mrs. Willis E. Pattison will direct the corps of ushers. Tickets are in charge of Mrs. Donald E. Welch. The All-Newton Exhibition will open Thursday, March 30, with a Reception and Tea to exhibitors and friends, in the Art Gallery of the Newton Centre Woman's Club House. Entries by local talent will be on view until April 15. Mrs. W. Cornell Appleton will have charge of the entries.

Mr. Howard P. Davis will give a "Preview of World Developments" Monday evening, April 3, at 6:45 p. m., at the Newton Centre Woman's Club. Mr. Davis has won distinction as an editor, radio commentator, economist, and lecturer. Reservations for the dinner, at 75 cents, may be made through any member of the International Relations committee, of which Miss Louise Walsworth is chairwoman. Admission for the speaking at 7:45 o'clock will be 25 cents for Club members and 35 cents for others. Homes of various types of architecture will be opened to those buying tickets for American Home Visiting Day which is Friday, March 31, from 10 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. Luncheon will be served at the Newton Centre Woman's Club at 1 o'clock, with bridge following. Players should bring cards. Tickets are 75 cents, which includes everything; and they may be secured from Mrs. Sidney R. Porter, telephone, Centre Newton 2322-M, or from Mrs. B. L. Chadwick, Telephone Centre Newton 1995-M. Reservations should be made early, as tickets are limited.

Annual Spring Rummage Sale

The Newton Community Club is holding its Annual Spring Rummage Sale on Friday, March 31, and Saturday, April 1, at 229 Washington st., Newton Corner. This Club has two Rummage Sales each year, one in the fall, when winter apparel is available, and one in the spring, when new spring finery of hats, dresses, shoes, and coats may be purchased, as well as many household articles and furniture. These events are to secure funds for the many Philanthropies and for the Scholarships which the Club sponsors, and which mean so much to those who receive this assistance, especially in these days.

Mrs. Carleton L. Shaw is chairman of the affair, and assisting her are Mrs. Maida W. Luce, Mrs. George E. Rawson, Mrs. Edwin P. Leonard, Jr., and Mrs. Beverly G. Secord. Those who have articles to contribute to make up an attractive stock for the sale are asked to notify any of this committee, and they will arrange for the articles to be called for.

Newtonville Junior Club

On Wednesday evening, March 29, the Newtonville Junior Woman's Club and their guests will hear two combined lectures on the general subject of "Love and Marriage" presented by Dr. Helen McGillicuddy, who is associated with the Massachusetts Society for Social Hygiene.

Dr. McGillicuddy's subjects will be "Love, Sham Love, and Courtship" and "Emotions, and Their Control." These two lectures will end the series of four presented to Club members by Dr. McGillicuddy.

The meeting will be held at 8 p. m. in the Newtonville Woman's Club House. There will be a short business meeting prior to the lecture presided over by Miss Louise Balch, the president.

Newtonville Woman's Club

The thrill of seeing the great transport window for St. George's Schools Chapel, Newport, Rhode Island, developed from the first pencil sketch through the many processes to its final completion and installation, in a lecture on "Stained Glass," by Joseph G. Reynolds, Jr., held the attention of a responsive audience on "Art Day," March 14, at the Newtonville Woman's Club. The beauty of stained glass, Mr. Reynolds stated, was expressed perfectly in the quotation from Henry Adams' writings: "the captured sunset to the gate of Heaven," and the exquisite, jewel-like colors shown in his many slides of cathedral windows, he explained, were used and specializing in

KITCHEN MODERNIZING

We have come to Newton after eight years' experience distributing General Electric Products in Worcester County and Western Massachusetts, because we believe that home owners in this progressive community are interested in the electric services that make for better living.

We will deal exclusively in General Electric Products because we know that they will give the greatest satisfaction to our customers.

We will confine ourselves to products used in the kitchen because we can make a greater contribution to better living through concentration on equipment that saves time and money and which promotes better health.

- The General Electric Triple Thrift Refrigerator . . . saves money with its unbelievably low operating cost and provides for perfect food storage with its selective air conditions.
- The General Electric Tripl-Oven Range makes for better meals cooked in cleaner, cooler kitchens.
- The General Electric Dishwasher saves hundreds of hours a year of needless, unintelligent drudgery and washes dishes better and cleaner than can ever be done by hand.
- The General Electric Disposall eliminates the messy handling and storage of garbage. The germ-breeding sink colander and garbage can with their obnoxious odors can now be a thing of the past.
- The General Electric Sink contains the Dishwasher and Disposall in a completely "packaged" unit easily installed in any kitchen.
- The General Electric Kitchen Cabinets make possible bright, cheery, conveniently arranged kitchens that are easy and pleasant in which to work.

A complete display of these products is ready for your inspection and we cordially invite you to stop in and see them. There is plenty of parking space near our store.

We offer a free kitchen-planning service to any property owner contemplating kitchen improvements—phone for complete details.

JACKSON—MATTHEWS

Miss Jane Matthews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry N. Matthews of 60 Carlton rd., Waban, was married to Francis Gardner Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Jackson of Westwood at four o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, March 21, in the Union Church, Waban. Rev. Joseph C. MacDonald performed the ceremony.

The bride, who was escorted to the altar by her father, wore a gown of white paper taffeta fashioned on mid-Victorian lines, a veil of tulle caught to a coronet of taffeta flowers, and carried a bouquet of white orchids, lilies of the valley and gardenias. She was attended by Mrs. Manning Emery, 3rd, sister of the bridegroom, as matron of honor. Mrs. Emery wore a gown of Gothic blue taffeta with heart-shaped neckline and full gathered skirt, a white straw plaque held in place with matching velvet ribbon, and carried a bouquet of violets. The bridesmaids, Miss Elizabeth Prescott of Brookline, Miss Margaret Paine of Westwood, Miss Polly Klotz of Waban, Miss Sally Scudder of Brookline and Mrs. John Bradford Millett of Brookline, wore gowns of citron taffeta similar in style to the one worn by the matron of honor, and carried bouquets of violets.

Wilson Haight of New York was the best man. The ushers, headed by James Jackson, Jr., brother of the groom, were John C. Matthews, brother of the bride; Manning Emery, 3rd, of Brunswick, Maine; Robert S. Weeks, Jr., of Brookline; Raymond S. Patton, Jr., of New Haven, and Joseph Nickerson of Dedham.

A reception was held at the Brad Burn Country Club. Mrs. Matthews wore blue lace with a matching hat and a corsage of red orchids. Mrs. Jackson wore gray crepe with a fuchsia hat and an orchid corsage.

On their return from a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Jackson will reside at the Brooks School, North Andover, where Mr. Jackson is teaching. He prepared for college at the Brooks School and graduated from Trinity College in 1938. Mrs. Jackson is a graduate of the Beaver Country Day School, and studied for a year at Miss Childs' School in Florence, Italy. She is a member of the Junior League and the Vincent Club.

DRESSER—COBB

Miss Priscilla Harding Cobb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry Cobb of 74 Kenwood ave., Newton Centre, was married to Norman Kirkland Dresser, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Harrison Dresser of Weymouth, on Saturday evening, March 18, at the home of her parents. Rev. Edward T. Sullivan of Trinity Episcopal Church, Newton Centre, performed the ceremony.

The bride was attended by Miss Dorothy Virginia Davis of Newton Centre as maid of honor. George Harrison Dresser, Jr., brother of the groom, was the best man. The ushers were James Redfield Cobb of Newton Centre, brother of the bride; Francis Douglass of Wollaston and Hallett Hodges of Weymouth.

On their return from a wedding trip to the South, Mr. and Mrs. Dresser will reside at 25 Cedar st., Hingham. They will be at home after April 15.

The bride attended the May School and the Erskine School. The groom is a graduate of Thayer Academy.

Franklin I. Jordan Speaks at Meeting of Camera Club

Fifty camera enthusiasts appeared at the studios of J. Dunham Jones Co., which is the headquarters of the club, for the regular meeting of the Camera Club for the Newtons.

The meeting was opened by L. B. Huntington, president, who instructed secretary R. M. Bishop and treasurer Fred Moore to give their reports.

Mr. Franklin I. Jordan, FRPS, the speaker of the evening, was introduced. Mr. Jordan spoke on "The Value of a Camera Club and Pictorial Photography." After his talk, he offered criticism on prints which were submitted by club members and prospective members.

All members and prospective members are urged to attend the next regular meeting to be held at 8 p. m., April 7 states Mr. Jones. Mr. Fred Gerretson, factory representative of the Defender Photo Supply Co. of Rochester will speak to the club on "Cameras and the Film To Use."

The vacation begins Friday morning and closes the afternoon of April 3. Miss Dorothy Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Davis of 40 Cross st., Miss Barbara Chandler, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harold Chandler of 51 Winthrop st., both of West Newton, and Miss Priscilla Blackmore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Blackmore, of 139 Park st., Newton, are sailing for Bermuda from New York, next Saturday, March 25th, on the "Queen of Bermuda," with a group of students from Lasell Junior College. Miss Muriel McClelland of the Department of Physical Education at the college accompanies the party.

to convey a sense of "preciousness" which was the result of a really fine window. How precious these beautiful windows are considered today is shown in the recent Munich affair when the French carefully buried their Chartres Cathedral windows so they would not be injured in case of war and bombing. The art of stained glass goes back, Mr. Reynolds said, to the days of the Crusades in the 11th century, and is the only art done entirely by hand on such a large scale. One particularly lovely feature of the glass was its fluid quality of changing color in different lights and atmospheres. The strong primary colors of red, blue, and yellow were used for the principal theme, and both softened and set off by a subtle use of the secondary colors of green, violet, and orange. At the close of the lecture Mr. Reynolds showed several of his own compositions, including windows in the chapel of Wellesley College, Princeton College, and the unfinished Cathedral of St. John the Divine in New York City, the latter including some very interesting modern interpretations.

In the Art Gallery, Mrs. Corinne Coxeter showed a fascinating Exhibit of Dolls of "every age and clime," Roumanian royalty with regal train, and necklace of real pearls; Princess Elizabeth doll copied from the recent coronation, the much beloved Heidi from Switzerland, the "wearing of the green" in an Irish immigrant doll, a skating doll, dancing doll, Scotch doll, drum major doll in white satin and gold, and just the usual dolls to delight the heart of any child. Mrs. Coxeter started her collection by making dolls' dresses to please little children, but her enthusiasm led her to make a study of this delightful hobby, and she now has her own shop where only perfect specimens of dolls are bought and dressed. Other exhibits included carved wooden trays, by Mr. Charles N. Sladen, knitted goods, and an exhibit of arts and crafts from two local shops; and colorful lacquer work, by Mrs. Edith Caldwell, Mrs. Harold Lounsbury, and Mrs. Edwin C. Fales, a Club member.

After the lecture, Club members and guests were invited by the Art chairman, Mrs. John R. Tolman, to enjoy an informal tea in Social Hall and to view the exhibit. The president, Mrs. George H. Tracy, and the Program chairman, Mrs. Thomas G. Walters, poured, and members of the committee served.

Professor F. Alexander Magoun, of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, addressed members of the Newtonville Woman's Club at the March 21st meeting on the subject "Keeping out of the Ruts of Stagnation." With an illustration, humor, and his own philosophy, Professor Magoun analyzed stagnation as a lack of growth mentally, and showed how it could be overcome in an individual. Periodic changes, even if it only meant moving the furniture about for the homemaker was one antidote for stagnation, he stated, while periodic check-ups would indicate the progress and growth of the individual and what needed to be corrected. Lastly, he humorously advised "periodic sprees," or any kind of recreation that would bring genuine refreshment of spirit and a better outlook on the problems of everyday life. It was hard work to keep out of the ruts of stagnation, Professor Magoun concluded, but worth the effort in the increased sense of the joy and purpose of living that it brought to the individual.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Raymond A. Green presented the revised By-laws, and Mrs. George A. Edmonds read an interesting report of the recent State Federation meeting in Boston at which the Governor stressed the importance of economy for reducing the budget.

After the address, Club members were invited by the president, Mrs. George H. Tracy, to enjoy tea in Social Hall.

Auburndale Woman's Club

The Art committee of the Auburndale Woman's Club was in charge of the program of the meeting on Tuesday afternoon, March 14, when the chairman, Mrs. William Flye introduced Mr. Hoyland Bettinger, a local artist, whose topic was "An Artist Goes to Gaspé."

Subscribe to the Graphic

Mr. Bettinger explained that he had bought a summer home in that part of Canada and had become quite familiar with the locality and the people. He spoke very highly of the people as being kindly in disposition, and most philosophical regarding the small amount of money they realized for their year's work.

He showed pictures of Bonaventure Island, where there is a bird sanctuary, and his description of the birds which inhabit this place was interesting, as well as his pictures of the flora.

He explained that, being an artist, he was more or less camera-conscious, and his sunsets, cloud effects and his views showing the water in all of its moods, plainly indicated that they were done by an artist. During his talk, the soft strains of Cesar Franck's "Symphony in D Minor" made a pleasing accompaniment.

After the lecture there was a display of some of his paintings in the Lounge.

Refreshments served by the Hospitality committee, Mrs. Raymond Perkins, chairman, brought the afternoon to a close. Teachers from the local schools were the invited guests of the Club for this program.

Newton Hospital Aid Association

The monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Newton Hospital Aid Association was held Tuesday morning, March 14, at the home of Mrs. Edwin Rogers, of Hillside ave., West Newton.

The president, Mrs. Maynard Hutchinson, who presided at the business meeting, announced that she and Mrs. Edward Sawyer, the treasurer, would be the delegates to the Newton Central Council, and that she, Mrs. Theron Walker, the secretary and Mrs. Dana Dutch, a director, would represent the Association at the meetings of the Newton Community Chest.

The Benefit Shop was represented by its manager, Mrs. Francis F. Williams, who reported gains over last month, and asked for children's clothing and for bedding to meet the constant demands for these.

The workers for the Shop are looking forward to the Party which is to be held Thursday, April 6, at the home of Mrs. F. A. Day Jr., to which the admission will be a bundle which should contain something salable other than clothing. These bundles will be opened that afternoon and sold.

Mrs. Hutchinson reported that in response to a previous plea for Prayer Books for the nurses' use, the Trinity Church in Newton Centre had donated fifty new books for this purpose.

Mrs. Faulkner Kendall, the official visitor at the Hospital this month, reported very favorably of the conditions there. Mrs. Walter McGill and Mrs. Theron Walker were appointed to this duty for the coming month. All plans for the Dessert-Bridge which the Hospital Aid Association is holding at the new Nurses' Home on Wednesday, March 29, are completed. The chairman of the Activities committee is Miss Malda Flanders.

At the close of the morning, the hostess served coffee, doughnuts, cheese, and sandwiches. Mrs. Frank A. Day and Mrs. Faulkner Kendall presiding at the coffee table.

Shopping Hounds sniffin' about

Wow! . . . Wow!! . . . Ah, gentle breath of Spring . . . It makes the hounds just hunt for things.

BABA's simple day clothes are superb . . . beautifully cut red-tinges of Forstmann's Porosa, kicking open over gaily printed dresses . . . Neat two-piece suits of Stroock's Camel Hair combined with tweed (skirts pleated and jackets fitted) . . . More important than ever this spring . . . the little girl shirt waist dresses worn with casual cardigans . . . Fashion's high-light brings out the gypsy in wearing apparel—you'll feel as gas as a parade in all the mixed-up shades of Luxury . . . The modern sophisticate will love the new dressy blacks and navy—greens lavishly bedecked with lingerie accents . . . For evening the spectacular prints remind you that spring is really here and that March winds must soon die . . . Post Graduate AND Constant Study

After going through College, Medical School and Internship, many young Doctors further prepare themselves by going into famous Hospitals and Medical Schools of this country and Europe. This Post Graduate work is done under famous Physicians, who have intensified their specialization, until they are the "last word" on some special operation, technique or treatment.

Even after years of practice, the progressive Physician takes time away for Post Graduate courses. The progressive Doctor is constantly studying to perfect technique and broaden his knowledge, in order to give the patient every advantage of modern science.

What Price this Glory?
Less than You Think!

The model illustrated is the Buick Special model 41 four-door touring sedan $996 delivered at Flint, Mich.*

YES, it looks like a million—and if you've ever put hand to this brisk beauty's wheel, you know that it handles and travels and behaves the same way!

And it rides like a cloud, serene and buoyant, with the rough road's hard realities gentled by the "full float" action of BuicCoil Springing.

But is this trim Buick the premium-priced package you might expect just from looking at it? Quite the opposite!

This year you can drive a great straight-eight—a Dynaflex straight-eight with gas-saving cyclones in each cylinder—for actually less than some sixes would cost!

This year you can ride in Buick's staunch steadiness—at lower cost than prevailed even a year ago.

This year you have a car that's complete with all the little things—dual windshield wipers, dual sun visors, Flash-Way direction signal, Handi-shift transmission, lighted luggage compartments, locks on both front doors, even Knee-Action that banks the curves for you—and spend less, when all that's counted, than for some cars with lower advertised prices!

So open up your mind, sir! Before you decide this glory's not for you, find out what the model of your delivered at Flint, Mich. *Subject to change without notice. Transportation, state and local taxes (if any), optional equipment and accessories—extra.

choice delivers for—at your door! Look into what you get for your money—you may be surprised, for instance, at the gas-mileage figures owners report—and figure out where the value lies!

For any new car's going to cost you something. And you'll be money ahead, even if it does cost a trifle more, to get the car and the value of the year.

Your Buick dealer's waiting to show you which car that is!

Fined $35 For Drunken Driving

John F. Ross of 187 Houghton ave., Boston, a college student, was fined $35 by Judge Mayberry in the Newton court on Wednesday for driving a car while under the influence of liquor. A charge of drunkenness was filed. He was arrested at 1 a. m. Wednesday at Chestnut Hill by Patrolman Sullivan. Ross told the judge that he had no money with which to pay his fine, and he was informed that he would have to go to jail to serve out the fine on a basis of 50c per day. At the suggestion of court officials, Ross telephoned to a friend who shortly arrived with the $35, and the young man who had inebriated too freely was freed.

DOG/NOTE
by PETER BOGGS

If you go to army maneuvers some day and notice a dog barking commands, don't be surprised. The U. S. Army has a dog with a bonafide commission as a lieutenant. The dog's name is Lieutenant Bobby and his warrant as an officer was signed by the President. Bobby is owned by Captain David C. Harris and for many years he has worn a Sam Browne belt with a tiny saber attached to his collar. Friends of the "Lieutenant" suggest that on his retirement he be given a pension from the government of one pound of hamburger a day.

A problem often confronting a dog owner is how to heal a cut on the end of his pet's tail. Many dogs constantly knock their tails against the floor or some other obstruction until the end starts to bleed. These sores are hard to heal because when the cut is almost well, the dog again strikes it against something, and the healing process must start all over again.

In answer to the numerous requests for advice on how to treat such wounds, I offer the following suggestion. First, bathe the wound with warm diluted iodine. Then sprinkle a small amount of crystallized alum, available at your druggist, daily on the wound. I have cured some very stubborn cases by following this treatment.

"From rags to riches" is a well worn cliché in human society. Bargee, an eight-months old mongrel dog, holds a canine record in social climbing.

Pursuant to the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Walter George Ritsky, unmarried, of Waltham, Middlesex County, Massachusetts, to the Institution For Savings in Roxbury and its vicinity, a corporation duly established by law in Boston, Suffolk County, Massachusetts, dated April 4, 1934, and recorded in Middlesex South District Registry of Deeds, Book 5896, Page 435, for breach of the conditions of said mortgage deed, and for the purpose of enforcing the same, will be sold at public auction on the premises hereinafter described on Monday, tenth day of April, 1939, at twelve o'clock noon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed and therein described as follows:—

A capable young bachelor, Edward H. Rihbany of Brookline, is well-experienced when it comes to getting his own meals. He enjoys good health, too.

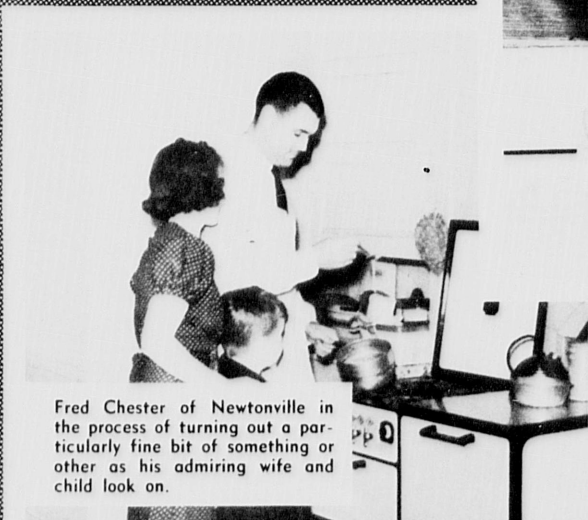

Just as some musicians play by ear, Charles M. Wheldon of Wellesley, who specializes in popovers, cooks by taste.

Warren G. Thorpe of Needham serving up some piping hot flapjacks on Sunday morning for his family and visiting sister.

Every now and then it becomes necessary for men to demonstrate their self-reliance and ability to get along without women. This urge frequently manifests itself in a burst of culinary enterprise in which the men invade woman's province for the purpose of beating her at her own game.

This effort is accompanied by remarks to the effect that all the world's greatest chefs are men. At this point the women cynically inquire of the amateur male chefs what else they can cook besides eggs in various forms. The answer, surprisingly enough, is plenty, as the gentlemen pictured on this page will testify.

Fred Chester of Newtonville in the process of turning out a particularly fine bit of something or other as his admiring wife and child look on.

Dr. W. A. Hickie (with glasses) and friend, Charles E. Flanders, getting a meal at latter's home in Belmont.

Times Change... That's the Trouble!

Fifty-four years ago, when Thomas A. Conroy, Sr., took the picture at left of Brookline Village the excavating in progress had but slight effect on traffic. The street cars and horse-drawn vehicles managed quite nicely, as did the pedestrians.

When the State built the Worcester Turnpike not long ago, work ceased at a point just outside Brookline Village, thus throwing the heavy flow of traffic that uses this main artery through a virtual "bottle neck." Confusion was added to congestion until a directional sign was erected as the officer in the picture at right will testify. Adjacent to Mr. Conroy's old picture of Brookline Village as it used to be, are two recent photos taken by his son, Thomas A. Conroy, Jr. The buildings have changed, fashions have changed and traffic has changed, but the "bottle neck" remains. Needless to say, many thousands of motorists are wondering what the State is going to do about it—and when.

NO, THERE ISN'T ANY MISTAKE HERE!

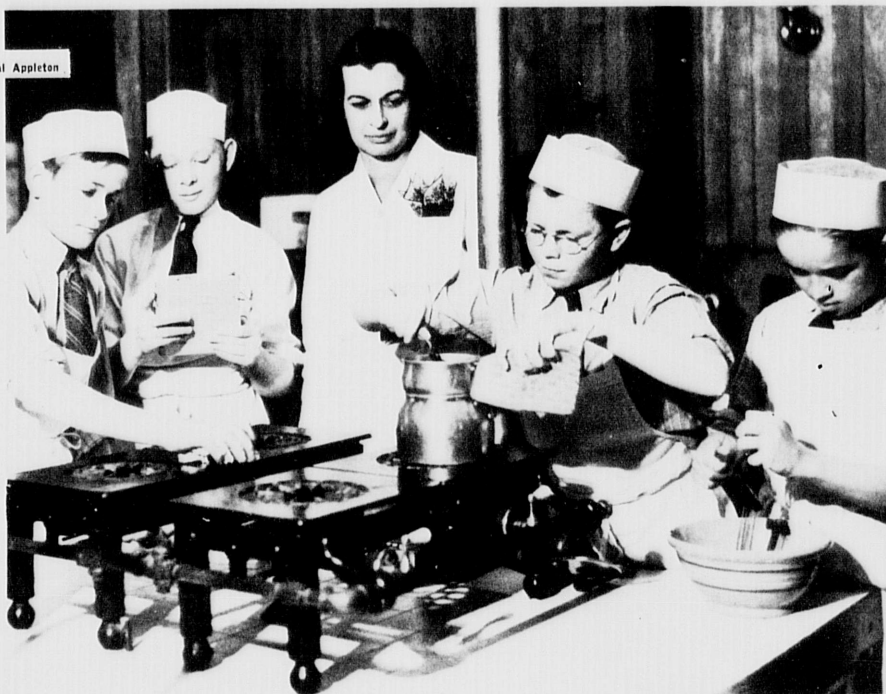

Don't be misled into thinking that the classes got into the wrong rooms or that the younger generation is being transformed into tomboys and sissies. Such would be far from the truth. You see it's this way—the youngsters in the photos at left and below are thoroughly enjoying something very modern and practical in the way of education. Following the plan of Miss Edith Wright, Principal of the Runkle School in Brookline, boys in the seventh and eighth grades study cooking in the second half year, while the girls study manual training. During the first half of the year the girls rustle the pots and pans while the boys wield hammer and saw. Mrs. Loker, domestic science teacher, and Mr. Mackintosh, manual training instructor, will no doubt tell you that the plan works beautifully—and just think what capable husbands and wives these youngsters will be!

Individual Responsibility Necessary To Cut Accident Toll

Traffic safety in large measure depends upon the cooperation of the motoring public. No scientific system or plan has yet been devised that will entirely eliminate the human element in the relentless war on motor accidents. As long as people who drive cars insist on taking chances or allow themselves to become careless, so long will we maintain our staggering death toll on the highways. Pedestrians, too, are often at fault. On this page are illustrations of the more common habits which cause accidents. Are you guilty of any of them?

YOUR LOCAL PAPER

is more than "just a paper!"

HAS it ever occurred to you that your local home town paper plays an important role in the drama of your everyday life? Like a valuable friend and counsellor, it keeps you informed of the important events of the day—of the happenings and occurrences of your own "home town"! It helps you buy, and it helps you sell; all of which, whether you are aware of it or not, affects your everyday life—your hopes . . . and the lives and hopes of your family and your friends.

In the ever-changing pattern of everyday life, ONE THING remains unchanged — unswerving in its loyalty, to you its reader—and to its advertiser . . . YOUR LOCAL PAPER! And it matters not whether its black type records new pages of history, or the comparatively trivial happenings which go to make up the arabesque of suburban life. Your local paper's role as an informer, a recorder, and an adviser, stands secure.

If you have goods to sell, how can you better sell to your community than by the one certain medium—the medium of your local established home-town paper? If you wish to buy, rather than to sell, what can guide you better than your local paper?

Isn't it true, then, that your local paper is more than "just a paper"—that it is, indeed, an essential part of your everyday life? It will benefit you, then, to use its many services to the fullest extent — and to use them regularly. PROTECT YOUR INTEREST IN YOUR HOME TOWN PAPER, AND ITS INTEREST IN YOU—BY SUBSCRIBING TODAY!

Police Chief Ordered By Mayor To Establish Traffic Bureau April 1

Action Comes As Development In Controversy
Between Childs and Aldermen; Lieut. Moan Appointed Head of Bureau

By EDWARD H. POWERS

Another phase in the long-drawn-out controversy between Mayor Childs and the Board of Aldermen developed last Friday when the Mayor ordered Chief of Police Hughes to start the "Traffic Bureau" in the police department, and he also specified the members of the police department who will compose the staff of the bureau. The Mayor informed Chief Hughes that Lieut. Edward A. Moan will be the head of the "traffic bureau" and that Patrolmen Lawrence O'Donnell and Leo Gagnon will serve as assistants to Lieut. Moan. He also specified that one of the three young women clerks at police headquarters shall be assigned to the bureau, and that the revised traffic division of the police department should start on April 1.

The orders of Mayor Childs are interesting in view of the great efforts which are being made at the present time by cities and towns to effect economies in the interest of overburdened taxpayers. The Mayor's insistence in changing the personnel of the traffic activities office of the Newton police department will add at least $2140 the coming year to the expense of conducting this police work, and will temporarily, at least, lessen its efficiency. Two experienced men, a sergeant-inspector and special officer, are being removed from duties they have performed efficiently, and they are being replaced by a lieutenant and two patrolmen who will have to learn some of the duties to which they are being assigned.

Lieutenant Moan, a native of Acton, was appointed to the Newton police department on November 1, 1916. He served until he went overseas with the A. E. F., and resumed his police work in 1919. Moan was made a sergeant on April 9, 1926, and promoted to lieutenant on May 28, 1930. He has earned the reputation of being an efficient police officer. Patrolman O'Donnell, one of two brothers on the Newton police force, is a native of Newton Upper Falls, and an old friend of that village's leading citizen, Thomas W. White. He was appointed to the department on October 13, 1924, and has served much of the time as a motor cycle officer.

Patrolman Gagnon is a native of Salem and was appointed a regular patrolman on April 15, 1937. In 1925 he became employed at the finishing plant of Bachrach, Inc., photographers, at Hunt st., Newton, and worked there in the developing and printing departments until 1931. His appointment to the "traffic bureau" by Mayor Childs has caused considerable comment in the city, both among residents

Newton Aldermen In Hot Hearing At State House

Many Attack Distribution Of Gas Tax As An Aid To Rich Communities

The delegation of members of the Finance Committee of the Newton Board of Aldermen that went to the public hearing in the State House on Thursday, March 23 to favor the distribution of $10,000,000 from the gasoline tax to cities and towns, ran into a lively session, and incurred the ire of delegations from other places. The Newton delegation included Aldermen McKay, Colby and McCabe, and the former was spokesman. The hearing was held in Gardner Auditorium and about 600 were present. Senator Arthur W. Hollis of Newton, chairman of the Ways & Means Committee, presided.

Representative William Baker of Newton, of the House of Representatives Ways & Means Committee explained the details of the plan to distribute $10,000,000 from the revenue derived by the tax on gasoline to cities and towns for use upon local highways. Such anticipated revenue would enable such cities and towns to reduce their local appropriation for street work and reflect itself in a lowering of the tax upon real estate. The proposed distribution would also practically eliminate money which heretofore has been appropriated for use under Chapters 81 and 90 of the General Laws. Money allotted under Chapter 81 is distributed upon a mileage basis to small towns throughout the Commonwealth whose principal roads are state or county roads. Money

Newton Will Hold Annual Free Dog Clinic April 17-21

Vaccination Has Aided Control
Of Rabies In Newton
Declares Mayor

The annual free clinic for Newton dogs to immunize them against rabies will be held in the old drill shed behind Newton High School on Walnut st., Newtonville, from April 17 to 21 inclusive. Dogs whose owners' names begin with the letters A to D inclusive, will be treated on Monday, April 17; E to I inclusive, Tuesday, April 18; J to Q inclusive, Wednesday, April 19; R to T inclusive, Thursday, April 20; U to Z inclusive, Friday, April 21. In connection with this clinic Mayor Childs states—

"There have been outbreaks of rabies in nearby cities and towns, but this city has been fortunate in this respect, due in a measure to the annual vaccination of dogs. If the rabies is controlled it will obviate the necessity of restraining dogs from running at large. Vaccination is effective for a year and the dog should then be vaccinated again. Take your dog to the clinic with your 1939 dog license."

The Mayor recommended $900 in the 1939 budget estimates for defraying the cost of the dog clinic, and the Finance Committee of the Aldermen cut this amount to $800. At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night Alderman Hughes questioned the value of the clinic, with the annual expense it entails. Alderman Temperley in reply stated that these clinics have prevented outbreaks of rabies in Newton in past years.

Haughey Named Acting St. Commr.

Mayor Childs on Tuesday appointed John D. Haughey of 321 Lake ave., Newton Highlands, as acting Street Commissioner. This position has been filled since July of last year by Charles McCarthy, senior division foreman of the Newton Street Department. Mr. Haughey was born in Indianapolis, Indiana, and graduated from Princeton University in 1908 with the degree of Civil Engineer. He has resided in Newton since 1921. After graduating from Princeton, Mr. Haughey served as an engineer in irrigation projects in the West, and was employed by the Dupont Powder Company on construction projects. When the World War started Mr. Haughey enlisted and served as a captain in France and Germany with the 56th Pioneer Infantry. Following the war he engaged in engineering and commercial activities. From 1928 until 1932 he was manager and vice-president of "Skyways," a well known aviation enterprise. Since 1933 Mr. Haughey has been engineer for the City of Newton on WPA projects. He is married and has seven children.

Value of Newton Social Work Revealed At Council Meeting

Richard B. Carter Reveals One-Third Decrease In Juvenile Delinquency Cases During Last Decade

Definite evidence of the value of good social work in Newton was presented at the annual meeting of the Newton Community Council Tuesday night when Mr. Richard B. Carter, Chairman of the Council's Research Committee reported "that the number of juvenile delinquency cases in the Newton District Court had dropped from a yearly average of 95 in the 1920's to 60 per year at the present time and today there is no Newton youngster in the state training school at Chelmsford."

Nearly 100 representatives of Newton social agencies both public and private attended the meeting at the Newton Centre Women's Club. Julius E. Warren, Chairman of the Council presided. The Newton Community Council was organized two years ago by the Newton Community Chest as the central-planning agency for Newton social work.

Other sections of the Council reporting at the meeting were the Division of Health, Dr. Harold D. Chope, Chairman; the Division of Welfare and Relief, Donald M. Hill, Chairman and the Co-ordinating Committees, Harold P. Carver, Chairman. Calling attention to the housing problem in Newton.

A committee on unemployment under the Chairmanship of Clarence G. McDavitt has made careful studies of the Newton situation and expects to formulate definite recommendations during the year.

TWO PLATOON SYSTEM OMITTED

McKay Presents Item-by-Item Report On Reductions Totaling Over $197,000; Majority
Agrees With Report

The report of the Finance Committee of the Newton Board of Aldermen on the Mayor's budget recommendations for 1939 was submitted to the Board on Monday night, March 27. The report showed that the Finance Committee recommends reductions of $197,119.19 from the Mayor's figures and $977 from the Water Department budget. The latter is kept separate because the revenue from the sale of water more than pays the expenses of that department. The budget figures recommended by the Finance Committee total $5,090,401.89, plus $291,505.96 for the Water Department.

The large majority of the Aldermen present at the meeting on Monday night evidenced agreement with the recommendations of the Finance Committee, but Aldermen Schipper and Hoffman stated that they did not think sufficient reductions had been made in a number of instances. The refusal of the Aldermen to accept the Mayor's recommendation for the establishment of a two-platoon system in the Fire Department accounted for $45,110.32 in the reductions. The estimated lowering of the tax rate which the reductions will bring will be about $1.20.

In presenting the report, Alderman McKay, chairman of the Finance Committee, read a prepared report which contained the following preface:

Tonight the Finance Committee will give an item-by-item report—the result of our studies and those of the Public Works and Public Building Committees. During the next week please give the report careful thought for final action on April third. If you expect to propose changes the committee will appreciate being advised during the week in order that it may have pertinent data ready for full explanation, although I believe any reasonable question can be answered readily by any committee member. There are some new features in the printed budget. Items are numbered for easy reference—and all previously voted appropriations are given in the right hand column. These include a few which we have acted upon since receipt of the budget, but also there are all 1939 appropriations to date.

The Mayor's recommendations have been reduced by $197,119.19 in those departments included in the tax levy and $977 in the Water Department. Several department heads and commissions have been advised of our recommendations and have accepted the challenge to keep within them. Very emphatically the Finance Committee now declares its resolve not to recommend during the remainder of 1939 any further appropriations to augment those which this Board adopts except in some unforeseen emergency. Available loan balances obviously are not included in that declaration. We request the City Clerk to give every department head a transcript of this part of our unanimous decision. And we suggest to His Honor that he review during the next week all possible omissions which might later require revenue appropriations. All such received and acted upon before the tax-rate is established will of course be included in the levy.

It has become an annual custom for the Finance Committee to present a formal report of policies, criticisms and suggestions—a review of the past

A VIVID AND SORRY PICTURE

The financial and economic plight in which the cities and towns of the Commonwealth find themselves was clearly indicated this week at a relatively minor hearing before a legislative committee at the State House. A small town in the central part of the state was seeking permission to borrow the sum of five thousand dollars because of the fact that this poverty stricken town had not been forced to resort to such a method of financing its affairs to any great extent in the past. Were the town not permitted to borrow this amount its tax rate would have increased approximately $20 to a rate of $70 per thousand dollars of valuation. In this town there is a textile mill which when running at peak capacity employs about sixty individuals. During the last year it was in operation but three months and thus far this year has been going about three weeks. The population of the community is three hundred and sixty-two individuals of whom 35, or one-tenth of the total number of inhabitants, are receiving old age assistance. The cost to the town of caring for these old age recipients last year averaged about $17 of the tax rate. In addition another approximate tenth of the population, or eight families, are receiving welfare aid. Although it should, in justice, be stated, that this particular community is exceptionally high in its ratio of citizens receiving government aid, similar general principles remain the same when applied to larger industrial communities. When the economic welfare of a city or town becomes affected because of the loss of industry through depression influences, tax burdens, or cheaper production costs elsewhere it does not take long for the situation to become almost hopelessly incurable. The vicious circle of greater taxation to provide greater spending, pump-priming, and necessary living expenses for unfortunate individuals only tends to accentuate conditions which in the end can only be ruinous to those who are now bearing the extensive burden. The only answer can be to cut the cloth according to the pattern, or more specifically, spend only for those essentially necessary items to carry on the government.

First Exhibition Held By Mounted Scouts at Armory

Saturday night at the Commonwealth Armory the Norumbega Mounted Scout Troop, composed of older Scouts from Newton and Wellesley had its first exhibition of troop drill and riding, followed by a reception to parents and friends in Curtis Guild Hall. The exhibition was under the direction of Lieutenant Edwin Cushman, 110th Cavalry, Massachusetts National Guard, who is the instructor of the troop, and of Wm. Bradford Gove, the scoutmaster.

The program started with an exhibition polo game in which two teams of officers from the 110th Cavalry and the 101st Field Artillery of the National Guard participated. Among the players were General Daniel Needham and his son, Daniel Needham Jr.

This was followed by a contest in individual horsemanship, which was won by Daniel Needham, Jr., with Richard Frost of Wellesley second and his brother, Harold Frost, Jr., third.

The contest in jumping was won by Ralph Ellis of Newton Highlands, with William Harmon of Waban second, and John Harber of Newtonville third. In the Squad Drill contest, the squad led by Harold Frost, Jr., won. The other members of the squad are Paul Miller, Warren Baldwin, William Harmon, and Oliver Lothrop of Waban, Richard Frost and Robert Neilson of Wellesley.

The next event was a free-style potato race, won by Ralph Ellis, with Paul Miller second, and Douglas MacNeil of Newton third.

Spurs were presented by Lieutenant Cushman to the members of the Scout Troop who won the season's contest for general excellence. This squad is headed by Ralph Ellis, and includes Donald Van Roosen and John Considine of Newton Center, Richard Spetel of Newton Highlands, and John Harber and Richard Wright, Jr., of Newtonville.

Following the exhibition, a reception and informal dance was held with the following members of the Troop Committee and their wives in the receiving line: Henry T. Dunker, chairman, General Daniel Needham, Colonel Phillip R. Brown, Leigh M. Nisbet, Lieutenant Edwin P. Cushman, Maxwell P. Gaddis.

Membership in the Mounted Troop, one of very few such units in the entire country, is open to Scouts of Newton and Wellesley, who are fifteen years old. First Class, and meet the requirements of the troop.

Supper, Chapel Program By As We Like It Club

The regular monthly meeting of the Club was held March 28th. After a delicious Lenten Supper there was a short business meeting after which we all adjourned to the chapel. Mrs. Frost played two lovely organ selections and Edith Swenson sang some inspiring songs. Harvard G. Harris, a student at the Theological Seminary in Cambridge spoke very forcefully on "The World Crisis and Religion."

Y. M. C. A.

On Saturday afternoon, April 1st, the members of the Cadet Division, boys eight and nine years of age, will be hosts to their parents and friends. From two to three o'clock, opportunity will be given for enrollment for the next three months.

At three o'clock there will be a Grand Council Meeting of the Six Tribes. The Creek Tribe, under William Ward, will present a dramatization of "The Last Grand Council." They will be followed by the Algonquians who, with their leader Jack Dowd, have prepared "The Wolf Dance." Next, the Delaware, under Paul J. Harriman Jr., will dramatize "Pocahontas and John Smith," and the Eries, under William Henn, will show "How Chief Plenty-Coups averted a War." The Tacomas have prepared "A series of Tableaux" showing how bows and arrows are made. Their leader is Robert Goldich. Frank Brimblecom and his Sagamores will present a "Peace Pipe Ceremony" to close this part of the program.

Scout Executive Leigh M. Nisbet will speak on "Life Among the Indians." His talk will include sign language, customs, dances, and what the Indian has given to modern civilization.

There will be a demonstration in the swimming pool under the supervision of Richard B. Simmons of the "Y" staff, and this is to be followed by a symposium on the subject "The Play Program for the Next Three Months." F. S. Bacon and Charles E. Billings will represent the parents, William Ward and Jack Dowd the leaders, Donald White, Sachem of the Tribes, and Thomas Barrette will represent the Cadets.

Tea will be served by members of the Women's Auxiliary under the leadership of Mrs. A. Norman Needy.

The New Newton Y. M. C. A. Progressive Aquatic Team were introduced to all classes at the Newton Y. M. C. A. this week. There are eight levels of progression. First, the Beginners' Test which has twenty-one items to pass. These items include Confidence and Adjustment; Breathing and Floating Skills; Initial Safety, Gilding, and Body-Control Skills; Leg Movement; Arm Movement; Coordination; All Around Performance; Initial Diving Skills. Instruction in the above skills insures a thorough training in water safety skills.

Second, the Intermediate level is made up of three tests—Low, Middle and High Intermediate. All these tests are based on skills related to Life Saving; Body Control; Basic Strokes; Fundamental Dives; Endurance; and Water Safety. Pupils becoming proficient in the above tests are ready for the next three levels; namely, Junior Life Saving, Senior Life Saving; and Competitive Swimming.

Lucy Jackson Chapter D.A.R. To Hold Guest Night April 3

The Lucy Jackson Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Newton Lower Falls, have issued invitations to the members and guests for a "Guest Night" party Monday evening, April 3, at 8 o'clock at the Chapter House. In every room of the house are museum collections of historical interest and value, which are to be explained by a hostess. The hostesses are: Mrs. George Howland, regent; Mrs. J. Walter Allen, Mrs. William Sherwood, Mrs. John Parker Holmes, Mrs. Edward Parker, Mrs. Frank Larkin, Mrs. Harry Johnson, Miss Emily Jordan, Miss Olive Webster, Mrs. Arthur Tucker, Mrs. Harry Cabot, Mrs. Charles Lynde and Mrs. Holcombe Brown, chairman.

At nine o'clock there will be a musical program by the Kovitz Trio: Miss Anna Kovitz, violin; Miss Dorothy Kovitz, piano; and Miss Norma Olson, cello, and readings by Miss Margery Sheppard of Boston.

Free Course In Economics To Be Given at Bachrach's

Residents of Newton, interested in economics, will be glad to know that the sixth session of the Henry George School of Social Science is about to begin.

The Henry George School is chartered by the University of New York and is an endowed institution, the purpose of which is to teach fundamental economics and social philosophy.

The sixth course, of ten consecutive weeks, will start Tuesday night, April 11, at 7:45 o'clock, and will be held at the Bachrach Studio, 44 Hunt st., Newton. The tuition is free—and this course offers an opportunity to learn the basic causes and the solution of the perplexing problems of our times. Mr. Louis Fabian Bachrach of 128 Highland st., West Newton, will be pleased to give additional information regarding this course. About 200 residents of Newton and vicinity have taken this course and found it very beneficial.

DARTMOUTH WOMEN'S CLUB, INC.

Mrs. Edgar J. Nevins is chairman of the Pop Concert and dance to be held under the auspices of the Dartmouth Women's Club, Inc., Friday eve, April 14th, from 8 until 12 p. m. at the Hotel Vendome. There will be a novelty entertainment including Dartmouth songs by Dartmouth men. Music will be furnished by Karl Rhode and his orchestra and the proceeds will be used for the Dartmouth College Scholarship Fund.

The general committee for reservations and arrangements include: Mrs. Walter E. Hammett, Mrs. Edmund S. Phinney, Mrs. Ralph D. Thompson, Mrs. Joseph R. Byram, Mrs. Roscoe H. Chesley, Mrs. Kimball Ross, Mrs. Russell W. Clark, Mrs. Bradford L. Pease, Mrs. Edward Pike, Mrs. Gilbert T. Reynolds, Mrs. George W. Simpson, Mrs. Thomas T. Parker, Mrs. Carter H. Hoyt, Mrs. J. Belden Sly and Mrs. Frederick Y. Briscoe.

Rotary Club

Dr. George W. Shepherd gave a very interesting account of conditions in China, as they are at the present time at the meeting of the Newton Rotary Club on Monday at Brae Burn. Dr. Shepherd is confidential adviser to General and Mme. Chiang Kai-shek on the New Life Movement in China. He spoke of the General as a very solid, substantial person of the old New England type; a man who makes changes only when thoroughly convinced that they are for the best. The General's fighting tactics are quite different from those carried on by the Japanese. His army is now composed of about two and a half million armed soldiers operating in guerilla bands. This is the only way in which they can successfully cope with the strong mechanized forces of Japan. Dr. Shepherd called attention to the fact that the population has dwindled greatly in many of the largest cities taken by the Japanese. In abandoning these cities, the greater part of the Chinese population has moved out with the soldiers. Canton, a city of formerly two million people, now has a population of roughly two hundred thousand.

The great destruction wrought by the Japanese has only served to raise the morale and resistance of the Chinese people. Dr. Shepherd believes that China will never be conquered by the Japanese.

Girl Scouts

"Open House" was held on Tuesday, March 21, by the Girl Scouts of Troop 10 of Newtonville, whose leaders are Miss Eleanor L. Bartlett and Miss Madeleine Merritt. The purpose of the meeting was to acquaint the parents with the work and accomplishments of the girls.

Among the parents and friends who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. William Gallagher, Mr. and Mrs. John Skene, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Langell, Mr. J. F. Gross, Mrs. James Callard, Mrs. Horace Kiger, Mrs. C. A. Deter, Mrs. Horace Greig, Mrs. Percy Prescott, Mrs. James Lewis, Mrs. Alfred Meyer, Mrs. Fred Parker, Mrs. Harold White, Mrs. Henry Young, Mrs. Robert Snow, Mrs. John Duff, Mrs. Albert Scheibel, Mrs. Galen Clevenger, and Miss Kathleen Twombly.

Troop 20, of the Newton Girl Scouts, whose Captain is Mrs. John MacNeil, and the Brownie Pack, which is led by Mrs. Donald Gibbs, visited the distributing plant of First National Stores in Somerville last week. After a tour through the entire plant, First National Stores were hosts for a short social hour and refreshments.

Senior Girl Scout Troop 15 of West Newton, under the leadership of Mrs. Edward Lotz and Mrs. Leo Concannon, entertained the other senior troops of the Newtons at Second Church, West Newton, on Thursday evening, March 30. The following girls took part in a one-act play, "The Sorority Girls": Joan and Nancy Concannon, Elsie Curtis, Dorothy Hanks, Jean Hamant, Betty Holbrook, Gloria Gulle, Eleanor Kelley, Elsa Peterson, Mary Prescott, Betty McCarthy, Marilyn Costello, Constance Stockbridge, Jean Stewart, Betty Cameron, Audrey Wiley and Mary Dillon.

Club women in the Newtons have been devoting a part of their programs recently to the interests of Girl Scouts. At the Auburndale Woman's Club on Tuesday, March 28, Miss Adelaide Ball spoke and Miss Kathleen Twombly showed colored moving pictures of the Vineyard Haven Sailing Camp. At the Newtonville Woman's Club on Tuesday, April 4, Mrs. Edwin P. McGill will speak.

BOOKS FOR SEAMEN

Seamen, coastguardsmen and isolated lighthouse keepers want good books and magazines to read during hours of watch. Visions of fiction, detective stories, history, biography, travel, philosophy, Spanish language, nautical and maritime law textbooks are most in demand, as well as magazines of general interest to men.

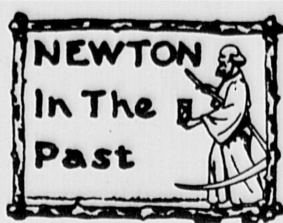

The books you can spare may be left, marked plainly, "For Seamen," at the main library or the nearest branch of Newton Free Library. If there are too many for you to deliver conveniently, our driver would call for them.

Sunbeam Chats

Well, talk about surprises—I just heard the District Nurse say there were two cases of scarlet fever down the street. Now I wish I could have some shot against that. She says the children are quite sick with high fevers and awful sore throats and they have a rash all over. That isn't all she says they can get—bad heart trouble, ear trouble and lot of other things. I guess they sure need a doctor bad.

(Sunbeam Chats are sponsored by the Newton District Nursing Association.)

55 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, March 22, 1884
There was no school on Thursday afternoon on account of the storm.

Miss Mary Dwyer for many years a teacher in the Bigelow School is very low with consumption.

Mrs. Thorpe from the West, a successful teacher for the stammering, has taken up her residence on Cotton st.

The new school house on Pearl st., Nonantum, has been named the "Elton School." The dedication exercises will be held next week Friday.

A careless driver of a grocery wagon collided with a buggy containing two girls from Newtonville on Washington st., Newton, on Tuesday afternoon. One of the girls was thrown from the buggy and received slight injuries.

J. Wesley Barber, who is an expert in the art of amateur photography, took several views on Mount Ida just after the last ice storm showing the trees in all the splendor of their crystal garb.

Mount Ida people think that the laying of the water pipes should not be put off until just the time of the city election, and as proof that such work does not always stand well, they point to Newtonville ave. That street has had to be lighted of late with red lights.

Wanted—A new force of firemen for Steamer 3 at Newton Centre. Apply to Chief of Fire Department at City Hall. The present force have "leave to withdraw" on April 1. None need apply who will try to bulldoze the city government.

Preliminary arrangements for the building of the Circuit Branch railroad are being made as fast as possible. Chief Engineer Russell of the Boston & Albany has been looking over the line this week. The company has arranged with Harry W. Mason of Newton Centre, son of the late David Mason, to examine all the titles to the land along the entire line. He has begun this work and will complete it within a few weeks when the transfers will be made. The work of building the railroad will begin as soon as the company secures titles to the lands.

50 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, March 22, 1889

Charles B. Lancaster of Waverley ave. left this week with a party of gentlemen for the Bermudas, where they will remain for 2 or 3 weeks.

Mrs. G. E. Baker, widow of the late Police Officer Baker, was presented on Thursday night with a purse of $78 by friends who wished to testify in this manner of their appreciation of the late officer's faithful service to the city.

There were 17 deaths in Newton during February; 3 from diphtheria. Thirteen cases of diphtheria were reported, two of scarlet fever, and two of typhoid fever, both of the latter proving fatal.

If a street railway is to be laid through Elmwood st., Newton, as the West End Street Railway Company contemplate, the street should be widened. The street is the natural terminus for a street car line on that side of the city, and such a line would provide a great convenience to people in that section. The street is also a popular thoroughfare with people driving to Boston and it can be widened now at less expense than when more business blocks are put up, as will be the case in the near future. Perhaps the West End Company would bear part of the expense.

William Welch, crossing tender at the Centre st. crossing of the B & A was assaulted Sunday afternoon by his assistant, Booth Farrell, who struck him over the head with a flag stick, inflicting a painful wound. When Welch returned to the flag station from dinner, Farrell was occupying Welch's accustomed place in the room. When Welch ordered him to move, Farrell demurred and Welch pushed him away. Farrell then struck him. Station Agent Morgan discharged Farrell and a new man was at the crossing on Monday morning.

A calisthenic drill will be given by members of the Newton High School on Tuesday evening, April 2, at 7 o'clock to raise money that will be the nucleus to furnish equipment for a gymnasium should the city provide one.

The Catholics at Newton Centre have tried to buy three lots of land on which to build a large church. All the owners have refused to sell their land to be used for such a purpose.

Alderman Childs at the meeting of the Board on Monday night presented the application of E. H. Hewins for a location for his electric railway, to be operated by the storage battery system, without overhead wires or other street obstructions. The location asked for is on Beacon st. from the Boston line; Station st. and Institution ave. to the Newton Centre depot; Tremont st. from the Brighton line; Park and Washington sts. to Woodland station; Auburn st. to Auburndale; Walnut st. to Newton Highlands.

EDWARD H.

Powers' Paragraphs

If the writer were a telephone operator and had to repeat a phrase hundreds or thousands of times a day, he would prefer to say—"Number Please," rather than "Your call, please." The telephone girls' jaws ought to be quite tired at the end of a day, if they have to use the new fangled query.

If you want to observe transportation at its worst, take a trip from Boston to Newton, via Brighton, on a Boston Elevated car any working day between 4 and 5:30. The new system, according to the Elevated management, would give Newton patrons of the "Elevated," improved service. Board a one-man car at Park st. in the subway, and the new persons who have to patronize the "Elevated" attempt to crowd into the cars at the Boylston st. station. Observe men and women at the Copley, Massachusetts and Kenmore stations who cannot even get into the cars. Try to squeeze from the rear end of the car toward the front door, if you want to get off the jammed vehicle. Attempt to get into the car between the subway and Harvard ave., with the front end of the vehicle packed tight with standees. Or stand at some point between Brighton and Oak sq., or Oak sq. and Newton, and observe the cars coming along in groups. Persons who can travel via the Boston & Albany instead of having to depend on the "Elevated," are fortunate.

Alderman Barwise of Ward 1 is advocating that buggies, trucks be again permitted on Watertown st. from the Watertown line to Walnut st. during late night and early morning hours. On November 18, 1935, the Board of Aldermen passed a traffic ordinance closing Watertown st. to trucks of 2½ tons and over between the hours of 8 p. m. and 7 a. m. Watertown st. is a direct and the shortest route between Watertown and West Newton, and is much used by big trucks and trailers travelling to and from Boston and other points to the Worcester turnpike and points West. The result of the ordinance prohibiting heavy trucks on Watertown st. nights, diverted the big vehicles over Galen st., between Watertown and Newton Corner, and thence over Washington st., to West Newton. This caused a considerable increase in heavy traffic along Washington st. during late night and early morning hours, and much of this traffic has been detouring over very narrow Bacon st. at Newton Corner, causing traffic hazards, and discomforts to residents of Bacon and Pearl sts. For three years the writer has been endeavoring to have this injustice to Bacon st. residents corrected, and to compel the big trucks to travel through Newton Corner business district, as was intended when the Aldermen in 1935 passed the order restricting the vehicles on Watertown st. Alderman Gaddis, who has been chairman of the Traffic Committee the past two years has been co-operative in the effort to correct the injustice to residents of Bacon st., Ward 7. So were Aldermen Colby and Rawson of Ward 7.

Alderman Barwise who resides on Washington st. was not in favor of the ordinance affecting Bacon st. until recently, but he did support the restricting ordinance at the meeting on March 20. He has been advocating the elimination of the restricting ordinance on Watertown st. from Walnut st. East, on the contention that the big trucks then can be operated over Walnut st. to and from Washington st. at Newtonville sq., thus relieving traffic conditions at Newton Corner.

Varied Program At Woman's Ass'n Meeting On April 5

On Wednesday, April 5, the regular meeting of the Woman's Association of Central Church, Newtonville, will begin with sewing and surgical dressings ready for workers at 10 a. m. Luncheon at 12:30 will be prepared by the Drama Circle, Mrs. A. E. Spence, chairman, with Mrs. C. W. Peterson in charge of the dining room. The afternoon program at 1:30 is of unusual interest, the speaker being Dr. Brewer Eddy. Special music will be provided by the "Newtonville Sextet" under the direction of Mrs. Ernest Nichols, and by Miss Priscilla Field piano soloist. A Food Sale is to be in charge of Mrs. Robert Whitehill and the Knitting Circle. Plans are under way for the spring rummage sale on April 13 and 14.

ONE THING and ANOTHER

Newton Must Learn

Newton is no longer a rustic village. When we observe the conduct of some motorists we wonder if they are aware of that fact. Last Saturday a driver for a Newton firm left his truck on the crossing at Centre st. and Centre ave., compelling pedestrians to wade through small pools of water on either side of the machine by blocking off the Oak Hill bus from blocking its customary stopping place.

The incident was merely an example of backwoods motoring which may easily be duplicated any day all over the city. No wonder the traffic problem requires a special squad of police. This newly organized detail no doubt can teach drivers that Newton is no longer a back town, it will be a painful though necessary process, accompanied by much squawking from offenders and criticism from sidewalk sympathizers. After all, it must come if Newton is to keep up with the times.

Benches in the Park

Of all the blooms of spring park benches are to my mind the most conspicuous. It is, I suppose, because they suddenly find occupants after months of having gone without. After all, who could ask for a better grandstand seat from which to wave or shout a welcome to the season of buds and gladness? Park benches have been the principal feature of many a story, song and play. O. Henry, as I recall, more than once emphasized their importance in the great drama of city life. For comedy purposes other authors have introduced them as frequently visited by courting couples, nursemaids, and their charges or loafers stretched out for a nap.

I have often wondered where the idea originated. Sunning oneself must be a practice that goes back to the beginning of time. In our days, however, it has developed into an art, and park benches have been a considerable factor. If you will observe, those who seat themselves there on the first warm day and remain until the last, know how to find comfort on a wooden, iron or cement resting place. Of course if you are tired you are glad to sit but if out for recreation such a hard surface is to my mind far from inviting. There, I say, is where the skill comes in and artistic powers seem essential in the absence of cushions. For a reasonable period, minutes not hours, a hard bench is endurable as far as I am concerned. After that I want to get up. But look at the people with fortitude or whatever it is. You'll find them in large numbers now when the sun is brightly shining, and if you are like me, you'll envy them.

Discourse on Eggology

No obstacle as far as I know should stand in the way of making a success of the campaign for a wider and more general use of eggs. I had always supposed most everybody had all the eggs they wanted, but it seems I was wrong again. My interest is certain to be aroused in whatever new ideas may be offered to make people purchase more. Will there be new recipes to introduce unheard of dishes with eggs as the base, or will eggs be recommended as superior to cream for coffee. Possibly more egg-nogs will be shaken and consumed.

As there are unlimited possibilities I should like to remind cooks, bakers and others, including ice cream manufacturers, that they may well use the real article instead of those synthetic egg or egg powder that go into a lot of things we feel obliged to eat. These substitutes should never have been devised but if they contribute to the reduced cost of production there will always be a market for them. The people who make a living by feeding us are mindful of the profits. I am for using more honest eggs, and for more honesty in egg-using. I don't see why the campaign should not triumph as long as the hens are willing to do the work without pay.

More Time for Fooling

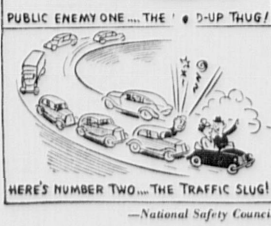

With Saturday either a full or half-holiday for a great many people it is going to permit of a wider observance of All Fools Day. I don't know if people in general thought of the man of April as beginning on Saturday in season to arrange for a superabundance of fooling and stunts or whether they will do more than the ordinary amount now that they know. There are a lot of people who are self-starters when it comes to playing April Fool jokes. They need no encouragement from me or anybody.

I think many folks would be better off if restricted an hour or two instead of having the whole day in which to cut loose. Not all of us are agreed on that point. I regret to say. Some find humor in putting tacks in chair bottoms, leaving fake telephone calls or giving away candy with rubber or soap as part of the filling. It seems many prefer to do things in a big way and cannot get their laughs until some article of furniture has been demolished or somebody has fractured a bone or two. It is difficult for others to roar with mirth unless actual damage has been done or pain inflicted. With an entire day and evening to devote exclusively to All Fools Day pastimes on an extensive scale, Saturday, April 1st, 1939, should prove an eventful day.

Voice of Experience

The annual drama, wherein "the man of the house" is compelled to remain at home because of a heavy cold or similar indisposition, is frequently made into a comedy by those not immediately affected. Much of this domestic agitation—in tragic form—has been going on lately, or for that matter throughout the winter. It isn't especially pleasant and therefore unworthy of emphasis. Still, there is a point that needs attention. In some of the experience is, impatient as the sufferer may become, let him beware lest he burst his shackles before the appropriate time. Nothing is to be gained and much is often lost if there comes a relapse, accompanied by that unwelcome chorus, "You must have gone out too soon."

Aldermen Receive Budget Report From Finance Comm.

and a look to the future. We hope to have this year's report ready on April third. There may be some duplication in it of the chairman's comments to-night.

Many of our recommendations have been disclosed to the Newton Tax-Payers Association. We are apparently of one mind, and their admission to distinguish between "desirable" and "necessary" has been adhered to. Doubtless the Association will issue a message of approval or disapproval.

In the General Department budget, the Finance Committee reduced the $500 recommended by the Mayor for Memorial Day expenses to $400; the savings to be made in the hire of bands. The Mayor recommended that $13,784.70 be appropriated for insurance of city property. The Finance Committee cut this figure to $10,450 by placing insurance on boilers for one year instead of three years as heretofore. The expiration of the boiler insurance accounted for the increase in the insurance item from $4,277 in 1938 to triple that amount this year. The committee decided to stagger the boiler insurance, placing one-third each year. Alderman Schipper suggested that the city can save considerable on boiler insurance by not insuring against crackage, as the losses from this source over a period of 12 years, have been but a fraction of the cost of the insurance.

The Mayor had recommended $2452 for the expenses of the License Board, an increase of $1000 over the cost of this department in 1938. The committee cut this figure to $2026. Alderman McKay explained that $585 of the License Board budget is for expenses of an investigator. Alderman McCabe stated that the License Board is composed of three members who are unpaid, that the city derives considerable revenue from the licenses issued, and that some of the places licensed to sell liquor need investigating. Alderman Schipper disapproved of the provision for an investigator. He commented that the License Board in past years has got along without an investigator, and this is no year to add such an expense. Alderman Hoffman, Hughes and Tiffin agreed with Schipper. It is understood that the investigating will be done by A. Leslie Moriarty, one of the three members of the License Board.

Alderman McKay suggested that the members vote "Yes" or "No" on the recommendations of the Finance Committee, with the understanding that they could reconsider their votes at the following meeting, when formal action will be taken on the budget. Alderman Fahey and Hoffman opposed this plan. They stated that inasmuch as they had not seen the report until that night, they could not vote intelligently on it. The majority of the members accepted McKay's suggestion. McKay explained that the Finance Committee had approved salary increases only for such clerks in

In the Executive Department budget, the Finance Committee reduced the WPA administration expense from $32,500 to $30,000. Alderman McKay remarked that this expense has been steadily increasing and economy must be practiced in connection with it. In the Accounting Department budget, the committee cut $500 from the Mayor's recommendation of $7000 for postage, and commented that economy should be practiced in this item. In referring to the item for clerical expense in the Assessing Department, Alderman McKay stated that one employee of this department has been a temporary clerk for 64 years. In referring to the Soldiers' Relief Department, Alderman McKay said:

"This department gives us considerable concern. We have great confidence in the head of the department, but realize he has certain handicaps beyond his control. Repeated citations of grave charges by a member of this Board cannot go unanswered indefinitely. These have not been directed at the department head. If entirely unfounded immediate refutation should be forthcoming. The public should have a fully aired investigation—not secretive evasion—and most certainly not an ignoring and dismissal of the accusations as a 'mosquito bite,' as reported in the press."

"Fair and equitable treatment to the worthy and deserving—and abolition of any dishonest and reprehensible practices if they exist—should result in a lowered cost in this department. Doctors' bills should be reviewed by the City Physician. More supervision and sympathetic co-operation should be given the department head to the end of curing apparent serious ills."

"You are aware of the pressure being exerted upon the mayor that he adopt the Veterans' Retirement Act on behalf of Newton. This is not a subject which comes before the Board as it is entirely in the executive's power. But the Finance Committee wishes to record its position at this critical time when every effort is being made for economies. We endorse the stand taken a year ago and express the hope that His Honor will not approve the Act for Newton this year. The budget appropriations now before you for Soldiers' Relief are evidences of the care and protection which will be given our veterans. It is now fifty cents on the tax rate."

In discussing the budget of the Law Department, Alderman Rawson said that he hopes the Aldermen will adopt a policy of "thumbs down" on any land takings this year. In commenting on the budget of the Engineering Department, Alderman McKay said that the finance committee regretfully saw fit to refuse $100 increases for two assistant engineers, because several college trained men in the department are getting less pay than laborers under them. perley favored the increases referred to, saying that there are several of the engineers receiving smaller pay than laborers, and they should not be expected to work for sweat-shop wages. Alderman Rawson agreed with Temperley.

Referring to the Buildings Department budget, Alderman McKay said that this and other departments all asked for $5-horsepower cars in replacing new automobiles, except the fire department, which will be satisfied with a new 60-horsepower car for its inspector. The Finance Committee recommended salaries for six inspectors in the Buildings Department. Alderman Schipper said that the Board's sympathy was worked on last year to retain this number of inspectors, after it had been voted to drop two of them, and he said that with the small amount of building going on in Newton, one of the six inspectors should be dropped. Alderman Tiffin said that two of the inspectors can be dispensed with. Alderman McKay urged more economy in the use of telephones at City Hall, and by the police, school and library departments, in referring to the item of $5300 for telephone expense. He disapproved of the city paying for telephones in the homes of many city employees.

In connection with the Police Department budget, Alderman McKay explained that provision is made for the purchase of a new car for the chief, who is now driving a 1930 model. Also for a new ambulance, 9 cruising cars and four motorcycles. In answer to a question by Alderman Rawson, McKay said the new ambulance will either be a Buick or a Cadillac-LaSalle, and will be one in which three patients may be carried. The item for reserve patrolmen calls for $5040 and Alderman Schipper wanted this sum halved. The Finance Committee disapproved of the Mayor's recommendation for 6 additional patrolmen, intended to permit the establishment of one day off in each six for policemen instead of one day off in eight. Alderman Fahey, Hughes, Barwise and Jamieson did not agree with this attitude of the Finance Committee. The first three of these Aldermen favored the additional patrolmen so that the day off in six can be had. Alderman Jamieson favors a day off in seven for the police. Provision was made by the Finance Committee for paying a salary to the sergeant-mechanic only until July 1. Alderman McKay said the committee took this action because the question of the continuance of this office is still in committee. The committee refused the item of $400 to pay the expenses of the Chief to a convention in California. Alderman McKay said similar action had been taken on items in other department budgets for sending department heads to conventions.

In the Fire Department budget an item of $2145 for two-way radio equipment was refused because the committee believes that there will be enough of a balance remaining from the amount provided for the police department two-way radio to care for also the Fire Department. The committee turned down the Mayor's recommendation that the salary of the Sealer of Weights and Measures be increased from $2400 to $2500. Alderman McKay said this official also receives $200 as Civil Service officer.

In commenting on the Health Department budget, Alderman Rawson and Temperley thought the item for automobile maintenance ($700) was rather large. Discussing the Welfare Department budget, Alderman McKay said:

"The difficulties involved in administering this department are well recognized, and we believe that an unpaid Board of Public Welfare, acting in an advisory capacity, would prove to be helpful to the executive head of the department, conducive to efficiency, and valuable in presenting the problems to the general public."

"We further believe that provision should be made for one or more trained case workers who would be concerned chiefly with rehabilitation. This might involve additional expense in the beginning but should ultimately effect a net saving of money, not to mention the other values of such work."

Alderman Fahey said that the operating expenses of this department are 12 per cent of the amount it receives, which is excessive and should be investigated. Alderman Hutchinson said that Hughes had brought out a much discussed subject, and that some persons believe that more spent on investigation and rehabilitation of welfare recipients will increase morale and lessen dole expenditures. He said that one private agency in this city spends 40 per cent of its receipts for administration, and it is money well spent. He called attention to the fact that more money has been recommended by the Finance Committee for the four major relief items than was expended in 1938.

Alderman Fahey said he would vote for the $600 recommended by the Mayor for temporary assistants for the City Physician. Instead of the $500 the Finance Committee allowed, Fahey said his attention had been called to two cases where parents had sent word to the new city physician to come to treat sick children, and instead of coming the city physician sent the police ambulance to take the children to the hospital.

In referring to the School Department budget Alderman McKay said that by reducing the salary items $18,000 in the regular schools and $1000 in the Vocational School, teacher loads will have to be increased. By raising the admission age to kindergartens from 4½ to 5 years, as may be done next September, the school department will save about $20,000 yearly. McKay said that the Finance Committee spent more time on the study of this department than any other, as it requires about 30 per cent of the annual budget expenses. He stated that Alderman Colby of Ward 7 spent days in examination of every item of the school department expenses. Alderman Hoffman said that Boston cut its school expenses $360,000 this year, or 2½ to 3 per cent. Newton has cut only 1 per cent, the School Department has sacrificed least in these hard times, and the budget should be returned for further cuts, as it is one of the highest, per capita, in the country. Alderman McKay replied that it is now only 3 months to the end of the current school year, and provisions for cuts in the school department budget must be made a year ahead. Alderman Hutchinson suggested that in the future when new teachers are hired, that they be given step-rate increases bi-annually instead of annually. Alderman Hoffman said that school teachers have opportunities each summer to supplement their liberal salaries, and if the school department budget is cut $75,000 more, a way will be found to meet such a cut.

Alderman McKay commended the Library Department for its low cost per book circulation, for keeping an accurate account of expenditures, and never overspending. In the Playground Department budget, $4000 was cut from the amount recommended by the Mayor ($82,000) for directors' salaries, and nearly $4000 from the amount recommended by the department and the Mayor for the maintenance of playgrounds.

Savings of $125,000 from the amounts recommended by the Mayor for maintenance of streets and drains, in the Street Department budget, were affected because of $125,000 received from the State through Newton's share of the gasoline tax. Many items recommended by the Mayor were reduced by the Finance Committee; the largest reductions being on traffic signs, $6000; garage expenses, $4000; street lighting, $14,000; moth work, $3,000; and mosquito control, $5000. Alderman Hoffman said that the town of Greenwich, Connecticut covers more area than Newton and spends less on its streets. He argued that if the street department budget is further reduced, more efficiency will result. Alderman Jamieson said that if the Newton Street Department had more mechanical equipment, its cost could be cut down, but the Aldermen cannot take the initiative in this matter. Alderman Rawson said that Brookline with 90 miles of streets has 3 snow-loaders, and Newton with 271 miles of streets has only one snow-

"Do you know it has cost us $4800 for rent in the last ten years? That would have easily paid for a house of our own."

"The treasurer down at the Co-operative Bank says that we could have paid for a home just like rent through a mortgage in his bank."

If you, like these average people—are paying $30 or more a month rent and have nothing to show for it but rent receipts—the loader; if Newton had 3 loaders, it would save thousands of dollars each winter. Alderman Temperley said that if Newton dispenses with street department employees, the welfare cost will be increased. He said that an incinerator was built several years ago at a cost of $200,000, ostensibly to lower the cost of rubbish disposal, but it now costs the city more to get rid of rubbish, and there is a large quantity of rubbish outside the incinerator waiting to be burned.

As the meeting was about to close Alderman Hoffman took the floor and made a plea for even more economy than the Finance Committee had manifested. He said he voiced the sentiments of his constituents when he voted against the proposed appropriations, and he prophesied that unless taxes in Newton are radically reduced, many residents of this city will lose the equities in their homes. Hoffman said that the cost of conducting city activities in Newton is as high per capita as in Boston, and the latter city is one of the most expensive cities in this country as regards the cost of government. Hoffman urged a 5 per cent reduction in the cost of running Newton for the next five years.

Boston Mutual Records Gains In Insurance, Assets, Surplus

The Boston Mutual Life Insurance Company made excellent progress in 1938 and increased its insurance in force, assets, and surplus, as shown in the Company's Thirty-ninth Annual Report released by President Jay R. Benton. Insurance in force increased to $86,260,311.00; total assets to $13,305,691.46; and surplus to $704,242.47. Total assets increased $687,614.33. On a percentage basis, the assets of the Company were divided as follows: U. S. Government bonds 29.0%, other bonds 33.0%, stocks 1.3%, mortgages 10.3%, real estate 12.9%, loans to policyholders 9.1%, cash in banks 3.1%, and miscellaneous 1.3%.

Liabilities totaled $12,601,448, of which $12,016,764 constituted the Policy Reserves. The income received during 1938 exceeded all disbursements by $694,136.16. The largest single item of income was premium receipts. In 1938 the premium income was $3,342,141.62. Second only to premium income was the amount received in interest, dividends, and real estate rentals which amounted to $616,072.97. Total income from all sources reach an all time high of $4,025,867.39.

Dividends to policyholders were declared for this year on the same basis as in 1938, except that aggregate dividends on preferred risk policies will be increased. Over $200,000 has been provided for 1939 dividends, which amount is the largest ever set aside for distribution in the history of the Company.

Issuing its first policy on September 21, 1899, the Boston Mutual has never in its long history failed to meet promptly and fairly any moral or legal obligation. In its career, fast approaching four decades, the Company has successfully gone through many adverse conditions, such as the World War, serious epidemics, and business depressions and has met all its obligations promptly and demonstrated its ability to make progress in the face of unprogressive tendencies.

Two More Dogs Bite Persons

Two owners of dogs in this city were ordered to restrain their pets last Saturday after complaints were received that the animals had bitten persons. Philip Piccirillo of 28 Faxon st., Nonantum was ordered to restrain his dog on complaint of Bradley Hill of Auburndale. Daniel Riordan of 370 Cherry st., West Newton, was ordered to restrain his dog, after William Stumph of River st. had complained concerning the canine.

Illustrated Talk Presented To W. Newton Junior D.A.R.

Mrs. Willard F. Richards of West Newton, State chairman of the Massachusetts Junior Daughters of the American Revolution, was hostess to the members of that patriotic organization in Eastern Massachusetts, on Tuesday evening, March 28, at Damon Hall Junior College.

Following a reception the guests were invited to listen to an illustrated talk upon the famous Gov. Gore mansion in Waltham by Mr. Bradford Williams of Boston and Wellesley Hills, distinguished son of Harvard, and one of the prominent landscape architects of the country.

At the conclusion of the address the refreshments were served by the staff of Damon Hall.

Elks Elect New Officers

The annual election of officers of Newton Lodge of Elks was held last Thursday. There were contests for a number of offices. Edward F. Dalton of Pine Crest rd., Newton Centre, was elected Exalted Ruler, defeating Ernest Bieler. Bernard Haffey was elected Leading Knight; Matthew Hurley defeated Alfred Guzzi for Loyalty Knight; and Carl Eschelbach defeated R. John Henderson for Lecturing Knight. Dana Foley won in a close contest from a field of five for Tiler; William E. Earle was elected trustee; and Douglas Furbush was elected Alternate to the Grand Lodge. Thomas Coppinger and D. Walter Kearn were elected Secretary and Treasurer without opposition.

Charged With Drunken Driving

William Guild of 118 Newtonville ave., Newton, was arrested at 3:25 a. m. Tuesday by Patrolman Maguire on a charge of driving while under the influence of liquor. He was arraigned in the Newton court on Tuesday and his case was continued until April 6.

Youth Endangers Lives of Two Boys

A 16-year-old youth residing on Cedar st., Newton Centre, was arraigned in the Newton court last Friday on a charge of carrying a revolver without a permit. He was found guilty and sentenced by Judge Mayberry to a suspended term at the Shirley Industrial School. He was also placed on probation for a year. The youth was arrested the preceding night by Patrolmen Whelan and McEnaney after complaints had been made to the police by neighbors that he had been shooting with a revolver at a target in the yard at his home. When he was arrested by the police he had a rifle in his possession, in addition to a revolver. The officers observed the youth throwing away some object as they neared him and it proved to be the barrel of the rifle. Other parts of the weapon were found in one of his pants legs, and the revolver was in a pocket.

After the police had arrested the youth, they learned that a complaint had been received at police headquarters that he had fired shots to- ward two 11 year old boys who were skating in Edmonds Park. One of the shots he fired knocked a ski pole out of the hand of Walter Phillips, 11, of 11 Morse rd., Newtonville. The overenthusiastic young marksman also fired a shot through each of two skis of Robert Lindquist, Jr., 11, of 37 Morse rd.

Legislators At League of Women Voters' Luncheon

Newton members of the State Legislature were guests last Saturday noon at a luncheon of the Newton League of Women Voters. Nearly one hundred members and friends of the league attended the meeting, which was held at the Brae Burn Country Club. Mrs. Robert T. Bushnell, president, introduced the speakers and presided at the meeting. Lieutenant-Governor Horace T. Cahill, who was also scheduled to speak, was unable to attend because of illness.

Senator Arthur Hollis, chairman of the joint committee on Ways and Means, discussed the state budget. He explained briefly the situation regarding state finances, some of the difficulties encountered in trying to reduce expenses as well as some of the conditions which have caused great increases in education, mental health, welfare assistance and other major activities of the state. Rep. William B. Baker also discussed the state budget as well as the financial problems of cities and towns in connection therewith. Rep. Douglass B. Francis told of the many problems which are being encountered through the adoption of biennial sessions. He indicated that it would be difficult to prevent the legislature from increasing salaries of the members, as has previously been done over the vetoes of two Republican governors.

Rep. Paul M. Goddard, a member of the committee on State Administration, discussed several matters of legislation before the committee regarding the reorganization of several departments. Rep. Warren K. Brimblecom, clerk of the committee on Municipal Finance, discussed legislation before that committee. Among such matters are permitting cities and towns to borrow for welfare purposes, the removal or amending of an obsolete law, placing a heavy fine upon cities and towns failing to provide sufficient school appropriations, the installation of parking meters, and special legislation affecting particular communities.

At the April meeting of the League, officers will be elected.

Would Use Newton Mansion As Home, School For Girls

A petition has been presented to the Newton Board of Aldermen asking for a permit to use the Clark mansion at 80 Claremont st., Newton, as a home school for friendless girls. The palatial residence was built by the late James E. Clark about 30 years ago and was assessed for $40,000. It is reputed to have cost a much higher sum. It is one of the best constructed residences in Newton, having been erected on day-work by highly skilled mechanics under the constant supervision of the architect.

The petition is signed by the trustees under the will of James E. Clark—Mildred Clark Sears and John H. Eaton, vice president and trust officer of the Boston Safe Deposit & Trust Company. The petition states—

"The undersigned herein seek permission from your Honorable Board to make use of the property at 80 Claremont st., Newton, Mass., as a home-school for friendless girls, said home-school known as 'Welcome House' and operated without profit.

"Welcome House' has outgrown its present accommodations in Jamaica Plain and needs these new quarters. 'Girls without a father or mother or a home, girls of normal mentality of approximately 14 to 16 years of age, and irrespective of religion, are to be given, in this location, our educational program, for a year or more, in home-making and wholesome recreation—thereby finding security and developing into responsible members of society.

"Welcome House' is financed by the Florence Crittenton League, which also maintains the Maternity Hospital in Brighton. 'Welcome House' is preventive in purpose and program and renders a diametrically opposite type of service to that of the hospital, and of necessity is kept absolutely separate and distinct. The proposed use of the 80 Claremont st. property under the petition is for the home-school works done specifically and exclusively by 'Welcome House.'"

Smoking In Bed Causes Two Fires

Newton firemen responded to alarms for two fires the past week, both of which were caused by persons smoking in bed. Sunday morning at 5:57 as Edward Dooley of Newtonville was walking along Lothrop st., he observed smoke coming from the window of a bedroom at the home of Mrs. Theresa Farrell, 58 Lothrop st. Dooley aroused the occupants of the house and then rang an alarm from Box 243. One of those awakened was Paul Farrell, whose bed had been set afire by careless smoking. The fire was confined to the bedroom.

Sunday afternoon at 3:30 Box 151 was pulled and brought Newton firemen to 145 Galen st., just over the Watertown line where a mattress in a bedroom at the lodging house of Mrs. Theresa Gallo was burning. The room was occupied by Thomas Farrell, and firemen said a burning cigarette had started the blaze.

Sent To Jail For Stealing Records

William Leonard, 36, of 131 Morse st., Watertown was sentenced by Judge Donahue in the Middlesex Superior Court last Monday to serve 3 months in Billerica prison for entering the plant of the Rohmer Wool Scouring Company on California st., Nonantum and stealing books which contained records used by that company in its business. Leonard, a former employee of the Rohmer Company, and a former Watertown police officer, was detected by the watchman at the wool scouring plant as he left the place. Inspectors Burke and Hammell of the Newton police went to Leonard's home and recovered the records.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Unreality" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world, on Sunday, April 2.

The Golden Text is: "Remove far from me vanity and lies: give me neither poverty nor riches: feed me with food convenient for me" (Proverbs 30: 8).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. . . . We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth our voice: he that knoweth not God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error" (1 John 4: 1, 6).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Because Truth is infinite, error should be known as nothing. Because Truth is omnipotent in goodness, error, Truth's opposite, has no might. Evil is but the counterpoise of nothingness. The greatest wrong is but a supposititious opposite of the highest right" (pp. 367, 368).

WOULD YOU DRIVE WITHOUT A SPARE TIRE?

The wise family man needs life insurance for readjustment just as much as his car needs a spare tire. Whether it is all the protection he owns, or simply one policy in a complete life insurance program, it is likely to be the most important factor in his family's financial future—if they ever have to go along without him.

The John Hancock readjustment plan is designed with the idea of continuing the breadwinner's support for a year or more after death. It gives dependents time to prepare for living on a reduced income or for arranging to replace the breadwinner's earnings with their own.

This special protection is within the reach of every man who can earn a comfortable living for his family today. Ask a John Hancock representative about the Readjustment Plan or write for descriptive booklet.

NATHAN ELZHOLZ, District Manager

Traffic Bureau To Start By Order Of Mayor Childs

of Nonantum, where Gagnon resides, and among members of the police department who resent seeing a man who has been in the department less than two years taken off night duty and assigned to a preferred assignment, while men who have been members of the department for many years will have to continue on night duty. Gagnon first registered as a voter in Newton on October 8, 1928, and was dropped from the voting list in 1929. He again registered on September 26, 1932, and the following year became active politically in Nonantum, working in the interest of the candidacy of Mayor Weeks and opposing the candidacy of Thomas W. White. As the writer was a member of Mr. White's campaign committee that year, and centered his endeavors in the Nonantum precinct of Ward 1, he heard of Mr. Gagnon's activity against Mr. White. In 1935 the writer was one of the nine members composing Edwin O. Childs' campaign committee, and had charge of the campaign in the Nonantum district. Although we never became acquainted with Mr. Gagnon, or talked with him, we heard plenty of his efforts against Mr. Childs—and so did Mr. Childs. Gagnon's activities against the Mayor did not have much result as Childs received his usual overwhelming majority in the Nonantum precincts. So the Mayor's deference to Gagnon's long known ambition to be assigned to photographic work in the police department has renewed the observations of Nonantum people that Mr. Childs has a peculiar habit of catering to his enemies, and forgetting those who made sacrifices for him. Of course, this trait of the Mayor's has its advantage. It gives him the reputation of being ultra-Christian and forgiving. In justice to Gagnon, he has been efficient in the performance of his duties since becoming a member of the police department. In fact he was too assiduous in his work as a night patrolman at Newton Upper Falls to suit some persons, and political pressure was used in an effort to have Gagnon become more lenient in the performance of his duties.

The credit—or responsibility for the creation of the "traffic bureau" belongs to the Newton Safety Council. At a meeting of this newly formed organization at Newton police headquarters on September 30, 1937 a motion was made by Richard Dunn, vice-president of the Safety Council and chairman of its committee on "police enforcement" that—a traffic division be organized in the Newton police department with a staff including a sergeant, a patrolman as an assistant, and a clerk. Dunn also suggested that Sergeant Richard Bannan who had taken a short course at the Harvard School of Traffic Research be placed in charge of the new division.

Mr. Dunn, who is a vice-president of the Lumbermen's Mutual Insurance Company, and therefore unusually interested in traffic safety, explained the alleged advantages of the proposed traffic bureau, and the council voted to adopt his suggestions. A committee from the Safety Council later awaited on Mayor Childs and he agreed to the institution of the traffic bureau or division.

The Mayor, however, did not see fit to designate Serg. Bannan as the head of the proposed bureau. Instead, he named Lieut. Moan to be in charge of the traffic division. The Board of Aldermen approved of the creation of the traffic bureau by voting a few hundred dollars to purchase equipment for the bureau, but the Aldermen balked on having Lieut. Moan head the bureau. Not that they had anything against Moan, but they believed that should Moan be shifted from officer in charge of headquarters nights to the traffic bureau, Serg. Mechanic Cullen would be made a lieutenant by the Mayor—and the controversy over Serg. Cullen between the Mayor and the Aldermen has already been extant for some time. So, the matter of the starting of the traffic bureau has been a sore spot between the Mayor and the Board of Aldermen since, with Chief Hughes dragged into the fracas.

Subsequent developments have been interesting. The Safety Council leaders who were responsible in the first place for starting the agitation for and about the traffic bureau have become cognizant of the excellent work which Serg. Burke and Inspector Hammill have been doing in investigating automobile accidents and prosecuting traffic violators, and they have commended the work of these two men, who have done well the same duties which will be assigned to the new staff of the traffic bureau, and at less expense to taxpayers of Newton than the added personnel will entail.

Returning to the matter of the assignment by the Mayor of Patrolman Gagnon as the photographer in the traffic bureau, the Mayor may justify this act on his part by referring to the suggestion of members of the Safety Council that one of the Traffic Division staff be competent to take photographs of accident scenes, and the fact that Gagnon has had considerable experience in photography. To offset this argument is the fact that both Serg. Burke and Officer Hammill have had considerable experience also in taking photographs of accident scenes and wrecked cars, and their work in this respect has won the praise of officers of the Safety Council. No expert in photography is required in the traffic division. Any person of ordinary intelligence with a couple of days instruction can do the photographic work necessary at the traffic bureau. At police headquarters those engaged in traffic work have the advantage of excellent cameras, a synchronized photo-flash attachment, and an unusually well equipped darkroom. Pictures taken of accident locations and wrecked cars have to be left untouched. No expert is needed

GENERAL MOTORS' SECOND LOWEST-PRICED CAR

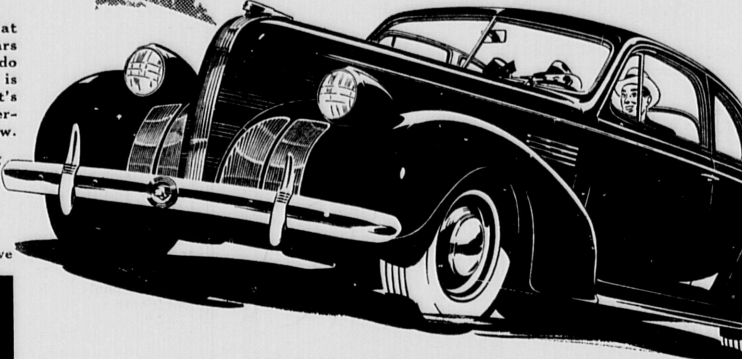

It's easy to convince people that Pontiac is one of the few great cars built today. A look and a ride do that. But persuading people that Pontiac is priced within a few dollars of the lowest—that's something else again! Motorists can't understand how a car so fine can sell at a price so low.

Here's your answer: The Pontiac engineering staff has pioneered no less than 90 basic improvements in automotive design. They're master engineers, every one—past masters at getting better results for less money.

That's why the 1939 Pontiac looms so high above its field in quality, value, comfort, performance, luxury and safety. No car on earth is better engineered. And that means—no other car is so well able to make you proud and save you money!

Ivan Pettys, soprano; Mrs. Dorothy Holmes Clark, contralto; William Rice, tenor; and Albert F. Jackson, bass. The organist and director is R. Lawrence Capron.

Nine Churches Combine To Hold Good Friday Service

Nine churches of Newton, Newtonville, West Newton and Auburndale will hold a service on Good Friday from 12 noon to 3 o'clock in Central Congregational Church, Newtonville. Seven of the ministers of the churches will participate in the service, each conducting a period based upon one of the seven words of Jesus from the Cross. Those taking part are the Reverend Messrs. Martin L. Goslin, William E. Blake, Raymond Lang, J. Franklin Knotts, Randolph S. Merrill, Ralph H. Rogers, and Boynton Merrill. Franklin J. Field, baritone, and Joseph R. Ludwigson, tenor, will sing solos. All people of the community are invited to attend as much of the service as they find convenient.

Immanuel Baptist Church
Church St., Newton

The sacred cantata, "Olivet to Calvary" by J. H. Maunders will be presented Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Immanuel Baptist Church, Rev. Otis R. Heath, pastor. The choir of twenty-five voices will be under the direction of Pauline Smith Mansfield, who will sing the alto solos. Other soloists will be Beatrice Sparkes, soprano; Edward Potter, tenor; and Fred A. Newcomb, bass. The presentation of this cantata is an annual custom in the church on Palm Sunday. The Lord's Supper will be observed following the musical service.

St. John's Episcopal

Palm Sunday Services will consist of Holy Communion at eight in the morning, and a Children's Service at 9:30 a. m. Following these observances, the Morning Prayer, Procession with Palm Branches, Dedication of the Christian Church Flag. Sermon to do retouching, spotting or to make enlargements in "high-key" or "low-key." The writer is not an expert nor a near-expert in photography, but it has been one of his hobbies for years, he owns a couple of cameras and a couple of enlargers, and has been in touch with the photographic work of the Newton police department since it was started in connection with automobile accidents several years ago. As a result of Mayor Childs' action in connection with the changes he has ordered in the traffic division, one additional man has been unnecessarily added to this work. Serg. Burke and Inspector Hammill will have to be detailed to other work, and the Newton police department one half of each night will be in charge of a sergeant who will have to be taken from street duty.

Palm Sunday morning service at 10:45. Music by vested choir under direction of Mr. Clendenning Smith, Jr. The sermon will be preached by Rev. Martin Goslin, his topic being "The Very Stones Would Have Cried Out!"

To Present Religious Play
"Into Thy Kingdom," a religious play, will be presented this Sunday evening at 7:15 p. m. in the church. The play presents a beautiful story centering around the figures of Caiaphas, the High Priest who condemned Jesus, and Adina his wife. These parts are taken by Mr. Robert Frye and Mrs. Muriel Kent. Other important characters are played by Mr. John Alexander, Mr. Harold Kent, Mr. James Ridgway, Mrs. Eunice Frye, Mr. Malcolm Farquhar, and Mrs. Esther Kent who also directs the play. Friends from other churches are invited to attend, and advised to arrive early due to the limited seating capacity of the auditorium.

Special Communion Service
A special Holy Week Communion Service will be held in the North Congregational Church on Thursday, April 6th, at 7:45 p. m. The service will be accompanied by the choir under the direction of Mr. Clendenning Smith, Jr. They will sing

Prelude, "Memories" Dickinson
Introit, "Bread of Heaven" Bach
Anthem, "There is a Green Hill" Trowbridge
Solo, "All in the April Evening" Diack

The subject of Mr. Goslin's meditation will be the completion of a series used in Lent centering in the thought of the Apostle Paul, "I Love!" This is an open communion for all Christian folks.

West Newton Unitarian
Washington St., West Newton

At the Unitarian Church Sunday, April 2nd, the service of worship will be at 10:50 with the sermon by Mr. Hitchen on "The Livableness of Life." This is the last in the series of lenten sermons on the general subject "Beliefs that Matter."

The last in the series of Lenten Lectures being given by Mr. Hitchen in the Parish House of the Unitarian Church on Tuesday mornings under the general subject "Deliverance in the Great Religions" will be next Tuesday, April 4th, when the subject will be "Christianity Seeks Salvation." These lectures begin at 10:30 o'clock and are preceded by coffee at 10 o'clock. All interested persons are welcome to attend.

The Jaynes League will meet in the Parish House of the Unitarian Church Sunday evening, April 2nd, at 7 p. m. Mr. Felix Lion will speak on the subject "Lost in a Fog." All college and preparatory school friends home for the Easter holidays are cordially urged to attend.

Hold Combined Service
Last year an interesting Union Service was inaugurated when the Unitarian churches of South Natick, West Newton, Wellesley Hills and West Newton combined for a Good Friday service. This year the service will be held in the West Newton Unitarian Church on Friday evening, April 7th, at 8 p. m. Rev. Miles Hanson, Jr., of West Newton will preach the sermon and Rev. M. M. Nielsen of South Natick will assist.

Richard B. Carter Speaks At Annual Council Meeting

Cites Value of Good Social Work in Newton; Decrease in Child Delinquencies

Calendar Committee headed by Mrs. Henry T. Dunker has been established by the Council which has established a clearing-house at the Newton Community Chest office for dates for all activities of Newton organizations.

Ralph Blanchard, Administrative Director of the Community Chests and Councils, Inc., New York City, spoke on the development of the work of Community Councils throughout the country. He said in part:

"All American communities are today faced with a bewildering variety of social and health problems. During the past few years much social welfare legislation on federal and state levels has been placed on the statute books. These laws have resulted in a great number of agencies, departments, and bureaus which exist in all levels of government but ultimately converge on the local community where reside the people whom the laws are designed to assist. In other words there is a convergence on the local community of a great array of problems on the one hand and agencies and departments designed to meet these problems on the other hand. Councils of social agencies are the only organizations so far devised which are able to secure unified data regarding problems and to coordinate all of the many efforts being made to alleviate the problems thus presented. This means an inevitable period of growth and increasing importance for councils in years to come."

Officers elected for the coming year were: Chairman, Donald M. Hill; Assistant Chairmen, Mrs. Lucius E. Thayer, Rev. Ray Eusden, Clarence G. McDavitt, M. John Barry; members, Mrs. H. T. Dunker, Mrs. Philip A. Segal, Mrs. F. Ward Paine, Julius E. Warren, Mrs. W. T. O'Halloran.

Juniors Choose Lucky Winner Of Scholarship

Tomorrow, Saturday, the State Juniors will choose, through their delegates to their Spring Conference, the lucky winner of the State Federation Junior Traveling Scholarship, which will entitle her to attend the General Federation Biennial Meeting at San Francisco in May, with expenses paid. The meeting of the General Federation will have more than usual interest this year, too, since it will be held in the city that will be the scene of the Golden Gate International Exposition.

The three Scholarship finalists, already chosen by judges from many talented Juniors, will compete, and from them, during the noon recess, the Juniors will select one by ballot.

The Junior Old and New Club of Malden will be hostess to the Juniors of the State in the Beebe Junior High School, Upper Pleasant st., Malden. The morning session will open at 10:30 o'clock, with the Junior department chairman, Miss Frances A. Letson presiding. Miss Eleanor Thoresen, president of the Hostess Club, will greet the Juniors. Others who will bring greetings include Mrs. Henry V. Hill, president of the State Federation; Mrs. Fred L. Pigeon, fourth vice-president; Mrs. John H. Kimball, General Federation director; Mrs. Edwin Troland, director of this District, the Eighth, in which the Hostess Club is located; and Mrs. F. Chester Everett, president of Senior Club, Malden Old and New. The response to the greetings will be given by Miss Anastasia J. Kirby, vice-chairman of the Junior department.

The competition of the three Juniors will consist of each presiding over the session during the District reports given by Juniors from each State District; and then each will present her ideas for the Junior Project to be undertaken for next year, 1939-1940. These three finalists are Miss Josephine R. Bruno, of the Junior League of the Women's Italian Club of Boston; Miss Betty Worthen, of the Malden Old and New Junior Club; and Miss Gunvor Henriksen, of the Milton Junior Women's Club.

At noon, the Juniors will enjoy a box luncheon, and coffee and ice cream will be served by the Hostess Club. The Junior delegates will ballot for the candidate to win the Scholarship, this contest being in charge of Mrs. George T. Hart, Jr., as chairman; and Mrs. Harold M. Scheibe is treasurer.

The afternoon program will be entertaining, as the three plays staged by Juniors ranking highest in the Drama Contest will be presented. The winner of this contest, also, will be chosen by popular vote of the delegates. Miss Mary T. Pierce, secretary of the department, is Drama Contest

The proceeds of this annual affair are used mainly to provide free Y. M. C. A. memberships and periods at the summer camp Frank A. Day in Brookfield, Mass. for boys who might otherwise be unable to attend. Tickets are available from the committee members or by calling the Newton Y. M. C. A.

Various Interesting Events

Waban Woman's Club

"Bringing the Garden Up-to-Date" will be the subject on Monday afternoon, April 3, at the Neighborhood Club, for the program of the Waban Woman's Club. Mrs. Randall and Mrs. Greenough will plant before their audience two garden pictures, one in spring and one in summer, using artificial plants that conform in minutest detail to the living originals. This unique way of giving information should be a delightful presentation.

Mrs. George B. Norton, of the Art committee, will exhibit her Water-Color Paintings of Flower Arrangements, an appropriate addition to the day's program.

Mrs. David Hill will be tea hostess.

American Home Group to Have Guest Night

The American Home Group of the Auburndale Woman's Club will bring their monthly programs to an end for the season on Monday evening, April 3, at 8 o'clock, at Bragdon Chapel, Lasell Junior College.
For this occasion, the chairman, Mrs. William Edson, and her committee, will present Judge Emma Fall Schofield, whose topic will be "The Fine Art of Living." The program will include also special music.

A social hour with refreshments will follow.

This is the only time during the year that this committee charges admission for the members of the Club, and it is hoped that the small price of the tickets will insure a good audience. These may be had from the chairman, Mrs. Edson, from Mrs. Brooks Heath, Mrs. Lysecom Bruce, Jr., Mrs. Kirby Ducayet, Jr., Mrs. Paul Emerson, Mrs. Robert Holmes, Mrs. Charles Lytle, Mrs. Ruth Ryan, Mrs. William Ryan, Mrs. Ray Simpson, Mrs. George Wilson, and from Mrs. Cedric Valentine.

Newton Zonta Club

The Newton Zonta Club will meet on Monday, April 3, at the Newton Hospital. Dinner will be at 6:30 p. m. The program will be a talk by Miss Mildred Tucker, on the subject "The Treasures of the Widener Library."

On the evening of March 20, the members of the Zonta Club of Waltham were the guests of the Newton Zonta Club at the home of Miss Olivia Cate, on Watertown st., West Newton. The Pianoforte Recital given by Miss Cate, a pupil of Matthay, of London, consisted of composition by masters of the classical and romantic schools, Bach, Schumann, Brahms, and Chopin. Refreshments were served by Miss Doris Lovell, president, and Miss Marion Fuller, corresponding secretary, of the Newton Zonta Club.

Tea and Art Exhibit

A Tea at the home of the chairman of the Art committee of the Auburndale Woman's Club, Mrs. William M. Flye, 33 Hancock st., will bring to a close the activities of that committee for this Club Year, on Tuesday afternoon, April 4, from 3 to 5 o'clock.
All members of the Club are invited to attend, and guests will be welcome. The committee has arranged to have an Exhibit of Pastel and Crayon Portraits; also a collection of Miniatures on Ivory, by modern artists.
Assisting Mrs. Flye will be Mrs. Bruce Gardiner, Mrs. George Armstrong, Mrs. Ralph Balch, Mrs. Frank Bartlett, Mrs. Frederick Briscoe, Mrs. George Johnson, Mrs. Irving Kelley, Mrs. Eric Kermath, and Mrs. Lawrence Mead, Jr.

Newtonville Woman's Club

Alice Dixon Bond, who will address the Newtonville Woman's Club, Tuesday, April 4, on the "Great and Near Great of the Season's Books," needs no introduction to the Club as she is a former member and many times has been speaker before their meetings. She has gained a reputation for vivacity, humor, and excellent analyses of current literature which make her talks looked forward to by audiences and they are remembered with pleasure. Before Mrs. Bond's address there will be a dessert-coffee in Social Hall from 1:30 to 2:15 p. m.

Auburndale Review Club

The Auburndale Review Club will hold its last regular meeting of the year, on Tuesday, April 4, at the home of Mrs. Mervyn J. Bailey, 27 Central ter. The subject for the morning will be "Education," Mrs. Arthur J. Furish will review the book, "New Horizons for the Child," by Cobb; Mrs. M. W. Winslow will tell of "Junior College" and "Vocational Guidance," and Mrs. Grace Fiske will tell of "Adult Education."

West Newton Women's Educational Club

The Hobby Class of the West Newton Women's Educational Club will meet with Mrs. Maxwell P. Gaddis, 24 Elliot ave., on Tuesday, April 4, at 2 p. m.
The American Home Class will meet on Wednesday, April 5, at the home of Mrs. David C. Gordon, 35 Lindberg ave. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p. m. Mrs. Gilbert R. Jones is chairman, assisted by Mrs. June Chipman and Mrs. Raymond O. Littlefield.

Edith Marshall Clark, novelty instrumentalist, accompanied at the piano by Helen Doane, gave a unique and refreshing musical program of colorful interpretations of operatic and concert selections on the xylophone, Swiss Hand Bells, and French Lyre, at the regular meeting of the West Newton Women's Educational Club on Friday, March 24, at the Unitarian Church. Miss Doane gave, also, several excellent monologues which delighted the audience.

Mrs. J. Arthur Snyder, Music chairman of the State Federation, was a guest, and spoke with enthusiasm in regard to the real need of music in our daily lives.

Mrs. Maxwell P. Gaddis, Moving Picture chairman, gave a report of the Moving Picture Conference held recently in Boston, and urged parents to be more careful in regard to the pictures they allowed their children to see.

A Reception for the New Members of the Club was held previous to the coffee hour, with Mrs. Francis H. McCrudden, president, heading the receiving line. Pourers at the coffee table were Mrs. Ernest F. Robinson and Mrs. Percival Waters. Mrs. E. M. Martines was hostess, assisted by the Hospitality committee.

Art Opportunities and Exhibit

On April 4, at 2:30 p. m., in the Workshop the Art committee of the Newton Highlands Woman's Club will present C. Edward Newell, president of the Massachusetts School of Art and State Supervisor of Art Education. Mr. Newell will speak about the School, its history, activities, and opportunities for the young people of the State.

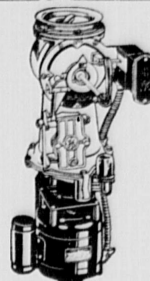

He will demonstrate art principles used in flower arrangements, also.

There will be a representative Exhibition of Art Work by students of the School.

Tea will be served.

Newton Centre Woman's Club

"Diplomacy, Intrigue and Propaganda" will be the subject of the talk by Mr. Howard K. Davis at the International Relations Dinner Monday evening, April 3, at 6:45 o'clock, at the Newton Centre Woman's Club. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs.

The General Electric Disposall is an electrical appliance which disposes of fresh food waste before it becomes garbage.

What Happens to the Garbage When a Disposall Is Used?

Food wastes are shredded into small particles and forced into the sewage system under pressure.

Will The Disposall Take All Kinds of Garbage?

Yes, every kind of food waste from parings to bones.

Will The Disposall Cause Odors?

Since the "garbage" is really fresh, but unwanted food, it is disposed of immediately and there is nothing to cause odors.

Will the Drain Pipes Clog?

The action of the shredded and pulped food waste actually scours the interior of the Disposall unit and the drain lines.

Can The Disposall Be Put Into Any Kind of Sink?

The Disposall can be installed in all G-E Electric Sinks and in practically any kind of existing sink.

Can The Disposall Be Installed Outside of the Sink? Yes, the Disposall is available as a free-standing unit with its own small stainless steel sink.

Where Can I See A Disposall?

At our display room, 1189 Centre St., Newton Centre.

How Can You Prove That The Disposall Will Dispose of Food Wastes so Easily?

Our representative will gladly bring the Disposall to your home and demonstrate it in your own kitchen.

How Do I Arrange for a Demonstration?

Alden H. Speare, 69 Pelham st., Centre Newton 1897.
Mrs. Alice Dixon Bond will review "Books of the Spring." Thursday morning, April 6, at 10:15. Tickets may be secured from the Literature committee at the door, priced at 60 cents each.

Social Science Club

The Social Science Club will meet Wednesday, April 5, in Channing Church, at 10 a. m. Following the business meeting, Mr. Vernon W. Marr, Assistant Counsel for the Boston Legal Aid Society, will speak on the work of this Society. Hostesses will be Miss Florence L. Heard and Mrs. Arthur W. Blakemore.

Newton W. C. T. U.

The Newton W. C. T. U. will hold its April meeting at the home of Mrs. William H. Raye, 90 Lake ave., Newton Centre, on Thursday, April 6, at 2:30 o'clock. The public is invited to hear Mrs. May L. Burns speak on the million-dollar Frances E. Willard Educational Fund, toward which the Newton Union has now only fifty dollars to raise to complete its quota. Another speaker will be Mrs. Maude H. Simmons, President of the Middlesex County W. C. T. U.
Mrs. Raye will be assisted by Mrs. John L. Hennessy in serving tea.

Newton Hospital Aid Association

Cards have been sent out to the workers of the Hospital Aid Benefit Shop, for a Bundle Party, to be held from 2:30 to 5:30 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, April 6, at the home of Mrs. F. A. Day, Jr., 170 Sargent st., Newton.

A bundle containing some article other than clothing, and marked with the donor's name, will be the admission required.

A committee composed of Mrs. Francis Williams, Mrs. D. Brewer Eddy, Mrs. Ralph Conant, and Mrs. Lewis Gardner will have charge of the bundles, which will be opened and placed on sale that afternoon.

The hostess, Mrs. Day, will be assisted in the social hour by the group of workers from Newton.

Auburndale Woman's Club Business and Professional Group

The Business and Professional Group of the Auburndale Woman's Club brought their program meetings of this year to a close on last Tuesday evening, March 21, when they enjoyed an evening of "Poetry."

The Rev. Herbert Hitchens, a local pastor, was the guest of the Club. Mr. Hitchens' love for poetry had led to his friendship with the poets whom he quoted in his address, and consequently he could tell many personal incidents concerning them, as well.

His first selections were from the writings of Basil Lindsay, an American, whose style he described as colorful yet wholesome, typified by the "Santa Fe Trail."

A Canadian, Wilson McDonald, was his second choice, and this poet's widely-diversified style was illustrated by "The Song of the Ski," a tale of the wide-open spaces; "Convocation," which showed the author's sense of satire; "I Done Quit Stealing," a very humorous ditty; and his spiritual poem "Immanence."

James Stevens, from the Emerald Isle, was the last one from whose writings Dr. Hitchens quoted. As an author he has contributed two works which the speaker recommended, "Crock of Gold," and "The Charwoman's Daughter."

Dr. Hitchens closed by quoting George Bernard Shaw who had said "An Educator does not provide a meal, but provokes an appetite for one."

By reading these selections from several poets, he hoped to provoke a desire in his audience to read further, and he was most successful in that effort.

A social hour in charge of the chairman, Miss Alice Gilpatrick, was enjoyed, during which refreshments were served.
Mrs. James Dunlop and Mrs. Austin Fisher, president and vice-president of the Senior Club, were guests, as well as the two directors, Mrs. Theodore Dearborn and Mrs. Ernest F. Drew.

"Last Supper" Mural On Display at Upper Falls April 4

An interesting exhibition and lecture is to be given Tuesday evening of Holy Week April 4th at St. Mary's Hall, Chestnut st., Newton Upper Falls.

A pastel painting of Leonardo Da Vinci's Last Supper which is considered one of the most famous paintings in the world will be exhibited. The entire picture is 20 ft. x 11 ft. Each figure is life size.

The artist is David A. Morey of 1014 Boylston st., Newton Highlands. He has made this picture as a preparatory study from which he is going to paint in oils a reconstruction of the famous Last Supper, actual size which is 30 x 16 ft.

Mr. Morey in his lecture interprets the words each Apostle is uttering at this most tragic moment in the history of mankind. Peter's mouth can distinctly be seen to be saying who—Matthew, Thaddeus and Simon are in argument. James the lesser whispers in Andrew's ear. Da Vinci was a master of portraying the psychological reactions of the different temperaments, and brings in on small rectangle the heads of cold, calculating Judas, hot, violent Peter and the calm, beloved John. It is Mr. Morey's purpose to lecture and exhibit this picture for any worthy charitable purpose preferably for those who can not see, the unfortunate blind.

Would Abolish Playground Jobs

At a meeting of the Playground Commission last Saturday afternoon, George Kellar, who was selected as chairman of the sub-committee on program and personnel, advocated the abolition of a few supervisory positions, one of which is now vacant, and the assuming of the work formerly done by the supervisors by a full-time superintendent of playgrounds, in the expectation that such an official may be appointed. Kellar's suggestion came while cuts made by the Finance Committee of the Aldermen in the 1939 Playground Department budget were being discussed. Kellar argued that the taxpayers should get the benefit of the savings the abolishing of these positions will bring.

A petition for additional tennis courts at the Weeks School playground was refused because of lack of funds. It was voted to assign an instructor one night each week at the Newton Highlands Boys' Club in the Hyde School. A petition for the establishment of a community center in the old Eliot School building on Pearl st. was refused because such a center is already in operation at the Stearns School nearby, and it is proposed to have a new center at the new school building at Pearl st. and Jackson rd. also a short distance away. The Playground Commission favors the establishment of a community center in the old Franklin School building on River st. West Newton and instructed Supt. Hermann to estimate the cost of conducting such a center.

Arrested Twice In Two Days

John Badaracco, Jr., 29, of 1 Roland st., Newton Highlands, was arrested on Tuesday at Newton Centre by Inspector Hammell for having gambling slips in his possession and for promoting a lonesday. Badaracco was fined $50 by Judge Murray and he asked for time in which to pay the fine. He was given until April 5. A few hours later, about 1 p. m., Wednesday, Badaracco was again arrested at Newton Centre business section by Patrolman McCormick for having gambling slips in his possession. McCormick also arrested William Alexander of Brookline on the same charge. Both were arraigned in the Newton court on Thursday and their cases were continued until April 5.

WALNUT PARK COUNTRY DAY SCHOOL

The boys of the Walnut Park Country Day School for Boys presented as their annual play the time-old favorite Hans Brinker or The Silver Skates, on Sunday afternoon, March 26, in the school auditorium. Joseph O'Connell portrayed the part of Hans; Thomas Green, Gretel; John Drumme, the poor old father; Joseph Carroll, the difficult part of mother; and John Callahan, the famous Dutch doctor. Lee Emerson, John Leonard, Frank Good, Raymond McCarthy, James Fandel, Morgan Mahoney, Jack Butler, John MacLean, Carmen Petrillo and Albert Tierney completed the cast.

The play was directed by Mrs. Elizabeth Averill O'Brien who has coached the plays for many years.

allotted under Chapter 90 is distributed upon a basis by which the state contributes half and the county and city or town one quarter each. Much of the opposition offered came from those towns who benefit under these two chapters of the law because of the fact that their valuation is relatively low in comparison with the larger communities whose share of highway funds would be increased by a distribution upon a valuation basis.

Alderman McKay, replying to speakers from towns who had objected to the planned distribution of the $10,000,000 on the basis of valuation, because such a plan would give cities two-thirds of the amount, said that the cities pay two-thirds of the State tax. He said that in Newton there are about 25,000 automobiles, and that if each car in this city consumed even as little as one gallon of gasoline per day, Newton automobile owners would pay $250,000 in gasoline taxes in a year, whereas the city would receive about $240,000 in accordance with the planned diversion of the gasoline tax revenue. Answering the arguments that Newton is a wealthy city, McKay called attention to the fact that up to March 20th of this year 20 per cent of the 1938 taxes had not been paid to the city, and that conditions are worse in some of the other cities.

Representative Staves of Southbridge asserted that the proposed distribution of the tax will principally aid rich communities like Brookline and Newton. Representative Baker replied that he was sick and tired of listening to accusations that he had drawn up the plan for the purpose of aiding his own city and the town of Brookline. He said he did not want to hear more such criticisms, and he told the critics that if they studied his proposal, they would realize that it will not benefit Brookline and Newton any more than it will help the small towns. Representative Staves still insisted that the smaller towns will get less in proportion.

C. Nelson Pratt, former Representative from Saugus, and present Essex County Commissioner, asserted that a certain group dominated the distribution and expenditures of the money from the gasoline tax. Pratt argued that rich towns and cities such as Brookline and Newton do not need the help which the money distributed from the gasoline tax gives, but that this aid should go to little communities such as Essex County has.

Middlesex Court Memorial Service

Middlesex Court, M. C. O. F., held its annual roll call and memorial service on Tuesday night at Elks' Hall, Newton. Chief Ranger Miss Mary Mulligan paid tribute to deceased members and the memorial address was delivered by Thomas C. O'Brien of Brighton, former district attorney. The drill team of Leo Court of East Boston performed the ritualistic work. Vocal solos were given by Mrs. Harold Murray, Patrick Lally and D. Walter Kearns. Edward Hanlon was pianist. Rev. John Sheridan of Our Lady's Church was one of the speakers. The meeting was in charge of Miss Eleanor Mulcahy, P.C.R.

S. Leo Hughes, whose death a week ago brought sorrow to his hundreds of friends, rendered valuable service of a long period of years to the children and youth of the city as Director of Boys' Activities in the Playground Department, life-guard and supervisor at the Crystal Lake bathing beach, and director of the skating places in Newton. Leo Hughes was courageous and modest. Although he made dozens of rescues at Crystal Lake, he never bragged about these deeds. He was not the type to aggrandize himself or publicize his work in order to advance his personal or selfish ambitions. As a side-light on Leo Hughes' character was his attitude toward the young man who hit him with a hockey stick at Pittsburgh during a game in 1925. When young Hughes returned to Newton after having had his left eye removed at a Pittsburgh hospital, a friend said to him, "You must have suffered a lot, Leo." His reply was, "Not nearly so much as the fellow who unintentionally caused the loss of my eye." A lasting friendship developed between Leo and the former Pittsburgh hockey-player who was involved in the accident, and they visited each other whenever either was in the vicinity of Boston or Pittsburgh. When Mr. Hughes was in Pittsburgh last October at the convention of the recreational activities association, he visited this friend for the last time, although Leo did not then realize that his end was approaching.

Fined $35 For Drunken Driving

Oliver Alsbaugh, 40, of Union ave., Framingham, was fined $35 by Judge Mayberry in the Newton court on Thursday for driving a car while under the influence of liquor. On the evening of March 14 Newton police received a radio message to be on the lookout for a car that had hit another automobile in Natick, and had not stopped. A little later Serg. Sullivan, Patrolman McKenna and Rogers, observed a car travelling along the turnpike with one side damaged. They pursued it and arrested Alsbaugh. His defence was that he had received a brain concussion in the accident and was not drunk.

Campaign Against Illegal Parking At Newton Centre

On April 5 a public meeting will be held in the clubhouse of the Woman's Club at Newton Centre under the auspices of the Newton Centre Improvement Association to discuss the traffic problem in that village, largely caused by parking conditions. The matter of a public parking area and changes in traffic regulations affecting the Newton Centre business district will be considered. The meeting will be addressed by Maxwell P. Gaddis, chairman of the traffic committee of the Newton Board of Aldermen; Rupert Thompson, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce; Chief Hughes and others.

On Tuesday Chief Hughes ordered Sergeant Meahan to start a drive against motorists who have been ignoring the parking restrictions at Newton Centre. The day patrolmen at Newton Centre have since been busy affixing tags to automobiles which have been parked overtime or in prohibited areas.

Leo Hughes, Boys' Supervisor, Dies

he nearly suffered the loss of the other eye. He continued his interest in the game and for years officiated as a referee.

In 1921 Mr. Hughes became associated with the Newton Playground Department and had since been one of its outstanding employees. For many years he had been supervisor of Boys' Activities. High tributes to the service he gave have been expressed by Ralph C. Henry, chairman of the Newton Playground Commission, and Ernest Hermann, Superintendent of Playgrounds. Mr. Henry told the Finance Committee of the Newton Board of Aldermen that Mr. Hughes, as supervisor at Crystal Lake for many years, had by his tact and judgment, exercised excellent influence on the boys and girls who patronized the bathing beach there, and had been responsible for rescuing 40 bathers from drowning. Mr. Hermann says that the death of Leo Hughes is a great personal loss to him. He said that his late assistant was extremely loyal and faithful in the performance of his duties, and that Mr. Hughes was unusually efficient, not only in supervising his many aids at the several skating places in this city, which he had directed for many years, but in handling the large crowds that have enjoyed the skating at Bullough's Pond, Crystal Lake and the Charles River. His attention to detail and devotion to his work, prevented many accidents, and kept excellent order.

Mr. Hughes is survived by his widow, the former Kathleen Kelly of Chestnut Hill, who he married in October, 1927; an infant son, Stephen Leo Hughes, Jr.; his parents; a brother, T. Joseph Hughes of Columbus, Ohio; and two sisters, Mrs. John J. Toohy of Rye, New York, and Miss Rose Hughes of Newton. His funeral service was held on Tuesday morning at Our Lady's Church, Newton. Military honors were accorded by the Newton Post, American Legion, of which the deceased was a member. A delegation was present from Newton Council, Knights of Columbus. Interment was in Holyhood Cemetery, Brookline.

FREDERICK MCBRIDE

Frederick P. McBride of 297 Lexington st., Auburndale died on March 28. He was born in West Newton 19 years ago and served in France with the 35th Field Artillery. He was a member of Dary Post, V. F. W. of this city. Mr. McBride is survived by his widow, Mrs. Alice Wood McBride; two daughters, Alice and Margaret McBride; a sister, Mrs. Florence Horan of Cambridge; and four brothers, John, William, Thomas and Arthur McBride. His funeral service was held on Friday morning at Corpus Christi Church and burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham.

A few years ago a destitute man drifted into Lima, Ohio, accompanied by a little mongrel dog. They sought shelter in a deserted, run-down building. For over a month the man and dog made this their home. Then one day the man died.

Humane Society officials took the dog and within a few days he was adopted by a family that was moving to a small town about 100 miles away. Three weeks later the Humane Society received a call that a dog was making his home in the same vacant building. The dog was back. Somehow the animal had managed to negotiate the 100 miles and return in search of his former owner. Once again he was taken and placed with another family.

It wasn't long before he was back at the unoccupied building. Four times he has been adopted by different families and each time he has returned to what was the last home of his master. A few weeks ago he was taken by a family that lived many hundreds of miles away, but almost any day now the Humane Society officials expect a call, notifying them that the dog is back again, in his vain search for the one and only master his canine brain recognizes.

Many people find it hard to teach a young puppy to lead. Don't expect to put a collar on a pup for the first time, snap a leash to the collar and have him behave as you desire. It is all new to the dog and he can't quite understand what is expected of him, hence he pulls and tugs, shakes his head, or more often just sits down and refuses to move. The best way to accustom a dog to a lead is as follows. First, put a collar or a harness on the animal and leave it on a week so that he will become accustomed to its feeling. Then, tie him up for a short time. Release him after snapping the leash to his collar. You will find that he will gladly follow you away from the place to which he was tied. Two or three lessons following the above procedure, coupled with bits of meat given as a reward, will work wonders in teaching a dog proper manners on a leash.

Evidence of canine thinking is certainly disclosed by the following note. Arthur Jackson, a farmer living in Connecticut, drove his two-horse team to town accompanied by his pet collie, Jack. While waiting in front of a store the horses were frightened by a passing automobile and started a mad runaway down the street. Two or three men attempted to stop the horses but were unsuccessful. Jack quickly sized up the situation and leaping off the moving wagon he ran along side of the horses until he was able to grasp the dangling reins in his mouth. He pulled so hard on the reins that he managed to turn the horses toward a fence where they came to a dead stop.

The capacity of a dog's stomach, because of the great differences in size of different breeds, varies greatly. The minimum of the very small breeds is about one pint while the maximum of the larger breeds is around six quarts.

I noticed an item in the paper the other day which stated that there is a rabies wave every 12 or 13 years and that 1939 will be the time for the next wave. The statement is credited to a public health official of one of the larger states.

There is absolutely no truth in the theory that rabies epidemics come in cycles, and it is almost unbelievable that a public official would make such an announcement.

Dog owners need take no further precautions this year than they have the last few years. I would like, however, to take this opportunity to go on record as heartily endorsing the preventive inoculations against rabies available for dogs.

Your dog's teeth are undoubtedly valuable to him but if you should move to one of the many small islands in the Southern Pacific your dog's teeth might become very valuable to you. On many of these islands primitive natives use dogs' teeth as money.

Question: How many ribs does a dog have?—A. R. N.

Answer: A dog possesses 13 pairs of ribs. Nine are sternal and attached to the sternum, four are asternal. A dog's last pair of ribs are usually floating, that is, unattached at the sternal extremities.

Question: I have been advised to give my dog charcoal. How and in what form should I give this ingredient to my dog?—K. L.

Answer: Charcoal should be given to dogs not in powdered form, but in small chunks. Many dog food concerns make small charcoal pellets, that can be mixed with the dog's food.

Unless you have been around long enough to see the changes as they have taken place, you will find it hard to believe that photo above shows Waverley square, Belmont, as it appeared fifty years ago. Less changed by time is the view of Newton Corner, at left above. Note the Helmets on the policemen and the women's clothes. More recent is the picture at left of Wellesley square taken about 1906. The sidewalks are lined by eager spectators waiting for the Marathon runners to trot by. The fresh-air auto in the foreground makes an excellent grandstand, as does the open trolley car.

RESULTS OF MARCH BLIZZARD

One of the worst blizzards that has ever hit this locality in March deposited fifteen inches of snow with varying results. Among the unfortunate results was the burial of many automobiles, typical of which is the car below being inspected on Beacon street, Brookline, by Officer Dennis G. Mahoney. Despite the unpleasant aspects of the storm, there were many people who took advantage of the pleasures that this unlooked for snow provided. Snow sculpture became quite popular, especially with Antonio Marini shown above with the bust of Abraham Lincoln that he molded on Adams street, Nonantum. "Crinoline Girl," the clever snow statue at left, was executed by Ruth and Marjorie Greene of Harris avenue, Needham.

CLEVER PEOPLE are the Italians when it comes to thinking up games that can be readily played without first obtaining a lot of special equipment. These Newton lads, shown below, find the game of Morra an excellent medium for choosing up sides for the American game of Baseball. Morra requires nothing more than a handful of fingers and a quick wit, but it certainly serves the purpose.

SPECIAL ATTENTION was given this package containing a copy of "Old Wedgwood," recently printed by the Wedgwood Club of which Mrs. Charles P. Gore, Jr. of Wellesley is Secretary.

APRIL FOOL This excellent night shot of the Newton War Memorial and its reflection in the pool in front of it has one fault—there is no pool. This double-printed photo was made by Percy Frost.

Cut the Budget! . . . that's been the cry across the State

Since the BIGGEST BUDGET in Massachusetts' history was sent to the Legislature two months ago

NOW! Here's Your Chance!

A public hearing for those who demand economy and want the budget cut will be held by the Legislative Ways and Means Committee

April 4 - 10.30 A. M., at Boston in Mechanics Hall

If You Want Economy— If you want the Budget cut—
If you want less spending of your money—
YOU'LL BE THERE TO PROTEST IN PERSON!

If You Want Results, You've Got to Get into This Battle!

These Are the Plain Facts:

- The state's Budget this year calls for the largest disbursement ever proposed in any budget submitted to the Massachusetts Legislature — $95,000,000.
- This spending program will produce the biggest state deficit in Massachusetts' history — $28,250,000.
- The proposal is to meet part of this deficit by new taxes. The balance would be levied on real estate in cities and towns in the largest state tax Massachusetts has ever known — $20,750,000.

There's just one answer:

THE STATE BUDGET MUST BE CUT! The Budget WILL Be Cut When Enough of You Taxpayers Join the Battle!

WHY WE OBJECT TO THE BUDGET

Because the budget is 50% higher than appropriations 10 years ago.

	1929	1939
General Fund Budget	$41,859,665	$60,282,047	45% Inc.
Highway Fund Budget	14,117,823	23,718,243	68% Inc.
Total State Appropriations	$55,977,488	$84,000,290	50% Inc.
Proposed bond issue	None	3,700,000
Proposed distribution of gas tax funds	None	7,400,000
		$95,100,290

But that's not the whole picture!

	1929	1939
State deficit	$8,500,000	$28,250,000	232% Inc.
State debt	11,181,794	54,432,633	387% Inc.

That record state tax comes directly out of you!

Each city and town raises its share of that record state tax by adding the burden to the already high real estate tax rate. That means that before cities and towns even opened their books for business this year, their tax rate was from $3 to $5 higher than last year.

Yet that's only a start!

Now add in the increase which welfare relief costs are bringing to cities and towns and you begin to have the answer why some municipalities this year face a tax rate increase of from $6 to $10 and even $12 over last year. Is it any wonder that across the state taxpayers are rebelling against increased expenditures?

And see what's been happening to total governmental costs:

Cost of State, County, City, Town	1929	1938
Government	$340,000,000	$430,000,000	26% Inc.
Welfare Relief Costs	$14,000,000	$55,000,000	293% Inc.
Total Tax Levy on Property	$181,000,000	$233,000,000	29% Inc.
Average City and Town Tax Rate	$28.80	$36.94	28% Inc.

While costs have soared, the ability to pay has fallen sharply:

	1929	1939
Population of state	4,228,000	4,360,000	3% Inc.
Per Capita Cost—
State, County, City, Town
Government	$80.40	$98.60	23% Inc.
In 1938 employment in the building trades was	65% under 1929.
In 1938 employment in mills and factories was	26% under 1929.
In 1938 employment in stores and shops was	23% under 1929.
Capital invested in manufacturing in Massachusetts has fallen from 3 billions in 1920 to 1.8 billions today.

HOW LONG CAN THIS GO ON?

WHAT HAVE HIGH TAXES DONE?

Wage earner, farmer, home owner and business man all have felt the burden of mounting taxes.

Because tax rates have approached the point of confiscation of property, established industries have left Massachusetts, new industries have been kept out, buildings have been torn down, and construction has been stifled.

Property Values are being Destroyed by Taxation

Since 1932 the assessed value of property in Massachusetts has fallen nearly one billion dollars.

That loss in valuations accounts for nearly half the eight-year increase in real estate tax rates.

Cities and towns have seized and held for non-payment of taxes property valued at $800,000,000 — nearly 13 per cent of all taxable property in the state.

Savings and Cooperative banks hold property valued at $200,000,000 — and on that pay taxes of $7,000,000 a year.

How Much More Can You Stand?

Despite the bitter story of curtailed industry, lost jobs, lost homes, higher and ever higher taxes, the state government proposes to spend even more this year and next year.

But You Don't Have to Stand for It!

This Budget Can be Cut!

Some appropriations should be eliminated entirely . . . others drastically reduced.

At the April 4 hearing the Taxpayers Federation will present specific recommendations for economy. Waste, extravagance and frills must be eliminated.

WHAT YOU CAN DO:

- Carry your protests to the Legislature. Attend the budget hearing April 4 to show that you mean business in your demand for lower expenditures.
- Tell your friends and neighbors and get them to come with you.

You've Got To Do More Than Grumble. You've Got to Act!

Attend the budget hearing: Mechanics Hall, April 4 at 10:30 a. m.
